THE RIGHT HONORABLE THOMAS, BARON O'HAGAN:

My LORD,

It is of my "Sunny Memories" that on my visits to Towneley Hall, I had the privilege and advantage of spending most pleasant hours with your Lordship and Lady O'Hagan in chats over the days of old, with the Towneley MSS. for chief text (as we Parsons say).

I wish now, in issuing the Spending of the Money of Robert Nowell from the Towneley MSS., to express publicly—as already privately—my sense of obligation to the Towneley Family generally, and to your Lordship specially, for the unreserved confiding of this and another valuable MS. to my prolonged keeping, in order that they might be prepared leisurely, and in strict integrity of reproduction of I flatter myself that both the the originals. "Spending" and the "English Jacobite Ballads, &c.," will bear the most rigid and exacting scrutiny and comparison with the MSS.; whilst the annotation will be found — I hope — to add weightily to the materials for (more particularly) the Familyhistory and Biography of England - all the more that I have reversed the Latin sarcasm—"E se finxit velut araneus"—by seeking help from fellow-workers; among whom, foremost of all, must be named my companion-visitor to Towneley Hall, Mr. W. A. Abram of Blackburn.

For the favour itself of permission to print, for the first time, these MSS., and for the whole manner and circumstance of granting it, I shall ever cherish heart-felt gratitude. I may be permitted to indulge the expectation that my two volumes will lead to other Selections from the priceless Towneley MSS. being similarly prepared. It seems a pity that so much literary treasure should be unknown or unused.

"Contigimus portum, quo mihi cursus erat"; and so, with renewed thanks and highest regard,

I am.

My Lord,
Your Lordship's very faithfully,
ALEXANDER B. GROSART.

PREFACE.

T is with no common satisfaction that I place in the hands of the Friends who responded to my proposals thus to print it from the Towneley MSS., -the "Spending of the Money of Robert Nowell." The task of reproducing so difficultly decipherable a Manuscript, and still more of adequately annotating such a multitude of names, has proved very much more arduous than was originally thought of. the result of painstaking throughout, will, I feel sure, receive recognition from all who know the toil in such lines of research. Important and interesting as the MS. at once shewed itself to be, the progress of the reproduction has revealed manifold Facts and jets of historic-biographic light previously unsus-The most casual dipper into these pages can scarcely fail to come on such proofs of the absolute pricelessness of this MS. as a contribution to Literary and Family Biography - as in my Introduction noticed in detail. The full and minute Index has been very carefully wrought on.

Agreeably to my announcement, the Manuscript is given literatim et punctatim, page for page, while on the opposite side (as a rule*) will be found Notes and Illustrations of the text. The Student may rely on the fidelity of the text to the original.

It only remains here, that I return sincere thanks to my fellow-labourers in these fields. I name first, Mr. WILLIAM A. ABRAM of Blackburn, who will speedily give proof to the world in his History of Blackburn Parish, of a fulness of antiquarian knowledge, and a fine enthusiasm of inquiry that should have won an approving nod from William Camden, and warble of delicious talk from Thomas Fuller. It is impossible to over-state my good friend's sustained and everdeepening willinghood to work with me throughout. His local knowledge of Lancashire has enriched very many pages that else must have been left nearly Every page in MS. and proof-sheet has passed under his eyes as well as my own, and no page came to myself, as no proof-sheet went back to the Printers, without the benefit of his practised outlook and insight. Having kindred tastes in various directions, it has been a mutual pleasure to supplement each other's gatherings. I should need ardentia verba fully to express my indebtedness and gratitude to Mr. Abram, albeit I have an idea that he won't altogether approve of even this much - for he is one of those genuine workers to whom the work itself is its own reward, and noise about it nothing.

^{*} Where the page of text over-flowed a page, it is continued on the next; and so with Notes and Illustrations — but all marked.

To Colonel CHESTER of Bermondsey, London, as on many other occasions; to Professor Mayor of Cambridge, in like manner; to Dr. BLOXAM of Upper Beeding: to the Rev. W. E. Buckley, M.A., Middleton Cheney, Banbury; to the Rev. J. C. Robinson, M.A., Norton Canon, Weobley; the Rev. Canon RAINES, M.A., of Rochdale: the Very Rev. the Dean and the LIBRARIAN of St. Paul's; to several of the Officials of the two Universities (Oxford and Cambridge), and of the Merchant Taylors' Company, and of various famous Schools, e.g., St. Paul's, Westminster, &c.; the Introduction, and Notes and Illustrations owe a good deal. Trusting that The Spending of the Money of Robert Nowell will be accepted as another fulfilment of ancient Hesiod's words in this later day of bringing out from national and family MSS. Illustrations of bye-gone days, I close therewith —

INTRODUCTION.

IN the "Fourth Report" of the "Royal Commission on Historical Manuscripts" (pp. 406-8) the Commissioner to Towneley Hall, R. B. KNOWLES, Esq., gives a full and luminous account of the Manuscripts there examined by him. It will be the lasting honour of this Commissioner that as he was the first to study so he was the first to discover the value of the MS. that I have called

The Spending of the Money of Robert Powell.

A mere perfunctory Calendarer would have missed the aye-enduring name of EDMUND SPENSER—to name no other—as it occurs in the MS. To Mr. Knowles belongs the praise that he not only noticed the immortal name, but discerned the bearing (in part at least) of the various entries concerning the "Poet of Poets." To most, these Spenser entries are the eyes of the Manuscript or unmetaphorically what give the main value to it. Hence it is only due to Mr. Knowles to reprint here his account in extenso thus:—

THE MANUSCRIPTS OF COLONEL TOWNELEY, AT TOWNELEY HALL, BURNLEY.

In his History of Whalley, Dr. Whitaker speaks of the collection of transcripts at Towneley Hall as a monument of industry and research which deserved for their compiler, Christopher Towneley, the title of "indefatigable transcriber." A cursory glance at the volumes which owe their existence to his laborious zeal will show how well he merited that distinction.* To his own store of evidences he added transcripts of others borrowed from friends and correspondents, together with extracts from the public records and the chartularies of religious houses, frequently adding marginal notes which prove an intimate acquaintance with the family pedigrees of Lancashire, Yorkshire, and other counties over which his investigations ranged. Writing, as Dr. Whitaker observes, seems to have been the business of his life, and though it is to be lamented "that he did not intersperse a little anecdote and reflections with the drudgery of transcribing," it is also true that those who have followed in the same "walk are infinitely indebted to him." For the purposes of the county historian, Christopher Towneley's transcripts abound in valuable materials.

Colonel Towneley's collection, however, contains, in addition to the transcripts made or collected by Christopher Towneley, many original manuscripts, and I may take this opportunity of calling particular attention to one which contributes a valuable addition to the life of the author of the Faerie Queene.

All that has hitherto been certainly known of Edmund Spenser before he went to Cambridge is, that he was born in London,† A.D. 1552, or in the year following, that his mother's Christian name was Elizabeth, and that he was related to the house of Sir John Spenser, of Althorp. Of the school in which he received the elements of education no trace has been hitherto found, and it is singular that, of a poet whose writings were the delight of his contemporaries, a fact which would have redounded so much to the honour of any seminary that could claim him, should have passed into oblivion. Mr. Todd* has nothing more to observe than that Spenser's school "has not been recorded." Mr. Payne Collier ventures the suggestion+ that Spenser was possibly educated at Kingsbury, "in the county in which Shakespere was born," but he has no better foundation for this conjecture than the circumstance that an "Edmund Spenser" is mentioned in the Muster Book of the Hundred of Kingsbury, as one of its inhabitants in 1569, who "may have been the poet's father." Mr. Chalmers dismisses the question of Spenser's schooldays as a matter of no great consequence, because "at that time much knowledge was not to be obtained in any lesser seminaries previous to academical studies." When he wrote thus, Mr. Chalmers did not consider the possibility that Spenser might have been educated in some seminary which has survived to the present day, and which would be justly proud if it could show that the stock of learning, whatever it might have been, which the poet took with him to the University was acquired in its class rooms. My inspection of Colonel Towneley's manuscripts enables me to name the grammar school which is entitled to this distinction, and I share by anticipation the pleasure of the Governors and Scholars of MERCHANT TAYLORS when they learn that to the roll of eminent men whom their school has sent into the world there is now to be added the most famous of all-EDMUND SPENSER.

^{*} Christopher Towneley, younger son of Richard Towneley, sen., Esq., was born at Towneley, Jan. 9th, 1603. He married Alice, daughter of John Braddyll, of Portfield, Esq., and widow of Richard Towneley, of Carr, Esq. He was buried at Burnley, Aug. 1674.

[†] In East Smithfield, by the Tower, according to Oldys manuscript additions to Winstanley's Lives of the most famous English Poets, copied by Isaac Reed, Esq.

It may be as well that I should here give my proofs in support of this statement. They are contained in a paper folio in a vellum wrapper, more particularly described further on (page 411), in which are set down the disbursements for various purposes of the executors of Robert Nowell, of

Gray's Inn, who died in 1569. At folio 25 there is an entry of "Gownes geven to certeyn poor scholler[s] of the scholls aboute London, in number 32, viz.; St. Paul's, Merchant Taylors, St. Anthony's Schole, St. Saviour's grammer Schole, and Westminster Schole. Cost of cloth with making, xix^{ll} x^s vij^d." First on the list of scholars of Merchant Taylors who received these gifts stands—

"EDMUNDE SPENSER."

Spenser's designation as a "poor scholler" accords with what has been presumed as to the circumstances of his parents from his entering Pembroke Hall as a sizar, and the date of the gift of a "blacke goune" corresponds with the age at which the poet, whether his birth is assigned to the year 1553 or to a year earlier, would have repaired to the University. But, presumptive as this evidence is, the manuscript fortunately contains proof which places it beyond the possibility of doubt, that the "Edmunde Spenser" of Merchant Taylors was the Edmund Spenser who entered Pembroke Hall on the 20th May 1569. At folio 71, under the heading "Geven to poor schollers of dyvers gramare scholles," there is this entry:—

"To Edmond Spensore, scholler of the Mrchante Tayler schollers at his gowinge to Pembrocke Hall, in Chambridge, xs."

This entry is dated the 28th of April 1569, three weeks before Spenser entered Pembroke Hall, and it is followed by two others, which show the poet still in the position of a "poor scholler,"—

- I. "7 Novembris 1570.—To Richard Langher and Edmond Spenser, towe poore schollers of Pembrock haule, vjs a peace, in the whole xijs, by the hands of Mr. Thomas New, felow of the same howse." (Folio 75.)
- 2. "To Edmonde Spensere the xxiiijth of Aprill, Ao 1571, ijs vjd."* (Folio 72.)
- * A comparison with our text will show that Mr. Knowles is not strictly accurate in his readings of the entries supra, and so onward.

I thought it possible that in the records of Merchant Taylors I might find some additional evidence of Spenser's connection with their school, and by the permission of Mr. F. G. Faithfull, the Clerk of the Company, to whom I take this opportunity of acknowledging the obligations under which his courtesy has laid me, I have had facilities for searching them from their commencement up to the date when Spenser went to Cambridge. The records had already been examined by Dr. H. B. Wilson when he was compiling his History of Merchant Taylors' School, and if Spenser's name had been in any of the lists of boys admitted gratuitously or at a reduced fee, to which classes the lists, so far as I have examined them, are confined, it was most unlikely that so accurate an investigator could have missed it. I was therefore not surprised when after a careful search I failed to find the name of Edmund Spenser, though I found three other Spensers to whom I shall presently allude. But its absence does not in the slightest degree affect the authority of Colonel Towneley's manuscript. The records are not coextensive with the history of the school. They commence on the 1st of July 1562, when the school had been some time opened, and within a few weeks of the first episcopal visitation by Dr. Grindall, Bishop of London. The statutes of the school were framed and Dr. Mulcaster was appointed Head Master, on the 24th of September in the previous year, and Dr. Wilson states that scholars began to flock to it immediately afterwards. There is thus a period of nine months of which there is no record, and as Spenser was between nine and ten years old during that period, he had then arrived at an age when he could commence his school career. It is to be observed that his name stands first in the list of poor scholars to whom the "black gownes" were given, and it is a fair inference that he was their senior, and that he was one of the earliest of Dr. Mulcaster's pupils.

How Spenser came to be connected with Merchant Taylors is a question upon which I hoped that the records of the Company might give some hint, precious however slight. Three Spensers are mentioned during the years over which my search extended. There are entries (pp. 230, 233, 302) concerning Robert Spenser, gentleman, of Lincoln's Inn. He was not a member of the company, but had pecuniary relations with it. The name of Nicholas Spenser occurs repeatedly (pages 3, 28, 30, 40, 42, 45, 85, 105, 141, 180, 211, 217, 229, 245, 250, 311, 340, 349) in entries which show that he was a "welthy and able" member of the company, who was elected. 12 July 1568, to the office of "Warden." At page 250, there is the name of John Spenser. It occurs in a list in which are recorded "what nombre of bretheren of this mystrye at this daye (Oct. 21, 1566) do use and occupy the arte or mysterie of clothworkynge and howe many howseholders there be of them, and where and in what parishe every of them do dwell and inhabyte, and wch of them do rowe and shere brode clothes and also wch of them do shere only karseis and cottenynge." But John Spenser's name is not mentioned as one of the "bretheren," but as a "free jorneyman" in the employment of Nicholas Pele, shereman, of Bow Lane.

Putting Robert Spenser aside, there are thus two adult Spensers who were connected with Merchant Taylors while Edmund was in its school:-Nicholas, the "welthy and able" brother; and John, the "free jorneyman." Was Edmund a poor relation of Nicholas Spenser, and was it Nicholas who for that reason, or for his name's sake, procured his free admission into the school? This is a mere conjecture, not improbable. But was John Spenser the father of the poet? This, again, is a conjecture. Edmund's position as a poor scholar is in striking harmony with the supposition that his father was a journeyman clothworker-a "free jorneyman" of the company in whose school his son was receiving gratuitous education. The supposition acquires weight from the inference that the Masters and Wardens of Merchant Taylors, in their selection of free scholars, would give a preference to the poor members of their own mystery, and by the fact that they did.*

One word more before I leave this interesting subject. That Spenser entered Pembroke Hall on the 20th of May 1569 is all that has been hitherto ascertained of his early life. It is now beyond dispute that he acquired the rudiments of learning at Merchant Taylors, from which he passed to Cambridge. But who sent him to Pembroke Hall? There is some reason to believe that it was Dr. Watts, Archdeacon of Middlesex. Eight years before Spenser went to Cambridge the Master and Wardens of Merchant Taylors were requested by the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London to found a scholarship at one of the universities. After considering this request they came to the conclusion that, looking to the expenses the brotherhood had incurred, partly in founding their school, they could not charge their corporate funds with any further They agreed, however, that a scholarship should be founded at the cost of the individual members of their body, according as each might be disposed to contribute, but on the condition that the scholar should undertake to "study and be student in divinity." It was not, therefore, by the Master and Wardens that Spenser was sent to Cambridge. But amongst the "learned men" who accompanied Dr. Grindall on his first visitations of Merchant Taylors' School, was Archdeacon Watts, of whom Dr. Wilson in his History of the School (page 30) says that he "had founded scholarships at Pembroke Hall in Cambridge with a general preference to youths educated at schools in the metropolis," and that "several of his first scholars were such as had attracted his notice at the episcopal visitation[s] already mentioned." I submit it as probable that Edmund

Spenser was one of the boys who attracted the Archdeacon's notice, and I may here mention the fact, upon which other conjectures may be made, that at his first three visitations of Merchant Taylors' School (1562, 1564, and 1565) Dr. Grindall was accompanied, amongst other learned men, by Alexander Nowell, Dean of St. Paul's, and brother of Robert Nowell, by whose bequests Edmund Spenser profited.

SUPPLEMENTARY NOTE TO COLONEL TOWNELEY'S MANUSCRIPTS.

Since writing my report I have gone through the whole of Colonel Towneley's Spenser Manuscript, and I have found reason to doubt the conjecture that John Spenser, the "free jorneyman" of Merchant Taylors, was the father of Edmund Spenser. That conjecture is subject to the drawback that John Spenser, afterwards President of Corpus Christi College, Oxford, and of whose birth nothing seems to be known, except that he was "a Suffolk man born,"* was at Merchant Taylors' at the same time as Edmund. His Christian name would give him a stronger claim to be the son of the "free jorneyman" than the poet's. But in putting in abeyance a theory which I had entertained with no little pleasure, I can now substitute for it another which has the advantage of making an approach to certainty, and of disclosing, if it is sound. a fact in Spenser's life hardly less interesting than the discovery of his Grammar School.

In a list of gifts made, July 1569, to the poor of several Lancashire parishes, the name of "Spenser" occurs frequently. Under the heading "Habargham Eves, Ightnell Parke, and Fillye Close," there are these items (fo. 136):—

"Ux^r Robte. Spensore iij yeards wollen.

Phillipe Spencere one yeard one q^{tr} wollen.

^{*} Wood's Athenæ, by Bliss, vol. ii. col. 145. [He was the son of John Spenser, gent. See our Note, p. 195, onward. A. B. G.]

Ales Spencere - one yeard di wollen.
Robte. Spencere - ij yeards linen."

At folio 137, under the same heading:—

"Jenet Spensore - ij yeards di wollen."

And at folio 139:-

"Ales Spensere - ii yeards di linen.

John Spensore - ij yeards linen."

There is here one Edmund Spenser from whom the poet might have taken his name. But at folios 132-3, under the heading "Bronnley" (Burnley), there are three entries, two of which are very remarkable:—

"Edmunde Spenser - iij yeards wollen. Isabell Spenser - iij yeards wollen. Agnes Spensore - iij yeards wollen."

The date of these entries is "the vijth of Julii Aº 1569," shortly after the poet went to Cambridge.

"Isabel" and "Elizabeth" are substantially the same name. In Moréri's Dictionnaire Historique they are repeatedly used synonymously, and at all events their identity is sufficient to have justified Spenser in linking his mother, supposing that her name was Isabel, with his wife and the Queen in the sonnet* in which he praises the "most happy letters" that compose that "happy name,"

"The which three times thrise happy hath me made, With guifts of body, fortune, and of mind. The first my being to me gave by kind. From Mother's womb deriv'd by dew descent; The second is my sovereigne queene, most kind, That honour and large richesse to me lent; The third, my Love, my lives last ornament."

Were the Edmunde and Isabel Spenser of Burnley the poet's father and mother? Apart from the coincidence of their Christian names, the supposition that they were derives an air of probability from the fact that, after leaving Cambridge, he is believed to have gone to reside with his relations in the North of England. If his parents, for one of whom at least he cherished a tender affection, were alive, they were most likely the relatives with whom he took up his abode on quitting the university.* Spenser would therefore have passed some portion of the interval between his leaving Cambridge and his coming to London at Burnley; and, if so, it is a happy circumstance that from the venerable hall, at whose gates Burnley lies, a manuscript should come into the hands of the Commission to reveal, after the lapse of three centuries, facts so interesting in his life as the later residence of his parents, his father's Christian name, and the grammar school in which he was taught the elements of learning.

I cannot close my notice of Colonel Towneley's Spenser Manuscript without mentioning that it contains thirty-nine pages filled with gifts of money to scholars at Oxford and Cambridge, made directly or through the hands of professors, amongst whom are the names of Dr. Haddon President of Magdalen College, Oxford; Dr. Humphrey, Professor of Divinity at Oxford; Dr. Whitaker, Professor of Divinity at Trinity College, Cambridge; Dr. Whitgift, and Dr. Longworth. Amongst those who received gifts are Richard Hooker, author of The Ecclesiastical Polity; Thomas Bilson, Bishop of Winchester; Launcelot Andrewes, Bishop of Winchester, and with whom Spenser has been said, though incorrectly, to have competed for a fellowship in Pembroke Hall; John Spenser, of Pembroke Hall, Cambridge; John Spenser, of Magdalen College, Oxford; and Richard Hakluyt, the naval historian.

At folio 82 Hooker receives a gift of twenty shillings,

^{*} In a list of gifts made by Robert Nowell's executors to "his poor kynsfolkes in Lancashire," I find (folio 117) two yards and a half of linen, and two pence, given to "Lyttis Nowell, wiffe to Lawrance Spensere, of Castell parishe," and two yards of wollen to "her sonne Elis Spensere." The Nowells, an old Lancashire family, had therefore one family tie with the Spensers, and probably took more than a mere charitable interest in them.

and further on, folio 85, there are the following entries in his favour:—

"To Richard Hooker of Corpus Christie Colledge the xijth of Februarye Anno

These and other notices connected with men of eminence during the reign of Queen Elizabeth show how much value attaches to this manuscript, and how great a favour Colonel Towneley has conferred on English history and literature by submitting it to the Historical Manuscripts Commission.

R. B. KNOWLES.

Elsewhere, namely, in the new edition of the complete works of Edmund Spenser, in the preparation of which I have the honour to associate with myself a goodly number of pre-eminent scholars and students of Elizabethan literature, I shall utilize these and other Spenser entries obtained in many places, e.g., Burnley, Whalley, West-Suffice to add that in their places minster, &c., &c. to which the Index will guide-various elucidations of Spenser names are furnished. But while the MS. would have been of inestimable value had there been no more than the Spenser entries, these are by no means all the names that arrest attention in it. The Student will turn to the Index for himself; but, perhaps, it will not be deemed supererogatory to briefly notice certain additional names of permanent interest :--

- (a) EDWARD KIRKE. See page 188 (bottom paging) and relative note. I point out "Kirke" not as in himself comparable with others to be specified, but from his association with Spenser. That he was the "E. K." of the original notes to "The Shepheard's Calendar" (1579) there seems no question; but that it is still necessary to maintain his personality, and that the "Notes" were his and not Spenser's own, is absurdly enough proved by a very recent "Note" in Notes and Queries, wherein among other preposterous theories "E. K." is gravely held to represent Spenser himself as E[dmund] the K[alendarer]! (Notes and Queries, vol. vi, Fifth Series, Nov. 4th, 1876.)* The entry in our MS. brings Edward Kirke before us as Spenser's contemporary at the University.
- (b) RICHARD HOOKER. See pages 220, 224, 226, and relative notes.) Two things may here be noted: (1)

^{*} I add here as a modern "Curiosity of Literature" a short quotation:—
"The gloss or explanatory commentary is subscribed 'E. K.,' intended, not improbably, for the poet himself, the initials signifying Edmund the Kalendarer." The rest is equally ridiculous. The writer's signature is " β ".

That the entry on page 220 is in the well-known autograph of Dean Alexander Nowell; (2) That the Scribe mis-spells the name egregiously more than once. The Biographers of "the judicious Hooker" have not apparently been aware of his early poverty and straits. To me, for one, these entries are infinitely pathetic. In the fac-similes (in our large paper only) I have placed Dean Nowell's corrective entry beside those relating to Spenser and Bishop Andrewes.

- (c) LAUNCELOT ANDREWES. See pages 78 and 184 (bottom paging) and relative notes. As with Hooker it is of profound interest to come on these early dates concerning one so venerable as this still potential Bishop. Our notes suggest relationships that seem to have escaped his Biographers.
- (d) WILLIAM WHITAKER. See pages 192, 258 (bottom paging) and relative notes. This illustrious scholar, who was born at Holme, in the parish of Burnley, Lancashire, in 1547, was related to our Nowell—his mother having been sister of him and of Deans Alexander and Lawrence Nowell, viz., Elizabeth Nowell, who married Thomas Whitaker in 1530, and survived her marriage no fewer than 76 years. The many Biographical notices and his place in history (ecclesiastical) renders it unnecessary to enter here on the incidents of his remarkable career. In our Notes some data are submitted on the relationship and inter-relationship of the different Whitakers of our MS.
- (e) RICHARD HACKLUYT. See pages 30, 226, and relative notes.
- (f) Bishop JOHN STILL. See page 188 and relative note.
- (g) Bishop THOMAS BILSON. See page 198 (bottom paging) and relative note.
- (h) HAMMONDS of Whalley in Lancashire, family of Dr. Henry Hammond the commentator, page 78, and relative note page 81.

- (i) RICHARD LANGHER. See page 95 (bottom paging).
- (j) Dr. PETER BARO. See pages 62 and 64, and relative note.
- (k) Anthony Coranus. See pages 62, 64, 100, 104, 106, 230, and note, page 231.
- (1) RODOLPHE LE CHEVALIER. See page 100, and relative note.
- (m) JEANE COUSIN, the French preacher. See page 104, and relative note.
- (n) RICHARD MULCASTER, Master of Merchant Taylors' School. See pages 110, 166, and note, page 111.
- (0) Dr. PERCIVAL WYBURNE, the eminent Puritan-Non-conformist. See page 114, and relative note.
- (p) NICHOLAS CRANE, the Puritan. See page 118, and relative note.
- (q) JOHN FIELD, the Puritan. See page 124, and relative note.
- (r) AUGUSTINE BERNHER the Swiss, editor of Latimer's Sermons. See page 154, and relative note.
- (s) GILES FLETCHER, Pater. See page 178, and relative note.
- (t) THOMAS LEVER, the celebrated Puritan preacher. See page 188, and relative note.
- (u) Bishop MYLES SMITH. See pages 212 and 236, and relative notes.
- (v) Bishop HENRY PARRY. See page 248, and relative
- (w) Bishop John Wolton. See page 266, and relative note.
- (x) THOMAS CHURCHYARD, the Poet. See page 276, and relative note.
- (y) ALEXANDER NOWELL, Dean of St. Paul's. See Index s.n. CHURTON has told fairly well the story of this great and good Worthy of the olden time. I place him last in these selected names, because it is my privilege to give here a very minute and matterful genealogical account of the Nowells down to the beginning of the seventeenth century, corrective of and supplementary to all prior ones, not excepting the carefully-amended pedigree in the new edition of Dr. Whitaker's Whalley (2 vols, 4to). To Mr. Abram (as before) the Reader is indebted for this substantial contribution to Lancashire family-history.

Nowell of Great Mearley and Read in the County of Lancaster.

ADAM NOELL or NOWELL (conjectured from the name to have descended from a Norman follower of William the Conqueror) married in the 13th century the daughter and heir of Stephen de Merlay, and thus brought to the Nowells the manorial estate of Merlay Magna (now Great Mearley), situate on the eastern border of Lancashire, in Ribblesdale, about two miles from Clitheroe. By the heiress of Merlay, Adam Noell had two sons, Roger and Simon. "Simone de Noell and Roger his brother" appear as witnesses to a deed temp. Edward I.

ROGER NOELL, lord of Merlay Magna, succeeding Adam his father, like him married an heiress, viz., Elizabeth, third daughter of Richard Fytton, lord of Harwood Magna manor, in Blackburn Parish. She and her sisters, Maud and Amabil, were co-heirs of their brother William Fytton, who died without issue; and after this marriage the Nowells held about five centuries the third part of Great Harwood manor. At the great De Lascy Inquisition in 1311, it was found that Roger Noell held two carucates of land in Great Merlay by the service of the fourth part of a knight's fee and a rent of 20d. Roger Noell occurs as a juror in 1326. He had a son Adam.

ADAM NOWELL, of Great Mearley, Esq., occurs as a witness to a charter of Whalley Abbey in 1327. King Edward III. in the 12th of his reign (1338), granted to Adam Nowell, for the good service he had expended in the war in Scotland, that he and his heirs for ever might have a market weekly on Thursday at their manor of Nether-A deed in Norman-French, ton, in Magna Harewode. dated 12 Edward II., found among the Hesketh evidences, relates to a contest that had taken place between John de Hesketh and Adam Nowell, concerning certain tenements in Great Harwood which after the death of William Fytton were divided amongst his three sisters. A Royal warrant, dated 13 Edward III. (1339), found among the Towneley MSS., sets forth the descent of Great Merlay estate from Adam, heir of Stephen de Merlay, through Roger, Adam's son and heir, to Adam Noell, "that now is" (1339) as son and heir of Roger; and another deed in the Lansdowne MSS. names Richard as son and heir of this Adam Nowell in 1359.

"RICHARD NOELL, Esq., son of Adam," (so described) appears as a witness to deeds in Whalley Abbey Coucher in 1340 and in 1356. By his wife Johanna he had a son Lawrence.

LAWRENCE NOWELL, Esq., exchanged, about the year 1368, the manor and chase of Magna Merlay with Sir Richard de Greenacres, for a moiety of the manor of Read. This was the first settlement of the Nowells at Read, which remained their home rather more than four centuries afterwards. Lawrence Nowell was living in 10 Richard II. (1386). By Katherine his wife, who is party to a deed dated 1368, he had sons, John, Nicholas, and Gilbert, all three named in a deed of settlement dated 18 Richard II. (1394.)

JOHN NOWELL, Esq., lord of Read, held the estates about forty-five years. By Margaret his wife he had sons, Nicholas, Arthur, and Otwell. In 1389, John Nowell made formal acknowledgment, at the Chapel of Harwood Magna, that he held his estate in Harwood on the condition of homage to Thomas Hesketh, Esq., as chief lord of that manor. John Nowell died the 23rd May, 1433. Langton* has printed the Inquisition after his death, taken at Wigan, the 30th May, 1433. The jurors attested that "Johannes Nowell de Reved" was seized of the manor of Reved (Read), with 30 messuages, 400 acres of land, 100 acres of meadow, 300 acres of woodland, and 200 acres of turbary, in the vills of Magna Harewode and Chirche; that by a deed dated at Read, 18 Richard II. (1304), John, son of Lawrence Nowell of Reved, had settled the estates in trust to James de Langeton rector of Wigan Church, and John Pilkington, rector of Bury Church; and by another deed dated 3 Henry IV. (1402), these trustees had re-enfeoffed John Nowell in the estate for life, with remainder to his son Nicholas and his heirs male, and afterwards John Nowell enfeoffed William Aburgham, vicar of Croston Church, and Richard Todde, chaplain, of all his lands in Magna Harewode and Chirche and the manor of Reved. Read manor was found to be held by John Nowell of the King as of his duchy of Lancaster, by thanage and the service of 9s. 9d. yearly, being worth yearly 100s.; and the lands in Magna Harewode and Chirche were held of the King by knight service and the payment of 10d. yearly, being worth yearly beyond reprises 100s. The writ of diem clausit extremum after the death of John Nowell de Reved is dated 24th May, 11 Henry VI. (1433.)

NICHOLAS NOWELL, son and heir of John, had died in his father's lifetime, but had left a son, Alexander Nowell, who was found next heir to his grandfather in 1433, and then aged 20 years. The two younger brothers of Nicholas Nowell, Arthur and Otwell, described as sons of John Nowell, of Rede, were living in 1434, when they gave fines for a writ of the Chancery Court of the Duchy of Lancaster.

During the minority of ALEXANDER NOWELL, son of

Nicholas, and heir to his grandsire in 1433, the estates were committed by the Crown to the custody of Hugh Hesketh and Richard Towneley, Esqrs. The 17th March, 12 Henry VI. (1434) a writ was issued de atate probandà of "Alexander Nowell, son and heir of Nicholas son of John Nowell;" on the 1st October, in the same year, the precept was addressed to the escheator to deliver to Alexander, son and heir of Nicholas son of John Nowell, seisin of his father's lands, he having proved his age; and presently after Alexander Nowell gave fine to the Duchy Court for respite of homage. He married Isabella, daughter of Roger Banastre, and had a son and heir Roger, and (among probably other children) a daughter Isabel, wife of Geoffrey Winckley of Winckley. The date of Alexander Nowell's death is not recorded, but he was living in 1467.

ROGER NOWELL, Esq., lord of Read, son of Alexander, had to his first wife Margaret, daughter of Thomas Hesketh, Esq., from whom he was divorced in 3 Edward His second wife was Grace, daughter of IV. (1463). John Towneley, Esq. (marriage settlement dated 7th March, 1468). Roger Nowell, among his possessions, had an estate at Arkesay, near Wakefield, in the county of York, and there he sometime resided. He founded a Chantry in the Church of All Saints, Wakefield, in the year 1480. He died in 1486. Grace Nowell, his wife, survived him, and was living, a widow, in 1487. His children named in the last-published pedigree of the Nowells are, one son, John, and six daughters; but a note by Thomas Talbot the antiquary, found in the Cotton MSS., proves that he had not fewer than seven sons and seven daughters. The record is to the effect that in a window of Whalley Church was an inscription : "Grate pro animabus Rogeri Dowel armiger et Gratiae uxoris ejus et pro bono statu Johannis Bowel primogeniti Rogeri, cum fratribus et sororibus suis, qui istam fenestram fieri fecerunt anno Domíní 1510." The describer of the memorial window adds: "He hath 7 sones kneling by him, and she hath 7 doghters by her, wherof two wer maried." The evidence of the Manuscript printed hereafter supports this record that Roger Nowell had several younger sons; for, although the names of such sons are not supplied explicitly, the number of cousins and kinsfolk of Dean Nowell and Robert Nowell, bearing the name of Nowell, who appear in the MS., require that the Dean and his brother should have had uncles who had children living in 1568-1580. In one case (see page 261, note 5) it has been proved that Thomas Nowell of Runcton and his brother and sisters were first cousins of Dean Nowell; and there are other entries of Nowells, described as "cousins," who could not have been nephews or nieces. Besides the heir, John Nowell, Roger Nowell had probably sons—Andrew, father of John and Charles (see page 259); Robert (named in the Visitation of 1567); and Roger. The rest of the seven cannot be named. Of his seven daughters, six are mentioned: Maud, wife of Edward Radcliffe of Mearley: Grace, wife of John Hoghton of Pendleton; Anne, wife of Ralph Rishton of Ponthalgh; Jane, wife of William Fleming of Fleming Hall; Elizabeth, wife of Robert Challoner; and Eleanor (she died in 1549), wife of John Hopwood, Esq.

JOHN NOWELL of Read, Esq., son of Roger, married, first, in 1486, Dowse, daughter of Robert Hesketh of Rufford, Esq., and by her had a son and heir, Roger. His second wife, whom he married before 1505, was Elizabeth, daughter of (Robert) Kay of Rochdale, gent.; and by her he had issue: sons—John; Alexander (Dean of St. Paul's); Lawrence (Dean of Lichfield); Robert (of Gray's Inn); Christopher; and Nicholas, steward to the Earl of Shrewsbury; and the following daughters—Beatrice, wife of Thomas Hammond of Whalley, gent.; Alice, wife of Henry Whitaker of High Whitaker, gent.; Maud, wife of William Deane of Tunworth in Billington, gent.; Margery, wife of Thomas Aughton, gent.; Elizabeth, wife of Thomas Whitaker of Holme, gent.; Jane (perhaps she was the daughter who was wife of Hamlet Ashton, gent.; see page 89, note 4); Margaret, married, in 1530, Thomas Rycroft; Grace, wife of Richard Neve of London, fishmonger (see pp. 55, and 264-5); and Isabella, wife of John Wolton of Whalley, yeoman, and mother of John Wolton, Bishop of Exeter. I have enumerated fifteen children of John Nowell by his second wife, and am not sure that the category is exhausted. John Nowell, Esq., died on the 4th (or 5th) of June, 1525. The Ing. post mort. was taken at Lancaster, the 24th August, 1525, when it was found that John Nowell, Esq., of Reyde, had died seized of the manors of Reyde and Magna Harwood, with messuages and lands in those townships and in Chirche. Nowell was found to be his son and heir, who had a son and heir apparent named Thomas, then an infant. Other sons named in the escheat are, John, Alexander, Lawrence, Robert, and Christopher. (John and Christopher are omitted in all the pedigrees hitherto.) Daughters Isabel and Margaret are named; and the wife of John Nowell, Elizabeth Nowell, is also named. John Nowell's Will is cited, dated 3rd June, 1525.

ELIZABETH NOWELL, widow of John, married, secondly, within the first year of her widowhood, Charles Towneley of Towneley, Esq. (a dispensation for the marriage, on account of consanguinity of the parties, is dated 20th December, 1525). To Charles Towneley she bore a son John, who is the John Towneley named in the MS. as an executor of the Will of Robert Nowell, Esq.

ROGER NOWELL of Read, Esq., son of John, by his first wife, Elizabeth, daughter of Nicholas Rishton, gent., had no issue, and was divorced from her in 1524. He then married Grace, daughter of Sir Richard Sherburne of Stonyhurst, knt., and had issue: sons—Thomas, born about 1525; and Roger; and daughters—Alice; Anne, married, 15th Sept.,

1561, Richard Houlden of Chageley, gent.; and Grace. Roger Nowell died in 1566. By Inq. post mort. taken at Preston, 14th January, 1566-7, it was found that Roger Nowell of Reade, Esq., had died on the 2nd September, 1566, seized of Reade Manor, the third part of Magna Harwoode Manor, with messuages, lands, woodlands, rents, &c., there and in Churche and Dynkeley. Thomas Nowell, Esq., was found to be his son and heir, then aged 40 (41) years and upwards. Roger Nowell's younger son, Roger Nowell, is named in the record as then living at Preston.

THOMAS NOWELL, Esq., Roger's eldest son, married, first, Benedicta, daughter of Richard Towneley, Esq., and by her had issue, two daughters, Grace, born about 1545, who married Thomas Procter, gent.; and Elizabeth, living in By his second wife, Alice (? Willotte), whom he married before 1565, he had a son John, baptized at Whalley Church, 8th February, 1571, who died in infancy. Thomas Nowell is named several times in the MS. (inter alia see p. 70, and relative note p. 71). Thomas Nowell, Esq., died in August, 1575; and the Inquisition taken at Whalley, the 14th January, 1575-6, returns that Grace, wife of Thomas Procter, gent., was found to be his daughter and heir, then aged 30 years and upwards. Alice Nowell, his widow, received money from Dean Nowell in February, 1575-6. (See p. 266.) She died in Manchester, in 1590, and was buried at the Collegiate Church; the burial register contains the entry: 1590. Jan. 14. "Alyce Wydowe to Thomas Nowell of Read, Esq., buried." (Her kinsfolk doubtless dwelt at Manchester.)

ROGER NOWELL, brother of Thomas, now succeeded to the entailed estates in default of issue male to Thomas Nowell. He married Florence, daughter of Reginald Atkinson, gent., and widow of Lawrence Starkie, Esq. The marriage took place on the 25th January, 1551-2. He had issue, sons, John, and Roger; and a daughter Alice, wife of William Shuttleworth, gent., of Asterley in Whalley.

Roger Nowell's eldest son, John Nowell, gent., married, at Whalley Church, 26th September, 1575, Letitia, daughter of Edward Braddyll, Esq., but had no issue; he died in the lifetime of his father, in 1583, and was buried at Whalley, the 23rd July in that year; his wife, Letitia Nowell, survived him. This Roger Nowell died the 18th May, 1591; and the Inq. post mort., taken at Whalley the 15th July, 1591, shows that he had held the manor of Read by the gift and concession of his brother, Thomas Nowell, Esq., deceased; and that Roger Nowell was his surviving son and heir, aged 29 years and upwards. His wife, Florence Nowell, survived him, and was made sole executrix of his Will. "Florentia Nowell, ux. Rogeri," was buried at Whalley Church, "18 die Decembris, 1593."

ROGER NOWELL, Esq., lord of Read, son of the above Roger, married Katherine, daughter of John Morton, Esq. The marriage is thus entered in the Whalley Church register: - "Rogerus Nowell, gen. et Katherina Marton, o Maii, 1581; his testibus Will'mus Herris Clericus, Joh'es Nowell, gen., Joh'es Crombocke, Willm. Shuttleworth. Joh'es Marton, Joh'es Lawe, Joh'es Cunclyffe, Ric'us Sudell, Laurentius Standworth, Joh'es Dugdall, Lucas Whittingham, Thomas Haliday." The issue of this marriage were, sons, Roger, baptized 8th August, 1582; John, baptized 26th March, 1589, married Mary Procter; Alexander, born in 1591, died in May, 1595; a second Alexander. born in 1595; and Robert, born in 1596; daughters, Maria, baptized 21st May, 1586 (married, first, Richard Fleetwood of Calwich, Esq.; secondly, Ralph Hopton of Armley); Florence, baptized 27th March, 1587 (married Nicholas Scarborough, Esq.); Isabella, baptized 18th February, 1592 (married, first, John Byrom of Byrom, Esq.; secondly, John Bretherton of Hey, gent.); Anne, born in 1598, married John Sharpe, gent.; and Catherine, born in 1600. Nowell's wife, Katherine Nowell, died at Whalley, the 20th January, 1620-1. He died in 1623. The Inquisition for the escheat, taken at Preston, 8th April, 1624, returns that Roger Nowell of Reade, Esq., had died at Whalley, the 30th January, 1623-4, seized of Reade manor, and Harwood Magna manor, with messuages and demesne lands in these places, and other lands in Church, Symonston, Dinckley, and Whalley in Lancashire; and of East Bradford manor, with lands in Wakefield, Loftus, Wentbridge, Thorpe Audhill, Darrington, and Oscropp, in the county of York. His sons, Roger, John, and Robert, were then living.

ROGER NOWELL, gent., eldest son of Roger, had died at Whalley (vitæ patris), the 12th November, 1623; he had been twice married, first, to Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas Fleetwood of Calwich, Esq., by whom he had sons, Roger, Thomas, Adam, and Richard; and daughters, Katherine, Fleetwood, Elizabeth, Anne, Mary, and Frances; and secondly, to Katherine Hulton, widow (married at Whalley, 30th October, 1618), sister of Hamnet Hyde of Norbury, in the county of Chester, Esq., by whom he had sons, George, Ralph, and Henry, and a daughter Penelope. All these children of Roger Nowell were living at Whalley at the date of the Inquisition on the elder Roger's death. Roger Nowell, son of Roger the younger, was found heir to his grandfather, and was eighteen years old on the 13th of March, 1623-4.

Beyond this point I need not pursue the genealogy of the Nowells, having nothing to add to the full record of the later generations in the pedigree inserted in the new edition of Whitaker's History of Whalley, vol. ii, p. 41. I close with concise biographic notices of the three brothers chiefly connected with this MS., viz., Robert Nowell, Esq., Dean Alexander Nowell, and Dean Lawrence Nowell.

ROBERT NOWELL (the posthumous expenditure of whose fortune in charities is recorded in the MS. now printed) was a younger son of John Nowell of Read, Esq., by his second wife Elizabeth (Kay). His birth must have been about 1517-1520, but the date is not fixed. With his brother Alexander and others of his brethren he was educated at the Grammar School of Middleton, and from that school proceeded to Brasenose College in Oxford. • He was still a child when his father died, in 1525; and in the inquisition after John Nowell's death Robert is named After leaving the university, Robert among his sons. Nowell adopted the profession of a lawyer, and was entered of Gray's Inn; but nothing is on record concerning him from this time until, in the 1st Elizabeth (1558), he was employed as counsel for the patentees of certain lands, parcel of the estates of the Bishop of Winchester. would then be about forty years old. By patent dated 8th February, 1560-1, Robert Nowell, counsellor of Gray's Inn, was appointed the Queen's Attorney of the Court of Wards, for his life. The same year he was elected Lent Reader of Gray's Inn. After this his appointments were numerous and lucrative, and it is likely that he had amassed the handsome competency, indicated by the many thousands of pounds left at his death for distribution, chiefly during the last ten years of his life (1558-1568). Churton (Life of Dean Nowell, pp. 137-8) enumerates these important offices fulfilled by Robert Nowell:—By patent dated 8th February, 1563, he was appointed guardian of Charles Waldegrave, with an allowance of 40l. a year out of the estates of his late father. Sir Edward Waldegrave, knt., in Somersetshire, and had a lease from the crown of lands in Cardiganshire, part of the estates of the late Duke of Richmond. He was, in 1565, made a member of a special commission to audit accounts and correct abuses in the Queen's household. He was steward to the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's. and of them held the reversionary grant of the rectory and great tithes of Tottenham. In 1567 he was made guardian of one Frances Green. Robert Nowell had two places of residence—his chambers at Gray's Inn, in London, and a country house on his estate at Hendon, in Middlesex. His household included five men-servants and several womenservants, named in the MS., and in his Will as legatees. He enjoyed the influential friendship of Mr. Secretary Cecil, afterwards Lord Burghley. Among his special friends are also named Robert Barton, gent., of Gray's Inn. Mr. Kitchine of Gray's Inn, and Mr. Milles. In 1563. when the plague was raging in the City of London, Robert Nowell, providing against the risk of sudden death, made his Will, which is dated the 16th August, 1563. was drafted by himself. He lived more than five years after making this Will, which we now print in extenso for the first time. It is assumed that Robert Nowell did not marry, from the fact that neither wife nor child is named in the Will; yet it is possible he had a wife who predeceased him some years, leaving no issue. Robert Nowell, Esq., died in his chamber at Gray's Inn, on the 6th of February, 1568-9. The same day a codicil was added to the Will of 1563, which is printed along with the Will. Dean Nowell has left a graphic statement of his brother's charge to him. a few hours before his departure, respecting the bestowal of his money upon certain charities, in two letters to Lord Burghley, written nearly thirty years after, in 1505-6. The Dean writes:- "My brother Robert, late Attorney of her Ma'ties Courte of Wardes, about vi houres before he dyed. said unto me: 'Forget not Myddelton schole, and the college of Brasen-nose, wher we were brought upp in our youth; and yf you wolde procure any thynge to continue, with my money, yow shall doe it beste and moste surely in the Quenes Ma'ties name, whose poore officer I have bene.' . . . And for that my saide brother, not longe before hys death, delyuerynge me hys key of the cheste, where hys other keyes were, and hys rynge also, prayed me not to deceyve hym, but that the poore should have all hys goods, hys debts, legacies and funeralls beyng fyrste discharged. Now that he maide yr good L[ord] overseer, I think I am occasioned hereby summarily to showe how the reste of hys goods were bestowed." In the other letter we read: - "My brother Roberte sometime Attorney in the Court of Wardes . . . specially charged me upon his death bed to procure the foundation of Myddleton Schole in the County of Lancaster, where we and other or brethren were taught in or childhoode, and the said schole to be annexed unto Brasenose College in Oxf'd where we were poor students, in the time of our youthe." How well and faithfully Dean Nowell discharged the obligation so solemnly laid upon him by his expiring brother, this Manuscript remains amply to testify, which we are privileged to give to the world in printed form after the lapse of three centuries. The Dean made his brother a very stately funeral; he was buried in the old cathedral of St. Paul's, "in the place called sancta sanctor"; and over the grave was placed an alabaster stone with an inscription (see p. 40). The MS. gives copious items of the funeral arrangements; the preparation of the church for the occasion; the eleven petty canons and six vicars in attendance; the fees of the herald for the armorial insignia; the varied provision of viands for the funeral dinner; payments for 240 black gowns for as many poor men; for other gowns for poor women, and for scholars of the public schools in London; better gowns for persons of wealth; gifts to preachers of the funeral sermons; and many other interesting matters connected with the obsequies of Robert Nowell and the execution of his Will, under the direction of Dean Nowell, the acting executor.

Concerning Alexander Nowell, Dean of St. Paul's, there is no necessity to repeat the biographical particulars printed in various previous books, and amplified in Churton's well-known and carefully-composed "Life." I present merely the dates of the salient events of his lengthened and distinguished career; with some information as to his first marriage which has not before been printed. Alexander Nowell was born at Read, about A.D. 1507. He was the second son of the second marriage of his father John Nowell, Esq., who died when he was about 18 years old. He was sent to Middleton School, some twenty miles from Read. He proceeded thence to Oxford, and was entered at Brasenose College; staved in College 13 years; took B.A. 20th May, 1536; elected a Fellow shortly afterwards; M.A. 10th June, 1540. In 1543 he was appointed Head Master of Westminster School, resigned in 1555; licensed as a preacher about 1550; installed Prebendary of Westminster, second stall, 5th December, 1551; elected Member of Parliament for Loo, in Cornwall, 5th October, 1553. The election was questioned in Parliament, and set aside. October 12th, 1553, the House of Commons appointed "Mr. Secretary Bourne [and others] to enquire for Alexander Nowell, Burgess of Loo, in Cornwall, Prebend of Westminster, if he may be of this House." "October 13th, It is declared by the Commissioners, that Alexander Nowell, being Prebendary in Westminster, and thereby having voice in the Convocation House, cannot be a Member of this House, and so agreed by the House, and the Queen's Writ to be directed for another Burgess in that place." During Mary's reign, being marked as a Puritan, Nowell incurred the enmity of Bonner, and to preserve his liberty escaped to the Continent, being assisted to do so by Francis Bowver, citizen and merchant of London. He resided at Frankfort about two years, in community with the German and Swiss Reformers; but promptly came back to England on the accession of Queen Elizabeth in 1558. From this time his preferments in the Church were valuable and continuous: collated Archdeacon of Middlesex, 1st January, 1550-60; held it about a year; presented to the Rectory of Saltwood, 3rd February, 1559-60; resigned 1560; Prebendary of Canterbury, 14th February, 1559-60, resigned, 1564; Prebendary of Westminster, seventh stall, by Queen's patent dated 21st June, 1560, resigned, 1561; Prebendary of Wildland, in the Cathedral of London, 3rd December, 1560; elected Dean of St. Paul's, 17th November, 1560; presented to the rich Rectory of Great Hadham, in the county of Herts, about December, 1562, resigned 1589; Prebendary of Totenhall, Cathedral of London, 11th November, 1588, held till his death; Canon of Windsor, installed 25th April, 1594, held till his death; President of Brasenose College, Oxford, 6th September, 1595, resigned 14th December, 1595. In 1568, Dean Nowell made a preaching tour in his native county of Lancashire, and he was in Lancashire again the following year (see pp. 218-19). In February, 1568-9, when his brother Robert Nowell died, Dean Nowell was one of his executors. The MS. shows in detail the manner in which Dean Nowell carried out the distribution of his brother's bounty, subsidised by much of his own money, during about twelve years from 1560 to 1580. He was in Sussex frequently in these years, and in the West Country in the autumn of 1569. His first marriage (hitherto obscure) took place about the year 1560. He married Jane, daughter of Robert Merry of Hatfield, Esq., widow of Thomas Bowyer of London, citizen and grocer (who had died the 13th September, 1558), and mother of Thomas Bowyer, of Lathorne, parish of North Mundham, in the county of Sussex, and of Joan Bowyer, wife, first, of George Cassey, citizen and grocer of London, and secondly of Dean Nowell's cousin, Thomas Nowell of Runcton, gent. (see page 261). By this dame Dean Nowell had no issue, and she died at North Mundham the 3rd August, 1579. The entry of her burial in the Parish Register of North Mundham is as follows:—1579. "The xiiij day of August, 1579, Ao xxi Elizabeth Regine, Joane Nowell, late ve wyfe of Alexander Nowell Deane of ye Cathedrall Church of St. Paull in London before the wyf of Thomas Bowyer cytezen & grocer of London, was buried by ye body of the said Thomas Bowyer on ye north side of the chancell of ye church of North Mundham, having left issue by ve said

Tho: Bowyer deceased two sonnes & one daughter, viz. Thomas Bowyer of the Middle Temple, Richard Bowyer, citizen & grocer of London, & Jane, the wife of Thomas Nowell & before the wife of George Cassey of London Dean Nowell's second wife, whom he married between 1580 and 1583, when he was more than seventy years old, was Elizabeth, daughter of — Hast of Windham, and widow of Thomas Blount, Esq., collector of the customs for the port of London (by whom she had a son Edward and other children). This wife survived Dean Nowell, and died in 1611. Among the published writings of Dean Nowell are: A Homily on account of the Plague (1564); controversial books against Dorman (1565-6-7); and the celebrated Catechismus (1570). He was created Doctor of Divinity, 1st October, 1595. Dean Nowell made his Will ten years before his decease. The Will is dated 8th January, 1502-3. After directions concerning his funeral, testator gives 20% to the repairs of St. Paul's: 10% to Christ's Hospital in London; to his good friend (and sonin-law) Thomas Bowyer of the Middle Temple, Esq., 51. for a ring; books to the library of Brasenose, and to his "cousin" (nephew) Dr. Whitaker of Cambridge; "and for the painful and faithful service which Elizabeth Nowell my wife hath these many years in my extreme age and great and many sicknesses and continual weakness done unto me, and for that I have spent of her goods and rents more than all that I have is worth, I give unto her in token of the love that I have continually borne and do beare unto her all the rest of my goods, cattle, chattells, leases, money, plate, jewels, household stuff," &c. Wife Elizabeth sole executrix. There are two codicils to the Will, in which testator specifies a number of kinsfolk and servants to have legacies. Dean Nowell died, aged about 94, on the 13th February, 1601-2, and was buried in St. Mary's Chapel of St. Paul's Cathedral, in the rear of the high altar, and in the same grave which received his brother Robert Nowell in 1568-9.

A fine monument, with a marble effigy of the Dean, and a lengthy description in Latin, was placed in the Chapel, and was destroyed in the Great Fire of 1666. A portrait at Brasenose College, Oxford, depicts the Dean with a fishing-rod over his head, and a paper of fishing-hooks in his hand (in allusion to his favourite sport), and underneath the inscription:—"Alexander Nowellus, sacræ theologiæ Professor, St. Pauli Decanus, obiit 13 Febr. A.D. 1601, RR. Eliz. 44; An. Decanatus 42; ætatis suæ 95; cum neque aures obtusiores, neque memoria infirmior neque animi cullæ facultates, viete essent. Piscator Hominum."

LAWRENCE NOWELL, brother of Alexander and Robert Nowell, and an executor under the Will of the latter, was born at Read about the year 1516; educated, probably, like his brothers, at Middleton School; entered of Brasenose College, Oxford, in 1536; but presently transferred himself to Cambridge, where he proceeded B.A. in 1541-2, in which degree he was incorporated at Oxford, 10 July. 1542; proceeded M.A. at Oxford, 18 March, 1543-4; appointed Master of the Grammar School at Sutton Colfield, in the county of Warwick, I October, 1546; ordained deacon by Bishop Ridley, o November, 1550; in 1550 the corporation of Sutton alleged against him neglect of his duty as Master of the School there, but Lawrence Nowell vindicated himself in an appeal to the King in Council, and letters were addressed to the warden and fellows of the King's town of Sutton, dated the 28 February, 1550-1, commanding them not to remove Mr. Nowell from his place of schoolmaster nor to molest him therein. In the reign of Mary, Lawrence Nowell found a retreat at Carew Castle, in the county of Pembroke, the seat of Sir John Perrot, where he lay in hiding until he could convey himself to Germany to join his brother Alexander and the other English Protestant exiles. He returned to England in the 1st Elizabeth (1558); and was at once appointed Archdeacon of Derby. On 20 March, 1550-60, Lawrence Nowell was installed Dean of Lichfield. The 9 August, 1563, he received the prebend of Ferring, in the cathedral of Chichester; and a later church preferment was to the prebend of Ampleford, York, to which he was appointed 27 May, 1566. He had, too, the rectory of Haughton and Drayton Basset, in the county of Stafford. In 1563, he was acting as tutor to the Earl of Oxford. In 1568, he was made an executor under his brother Robert's Will, and is so-named in the MS. His wife also is mentioned near the beginning of the MS. (A.D. 1569), as "Mrs. Nowell of Litchfeild." In 1570, he was charged by one Peter Morwyn with having spoken sedition against the Queen and the Earl of Leicester; his answer to which is in the State Paper Office. In 1574, he purchased a house and estate at Sheldon, in the county of Warwick, for a sum of 400/. Dean Lawrence Nowell married, before 1567, Mrs. Mary Glover, widow (who by her former husband had two sons, Daniel and Edward Glover, mentioned in the MS.). He had issue by her, sons, Samuel; Lawrence, baptized at St. Mary's, Litchfield, 7 December, 1571, a commoner at Brasenose in 1590; Thomas, baptized 5 April, 1573; Robert; and Alexander; and daughters, Catherine; Mary, baptized 16 September, 1567, died young; Sarah, baptized I May, 1569; and a second Mary, baptized 1 August, 1574. Dean Lawrence Nowell died in October, 1576, and is supposed to have been buried at Weston, in the county of Derby. His Will is dated the 7 October, 1576, and was proved the 26 August, 1577, by his widow as executrix. He bequeathed 100l. each to his surviving daughters; and 100l to the poor of the parishes of which he had charge. His brother Alexander Nowell, and half-brother John Towneley, were nominated overseers of the Will, and to have the custody of testator's children, if his wife married again. "Dean (Lawrence) Nowell was a diligent searcher into the national antiquities, and had a profound knowledge of Anglo-Saxon. He instructed in that tongue William Lambarde, subsequently so eminent as a skilful and laborious antiquary." He left in MS. a Vocabulary of the Saxon language, compiled in 1560, now in the Bodleian Library; historical collections now among the Cotton MSS.; and a Latin letter to Sir William Cecil, dated June, 1563, on the inaccuracy of the general Maps of England, which is among Lansdowne MSS. (Ath. Cantab., vol. i, pp. 357-8; Churton's Life of Alexander Nowell, pp. 233-9, &c.)

By the kindness of Colonel CHESTER, I am enabled—for the first time—to print in full and accurately ROBERT NOWELL's long and very valuable Will, as follows:—

[The Will was proved in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, 14 May, 1569, by Alexander Nowell, Lawrence Nowell, and John Towneley, Esq., the executors named. Recorded in Book "Sheffield" at folio 13.]

With regard to the Scribe of the MS. and keeper of the accounts of the "Spending," there is no absolute means of identification in the record itself; but in a note at page 7 I have designated James Wolton as the person most likely to have been the writer, and in a later note on page 403 I have marshalled the data which support this conclusion. Scribe was a servant of Dean Nowell's, and unquestionably was one of four servants who accompanied the Dean in his journey to the West Country in the autumn of 1569, who were, James Wolton, Robert Pickering, Alexander Bradshaw, and John Houghton. James Wolton's disbursements were larger and more constant than those of the other three servants, and it is plain that he held the position of a private secretary or steward to the Dean. Moreover, he alone of the four was a near kinsman of Dean Nowell, and, what is more material still, he alone had been confidential servant to Robert Nowell for several years before his death. and by the Will of Robert Nowell, his first master, had a bequest of 50l., and also testator's leases of Hendon and of the parsonage of Harpinden. After Robert Nowell's decease, James Wolton at once entered into the service of Dean Nowell, and continued therein for many years. That he should be selected by the Trustees to keep the record of the funeral charges, gifts of money for gowns, and other items of expenditure incurred immediately after Robert Nowell's death, was natural. I have no doubt myself that James Wolton was the Scribe of the MS. stated in the Notes, a son of John Wolton, of Whalley, in Lancashire, and brother of John Wolton, Bishop of Exeter. Their mother was Isabella (Baines has Margaret), daughter of John Nowell, Esq., and sister of Dean Nowell, who thus was uncle to John and James Wolton. The Scribe writes of himself in the third person when entering items of receipt or payment by him; but frequently styles Dean Nowell "my master," and when copying the Dean's own memoranda of gifts to kinsfolk enters, as the Dean would, "our cousin," "our brother," &c.

The MS. bears on the face of it throughout to be an authorized Family-Record, and the corrections and insertions in the handwriting of Dean Alexander Nowell, together with the wording of "our brother" and the like, make it manifest that it was prepared for family use, and for a testimony of the manner in which the executors of Robert Nowell fulfilled their responsible trust.

How the MS. came to be deposited in the Muniment Room at Towneley is simply accounted for. The three executors under Robert Nowell's Will were his brothers, Dean Alexander Nowell and Dean Lawrence Nowell, and his half-brother, John Towneley, Esq. Dean Alexander Nowell was manifestly the acting trustee, and this book of disbursements was kept for him by his secretary or steward, James Wolton. The second executor, Dean Lawrence Nowell, was the first to die, in 1576. Dean Alexander Nowell, with whom the papers of the trust would abide in keeping, died in 1601; and the MS. would then pass into the custody of John Towneley, Esq., as last surviving executor. John Towneley died in 1608; and after his death. the MS. would remain as the property of his heir at Towneley Hall. The interpolated writing proves that the MS. was at Towneley in 1614, and there it has reposed ever since, hitherto unmarked among the voluminous collections of the Towneley MSS., of which it is perhaps the most curious and valuable treasure.

Two additional points may, finally, be stated:-

- (a) The MS. is not at all chronological, but seems to have been made up from separate papers, earlier and later.
- (b) Besides the names on which light is shed, the values of money and articles in daily use are largely illustrated.

Anything else requiring notice may be looked for in the several places in the Notes and Illustrations. To "the Gentlemen Readers" I say as did Richard Jones for the Bower of Delights (1591) in fine, this:—"Pardon mee, (good gentlemen) of my presumption, and protect me, I pray you, against those cauellers and find-faults, that neuer like of any thing that they see printed, though it be neuer fo well compiled." "So shall [yº Editor] have iuft cause hereafter . . . and acknowledge himselfe most bounden (at all times) to do you service to the vtmost of his power."—(Mr. HENRY HUTH'S Prefaces, Dedications, Epistles, Selected from Early English Books, 1540-1701. 1874. 50 Copies.)

NOTES AND ILLUSTRATIONS.

1 " M ffarmer curatt of St. gregories." This was St. Gregory's by St. Paul's; and unfortunately the "dreadful fire," which is so often lamented by Newcourt and other ecclesiastical historians, destroyed all its registers, &c. The "curatt" appears onward (1573) as "M" ffarmer psonne of Ste Gregories vnder powles." (See Index of Names s.n.) From the connection it is just possible that he may have been a son of Edward Farmer, Chancellor of Salisbury Cathedral: collated 22nd Dec. 1531. (Le Neve's Fasti, vol. ii, p. 651.) For the interesting history of St. Gregory's, consult Newcourt's Repertorium Eccl. Par., London, vol. i, pp. 358-9.

2 "the Chaplen of grayes Inne." In the Memoir of Dr. Richard Sibbes (Works, ""the Chaplen of grayes Jane." In the Memoir of Dr. Richard Sibbes (Works, vol. i, p. xl), may be read an account from Gray's Inn Book of Orders (MS.), of the provision made in the thirty-third year of Henry VIII. and in the fourth of Elizabeth, "for ye findinge of a chaplaine to celebrate divine service in ye chapell of Graye's Inn for ye students, gent. and fellowes of ye said house." The "chaplen" of this entry was William Charke. Dean Nowell, in 1598, mentions "Mr. Charke" with others, "men both of great learninge and godlyness." He wrote against Campion. (Churton's Life, p. 278.) As "Grayes Inn" occurs very often in the MS. it will be in place to give here, from the Book of Orders (as before), the earlier history of the Society. Having recited certain ancient mediæval-Latin records, which are also supplemented by prior relations to the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's, the Chronisupplemented by prior relations to the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's, the Chronicler proceeds:—"By all web severall offices, it appeares that the said manor of Portepole, now Gray's Inne, or within ye which a part of Graye's Inne is now situate, was anciently the Inheritance of the Grayes. But I do not find in any of ye said formes &c. that any Gray, lord or owner of ye said manor or messuage, did at any time reside there [save] Reginald de Gray, in ye 44th year of ye reign of Kinge Edw. 3., for ye yearly rent of Q (?) as is mentioned in ye office, then found after his decease. And in ye we'n office (the same beinge in form inquisitions named mesuagium) is thereby found to be hospitium, and in lease, whereby it's manifested y' ye house then and yet knowne by the name of Gray's Inn, was demised to some p'sons of speciall regard and rank, and not to meane ones, or p'sons of meane or privat behav, but to such as were united into a Society p'fessinge ye lawes, that in those dayes begunn to congregat and settle themselves within yo Court (?) as an associated company enter-tayning hospitalitie together. And then this house grew to be off an higher title in denomination and became to be totally termed by ye Intetulation of Hospitium in Portepole. And it also appeareth that ye said Reginald de Gray devised ye said messuage as aforesaid in ye reigne of King Edw. 3. in his life-time, and at his death was held for hospitium and by the jury before whom ye said inquisition was taken in y° said 44th yeare of Edw. 3. (A° 1370) was found to bee hospitium, and not mesuagium. Imediately whereupon y° said hospitium is called Gray's Inne, or Hospitium Graiorum, for that that estate had been soe long and by soe many severall descents in yt name.

(Works of Sibbes, as before, vol. i, p. xli.)

3 "Syr Lewes Harvie a poor Minister." The "Sir" long preceded the (comparatively) modern "Reverend." In the recent unhappy controversy evoked by the Bishop of Lincoln's refusal to sanction the use of "reverend" by a minister of the Wesleyan Methodists, it was gravely proposed by a clergyman, on the Supreme Court's judgment, adverse to the Bishop, that the clergy (of the Church of England) should, henceforth, drop "reverend" and resume the ancient "Sir." King James's Knights had been a mere handful in such case compared with the clerical "Sirs." "Harvie" occurs several times in this MS. (see Index of Names, s.n.), but among a considerable number of Harvies and Harveys, contemporary and later, no Lewes or Lewis appears any-

4 "Mr. Sager p'sonne of St. peters at paulls warffe." This was "of old called St Peter's Parva, or Little, because it was but a small Church, but of latter times called S. Peter's Paul's Wharf, because situate near to that place." (Newcourt, vol. ii, pp. 5. Peter's Fail's Whart, because stitute hear to that place. (Newboth, vol. 1, pp. 527-8.) It too was "burnt"; and so its registers, &c., perished. Nothing has been transmitted of "Mr Sager," but the name is a Lancashire one still. (Burnley, &c.) It occurs modernly in Le Neve's Fasti, frequenter. The only quick name to-day of the "parsons" of S. Peter's is the learned and venerable Edward Marbury, one of its rectors - on whom see Memoir prefixed to his Commentary on Obadiah, &c., in Nichol's Puritan Commentaries.

5 "Mr. Vicar of hendon." This was Richard Laurence, who succeeded 1 July 1564, on the resignation of the former Vicar, and he remained Vicar of Hendon until 1582, being then followed by Ric. Evans, M.A., "per mort. Laurence." (Newcourt, vol. i, p. 644.) See our Introduction for Robert Nowell's connection with Hendon. In "Repertorium" there is a full account of the Church and its (sinecure) Rectors and its Vicars, &c. See Index of Names, s.n., for other references to Laurence.

Notes and Illustrations.

6 "Leonard Tayler of the courte of wardes": id est, the "wards" or minors in the charge of the Court of Chancery. Nothing more is known of Tayler than that he was "pursyvante" = pursuivant or State messenger attendant on the Heralds. Neither is anything known of "Mr. Quinten" of the next entry.

7 "Edward Wallrande": 8 "Mr. brooke of Essex": neither traceable.

9 "Mr. Holden of hastindene." This recipient was Thomas Holden, curate of Hastingdon in the beauty that I dene.

lingden, in the county of Lancaster. He was second son of Gilbert Holden, gent., of Holden Hall, near Haslingden, by Grace Towneley his wife; and is named in the Holden Hain, hear Hashington, by Grace Townerey his whe; and is named in the heraldic Visitation of Lancashire in 1567, as "Thomas Holden, a clerke." Whitaker (Hist. of Whalley) identifies this first Protestant curate of Haslingdon with Frater Thomas Holden, a young monk of Whalley at the suppression of the Abbey in 1538; he was probably the last survivor of that fraternity, and, having embraced the reformed faith, he is found as curate of Haslingden in 1540; and was still living and serving that cure in 1574, when the Primate licensed him. In the license he is described as

"Thomas Holden, clerke, of sober life and competent learning."

10 "Mr. Wood": See Index of names under "James Wood."

""Mr. Ratclief my L. of London his mane." The Bishop of London of this time was Edmund Grindall, who became ultimately Archbishop of Canterbury. He was bishop of London from 1559 to 1570. His Remains have been edited by Nicholson for the Parker Society (1843, 8vo). He died 1583. Cf. his Remains and Life by Strype. "Mr. Ratclief" is unknown, but See Index of Names, s.n.

12 "Mr. Chambers my L. of Sarysbury mane." The then bishop of Salisbury was the illustrious Jewel, who was bishop from 1559 till his death in 1571. See our Introduction for more on him, as he occurs frequently in this MS.

13 "Ric. Whitaker Late servante to Mr. Attourney": i.e., Robert Nowell himself, (see Introduction.) He was second son of Thomas Whitaker of Holme, gent., and elder brother of William Whitaker: see next note.

14 "Willm. Whitaker Scholler": clarum et venerabile nomen. See our Introduction for a full notice of him, as later he was Nowell's chosen almoner at Cambridge; also, for other Whitakers, later notes, and the Index of Names, s.n. 15 Mr. marten bogett maker." This "Mr. marten" remains untraced; but "bogett maker" means "budget maker," i.e., bougette, Fr. bag or knapsack maker. Atp. 4, Mrs. Marten is described as wife of the "bugett maker." These are excellent examples of the original meaning of the word "budget." Shakespeare uses it as = a leathern bag: "and bear the sow-skin bowget." (Wint. iv. 3, 20), rhyming—as

Schmidt notes—to "avouch it."

16 "to Wylkinsonne." "Wilkinson" is a frequent name in this MS. These Wilkinsons were among the numerous people down in Lancashire whose kinship, near or distant, was acknowledged by the Nowells. One of them - John Wilkinson - had been Robert Nowell's cook. See Index of Names, s.n.

17 "To Thomas Nowell" see our Introduction and later notes, on this and all the Nowells of the MS.

18 "Lamberte Langtree." He was of Lancashire. Lambert Langtree is named in the family pedigree (A.D. 1567), as fourth son of John Langtree of Langtree, in the county of Lancaster, gent., and brother of Gilbert Langtree, gent., then scion of the family, whose wife was Helene, daughter of Sir James Stanley of Lathom, knt. See Index of Names, s.n., for other references.

19 "henry Todgyll." He is entered at page 3 as one of the "mene" of "Mr Attourney," as in note 13. See page 3, note 5.

20 "Ric. haukens Mr. Attourney mane": see note 11, supra; he re-appears at page 3, as in last note.

1 Javes Cunbery, Tayler." Onward for "Javes" we find "Jarves," which was of course the same as "Gervase," as Gervase Markham, &c., &c. See page 13, entry 5th, and Index of Names, s.n.; also under Merchant-Tailors.

2 "John Morton of the old change" i.e., the Exchange that preceded Sir Thomas Gresham's. This doubtless was the same with "John Moreton, citizen and haberdasher of London" (so-styled in a deed in the Kuerden MSS.), who was son of Gilbert Moreton of Moreton-house in Whalley (now Moreton Hall), and who came into possession of the patrimony about 1583 (?) His daughter Catherine married, May 8, 1581, Roger Nowell of Read, Esq.

3 "Thomas Lawe." He was of the family of Lawe of Whalley, neighbours of the Nowells of Read. Several members of the family appear later in this MS., as recipients of Robert Nowell's bounty. See a subsequent genealogical note, and Index of Names, s.n.

4 5 6 None of these names known at this late day.

1 "henry Evattes Steward of St. Thoms" = St. Thomas's; qu. — St. Thomas's Hospital? Various hospitals are named later. See Index of Names ("Hospitals").

8 "George Karpenter" = Carpenter.

"Thomas Cassonne chief butler of grayes Inne": an all-important personage in his day and generation, seeing that besides the ordinary dining, there were great Feasts and regal and costly entertainments at this renowned House. The next four entries refer to now unknown officials subordinate to the "chief butler."

10 "Thomas Orrell." Orrell is a Lancashire surname. The Orrells of Orrell early failed in the chief descent; but a branch settled at Turton, who appear as small gentry temp. Elizabeth. Thomas Orrell, "master cooke of Graies Inne," may have gone up from Turton to London to be initiated into the culinary mysteries; and, pushing his way, reached the height of a cook's aspiration as chef in Gray's Inn's great kitchen.

"To one Mr. hilliarde." The Index of Names, s.n., will guide to several occurrences of "Hilliarde" as a "poor minister." Query of the family of the miniaturepainter immortalized by Donne and others? Further on in the MS. I find "John Hillyarde, poore scholler of Christe Church in Oxford."

12 "To one Thomas Evanes Mr. Attourney Tayler." See note 13, page 1. 13 "Thomas Keyne Smythe": as more than one Christian name came later, it is to be assumed that "Smythe" designates Keyne's craft of "smith," black or tin-smith.

14 "the officers in paulls": "officers" is originally written "vargesores"=(vergers) and erased. The "officers" are from No. 38 to 41.

16 "Symon Marston" (No. 38): in the meagreness of the Dramatist John Marston's biography, and in the knowledge that his family came of Wilts and Shropshire (with which the Nowells were intimately connected) it is well to note the occurrence of this Marston at St. Paul's in London in 1568. But it is not improbable that the name intended was really Simon Marson, a servant to Sir Thomas Mounson and a good musician, as was George Marson of the "divers authors" of "Madrigals, the Triumphs of Oriana to five and six voices" (1601). See Wood's Fasti (edn. Bliss), vol. i, p. 242, and Sir Anthony Weldon's Court and Character of King James, 1650, pp. 106-7.

See Index of Names, s.n.

1 "Money geuen to mr. Attourney's mene": as before (page I, No. 21). "Mr.

Attourney" is Robert Nowell himself (see our Introduction).

Attourney" is Robert Nowell himself (see our Introduction).

2 "Richard Hawkens to by"...: see page I, No. 21, where the name is spelled with "u" for "w": "by" = buy, as in side-note, and where "howse" is = hose or hosen, as in entry below to "todgill."

3 "Ric. Whitaker": see page I, note I3.

4 "Thoms. Nowell": see page I, note I7.

5 "To todgill": see page I, note 19.
6 "John Thorpe"... 7 "Thomas Rayner": nothing more is known of either:

but see Index of Names, s.n., and our Nowell's Will in Introduction.

8 "James Wolton." This name will be found recurring very often in the MS. James Wolton was confidential servant both to Robert Nowell, and, after his death, to Alexander Nowell the Dean. As almoner for the latter, he disbursed large sums in charity under Robert Nowell's trust; and certain entries towards the end of the MS. suggest the likelihood that James Wolton was the actual writer of the MS. of John Wolton, rector of Spaxton, vicar of Braunton, warden of Manchester Collegiate church in 1578, and finally bishop of Exeter. He also is named in the MS. hereafter. The brothers were sons of John Wolton, a yeoman of Whalley, in the county of Lancaster, by his wife Margaret Nowell. Proofs of the family connexion, derived from this MS., and more particulars respecting James and John Wolton, will be furnished in a subsequent note. See Index of Names, s.n.: also our Introduction.

9 "Hughe hallso": "Hallso" is a contraction for the Lancashire surname of Hallsall. Hugh Hallsall occurs frequently as one of the agents or servants of Dean Nowell. See Index of Names, s.n.

10 (side-note) "certen woomen of welthe." It will be noticed that at page I, side note, the recipients of the "gifts" are designated "the porrer sorte"; but by "porrer" were meant the middle-class as distinguished from those of "welthe" and the "very poor" that follow this list. This is proved by the recipients being of the clergy and good families.

" "Mtres. Towenley": see our Introduction on all the Townleys named in the MS.

12 "Mtres. Nowell of poulls": Ibut for all the Nowells.

13 "Mtres. Nowell of Lytchfilde": Laurence Nowell, Dean of Lichfield, married Mary Glover, widow, by whom he had two known sons and four daughters.

14 "Mrs. Bowyer of Wimbliedone": related, no doubt, to the Bowyers of the Old Jury, noticed infra.

15 "Mrs. Bowyer of the old Jury." These Bowyers of the Old Jury were much regarded by the Nowells, and with reason, for Francis Bowyer, whose wife doubtless is the lady here named, had successfully contrived the means of Alexander Nowell's escape to the continent in the reign of Mary. Fuller dedicated a section of his Church History to "Mr. Thomas Bowyer of the Old Jury, merchant," whose "grandfather, Francis Bowyer," says Fuller, "brought no fewell to the flames [in Mary's days] but endeavoured to quench them. The church is indebted to him for saving Rev. Dr. Alexander Nowell, and sending him safe beyond the seas." See further references to Bowyers onward in the MS.

16 "Mrs. Miller": nothing appears to be known of her.
17 "Mrs. Cassey." A sister of Robert Nowell married a Mr. Cassie, and one Robert Cassie is named in Robert Nowell's will as his godson. See our Introduction and Index of Names, s.n.

18 "Mrs. Clapham": as in note 16.

19 "Mrs. Harrysonne in Chepsyed." Cheapside was then, as it is now, one of the principal business streets in the city of London. Mrs. Harrysonne was the spouse, we may suppose, of some wealthy mercer or grocer in old "Chepe."

20 "Mrs. Houghton." This lady, if the reference is to the wife of Thomas Hoghton, Esq., of Hoghton Tower, in the county of Lancaster, was Catherine, daughter of Sir Thomas Gerard of Brynn, Knt., and she may have been living in London with her kinsman Sir Gilbert Gerard, the Attorney General, and who is often named in this MS., for her husband, Thomas Hoghton, had to leave England on account of his "recuabout the date of this record (1568).

22 "Mrs. ffoxe": another relative. See onward, and Index of Names for references.

1 "porrer sorte of womene": see page 3, note 10.
2 "Goodwief Kerry": "Goodwief" is the familiar name for a "wife" as "Goodman" for a "husband" in page 5, No. 1 "Goodman Hallawall."

3 "Mrs. Marten the bugett maker": see page 1, No. 16, and relative note on "boggett" = budget.

Mrs. Shepharde, Widdowe": a common Lancashire name; but this Mrs. Shepharde was of the Nowell kin. See onward and Index of Names, s.n. 5 "Mrs. Willkinsonne" · see page 1, No. 17, and relative note 16, on (probably) her husband.

6 "Mother hunte": like "Goodwief" and "Goodman" (supra) "Mother" was a kindly-used name for an aged respected woman, e.g. Mother Hubbard of nursery renown. This "Mother" was in all likelihood related to the good George Hunte, elsewhere noticed. See Index of Names, s.n.

7 "Mrs Payne": as in note 4, supra.
8 "Eaton wief": see page 2, No. 26, "John Eaton."
9 "Baterbyese wief": no doubt the modern Battersbie or Battersby—a local surname in the Clitheroe district.

10 "Mrs. Overton Shepharde daughter": see note 4, supra.
11 "Susanne ffoxe": see page 3, No. 12,—a decayed member of the "women of welthe" there named? See Index of Names, s.n.

12 "Dorothee trayheron": probably same as Treherne. See Index of Names, s.n.,

13 "Johan Todd" = Joan or Joanna. See Index of Names, s.n.
14 "Ellsabethe martine" cf. note 3, supra.

15 "Ellsabethe Stanbridge": the variant spelling of "Elizabeth" in the MS. and contemporarily, is curious.

1 "Gowens of the Newe Collor" (side note): The entries onward for several pages refer to gifts of cloth of the "newe collor" (colour,) for gowns. I meet with nothing in this MS. or elsewhere to indicate what the "newe collor" of 1568 for gowns and extracted from the cochineal insect, introduced into Spain from Mexico before the middle of the 16th century; theace into the Netherlands and probably into England by the Flemish refugees who came hither in the early years of Elizabeth's reign. Prior to their advent English woollen cloths had to be sent into Holland to be dyed. Indigo came into use in Europe as a dye about this period, but was prohibited in England. The cloth of these entries was the same, I imagine, as that which is described in the MS as "broad newe colored cloth," "brode London cloth," "London brod cloth," and otherwise. It was a woollen cloth of London manufacture for outer garments, distinguished from several kinds of linen cloth (chiefly made in Lancashire) specified in the same connexion. Its cost was from 5s. to 8s. per yard, while the common linen did not exceed from 5d. to 7d. per yard. Some of the linen cloths were dyed in singular colours, e.g., 13 yard of linen bought of William Wigen, a Lancashire maker of cloth, is described as of "geeliflower collor," at 18d. a yard. See Index of Things under "Cloth."

The "Gowens" gifts recorded here and in pp. 6-12 being all to the "very poor," it were a vain quest as uncalled for, to expect memorials of them. The Church-registers in and around Burnley and in and around Read Hall—the family-seats of the Townleys and Nowells respectively-contain almost every name herein enumerated; but it could serve no end to give them on the chance that they might be of the lowly recipients of Nowell's bounty of "Gowens of the newe collor." Our faithful reproduction of every name, however, may guide those interested in any particular family-line to their perchance humble yet not necessarily unworthy ancestry. Evidently the "godly poor" and deserving were "sought out" in the administration of the bounties; and that is better than mere "blue blood." Many of the names of these "very poor" are still frequent in Lancashire and are borne by those who are in good positions and honoured in their generation. On certain of the names of these "very poor" I am able to add only a few slight notes, e.g.

FIRST LIST.

- ² No. 8, "harrold a poor blind mane." The Index of Names contains many such pitiful entries. So
- No. 12, "Yohn ffrankleyn":—reminds of the martyr-bishop of that name.
 No. 13, "John ffrankleyn":—one is glad to meet any occurrence of a great name, in the recollection that Benjamin Franklin was of the mother-country; but of course it is to be remembered that as a word "Franklin" or "Franklein" (A.N.) meant a free-holder, generally a small landholder—as had been the "Franklins" of Spilsby,
- Lincolnshire, whence Sir John Franklin came.

 6 No. 16, "Poole Kep. of the easte churchyarde." Probably of St. Paul's, London.

 "Kep" is short for Keeper.
- ⁷ No. 17, "Roger Maden": recalls the famous Preacher of still quick Sermons of the same name.
 - 8 No. 22, "John ffarrington" = Farringdon a famous Lancashire name.
 No. 24, "ffather Willsonne": Cf. "Mother," page 4, note 6.

¹ No. 17, "John Goose"—an odd name that seems to have died out, and however truthfully descriptive, we can understand the willinghood of those inheriting it to let it go. Perhaps the modern Goss and Gosse are improvements upon it; as in our living Poet of "On Viol and Flute" (1876), Edmund W. Gosse.

No. 25 to 28, "of Hadhame" = Hadham in the county of Herts., of which parish Dean Nowell was rector. See Introduction.

a-days in populous places at least.

4 No. 37, "Joanes the booke bynder": "Joanes" is noticeable and "the" also = the one "booke bynder" of the village and district; albeit if in London it only indicated

- "the" special book binder employed by the family.

 5 No. 48, "Mother Gylls, worne by a poor mane": the "poor mane" was likely tediously sick and so his "wief," who (like others in the MS. specially named) having most probably married beneath her (as the saying is), suffered accordingly. So too

1 No. 55, "Rogere Swallowe"—an odd name still found in Lancashire. 2 No. 56, "Lewes fflowdde" · same as the modern Flood of Ireland. See Index of Names, s.n.

THIRD LIST.

See Index of Names, s.n., for other entries.

4 No. 7, "John Wyatt"—The Poet's name of Wyatt and Wyat was a not infrequent one in Lancashire. Drayton in his Verses to Master George Sandys, mentions a much later Wyat thus:—
"Of Noble Wyat's health, and let me hear:"

(Hooper's Sandys, vol. i, p. lxvii.)

Sandys was related to the Wyats.

⁵ No. 9, "Rychard Baxter"—It is somewhat singular that earlier and later "Richard" is very common as the Christian name of Baxters. Of course one eclipses all others "for all time."

6 No. 11, "Wyllm, Warner": Could this have been of the family (or himself?) of William Warner, Attorney in the Common Pleas? He wrote "Pan his Syrinx, or Pipe, compact of seuen Reedes: including in one, seuen Tragical and Comical Arguments, with their diuers Notes not impertinent. Whereby, in effect, of all thinges is touched, in few, something of the vayne, wanton, proud, and inconstant course of the world. Neither herein, to somewhat praiseworthie, is prayse wanting." (1585: revised edition. 1597), and the better known Albions England (1586: revised editions 1589: 1592: 1596: 1597: 1602.) He died in 1609. Warner's biography is extremely scanty in facts.

FOURTH LIST.

¹ No. 11, "Rychard Aperde": from preceding lists it is seen that one of the "taylers" employed for making the "gowens" was so named.

EIGHTH LIST.

² No. I, "Anthony Marlooe": query—Marlowe miswritten? Christopher Marlowe was a native of Canterbury, and various Canterbury names occur in our MS., as John Lylly and the Haymons.

3 No. 3, "Wyllm ffarrar"—a venerable name for us all, through George Herbert's saintly friend and editor Nicholas Farrer or Ferrar. See Professor Mayor's admirable

"Nicholas Ferrar" (1855), and Index of Names, s.m., for several Farrars.

No. 7, "Wyllm. Curtyese"—a noticeable English surname.

No. 9, "Geffrey Walkinden": "Walkinden" seems to be the older form of the No. 9, "Geffrey Walkinden": "Walkinden" seems to be the older form of the surname now shortened to "Walkinden"—a name of rather frequent occurrence in Blackburn and Leyland Parishes, in the county of Lancashire. This, and several other surnames in these lists, belong to the North of England; e.g., "Houlden," which occurs twice on this page of the text, and is a territorial name in East Lancashire and Craven in the West Riding of Yorkshire, appropriated as a personal name. "Ryghsby" (for Rigby), "Hollande," "Lemynge," "Compton," "Morre" (for More or Moore), and "Whitehead," also smack of the County Palatine; but most of the other names are either strange to Lancashire or are common to other parts of England. These recipients of gowns were mostly, I conceive, of the class of gentlemen's servants.

NINTH LIST.

² No. 12, "George Slaughter":= Slater, a surname, frequent in Lancashire.

TENTH LIST.

No. 2, "Wyllym fferrer": see note on seventh List, No. 3.
No. 6, "Lewes Johannes": a singular surname.
No. 9, "Shepard watter karrer": see page 6, No. 34 in second List. So No. 12 below. The circumstance, that here, and in several other places, the Scribe spells the word "water" with two *\epsilon's is rather suggestive of his nativity in Lancashire or the North of England. One never hears a cockney pronounce water as here spelt—watter; but in the part of East Lancashire with which the Nowells were connected, that is the proper spelling to represent the sound of the word as still pronounced by natives of the labouring class. In some other districts of Lancashire the word is pronounced wayter. At page 10, the proper name of Waterson is spelled "Watterson." This trifling point of provincial spelling is one among various indications that the selfstyled servant of Dean Nowell, who kept these accounts, was an East Lancashire man.

6 No. 10, "John Bogett": see on the thing that gave this name on page 1, No.

ELEVENTH LIST.

7,8 Nos. I and 2. Two uncommon Christian names in humble life—"Clemente" and "Dominicke"—as also the surname "Secare." Clemente ffreare is no doubt the "Tayler" of page 20, ante.

The names of these successive lists furnish a considerable addition to the number of English Surnames in Lower and the other authorities.

2 "Arthure Medlecott": As Medlicott, this surname is still found in Ireland and in the United States. See notice of him, and relative note onward.

3 "Govens" &c. It is noteworthy here that although the "gowens" in the text were "geven the very poor," they are priced at 55. 8d. and 6s. 8d. per yard, equivalent in money-value to from £2 to £3 per yard now. The cloth was made up into "gowens" by a number of the "merchant tailors" of London. "John Punte, merchante Tayller" had 169½ yards to make into 60 "gowens," and eleven other master-tailors had share of the patronage. Altogether 254 gowns were made for as many poor men, and the quantity of the "newe collored cloth" used in this one benefaction was 647¾ yards. The charge for making the gowns at 12d. each was £12. 12s., equivalent to well-nigh £100 to-day.

1 These "Taylers" names occur in the preceding lists of the recipients and their several bounties. Probably they were all of the Guild of Merchant-Tailors, e.g., "William Albaney" was Master of the Merchant Tailors Company 1568-9. "Mr. Spearke" was John Sperke, Master Warden 1569-70: "William Kymptone" Master 1570-1: "John Punte," more accurately "Pounte," Warden 1579-80: "Arthur Mydlecot" Warden 1604-5. See Index of Names, s.n., for other references and relative notes

2 "Mr. Punte." This Merchant Taylor was a donor of silver spoons to the platethese of the company. In an inventory of plate, &c., taken in 1609, are included of one dozen of Spoones, of the guift of Mr. John Punte marked with I. P., weying three and twenty ounce three quarters." (Clode's Memorials of the Guild of Merchant Taylers', p. 93.) John Punte occurs further on in this MS. as having received, circa 1570, forty shillings "for the exhibition of a poor scholler of Trinitie colledge in chambridge."

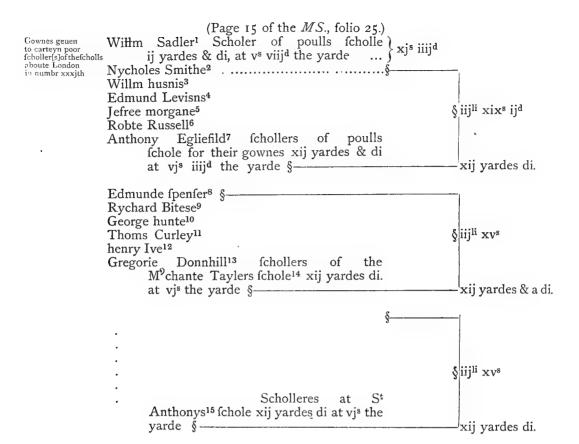

3 "Arthure mydlecot, Tayler." Among the plate of the Merchant Taylors' Company, inventoried in 1609, is mentioned "one very faire Bason and Ewre, of the guift of Mr. Arthur Medlicott, all guilt, weying One hundreth forty eight ounce three quarters." (Clode's Memorials, &c., p. 92.) Arthur Medlycott of Shrewsbury, on 5 June 1565, was admitted free of the Merchant Taylors' Company. By his will, dated 25 July 1605 (proved 31 August following), he directs to be buried by his wife in St. Gregory's, London. His brother Thomas Medlicott of Lincoln's Inn, Esq., executor. Both brothers appear to have died s.p.

4 "Lewes harvey a poor minister": see page 1, No. 3, and relative note.

5 "seuen fchollers of poulls fcholl": see Index of Names under St. Paul's for scholars of this famous School whose names occur in this MS,

(14)

1 "Ao 1568": This is the first date in the MS. and it is to be assumed that it also belongs to the whole of the preceding entries, inasmuch as Robert Nowell having died in 1568 his "bounties" would closely follow thereon.

(15)

1 "Willm. Sadler, Scholer of poulls Scholle": unknown. For an interesting account of this renowned School, see Howard Staunton's Great Schools of England, pp. 132–167 (1869), also Maria Hackett's Cathedral and Collegiate Schools. The Rev. J. H. Lupton, M. A., of this School, in writing me on the loss "of all registers, &c.," before "the great Fire," suggests that it is not always remembered that the Cathedral School was often called "Paul's" simply, so that it is difficult to determine whether a given "scholler" belonged to it or to St. Paul's School property as called. Hefore, given "scholler" belonged to it or to St. Paul's School properly so-called. Unfortunately in neither case are Registers or other MSS. preserved. It seems a pity that no attempt should have been made to furnish a companion volume to the Alumni Westmonasterienses for St. Paul's - lamentable that the present Dean of St. Paul's and the learned Librarian alike had to report me absolute inability (with all willinghood) to shed any light on any of the names of the MS. connected with this great Church and School. En passant I give a note from Mr. Lupton (as before) on Dean Nowell: "Has it ever struck you that the engraving of the mutilated bust facing p. 388 of Churton's Life, cannot really be that of Nowell (compared with the one at p. 336), but is almost certainly Colet's?" Every one must acquiesce in this correction by one to whom we owe so much admirable work done for the "Remains" of the venerable Dean Colet.

2 "Nycholes Smithe": a Nicholas Smythe was of the Merchant Taylors.

3 "Willm. husnis." I think this may have been William Hunnis miswritten. I like to believe that the "sweet Singer" of the "Recreations" (1595) was among the scholars of "paulls Schole." Many examples go to show that the Scribe was not always careful in his spelling of names, e.g., Gottesford for Cotesford, Sharppsparrowe for Sharperowe and the like. So that "Husnis" for "Hunnis" is not at all unlikely. The dates agree.

4 "Edmund Levisns": unknown.

5 "Jefree Morgane": unknown.

6 "Robte Russell": unknown, but see Index of Names, s.n.

7 "Anthony Egliefild." This recalls that Francis Eglesfield (the same probably with Egliefild) was one of Herrick's publishers in Hesperides and Noble Numbers, 1648.

8 "Edmunde Spenser." This is the first occurrence of the name of SPENSER. See to be specially noted that in the last entry here, all enumerated are described as "schol-

- 9 "Rychard Bitese": unknown.

 10 "George hunte": admitted to M. T. School as "son of John Hunt, yeoman decd 30 Mar. 1565": Deniz. of Magdalen College, Oxford, 1571; Fellow, 1575-82; Junior Dean of Arts, 1578; Rector of Collingbourne-Ducis, in the county of Wilts, for 51 years; died in the 84th year of his age. His father was an early Reformer and confessor, temp. Mary, and owed his support at Oxford to Master D. Humfry in the exhibitions of Bishop Pilkington and the friendship of the Kingsmill family. A daughter of our "George hunte" was wife of the celebrated William Whately of Banbury. (See Dr. Bloxam's Reg. of Magd. Coll., and Brook's Puritans, s.n., and Wood's Athena, by Bliss, vol. ii, p. 639.) Later in this MS., George Hunte, receiving 20s. in November, 1571, is described as "poore scholler of Magdalen Colledge in Oxforde."

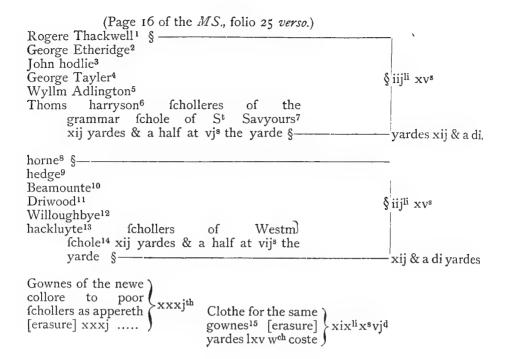

11 "Thomas Curley": unknown.

12 "henry Ive": unknown.

13 "Gregorie Donnhill." Probably the same with Georgius Downhall, whose name occurs as the first of Archdeacon Watts' Exhibitioners to Pembroke Hall, Cambridge - the second being Launcelot Andrewes, the famous bishop (on whom see onward, and Index of Names, s.n.)

14 "M'chante Taylers Scholle": see Staunton, as before, pp. 168-206, for many details on this School. It is to be regretted that the early registers, &c., are extremely fragmentary. Every effort has been made, not without success, to recover information on the "schollers" of this School in the MS. The following work has helped us considerably: - Memorials of the Guild of Merchant Taylors of the City of London, and of its Associated Charities and Institutions, compiled and selected by the Master of the Company for the year 1873-4; being the five-hundred and seventy-fourth master in succession. (Charles Mathew Clode, Esq.) Printed for private circulation (8vo, pp. xxxi, 746). It is to be regretted that the Indices are so meagre, as to be practically useless as a guide to the abundant names and information of this most carefully and laboriously prepared work.

is "St. Anthonys School": Formerly the Hospital of St. Anthony, and next became a Church. Maitland tells of this "goodly Foundation" having a "Free School and Alms-houses for poor men;" and that "one Johnson (a school-master here) became a prebendary of Windsor, and then (by little and little) spoiled the Hospital." He adds, "The School was commenced in the reign of Henry VI., and since also commended above others; but now it is decayed and come to nothing. The scholars of the School used at a certain time of the year to go in procession. In the year 1562, on the 15th day of September, there set out from Mile End, two hundred children of this St. Anthony's School, and so along through Aldgate, down Cornhill, to the Stocks, and so to the Fryers Augustines, with streamers and flags and drums beating." (Hist. of Lond. 1775, 2 vols. folio, vol. ii, p. 845.)

1 "Roger Thackwell"—a name in modern times rendered memorable by a distinguished General.

""George Etheridge"—query son of George Etheredge, Regius Professor of Greek, Oxford, 1548, 1553? (See Le Neve, vol. iii, pp. 515-16.)

3 "John Hodlie": 4 "George Tayler": neither has been traced.

5 "Wyllm. Adlington." This was probably the Translator of Apuleius', The eleven Bookes of the Golden Asse (1596), with its poetical preface "of the author to his sonne Faustinius," &c.

6 "Thoms. harryson": doubtless the Thomas Harrison associated at Merchant Taylors School with John Thomas (1572). See Index of Names under John Thomas for relative note.

7 "schollers of the grammar schole of St. Savyours": i.e., St. Saviour's, Southwark, London. Founded by inhabitants, under a charter from Queen Elizabeth, in 1562, as a free grammar school, for the education, institution, and instruction of the children and youths of the parishioners and inhabitants of St. Saviours only; power was afterwards given to the governors to admit others, so long as the whole number of scholars did not exceed 100. By Chancery scheme, 1839, the school was thrown entirely open without any restriction as to its numbers. By the statute of 1562, it was ordained that each scholar should pay an entrance fee of 2s. 6d. per quarter, "towards brooms and rods." At present all scholars pay six guineas a year, which cannot be exceeded in the case of parishioners, but may be raised if the governors think fit in that of non-parishioners. Income 365%, with house. Exhibitions: one of 21%, and two of 50%, tenable four years, at Oxford or Cambridge; also a first claim, under Marshall's charity, to four of 50% each, tenable for four years, at Oxford or Cambridge. (Howard Staunton's Great Schools of England, pp. 493-4, 1869.)

8 "horne." Charles Horne was elected from Westminster School to Trinity College, Cambridge, 1568; B. A. 1572-3; Fellow of Peterhouse 1576; M. A. 1577; B.D. 1585; one of the Scrutators 1587. In 1594 he was one of the senior fellows living in College, and was alive in 1595-6. He wrote Latin and Greek verses in the University Collections, e.g., on the death of Sir Philip Sidney, in Academia Cantabrigiensis Lachryma, &c. (1587). See Alumni Westmonasterienses (1852), also Index of Names, s.n.

9 "hedge." Christopher Hedge; entered in Alumn. West. (p. 47) under 1568, but omitted in Cole MSS. (vol. xlv.)

10 "Beamonte." John Beaumont, was elected from Westminster to Trinity College, Cambridge, 1568; B.A. 1572; Fellow of Trinity, M.A. 1576; resigned in 181; B.D. 1583; rector of Hadleigh, Suffolk, 1592, being then D.D. Buried at Hadleigh 27 April 1599. Author of a Latin Letter to William Camden, &c. (See Alum.

Westm., p. 47; Blomfield's Norfolk, vol. iii, p. 293; Ath. Cantab., vol. ii, p. 272; Cole MSS., vol. xlv, pp. 237 and 254.)

""Driwood." George Drywood: took the degree of M. A. 1577, and became afterwards B. D.; rector of Mistley-cum-Manningtree, Essex, 1585–90, and of Trinity the Less, London, 1603-5; of South Ockendon, Essex, 1590, and of Chadwell, Essex, 1605. He died possessed of the two last named livings in 1611. He vacated his Fellowship about 1594. Like Horne (supra), he wrote Verses on the death of Sidney, which were published in the collection Acad. Cant. Lachr. (1587). (See Alumn. West., p. 47; Newcourt's Repertorium, vol. i, p. 556; vol. ii, pp. 125, 422, 429; Ath. Ox., vol. ii, p. 548; also Index of Names, s.n.)

12 "Willoughbye." Thomas Willoughby is entered in Alum. West. (p. 47) under

3 "hackluyte." The ever-to-be-remembered RICHARD HAKLUYT, on whom see our Introduction. He was elected from Westminster to Christ Church, Oxford, 1570; B.A, 1573; Prebendary of Bristol and afterwards of Westminster. (Consult Wood's Athenæ., by Bliss, vol. ii, p. 186; Fasti, vol. i, pp. 193, 206; also Colonel Chester's Westminster Abbey, p. 113; Alum. West., pp. 47, 48, 50, 81).

before, pp. 94-132.

15 "cloth for the same gownes." Thirty-one poor scholars had here gowns a-piece, for which were bought sixty-five yards of cloth, costing 19½. 10s. 6d. The cost per yard was about 6s., and each gown took two yards and a fraction. The cloth must thus have been of ample breadth. It was of the "newe collore," which is likely to have been either a blue or crimson. The cost per yard betokens no mean quality of fabric for these gowns, one of which was worn by the fair-faced, star-eyed schoollad, Edmund Spenser, poet in posse. See former notice on page 5.

1 "Blacke coattes genen to gentellmen Srvantes." The first two names, Nicholas Halsted and Henry Ryley of Lancashire, were, in all likelihood, servants of the Nowells and Townleys or other Lancashire notables who had homes in London at this time. Nicholas Halsted may have been a connexion of the Halsteds of Burnley, and Henry Ryley of a yeoman family of Ryley of the Green, near Hoghton Tower, or else of the Ryleys of High Ryley in Accrington, in the county of Lancaster. A Ryley is named among Bishop Jewel's favourite "servants" in his Will. These "black coats" were made of fine broad cloth, varying from 7s. to 12s. the yard, which, considering the value of money then, must be reckoned a handsome price to pay for cloth to be bestowed in coats upon "gentlemen servants."

2 "thre mene of Mr. Secritorie Cicill." It has an odd look to find, as here and elsewhere, the foremost men in the State and Church allowing their "servants" to receive gifts of "coattes" and the like. Cecil's name recurs. See Index of Names, s.n.

3 "men of Mr. Attourney generall." This was Sir Gilbert Gerard, who filled the office from 1558 to 1580.

4 "beddelles": Maitland relates, that, in the year 1569, the city being "greatly beddelles": "sixteen pestered by sturdy beggars, and loose, idle, disorderly people of both sexes," "sixteen Beadles were enjoined to take up all vagrants, and to carry them to Bridewell; all sick, lame, blind, aged, and to carry them to St. Bartholomew's; and all children beggars, under the age of 16, to Christ's Hospital." (History of London, vol. i, p. 257.)

""henry petssey of Chaldwell" the only known Caldwell (or Chaldwell) is a township in the parish of St. John, Stanwick, North Riding of Yorkshire, eight miles north of Richmond.

See our Introduction.

9 "Alexander Bradshowe." He, as well as Robert Pyckeringe last-noted, was a personal servant of Dean Alexander Nowell. Both occur frequently in the later pages of the MS. as witnesses to gifts out of this trust. From their names I imagine they were both Lancashire men. Alexander Bradshaw was still the Dean's servant in 1592, when the Dean made his will, by which the said Alexander was to have a legacy of five

- 1 "Sarvantes of Mr. Deanes of Lytchfylde": viz., of Laurence Nowell, who was installed "Dean" 20 March 1559-60. (Le Neve, vol. i, p. 562.) See Index of Names,
- s.n.
 ² "Mr Towenley": John Towneley of Towneley, in the county of Lancaster, Esq.,

 Property and Robert Nowell's will. He was a "recusant" (Roman Catholic), and suffered greatly for his religious fidelity. For an account of him, see Churton's Life of Dean Nowell, and our Introduction.

 "hampsted": then (1568) far removed from the city.

 "James Woolton": see Index of Names, s.n. "Mr. Attournei" was, as before, Robert Nowell; and these "servantes" occur often.

5 "John Wylkinsone": see former note and Index of Names, s.n.
6 "panyermane" = pannier-men. "In the Inns of Court one who minds a horse or rings a bell to call the gentlemen to dinner or supper, and furnishes mustard, pepper and vinegar," (Bailey, s.v.)

7 "Father paidge of henden": "Father" like "Mother" is applied to aged persons in the MS. For Nowell's connection with Henden, see our Introduction.

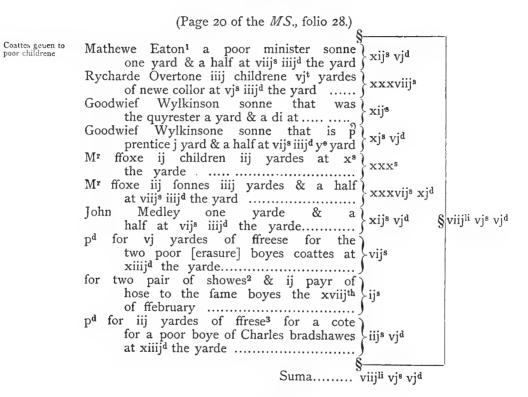

8 "frances bowyeres": see Index of Names, s.n., and former note.
9 "Lowes": unintelligible to the Editor; perhaps miswritten for "boyes."
10 "Mr Mills": An intimate friend of Robert Nowell, to whom the latter bequeathed the price of a ring:—"I doe bequethe unto my goode freinde Mr Henrie Milles the some of vili xiijs iiijd to buye hym a ringe in remembraunce of me." (See the Will, in our Introduction, and previous relative note.)

1 "by" = buy. See Index of Names, s.n., for other references to all these "kinsmen and servantes."

2 "blake hose and capes." Each of these kinsmen in attendance upon Robert Nowell and his brother the Dean of St. Paul's, had received black coats (see preceding page), and money to buy them hose and capes (see page 3); and now they received 5/. 9s. 8d. amongst them to procure "black hose and capes" = caps, to be worn during the period of mourning for their deceased benefactor.

- 1 "Matthew Eaton": One "Master Matthew Heton" appears in the Register of the Stationers' Company as certifying certain books in 1590 and 1591, e.g., "3 May, 1591, Ric. Jones, entred for his Copie in full court Bryton's Bowers of Delights, being under the hand of Master Mathew Heton." (Arber's Transcript, vol. ii, p. 274.) For the other names see Index of Names, s.n., for various references.
- 2 "showes" = shoes.

 3 "frese" = frieze or coarse woollen cloth. So before. On other names in this page not here noted see the Index of Names, s.n., for other references.

1 "Rychard Johnsonn M'chante Tayler": see Index of Names under Merchant-Tailors, also relative Note on page 15, whereon several of these "Taylers" are noticed. Richard Johnson is in the MS. also called "Johnson." (See Index, s.n.) 2 "Will'm Albaney": Mr. William Albany was one of seven "worshipfull men" appointed by a court of the Governors of Merchant Taylors' School on 19th March, appointed by a court of the Governors of Merchant Taylors' School on 19th March, 1572, to make suit unto Sir William Cordall, knt., Master of the Rolls, to procure the observation of the statute of St. John's College, Oxford, providing for the nomination to that College of forty-three scholars out of the Grammar School of the Merchant Taylors' Company. (Clode's Memorials of Merchant Taylors' Company, p. 407.)

3 "my lady White": This lady was widow of Sir Thomas White, the founder of Merchant Taylors' School and of St. John the Baptist's College, Oxford. Sir Thomas White died 11th February 1566. His relict here named was his second wife, Joan Lake durchter of John Lake of London graphlemen. Lake White died in 1877. But White died 11th February 1566. His relict here named was his second wife, Joan Lake, daughter of John Lake of London, gentleman. Lady White died in 1573. By her first husband, Sir Ralph Warren (twice Lord Mayor of London, in 1536 and 1543), she was mother of Richard Warren. By her second husband, Sir Thomas White, she had no issue. (See Clode's Memorials of the Guild of Merchant Taylors, p. 456.)

4 "Mr. Spearke": This probably was the "John Sperck" who was one of a commission of Merchant Taylors appointed, in 1567, to search and report on the names of the special property of freemen of that mystery, keeping booths in Bartholomew Fair. (Clode, ut supra, p. 112.)

5 "Willm. Kymptone": William. Kympton, Merchant Taylor, was, with others of the fraternity, a witness in an inquiry in February, 1568-9, as to the means by which a manifesto by the Spanish Ambassador had been circulated in London. (See Clode's Memorials, pp. 650-1.) On March 24th, 1571-2, Mr. Robert Hulson, Mr. William Kympton, and Mr. Nicholas Spencer were appointed to assist the Master and Wardens Kympton, and Mr. Nicholas Spencer were appointed to assist the Master and Wardens of the Merchant Taylors' Company to select men to attend upon Queen Elizabeth in military costume, on May-day, 1572 (Ibid, p. 140). "Mr. William Kympton, draper," occurs further on in our MS., where Edward Kimpton, also a draper, is mentioned on the same page. Some years later, William Kympton is found an Alderman of the City of London, and fell into trouble, as John Stow narrates:—"The 26 of Aprill [1579] William Kympton Alderman of London, was by the lord Chancelor sent to the fleete, about a letter late by him received, from the Vicar of Hadley in Middlesex beside Barnet. This letter amongst other matters mentioned of a role pulled down of beside Barnet. This letter amongst other matters mentioned of a pale pulled down at Northall, by the commons there, &c., for concealing whereof, the said Alderman was committed as aforesaid. And on the 15 of Maie, was in the Starred chamber condemned to pay 500 marks fine, and to remaine prisoner at the pleasure of his maiestie." (Annales, p. 1173.) A great penalty for a small offence, surely!

1 "eleven pete canons." Four of the petty canons of St. Paul's of this date are named later in the MS. as having received each black cloth worth 27s.; their names are: Mr. Leeke, Mr. Beckwith, Mr. Saywarde, and Rychard Crosse. The first, Mr. Leeke, very likely was identical with "John Lyke, petye canone," so named on this Leeke, very likely was identical with "John Lyke, petye canone," so named on this page.

1 "vargeres" = vergers.
2 "Wylliam Lyde subdean"—unknown.
3 "John Lyke petye canone." (See above.)
4 "Rushewes" = rushes—used for strewing upon floors before carpets were introduced.
5 "soderinge" = soldering.
6 "travell" = travail, pains-taking.
7 "mendeth the orgaynes." The entry of 3s. 6d. paid to him that mendeth the organs suggests that the organ in St. Paul's had to be repaired for use at the funeral.
8 "Sancta Sanctor" = the most consecrated place.
9 "paving of the grave," &c. — eheu! the stone and "gravinge" have long since perished; but see our Introduction.

1 "Raffe Whitline psonne of St. Andrewes in holborne": Ralph or Radolphus Whitlin or Whitling became "parson" of St. Andrew's, "8 February 1558 per mort Nic. Burton" and John Proctor, S. T. P., succeeded 13 March 1578, "per mort Whytlin." (Newcourt, as before, vol. i, p. 275.) He had been Vicar of Feltham, Essex (22 Sep. 1554) per priv. Ric. Permentory (Ibid. p. 603), but he only held this living a short time, being succeeded by Edward Percival 1 October 1555, "per resig. Whitling." He was also Rector of Coringham, Essex, "10 October 1563 per mort Fisher," being succeeded there 12 December 1578, by Robert Draper, "per mort Whitlin." (Ibid. vol. ii, p. 194.)

vol. ii, p. 194.)

2 "Rychard Lawrance": see page 1, No. 5, and relative Note; also Index of Names for Thomas and Richard Laurence, and who were doubtless his sons or relatives.

(24)

1 "Mr. Robte cooke Esquier als clarenceux kinge of Armes for hyme & Mr. Chester harrold." Robert Cooke, Esq., Clarenceux King of Arms from 1566 to 1592, is stated to have been, as a herald, "one of the most useful members that the College (of Arms) ever had;" and "left behind him vast collections of descents of the nobility and gentry of this kingdom," with many ancient patents, evidences, ceremonials, books of tricks of arms, writings, muniments, &c. He was deputed with the Earl of Derby to invest Henry III. of France, and received for the service two gold chains, one worth 1201., the other of greater value. Queen Elizabeth on one occasion gave him 1,0001. His marriage is not noted, but he had a daughter Catherine, wife of John Woodnote of Sharington, in the county of Chester. He died in 1592, at Hanworth, in the county of Middlesex, and was buried there. (See Noble's Hist. of Coll. of Arms, pp. 168-9.) The "Chester herald" who assisted Clarenceux King of Arms in the business for which these fees were paid, was John Hart, Esq., who was made Chester herald in 1566, and died 16 July 1574. He was author of An Orthographie, published in "London, by W. Seres, 1569" (black letter). (See Lowndes, p. 1006.) In Arber's Transcript of the Stationers' Register, vol. i, p. 178, appears the entry of the fee paid by Master Seres for his license for printing this book of John Hart's, which is there entitled Orthographe, contayning the Due order of Reason.

Orthographe, contayning the Due order of Reason.

2 "Wagges of the payter." The armorial painter was paid 9%. 17s. for preparing the heraldic insignia to be borne at the funeral and to deck the hearse withal. A reference to the account of the great funeral of the Earl of Derby in 1573, as given by Seacome, will show similar provisions of "scutchions in metall upon buckrame," and "paper ryall," and "in collors upon paper ryall," as are here set forth.

The ffunerall Dynner¹

"The ffuneral Dynner": many most curious details on ancient Funerals will be found in Nicolas's Testamenta Vetusta (2 vols. 8vo, 1826). See Index Rerum, "Funerals and Religious Services for the Dead." There is also in Clode, as before, a very wherein many similar dainties, with those of the present, are detailed (pp. 164-181).

2 "Spyce." "The spiceres and pepper boxes were then [1472] usually made very large, and set exactly in the middle of the high table. Their shape was that of a tower, castellated and triple turreted, into which different kinds of spices were placed, of which our ancestors were inordinately fond. They were of the finest wrought silver, parcel gilt, and were sometimes called 'standing pieces'". (Test. Vet., vol. i, pp. xxxiv-v.) In agreement with this Ann Vere, Lady Cobham, bequeaths to her sister Shrewsbury her "potts with castles." (Ibid. vol. i, p. 325.) So too much earlier Edmund Earl of March [1382] leaves "to Friar John Gilbert, Bishop of Hereford, a plate of silver for spices, enamelled with the arms of Mortimer on the bottom, and a ring with four rubies, &c., and a diamond in the middle." (Ibid. p. 112.) Mr. Henry Mylls, grocer, who supplied these articles, was a triend of the deceased Robert Nowell, who left money for a memorial ring for him. (See Index of Names, s.n., for other references money for a memorial ring for filli. (See fildex of Frances, s.m., for other references to this personage.)

3 "Sugger." It will be noticed that in the subsequent entries in this place "course," i.e., coarse, sugar was "viijd" per pound and "fyne" was "xijd". These represent now respectively 6s. 8d. and 1os. per lb. See Chambers' Book of Days (vol. i, p. 489) for account of the enormous quantities of "sugar" (and spices) used by John, king of France, while captive in England. Contemporary "Household Books" likewise inform us on the extent and variety of ways in which "sugar" was employed. Even so late as Richard Crashaw, "sugar" had not lost the romance of its far-off sources, and so could be worked into neetry without being de trop.

so could be worked into poetry without being de trop.

4 "trencheres" = wooden platters.

5 "A stande" = frame-work or tressel. They are called in early wills "standards," c.g., John Cornwallis (1506) bequeaths his "standards in the brewhouse and the bakehouse." (Test. Vet. vol. ii, p. 479.)

6 "kilderkine of ale": i.e., kilderkin or small barrel, in opposition to the large "tun" or hogshead. Dryden used it drastically thus:

"A tun of man in thy large bulk is writ,

But sure thou'rt but a kilderkin of wit."

Such provision at a Funeral was frequent, earlier and later, e.g., Robert Fabyan the famous "Chronicler" (1512) among other things specifies "a kylderkyn of good ale with viijd cheese, to refresshe all comers" to his "obite" (Test. Vet. vol. ii, p. 507), and Andrews Lord Windsor says (1543), "I will that there be bestowed on the poor people of the parish, two kilderkins of beer and malmsey as heretofore has been named." (Ibid. vol. ii, p. 697.)

7 "beir" = beer. See last note.

8 "Sacke a runlett": "runlet" is the old name for a small barrel, holding various quantities from three to twenty gallons.

9 "hoghead" = hogshead, oxhead — now a cask of an indefinite quantity. The origin of the odd word is contested by Philologists and Antiquaries.

10 "sellere" = cellar: the payment of "ixt" for "brynginge yt in to the sellere" was liberal = 7s. 6d. It was probably a good-sized "cask."

"malmesey": so named from Malvasia in Greece: Latin vinum arvisium: it is now known as a strong and fine-flavoured sweet wine made in Madeira of grapes that have been left to shrivel upon the vine.

the first of shirter upon the thick is a factor of the first of the fi tinguished from the living, much as "bacon" from the pig similarly prepared. Thus William De Longespee, Earl of Salisbury [1226] bequeathed to the monastery of God's William De Longespee, Earl of Sansbury [1220] Bequeather of the Monard's Gotte, the House, "a thousand sheep, three hundred muttons, forty eight oxen, and fifteen bulls." (Dugdale, vol. i, p. 177; Test. Vet. vol. i, p. 50.) With reference to the pig and bacon they were long named "porks," e.g., in Sir John Davies' Observations to the Earl of Salisbury (1606). See Fuller Worthies' Library edition of his complete Works, vol. iii.

"veale": from Latin vitellus.

- 1 "maribons" = marrow-bones or bones containing marrow.
- 2 "dooe" = doe.
- 3 "James bill": "James," who bought these lambs, capons, and hens, was James Wolton, servant to Robert Nowell, and, after his death, to Dean Nowell. (See former note on this kinsman-servant of the Nowells.)

 - 4 " partreges" = partridges (game).
 5 "fesantes" = transition-form of "pheasants."
- daintest of small game in the sixteenth century. Larks must have been more numerous then than now, when no fewer than twenty-six and a half dozen of them, or 318 birds, costing 29s. 10d. of Elizabethan money, were consumed at this funeral dinner.
- 10 "uvyld fole" = wild fowl, as enumerated before.

 11 "pycke" = peck.

 12 "Varges" = Verjuice—often spelled "varges" or "vergis" in the old household books. It was used in sauces, and otherwise in cookery. In the account of things provided for the dinner given by the Merchant Taylors' Company to the King and Queen in 1607 (see Clode, ut supra), occurs the item:—"For vergis 5 gallons at 8d." 13 "Orringes" = oranges. This exotic fruit sold in London, in 1568, at two shill-

- lings the hundred.

 14 "greate coole" = large coal. "Loode" = load. The amount lii' = £26 to-day.

 15 "prickes" = skewers (for fastening meat), e.g., "the wilde cherrie tree, the dog tree: the tree of the wood whereof butchers make their pricks." (Nomenclator, Wright, s.v.) So too, Taylor the Water-Poet:—

 "I next dwelt with a butcher, that had tricks

- 1 "A kyrchine brone" = a kitchen brone.

 2 "m'che paynes" = march-pane a sweet biscuit, resembling our present macaroons, used much anciently for desserts. Gervase Markham in his Countrey Farme, 1616, informs us that they were made "of very little flour, but with a greater quantity of filberts, fine nuts, pistaces, almonds, and rosed sugar." It is to be noted that the present value of the expenditure on this single item was even more than for the "great coole" in his single and now. coale," i.e., liij² = 26l. 13s. 4d. now.

 3 "Watters" = waiters, attendants. Their wage of iij³ iiij⁴ was equal now to 1l. 3s. 4d.

 4 "booke of clothe"—the book wherein was entered payments for "clothe."

5 "Lockrame" = a kind of cheap linen.

6 "offatory" = offertory.
7 "Mr. Sackeforde"—The writing at first deceived me to read here "Mr. Shackspere," i.e., Shakespere: but a closer scrutiny resolved it into an unknown "Mr. Sackeforde."

"Mr. Deane," i.e., Dean Nowell.

9 "poor mene that hade Gownes": Many interesting details on such "Gownes" are given in Nicolas's Test. Vet. as before, under "Gowns" in Index Rerum. This item of vjd a pece = vjli, is equal now to 60l. Sir Thomas Gresham, knt., founder of the Royal Exchange in London, and of many rich London Charities, died November 21st, 1579, and had a great funeral. By his Will, says Stow, "he gave to a hundred poore 1579, and had a great funeral. By his Will, says Stow, "he gave to a hundred poore men, so many blacke gownes of sixe shillings eight pence the yard, to a hundred poore women the like gownes at the day of his buriall." (Annales, edition 1594, p. 1175.) Compare this with the 254 gownes given to as many poor men at Robert Nowell's obsequies, the cloth for which also cost 6s. 8d. the yard; and twenty-nine gowns of more costly fabric to as many of the "poorer sort of women." Dean Nowell, by his Will dated 8th January, 1592, directs "that at the time of my burial if that shall happen to be in I noder of the poorer was shall happen to be in I noder of the poorer sort of women." to be in London, fifty poor men shall have every of them a gown of cloth of the price of twenty shillings every gown of any color saving black for that is least durable." (Churton's Life, appendix, p. 433.)

1 "To the marriage of a poor maid": There are many such items in this MS. In Testamenta Vetusta, as before, will be found many similar legacies "to poor Virgins for their marriage," a.g., Henry II. of England bequeathed "M marks of silver, to-wards the marriage of poor and free women of England wanting aid" (vol. i, pp. 2, 3), and "C marks" for the like in Normandy (vol. i, p. 4). Again, Agnes de Clifford (before 1223) left "to thirty poor maidens, to their marriage xxx*" (ibid, vol. i, p. 45). So too Sir Thomas Sackville, knt. (1432) "to fifty poor virgins (such as my executors shall elect) xiijs iiijd each towards their marriage" (ibid, vol. i, p. 222).

2 "the Pultrie": The Poultry, a short street in continuation of Cheapside at the east end, close to the Mansion House, the very focus of London retail trade, then as now.

3 "mr. Cople of Bowe": Mr. Robert Cole, vicar of Bow Church, London. See

The Irelands of Lancashire were amongst the Nowells' humbler kinsfolk. See Index of Names, s.n.

7 "Standene": Standon here referred to is a parish and manor in Herts., adjoining on the north Much Hadham, where Robert Nowell had an estate. Sir Ralph Sadler, a soldier of note and M.P. for Herts., was lord of Standon manor at this date, and died at Standon Hall in 1587.

8 "brocke"—query brockman or horseman. "Brock" meant an inferior horse: "brockman" in Kent, a "horseman"; or, as elsewhere in the MS., horse-keeper, 9 "foxes Daughter": see Index of Names under "Foxe" frequenter.

1 "Banaster." Banastre is the ancient, and correct, spelling of the surname of a Lancashire family of great antiquity, and of numerous branches. The name is now often found corrupted to Bannister. Grace Banaster, who had this gift of 10s. on her wedding in 1576, albeit a "poore maiden," was, I opine, a well-connected maiden, and a neighbour, if not somehow related, to the Nowells of Read.

2 "Standon." See note on the preceding page.

3 "Wydforde": Widford is next parish to the south of Hadham, in the county of

- Herts.
- 4 "Mr. Thoms Eaton, gowner of the marchantes," i.e., of the Merchant Taylors. See Index of Names, s.n. Clode registers only a William and Henry Eaton or Heton.

 5 "Whyskarde"—a singular surname.

⁶ The entries on this, the preceding, and the next pages, be it noted, though coming thus early in the MS., belong to a later period of the distribution of the money under Robert Nowell's trust than many that follow. These marriage gifts, by the dates given, extended over nine years, from October, 1571, to October, 1580. The items in the book cannot, therefore, have been inserted always when the payments were made; nor can the pages have been written up sequentially.

3 "Wylkinsonns towe daughters." See as on last Note.
4 "Rychard Neave (the fysshmonger) daughter": Richard Neave, or Neve, the London fishmonger, was a connexion of the Nowells by marriage, having had to wife Grace Nowell (if she was cousin or niece of Robert Nowell and Dean Nowell, I cannot quite make out). These later entries relate to the same person:—"One Mr. Neve, a fyshmonger, who married a kinswoman"; "the old mane that married Grace Nowell to his wief w'ch he hathe nowe"; "our cosin Anthonie Neve, sonne unto Rycharde Neve, who marriedge [sie] Grace Nowell, w'ch said Ric. ys a fyshmonger"; "one father Neve, who married o' brother Robte kynswoman, a pore old man"—this last entry is dated 11th February, 1575, and there is a similar entry dated 26th April, 1576.

5 "Anne Bowyear my gode daughter": See Index of Names, s.n. The gift of a "cuppe" also, value 30s., testifies that this lady was a daughter of one of the Bowyers, previously noted as intimate friends of Dean Nowell.

6 "Iddie langley": She was the wife of Sir Robert Langley of Agecroft, in the county of Lancaster, whose name occurs in the Heralds' Visitations of 1533 and 1567, and was Cicely, second daughter of Sir Edmund Trafford, knt. 7 "paule foxe": See Index of Names, s.n.

" "hearhafter"—the inserted "h" is to be noted.

2 "John Seller." He was akin to the Nowells. Some account of the family of Sellers of Whalley will be appended to later references in the MS. See Index of Names, s.n.
3 "beyr" = beer, as before.

* "beyr" = beer, as before.

* "warde," i.e., a ward in Chancery. Our Nowell, as Master of the Court of Wards, had many such in his care. The ward here named, Thurston Mychell, for whose board, for one year, 11%. 4s. 3½d. was paid, would be some orphan whose wardship had been committed to Robert Nowell, and was undertaken, at his decease, by Dean Nowell as his executor. Mr. Cooles of Devonshire, who had the ward at his house to board, is not known. Not improbably he was a clergyman.

* "presse"—probably a cup-board. Such are found in ancient Wills. See Test.

Vet., s.v.

6 "booded the p'lower flower" = boarded the parlour floor. As an illustration of the pay of craftsmen temp. Elizabeth, be it noted that this village carpenter and his man had 5s. between them for a whole week's work in Robert Nowell's country-house, or, say, 3s. the week for master, and 2s. for man. Fourpence or fivepence a day was held fair wages for skilled mechanics in the sixteenth century, and in what it would buy, that sum went as far as four shillings might go now.
7 "cardes": One can imagine the grave Dean's face in paying this "gaming" debt.

8 "oughte" = owed.

9 "Md" = memorandum.

10 "read coyne" = red or gold coin. The use of "red" for the colour of gold has led to the historical blunder of describing the great Elizabeth's hair as "red." A lock led to the historical blunder of describing the great Elizabeth's hair as "red." A lock remains at Wilton to prove it was golden and as it were flecked with sunlight. (See Sir Philip Sidney's Poems in Fuller Worthies' Library, vol. i, p. 224.)

11 "my L of penbrocke." Sir William Herbert, first Earl of Pembroke, died in 1569, and was succeeded by his son Henry, as second Earl. He died 19th January, 1601, his third wife having been Sir Philip Sidney's sister Mary.

1 "To the poore in the marshallsey," i.e., in the prison so named. As with marriages of "poore maidens" this was anciently a frequent form of posthumous benevolence, e.g., Joane, Lady Bergavenny (1434) bequeaths "to the finding and deliverance of poor prisoners that have been well conditioned xll" (Test. Vet., vol. i, p. 226), and Sir William Fitzwilliam, knt. (1534), leaves his wife a "mansion house" on "condition of paying iv per annum" to his executors, which he orders them "to bestow yearly for the delivery of poor prisoners within the City of London, that shall be acquitted and remain for their fees," (ibid, vol. ii, p. 667). John Howard and Mrs. Fry had modest predecessors in visiting of "poore prisoners."

2 "visited of the plague". For a most vivid description of the "Plague" in London "visited of the plague": For a most vivid description of the "Plague" in London. two generations later, let the Reader, who is interested in such matters, consult John Davies of Hereford's very remarkable Triumph of Death or the Picture of the Plague appended to his Humours Heav'n on Earth (1603) - in Chertsey Worthies' Library edition of his Works. The plague was rife in London in 1578, but by this entry seems to have been lurking in the city in October, 1577.

3 "counter in wood strett"—another prison. In Literature it is memorable in association with Humfrey Gifford, the "sweet singer" of the Posie of Gilloflowers (1580), who held office in it. See "Occasional Issues," reproduction of the "Posie," with Memorial-Introduction, 4 "clerke," i.e., cleric or clergyman.

6 "Christes hospitall," i.e., Christ Church Hospital for "poor children." The site was granted on the Greyfriars Monastery, and it was (practically) founded in 1552. Charles Lamb and Coleridge have immortalized this under its name of the "Blue Coat School.'

7 "presoners of ev'ry preson in London & South woorke": Here, and subsequently in our MS., the several prisons and places of confinement for debtors in and about London, temp. Elizabeth, are named. At folio 49 verso, the prisons enumerated are those of "Newgatt, Ludgatt, the counter in wood streete, the counter in the pultery [Poultry], Brydwell, bedlim [Bedlam, contraction of Bethlehem], the kinges benche, the marshallsey, the whyte Lyon and the counter in Suthworke, the gate-howse and byshopps preson in westm." [Westminster]. There was also the Fleet Prison, mentioned on this page. Particulars of the foundation of several of these prisons may be found in Maitland's History of London, s.n.

1 "Nicholes Rignot": unknown.

1 "Nicholes Rignot": unknown.
2 "Mr. Russell a poor Scottishe preacher": There was a Jerome Russell who suffered martyrdom in the year 1539. (See Knox's History, vol. i.) In the Book of the Universal Kirk is found a Mr. David Russell, Bailie of St. Andrew's, accused before the Assembly of writing a slanderous letter in 1583. A "Mr. Russell," who preached on the Borders, comes up contemporaneously with Bernard Gilpin. Probably our "Mr. Russell" belonged to these Scottish Russells.
3 "Mr. Barnes, a Larned ffrinchman." This entry and the one preceding may refer to Peter Baro or Baron, on whom see note 8, infra.
4 "Mr. Vellerious." This was M. Villars, French preacher in London, on whom see note upon a further reference onward in the MS.. and Index of Names, s.n.

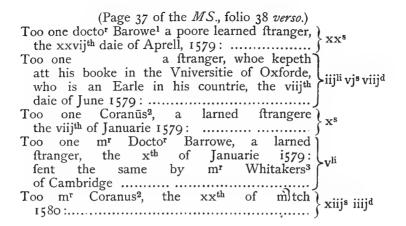

see note upon a further reference onward in the MS., and Index of Names, s.n.

"Mr. Corranus"; and infra "Corranus" and "Coranus": see Index of Names, s.n., for notice onward of this learned Spanish preacher.

""" one musculus a poore larned stranger": Two letters of Laurence Humphrey, printed by the Parker Speciety in Zurich Letters, vol. ii, pp. 298-301, enable us to identify this "poor larned stranger" as Wolfgang Musculus, junior, son of Abraham Musculus, and grandson of the eminent German Reformer Wolfgang Musculus, at this time but recently deceased. Our MS. share that remember Musculus, at this time but recently deceased. Our MS. shews that young Musculus received 20s. out of the Nowell bounty on the 20th of May, 1578, and Mr. Humphrey's second letter to his father, Abraham Musculus, is dated at London, 5th June, 1578, only sixteen days later than the date of this entry, and commences:—"I have received your letter, most learned in and and old if I have been of our carried to the received your letter, most learned sir, and am glad if I have been of any service to your son Wolfgang, or in any way useful to you. Having been a stranger myself, I have learned to befriend strangers." In the earlier letter, Mr. Humphrey, writing from Oxford, 3rd March, 1578, informs the elder Musculus that his son had left Oxford, and had staid some months in London, to pursue his studies and to hear sermons.

7 "Mr. Peter Barrow." "In the year 1576, July 11, a Cambridge D.D. was incorporated at Oxford, under the name of Peter Baro. In Haag we find his true name, Pierre Baron. He was a native of Estampes, and therefore designated by the adjective Stempanus. He had been incorporated in Cambridge on 3^d Feb. 1575, on presenting his French diploma as Licentiate of Civil Law of the College of Bourges. He had been hospitably received by Dr. Andrew Perne, Vice-chancellor, and was made Lady Margaret's Professor of Divinity in Cambridge. He drew his first stipend in the year 1576; but probably he had been elected in 1574, for in a letter to Lord Burghley, dated 1580, he speaks of his six years' labours. He wrote many volumes and tractates, and unhappily signalized himself by combating the received opinions concerning divine grace in the salvation of men, and in suggesting propositions for a verbal and apparent harmonizing of Romish and Protestant doctrines on that subject and on kindred points. The Lambeth Articles defining and elucidating the Reformation doctrines were sent down to Cambridge to promote peace, and commanded to be held as statutory at least to the extent, 'that nothing should be publicly taught to the contrary.' The only rebel was Dr. Baro, who on 12th January 1595 preached a sermon to the clergy (Concio ad Clerum), re-asserting his own theorems. Queen Elizabeth had heard of the Doctor's former irregularities, and communicated her warm displeasure to Archbishop Whitgift, her Majesty being pleased to observe that 'Dr. Baro, being an alien, ought to have carried himself quietly and peaceably in a country where he was so humanely harboured and enfranchised, both himself and family.' Dr. Baro was touched by this appeal, and also by the Archbishop's moderation; to the latter he wrote a letter dated 13th December 1595, expressing his adherence to his own published doctrines, but making this promise—'I will keep peace as long as I shall be here'; as to the Queen he said, 'I wish it may be known at length to the Queen's Majesty what my piety and reverence is toward her; indeed for her, and for the defence of the state of this church which she defends, I would shed my blood, if need were, with as willing and ready a mind as her own faithful subjects ought to do, and as she would have me do, since she has been willing to make me free of her kingdom, and my wife & children, and to confirm it with her seal." The death of Dr. Whitaker had just happened (viz., on 4th December), and Dr. Baro had desired to be promoted to the Regius Professorship of Divinity thus left vacant. For the sake of peace, however, he refrained from making any application for that chair; and in 1596 he withdrew from Cambridge, having resigned his Lady Margaret Professorship. He settled in London, living for many years in Crutched Fryers; there he died, and he was buried in the parish church of S' Olave in Hart Street. The city clergy attended his funeral (by order of the Bishop of London), and six Doctors of Divinity were his pall-bearers. Strype informs us that he left a large posterity behind him, and that his eldest son, Samuel Baro, was a Physician, and lived and died in Lynn-Regis, in Norfolk. Anthony-a-Wood says, 'The Baro's, or Barons (as they are by some called), who do now, or did lately, live at Boston in Lincolnshire, and at King's Lynn in Norfolk, are descended from him.' But neither of these great antiquaries was able to give the date of his death." (Agnew, as before, p. 111.) With reference to Dr. Baro's theological opinions, they followed Arminius rather than Calvin. His case is discussed in Hickman's Historia Quinquarticularis Exarticulata (second edition, p. 209, et seq.) It is said (p. 212), alluding to the London clergy attending his funeral, "This plainly shews, thinks he, that there were many of both universities that openly favoured Baro's doctrines." (Heylin's Quinq. History, p. 90.) But do we indeed favour and plainly declare that we favour, the opinions of those whose funerals we attend? If so, then we must never go to the funeral of a Roman Catholic; then did Queen Elizabeth and her Bishop, Grindal, plainly discover themselves friends to Popery, when they so significantly celebrated the funeral of the Emperor. I am able to supplement above by this record, that Barrow or Baro was buried in the Chancel of the Church (ut supra) by this record, that Barrow or Baro was buried in the Chancel of the Church (us supra) on 17th April, 1579. The entry in the Parish Register is simply "Mr. Docter Barrowe." ""

"" one Harmannus": The reference is very likely to a foreign Protestant refugee, named Herman, who is spoken of in several of Bishop Jewel's letters to continental friends, printed in the Zurich Letters, vol. i.; e.g., writing on 10th August, 1562, to Josiah Simler, Jewell says: "Your Herman is at last become mine... he reached Salisbury on the 8th of July, having escaped with difficulty from the tumults in France."

His full name is not given in any of Jewel's allusions.

10 "one Cassidorus." Cassiodorus was a Spanish preacher in London at this period.

He is named in Grindal (Parker Society), pp. 310, 313.

1 "phacye" = probation or proving, as before. The total of the charges incurred in this proving of Robert Nowell's Will, is given in the MS., at the foot of the page, as 10/. 6s. 10d. It is a few shillings less than that sum according to the items here presented.

2 "Mr. Doctor hewycke": a long forgotten Lawyer, as are all in these successive entries.

3 "examininge our brothers ynvintorie": The two last entries on the page are of a subsequent insertion, and do not belong to the charges for probacy of the will. They are payments to the attorney, Mr. Harrison, and his clerk; the latter, for writing out the inventory of Robert Nowell's goods, the former, for examining the same. Apparently the inventory was not made out until the month of May, 1572, three years after the Will had been proved.

1 "my L. of Baythes Landes," and infra: This was John Bourchier, Baron fitz Warine, created Earl of Bath, July 9th, 1536. Extinct, 1654. Robert Nowell bequeathed his lease of Lord Bath's lands jointly to his executors; and these were the first payments of the executors on account of the rent of the same lands; the half year's rent was 1061. 13s. 7\frac{3}{2}d., or 213l. 7s. 3\frac{1}{2}d. per annum. Seeing that the rental value of land, 300 years ago, was not generally more than 2s. to 3s. an acre yearly, the above estate, leased by Robert Nowell from the Earl of Bath, must have been an extensive one of some 2,000 acres, less or more.

1 "Thoms Evanes." See Index of Names, s.n.

2 "Thoms Nowell of Reade": He was nephew of Dean Nowell and Robert Nowell, Esq., being son and heir of their elder half brother, Roger Nowell of Read, Esq. The sum of 8t. entered here as paid to Thomas Nowell is described to be "the charge of the conveyance of the inheritance of Read." The date is the 6th of July, 1569. Roger Nowell, Esq., Thomas's father, died at Read Hall, on the 2nd of September, 1567, and was buried at Whalley Church, the 8th of the same month. It was found at the Inquisition post mortem, taken on 14th January, 1567-8, that Thomas Nowell, Roger's son and heir, was then aged forty years and upwards. Thomas Nowell, Esq., Roger's son and heir, was then aged forty years and upwards. Thomas Nowell, Esq., had thus recently entered upon his inheritance in 1569, when his uncle, the Dean, out of his other uncle Robert's estate, handsomely paid the charges of the conveyance. In Churton's pedigree of the Nowells there are two errors in the entry respecting this scion. It is said that he died in "1561," and "without issue." He had two daughters, Grace and Elizabeth, by his wife Benet, daughter of Richard Towneley, Esq. He had also a son John, who was baptized at Whalley, 8th February, 1571, and died young. This son was by a second wife, Alice, whom Thomas Nowell married before 1565, when Thomas Nowell of Reade, Esq., and Alice his wife, appear as parties to a deed in which Thomas Willotte of Manchester, merchant, is the other party. The 10th February, 1575-6, the MS. records a gift of 43s. 4d. "to or cosin Alice Nowell, mr. Thoms Nowells wieffe of Reade," and from the burial register of Manchester Collegiate Church. I get this item:—1500, Ian, 14. "Alvee register of Manchester Collegiate Church, I get this item:—1590. Jan. 14. "Alyce Wydowe to Thomas Nowell, of Read, Esquire, buried." Thomas Nowell, Esq., died in 1576, after having held the family estates about nine years.

3 "Willm Laborne." This explains that the "Lands" of preceding entries belonged to this gentleman, who must have been resident in Westmorland. He was probably of the family of Layborne of Cunwick, in the county of Westmorland, and a descendant of Thomas Layborne of Cunwick, Esq., one of whose daughters (Isabel), marrying William Carus of Astwayth, was mother of Thomas Carus, Justice of the King's Bench (living in 1567); and another (Anne), was wife of Leonard Langton, sixth son of Sir Thomas Langton, Knt.

"Canderes" = laundress to Mr. Attourney, i.e., to our Nowell.
In the MS., this entry down to "acquitance" is erased. See of the "presse" before (p. 33, note 5).

6 "Trustram mychell": See a previous entry of payment for this ward at page 56. 7 "myndinge the pulpit in poulls": On occasion of the obsequies of the Dean's brother, the pulpit of St. Paul's would be dressed with the emblems of mourning for the dead; and the carpenter here named was employed to prepare the pulpit "the day before the funerall." I am not sure if the word spelled "myndinge" in the MS. means mending or fitting up the pulpit, or, minding = watching.

1 "Mr. Auditour Tooke": William Tooke, Esq., of Popes in Hatfield Parish, in the county of Herts, was auditor of the Court of Wards and Liveries from 1544 to 1588. He was the son of Ralph Tooke of Godington, Esq. He married Alice, daughter of Robert Barley of Bibbesworth, in the county of Herts, by whom he had issue, nine sons and three daughters. He died 4th December 1588, aged eighty, and was buried, with his wife, in the church of Essendon, near his estate. His eldest son, and successor in the office of auditor, was Walter Tooke, Esq., of Popes, who, by his wife Angelot (her epitaph is in Wormley church), had issue, eight sons and four daughters. His eldest son was Ralph; his fourth son, John Tooke, succeeded his father as auditor of the Court of Wards and Liveries in 1609; and he, again, was followed in that office by his younger brother Thomas Tooke, who died in 1670. An interesting account of the Tookes, several of whom later were of literary note, is printed in Nichols' Literary Anecdotes, vol. ix, pp. 159–180. In Dean Nowell's letter printed in Nichols Literary Anecaotes, vol. ix, pp. 159-180. In Dean Nowell's letter to Lord Burghley concerning Brasenose college endowment, dated 1596, he names "Mr. Auditor Tooke, who in consideration of a lease of Esyndon in the countie of Hertford, was contented to pay me yerely xv^{ll} for the space of xvi years, to assure the same unto the college of Brasenose." (Churton's Life of Nowell, p. 422.) Robert Nowell had a lease of Essendon from Mr. Auditor Tooke; and in his Will bequeaths it to his cousin John Nowell, if the lease prove good, but complains that Mr. Tooke had "delte therein subtellie and extreamelie," in that he had insisted the lease was forficited for non-payment of the rest. ethough the rent had been offered to Mr. Tooke forfeited for non-payment of the rent, although the rent had been offered to Mr. Tooke before the day of payment by testator's servant, Richard Whitaker. (See the Will, in the Introduction.)

2 "Thomas Bowyer": Here, and infra on the opposite page. This member of the Bowyer family was, it appears, a lawyer, and was employed by Dean Nowell to prepare certain legal instruments necessary in a suit in the Court of Wards. He is once or twice after named similarly as being engaged in lawyer's work for the Dean.

3 "sewinge" = suing.

1 "earle of baythe": see note I on p. 4I.
2 "Som'shr" = Somersetshire.
3 "estrenged" = exchanged.
4 "Alexr Nowell inter Goodlande" (in the margin): The items opposite this margin. ginal entry, refer to legal expenses incurred in the prosecution of a suit (the occasion of which does not appear) between Alexander Nowell (the Dean) and one Goodlande, heard at Michaelmas Term, 13 and 14 Elizabeth (1571), and at Hillary Term, 14 Elizabeth (1572). Perhaps the last entry on the page has reference to the same litigation; the words at the end are obscure in the MS., but seem to be "To Mr. Anslowe the attourney for his paynes for suetts in lawe againste the executors of the Tenantes in lyncolneshire."

5 "a co'veyance betweete Mr. Poole of Dalbey in the woldes and my mr." This item is explained in a letter written by Dean Nowell to Lord Burghley, wherein he states, that he had endowed Brazenose College with six scholarships by means of a rental assured by Mr. Auditor Tooke, "in consideration of a lease of Esyndon in the countie of Hertford"; and what follows relates to the matter which occurs here in our MS.:—
"And I payed to Mr. Henrie Poole of Dalby in Leicestershyre who maide a title to the said Esyngdon for his interest cxxii."

1 "mr. Gylberte Garrarde, esquier": Robert Nowell, in his Will, gives "to Mr. Gilberte Gerrarde the quenes Matter generall attorney vii to make hym a ringe wt all and iiij yardes of velvet for his coate," and makes him one overseer of the Will. It is in the latter capacity he appears here upon the record of the payment of legacies under the Will. Gilbert Gerard, Esq., was eldest son of James Gerarde of the Ince, in the county of Lancaster, Esq., by his wife Margaret, daughter of Sir John Holcroft, knt. The Gerards of Ince descended from a second son of one of the ancieut stock of Gerards of Bryn, in the county of Lancaster. He proceeded to London to study the law. In 1537 he was admitted of Gray's Inn, and two years after was called to the bar. In 1554 he was appointed autumn-reader by the Benchers of Gray's Inn; and in 1556, joint-treasurer of that society with Nicholas Bacon, afterwards Lord Keeper. Mary, when the Princess Elizabeth was summoned before the Council, Mr. Gilbert Gerard defended her with so much spirit that he was sent to the Tower, and was not liberated until the end of Mary's reign. On Elizabeth's accession, he was promptly rewarded for his service to her by appointment as Attorney General, in December, 1558. He had taken the degree of Serjeant-at-Law in the same year. In the Will of Gerrard of Greis Inne," and besides one of testator's best horses and a ring of gold and 5/., he was to have after Sir John's wife's death, "his new house, with all the ground belonging to the same," for his life. He was knighted in 1579, and on 30th May, 1581, was appointed Master of the Rolls. Sir Gilbert Gerard was elected Member for Wigan in 1553, and Knight of the Shire for the county of Lancaster, in 1585. He died 4th February, 1592-3. He had married Anne, daughter and sole heir of Thomas Radcliffe of Wynmarleigh, Esq., and by that marriage acquired for his family the estates of the Radcliffes in Clitheroe, Wynmarleigh, and in several townships of Blackburn parish. He had two sons, Thomas, the heir; and Radcliffe, who was drowned, but who founded the house of Gerards of Brandon, Earls of Macclesfield; also, daughters, Frances, wife of Sir Richard Molyneux, bart.; Margaret, wife of Peter Leigh, Esq.; Catherine, wife of Sir Richard Hoghton, knt. and bart.; and Radeliffe, wife of — Wingfield, Esq. Sir Thomas Gerard, son and heir of Sir Gilbert, was appointed Knight Marshall in 1598, and was raised to the peerage, as Baron Gerard of Gerard's Bromley, in the county of Stafford, 31st July, 1603.

"mr. Raphe Barton esquiere." This gentleman is named as a legatee both in the Will of Robert Nowell and in the Codicil; in the former, testator gives "to M' Raphe barton my beste gowne and my beste chyste that he will chose and fyve m'kes [marks] to make hym a ringe wt"; in the latter, testator says:—"I doe bequeathe unto M' Rafe barton of graies Inne my good freinde the some of xlli & my best furred gowne & my best other gowne faced wt velvet." In an entry below on this page of the MS., Mr. Raffe Barton receives his "towe gownes for his legacye"; and the first entry on the next page is a payment of 40% to Mr. Raffe Barton as a legacy. Ralph Barton, Esq., of Gray's Inn at this date, was second son of Andrew Barton of Smithells, in the county of Lancaster, Esq.; he was brother of Robert Barton, Esq., and in consequence of the latter having no male issue, Ralph Barton was his heir, and became lord of the manors of Smithells and Blackburn, with other family possessions, on his brother's death in 1580. At the date of his succession to the estates he was fifty-seven years of age. He died in 1592.

3 "Thoms holcrofte." This "servante to m Secretory Cicill" was no doubt of the family of Holcrofte of Holcrofte, in the county of Lancaster; and might be a younger son of Sir John Holcroft, knt., whose fourth son was named Thomas. Another contemporary Thomas Holcroft was the son and successor of Sir Thomas Holcroft, of Vale Royal, in the county of Chester, brother of Sir John Holcroft, and a great speculator in sequestrated abbey lands.

4 "Hughe Hallsall." He was a trusty man-servant of Robert Nowell, to whom 40s.

was bequeathed by his will; increased to the large sum of 100% in the codicil; the discharge of which is recorded by this entry. (See the name in earlier entries and subsequent.) Three other servants of Robert Nowell occur here as receiving bequests—

John Thorpe, Lambert Langtree, and Thomas Rayner.

5 "Thoms Nowell and Laurance Nowell." These two are described in the Will of Robert Nowell by the term "cosin," and to receive 20%, a-piece. Sons, probably, of one of Robert Nowell's brethren.

6 "Roberte Casey." Robert Casey or Cassie was Robert Nowell's godson and a grandson of one of his numerous sisters. I cite passages in Robert Nowell's Will referring to this legatee and his mother:—"I give to Roberte Cassie my godsonne a cli [100/.] & further I give him my lease of the parsonage of tottingeham & yet I will that bothe he & his parents toucheinge the p'sonage of tottingeham shalbe ordered by my brother M. Deane of Pawles," &c. "I give to mystris Casie my best ringes or other brother Mr Deane of Pawles," &c.

7 "Ryc Browen." His bequest was, according to the terms of the Will, "a gowne, a coate, a doblet & a paire of hose to browne yt was my servante." Besides the clothing, he got in money, as here appears, 35s.

"Mr. Raffe Barton." See note 2 above.

"Henry Todgill." The item in the Will is:—"I give to Todgill xl."

"Agnes Andrewes servante at hendone": Was she mother of the eminent Bishop Launcelot Andrewes, whose name enriches this MS. elsewhere as a recipient of the Nowell bounty? It is not unlikely; for in Robert Nowell's Will this "servant at Hendon" is styled "Launcelottes wife," and if her husband was Launcelot Andrewes, the identity of the Bishop's name with this suggests his filial relation to these humble dependents of Robert Nowell.

11 "Henry poole": See note on the preceding page.

12 "my Ladye Pyrryne": In the Will of Robert Nowell:—"I give to my good ladie the ladie perion fyve poundes to make her a ringe withall & I desire her to be goode unto John Nowell her sonne in lawe and fynde some meanes of agream't wt hym." Lady Pyrryne or Perion must have been one of the wives of Sir William Peryam (or Perriam), chief Baron of the Exchequor, who died in 1604, at the age of seventy, and was buried at Islington Church. His wives were, first, Margery, daughter of John Holcot of Berks, Esq.; seeondly, Anne, daughter of John Parker of North Molton, in the county of Devon; and thirdly, Elizabeth, daughter of Sir Nicholas Bacon, Lord Keeper. Perhaps it was the last whom Robert Nowell mentions in his 13 "mr. Kitchine"-not known.

""". Ruchine"—not known.

"" one goven faced w'th martens" = martins. Sometimes the word is spelled "marters" and "marterns," e.g., in the will of Joane, Lady Bergavenny (1434) she leaves her "best gown furred with marters" (Test. Vet., vol. i, p. 228); and again, her "second gown of marters.... and the remnant of gowns furred with marters" to her son, Sir James of Ormond, and to her two brothers (tbid, p. 229). So William her son, Sir James of Ormond, and to her two brothers (ibid, p. 229). So William Bruges, Garter King at Arms, bequeaths (1449) "an half long gown of purple velvet furred with martrons" (ibid, p. 269). See further, Test. Vet., vol. ii, pp. 471, 658, 715.

15 "John fletchere": In the codicil to Robert Nowell's Will is this item: "I bequeathe unto John Fletcher of hampsteade & his wife xiiili via viiid." "John ffleetcher of hampsted" is named elsewhere in the MS. See Index of Names, s.n.

16 "mr. Robte Towenley of bostone": In the Will: "I give to my cosen Roberte Towneley of boston" sundry domestic articles and a "good gelding." To be a "cosen"= kinsman of Robert Nowell, Robert Towneley of Boston must have been a son of one of the Towneleys of Towneley. Possibly he was an unnoted younger son son of one of the Towneleys of Towneley. Possibly he was an unnoted younger son of Charles Towneley, Esq., who was second husband of Robert Nowell's mother, and whose eldest son, John Towneley, Esq., occurs in the MS.

"mr. Raffe Barton." See note on page preceding.
"Sheparde." See Index of Names, s.n., and so for the other names of this page not herein noticed. Robert Nowell had bequeathed "unto Elizabeth Shepparde, 3 "Mrs. Wilkinsonne for her legacye": Some clue to the connexion of these oftennamed Wilkinsons with the Nowells is supplied by the following lines from the Will of Robert Nowell: "I give xl" to be bestowed amongest the children of my uncle's daughter y' married Wilkinson in London after the discrec'on of my executors & I desire my executors to be good both to her and to them." And in the codicil: "I doe bequethe unto Anne Wilkinson to th'use of her and her children onlie to be ymployed' upon condic'on y' her husband shall not have the same nor any p'te thereof. Item, I bequethe unto Grace Wilkinson the some of vi^{li} xiii^{li} iiii^d." Robert Nowell had an uncle Robert Nowell, not noted in the pedigree in Churton's book, and barely named in the Visitation record of 1567. This Anne Nowell, described as an uncle's daughter, was perhaps a child of the elder Robert Nowell; and marrying one Wilkinson of London, whose conduct had evidently incurred the distrust of Robert Nowell the testator, the latter gave money to Mrs. Wilkinson and her children, subject to the condition that her husband might not touch it. The MS. contains references to John Wilkinson, Robert Nowell's cook; to Goodwife Wilkinson's son who was a chorister, and another son who was apprentice; to marriage gifts at the marriages of Grace and Anne Wilkinson, daughters of "our cousin Wilkinson"; to Thomas Wilkinson of London, "our cousin," an elder son, probably, of Mrs. Wilkinson; and to legacies paid to Grace Wilkinson, and Johann, her sister. These items suggest that Mrs.

Anne Wilkinson had sons, Thomas, John, two younger sons, and daughters, Grace, Anne, and Joan.

4 "Thoms Meyres and Johan his" [wife]: The word "wife" is accidentally omitted by the scribe. Johanna or Joan Hopwood was daughter of Eleanor Hopwood (Eleanor Kay before marriage), sister to Robert Nowell's mother. She married Mr. Thomas Meyres (modern Myres). (See note hereafter showing in detail the family connexion of the Nowells, Kays, and Hopwoods.) Robert Nowell gave a legacy of 7t. each "to everie one of my awnte hopwoddes children beinge alyve." One of them, Joan Meyres, here receives her 71.

"mr. beddell for preachinge of one sermone at hendon": a legacy paid in accordance with Robert Nowell's direction, that sums of money should be given to those ministers who preached funeral sermons for him. (See the Will in our Introduction.)

6 "Rycharde Whitaker," and in the next entry "Willm Whitaker": as nephews of Robert Nowell, had legacies, thus ordered in the Will: "To Richard Whitaker & to William Whitakre xlii a yere weh Sr Raphe Leicester hathe graunted unto me oute of M. Leeghe landes in Chesheire duringe the mynoritie of younge M. Leeghe that is to saie to ev'y one of them xxh wch xxii yearelie I will M. [Richard] Whitakre shall receyve streighte waies and bestowe hymselfe in some howse of courte or gett hymselfe some good wife if he can & I will that the xxli yearelie for William shalbe laide upp and bestowed upon the buyenge of Mr bruisters wyves daughter or otherwise as my brother Alexander shall thincke conveniente untill he be able in yeares and discrec'on to use it & order it hym" [selfe]. (See later annotation showing fully the family relation of the Nowells with the Whitakers of Holme, and an account of Dr. William Whitaker in the Introduction.)

7 "Jenett Deane, daughter to John Deane of tunworthe": and lower on the page,

"John Deane of Tunworthe," &c. The Deanes were related to the Nowells of Reade by marriage. Churton states that "William Deane of Tanworth in Warwickshire" married a sister of Dean Nowell (Life of Dean Nowell, p. 141). There may be a "Tanworth" in Warwickshire, but the original place of the family of lesser gentry in question was certainly Tunworth or Townworth, in the township of Billington, parish of Blackburn, in the county of Lancaster. Mr. W. A. Abram, in his History of Blackburn Parish, prints a sketch of the descent of the Deanes, partly drawn from Lansdowne MS. 205. Deane Hill and Tunworth, the ancient tenements of the Deanes, are Situate about two miles from Read Hall, the seat of the Nowells. John Deane of Tunworth and Dounham, in the county of Lancaster, living temp. Edward IV. (1461– 1483), had to wife, Agnes, daughter of Richard Worsley of Mearley. Next appears William Deane of Tunworth, whose son and heir, by his wife Agnes Wrightington, was Henry Deane of Tunworth. His wife was Maud, daughter of William Ambrose, and his son and heir was John. John Deane of Deyne-hill and Tunworth, a freeholder in 1523, and a tenant of Abbey lands of Whalley in 1538, died November 24th, 1541, seized of about 600 acres of land in Billington, Wilpshire, Mellor, Dounham, and Twiston. His eldest son was William Deane, gent., who married Maud, daughter of John Nowell, Esq., and sister of Dean Nowell and Robert Nowell. By her he had three sons, John, William, and Nicholas. William Deane, the father, was dead before 1555. John Deane, his eldest son, is the "John Deane of Tunworth," of the entry in the MS. here noted. He was taxed for his lands in Billington to a King's subsidy in the MS. here noted. He was taxed for his lands in Billington to a King's substitution, and is described in the Shuttleworth Accounts, in 1587, as "John Dane of Townworth." He married a daughter of — Holcrofte, who died in 1551, and by whom he had a son Richard, who had a son John, born in 1597. James Deane, holding lands in Billington in 1610, was probably another son of John. He had also daughters, Jennet, named here in the MS, and Anne, who appears at a later page in the entry: "To his [Nowell's] cosin Anne Deane daughter unto John Deane of Toneworthe in blakeborne parish" -- a description which confirms our locality of Tunworth as against Churton's. William Deane, second son of William and brother of John, is indicated in the bequest in Robert Nowell's Will: "To William Deane my cosen servante to my ladie Matrauvers my lease of weylonde & a cloke cote and doublet & xli in monnye. From being Lady Anne Maltravers' servant this fortunate yeoman's son from Lancashire became second husband of that lady, "who," says Churton (p. 141) "enriched him with her immense fortune as heiress of Sir John Wentworth of Gosfield." She was then widow of Henry, Lord Maltravers, who died s.p., in the lifetime of his father, Henry, eighteenth Earl of Arundel. By this lady, who died in 1580, William Deane, Esq., had no issue; but he married, secondly, Anne, daughter of Thomas Egerton, Esq., of Reyne Hill, in the county of Chester, and by her had a son John, and two daughters. He built a large mansion at Maplestead, Essex, called Deynes Hall, and died there sometime before 1586. He made Dean Nowell and Dr. William Whitaker his executors; and his son John being a minor at his father's death, became Dean Nowell's ward, and the first codicil in the Dean's Will relates entirely to his settlement of the wardship of this youth. John Deane married, in 1600, Anne, daughter of Sir D. Drury, and had issue. (Life of Nowell, p. 361.)

_ * "Nicholas moore": One of a family of Moore of Fence and Whitelee in Pendle Forest, not far from Read, whose wife Ellen was a kinswoman of the Nowells. 6 Elizabeth (1564), Nicholas Moore and Hugh Moore with others, were defendants in a suit respecting a messuage called The Fence, with lands, in Pendle Forest. (Cal. to Pleadings, vol. ii, p. 285.) Sir Jonas Moore, a man of note a century later (temp.

Charles II.) was of the same family of Moores.

9 "Rycharde Prestone and Elizabethe now wief of the said Rycharde": Richard Preston married Elizabeth Singleton, daughter of John Singleton of Chingle Hall, in the County of Lancaster; and this legacy came to his wife in fulfilment of Robert Nowell's bequest: "I give to ev'ye one of Singletons wyves sonnes and daughters excepte the heire web wife Anthony Laton married, vili." There was evidently some kinship, but it must have been remote, between the Singletons and Nowells. John Singleton's wife was Alice, daughter of Richard Highton of Highton, in the county of Lancaster, and his mother was "of Clitheroe," though her name is not stated in Lieut.-Colonel Fishwick's pedigree of the Singletons (History of Goosnargh). His wife was evidently somehow related to the Nowells. The fact derived from the above extract from Robert Nowell's Will, that the widow of John Singleton married, secondly, Anthony Laton, is a fresh item for the genealogy of that family. Richard Preston, by his wife Elizabeth, had a son Thomas, living in 1587.

10 "Thom's haymonde & Betteris Nowel wief of the said Thom's": "Betteris" is a common spelling of the period of Beatrice. This entry is valuable as showing the link of relationship (hitherto supposed but unverified) between the Nowells and the Hammond family, of note in several members, and to which the celebrated divine, Dr. Henry Hammond, belonged. Dr. T. D. Whitaker laboured diligently to make out the connexion, and concluded that a Hammond of Whalley, whose first name he did not find, married a sister of Dean Nowell. (See note by Raines in Journal of Nich. Assheton, p. 116.) We now have it clear that Thomas Hammond was the husband of Beatrice Nowell, and she was very likely a sister of the Dean, and daughter of John Nowell of Read, Esq. The period is too early for help to be obtained from Church Registers, albeit those of Whalley Church begin exceptionally early (1538), and are in admirable preservation. I submit below what I think is a nearly correct statement of the descent of the Hammonds. Thomas Hammond of Pendleton, near Whalley, living in 1569, had by Beatrice Nowell, his wife, sons, Thomas and John. He living in 1560, had by Beatrice Nowell, his wife, sons, Thomas and John. He had a sister Agnes, wife of Robert Marsden, with whom Thomas Hammond had a suit-at-law in 1555. Thomas Hammond, the elder son, succeeded his father in tenure of the freehold near Whalley, and married, at Whalley Church, 30th January, 1553-4, Beatrice Wolton, daughter of John Wolton of Whalley, and sister of John Wolton, afterwards Bishop of Exeter. By her he had a son Henry, baptized at Whalley Church, 22nd September, 1567. Among many gifts to kinsfolk in Lancashire enumerated elsewhere in the MS. (see Index of Names, s.n.), occur the following entries relating to this pair, and their infant son Henry:—"To his [Robert Nowell's] cosin Beteris Wolton maried to Thom's haymonde, v^s. To henry haymonde her sonne one yeard di woollen & one yeard di lynen xiid." This son was the Henry Hammond of Pendleton, gent., who is on a list of local freeholders in 1610, and he, or a son of Pendleton, gent., who is on a list of local freeholders in 1610, and he, or a son Henry Hammond, was buried at Whalley Church, 18th November, 1642. Passing to the junior branch, John Hammond, a son of Thomas, born in 1542, became fellow of Trinity Hall, Cambridge, and proceeded LL.B. in 1561. He was admitted an advocate, 11th May, 1569, and the same year received the degree of L.L.D. In 1573 he was appointed Commissary to the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's, no doubt by his kinsman Dean Nowell's patronage, and in 1575 was made Chancellor of the Diocese of London. He held his fellowship of Trinity Hall until 1577; and the following entries from our MS. seem to refer to him:—Ist January, 1576-7. "To S' Haymonde the same type vi." 20th November 1577. "To one Mr. hamond of the same howse [Trinity] xo." In 1580-1582 Dr. Hammond is found engaged in disputation, on the Protestant side, with Campian the Jesuit and other imprisoned Roman Catholics. He sat in Parliament for Rye in 1585, and for Westlow in 1586. He was author of a Latin Oration made when Queen Elizabeth went to Cambridge in 1564, and of certain legal opinions preserved in the Harleian and Lansdowne MSS. Dr. John Hammond died in 1589; and on the testimony of Recorder Fleetwood, "Mr. Doctor Hamonde was delivered to the earthe uppon the laste mondaye" of December 1589. His Will is dated 21st December, 1589; and Dean Nowell is an attesting party. Testator's wife, Agnes, is named sole executrix. He had one son, John Hammond, M.D., who was a London physician. Dean Nowell, by a codicil to his Will dated 1601, gives, first, "to his cousin Mr. Doctor Hammond and his wife five pounds. Item, to every one of their children twenty shillings." He was appointed physician to Prince Henry, the King's eldest son, after the accession of James I. in 1603; and his youngest son, Henry Hammond, born in 1605, at Chertsey, was christened by the name of the Prince. This son was the well-known Dr. Henry Hammond, the commentator, Vicar of Penshoot, in the county of Kent, of which benefice he was deprived during the Civil War. Dr. Henry Hammond died the 25th April, 1660. (See the Life, by Dr. Fell.) Two other Hammonds named in the MS., as students at Cambridge, viz., John Hammond and Henry Hammond, were of this family, it is likely; but what was their relationship to contemporary Hammonds noticed above is not evident.

"John Deane of Turworthe." See note 7 supra.

"Alys Haworth wyddowe": She is described as of "Ratchdale" (Rochdale) parish, and as "daughter of Henry Hopwood." She receives her legacy as a kinswoman of the Nowells, and I have little doubt her father was the Hopwood who married Eleanor Nowell, sister of Robert Nowell. See a note on the Hopwood-Nowell connexion hereafter, and Index of Names, s.n.

1 Nycholes halsted." See Index of Names, s.n., for this and other names on this page not noticed herein. Nicholas Halsted was a member of one of several families of Halsteds of the rank of lesser gentry, seated at High Halsted, Worsthorne, and Rowley, on the north-east side of Burnley, in the county of Lancaster. One of them, Hugh Halsted, married, some years before the date of this record, Grace, daughter of Richard Towneley, Esq. A Nicholas Halsted occurs as a party in a suit in 1563, respecting a tenement in Downham, which he and Richard Grymshey claimed by conveyance from Richard Asheton. His wife, Anne Halsted, receives her 5t. for her legacy; and as this was the sum Robert Nowell left to each of the children of his sisters unnamed in his Will, I conjecture that Anne Halsted was daughter of one of those sisters. Nicholas Halsted, being perhaps a younger son, seems to have been engaged in trade; for among a number of Lancashire "chapmen" from whom large quantities of cloth were procured by the executors of Robert Nowell, as entered later in the MS., the name of Nicholas Halsted several times occurs as having sold various sorts of cloth to these executors, (See Index of Names, s.n., for other references.)

2 "Laurance Whitaker." Conjecturally a younger son of Thomas Whitaker of Holme, by Elizabeth (Nowell), his wife, and a brother of Dr. William Whitaker.

3 "John Dean." See previous page for an account of the Deans.

4 "Raffe hopwoode": One of Robert Nowell's aunt Eleanor Hopwood's sons, to each of whom he bequeathed 71. (See onward for an account of the Hopwoods.) 5 "Robte Whitaker": Eldest son of Thomas Whitaker, gent., of Holme, by Elizabeth, his wife, Robert Nowell's sister.

6 "James Bolton": Catherine, wife of James Bolton, who here receives her legacy of 61., was a daughter of John Singleton, gent., to each of whom (save the heir), Robert Nowell left 6/. by his Will. James Bolton is described in the Singleton pedigree as of "Salwic, in the county of Lancaster," but here he is spoken of as of Leicestershire. His son and heir was Nicholas Bolton, living in 1587.

8 "Thom's Crabtrye": His wife was Anne Whitaker, another of the daughters of Thomas Whitaker, gent., and sister of Dr. William Whitaker.

"Rob'te Lawe and Elizabethe his wief": The kinship of Robert Lawe and his wife to the Nowells is thus made out:—Robert Lawe of Whalley, yeoman, married Elizabeth Wolton, one of the daughters of John Wolton of Whalley, yeoman, by his wife Margaret, daughter of John Nowell, Esq., and sister of Dean Nowell and Robert Nowell. By his wife Elizabeth, Robert Lawe had issue, sons, Thomas Lawe his heir, Robert, Henry, and James; and daughters, Alice, Isabel, Margery, and Catherine. All these children are named as receiving gifts subsequently in the MS. (See Index of Names, s.n.) Robert Lawe, second son of Robert, will hereafter be specially noted as a scholar at Brazenose, and eventually attaining the position of an archdeacon of the Church of England.

10 "Nicholas Deane": A son, I assume, of William Deane of Tunworth, by his wife

11 "Willm Whitakre": The future eminent theologian. (See Index of Names. s.n., for other references to him, and our Introduction.)

12 "myles Bancrofte": He married Alice Wolton, daughter of John Wolton of Whalley, by his wife Margaret (Nowell). Myles Bancroft appears to have died very runs:—"cosin Alis wolton, late wief to myles Bancrofte, wyddowe," &c.

13 "Jane Leaton": She is described as one of the daughters of Alice Singleton, but it must have been by her second husband, who, as I have before noted from the MS., was Anthony Laton. "Leaton" in this entry stands for Laton, or, as usually spelt, Layton.

¹⁴ "Christofer harrys of Garstange" &c.: — He married, as here set forth, Jane Singleton, daughter of John Singleton, gent. In 10 Elizabeth (1568), Christopher Harris and Jane his wife, claiming under the Will of her father, John Singleton, were plaintiffs in a suit respecting lands, tenements, and rents in Whittington, Goosnargh, &c., charged with payments of money to the daughters of John Singleton. (Cal. to Pleadings, vol. ii, p. 363.)

15 "Gohn Sellere of Reade": John Sellers was a kinsman of the Nowells, and served, it would appear, both Dean Alexander Nowell and Dean Laurence Nowell. Three folios later in the MS. will be found the entry:—"To Ann Seller [Sellers] wief to John Sellers Mr. Roberte Nowell kinsmane dwelling wt mr dean of Lytchfild." (See onward for other notes on the Sellers family, including two young men, John Sellers and Thomas Sellers, scholars at Oxford.)

2 "whalley": Robert Nowell by Will left to the poor of the parishes of Whalley and Burnley, in the county of Lancaster, "fouretie markes to evy p'ishe xx nobles. Read Manor, the place of testator's birth, is in the parish of Whalley.

3 "brunley," i.e., Burnley. See note above for Robert Nowell's gift to the poor of Burnley parish. The old spelling of Burnley was "Brunley," the name being derived from the small river Brun, which traverses the township. Burnley is not strictly a "parish" of ancient definition, but a parochial chapelry under Whalley, embracing seven townships.

4 "Whitwhame": It is stated here that the wife of Whitwhame was "daughter unto Elizabeth Nowell," who was wife of Thomas Whitaker of Holme, gent., and sister of Robert Nowell, Esq., and of Dean Nowell. A later entry in the MS. supplies the christian names both of the daughter of Whitaker of Holme who married this person and of her husband: "To his cosin Jane Whitaker maried to John Whitakam." Robert Nowell bequeathed to each of his sister Elizabeth's married daughters 201., and this is the sum here recorded as paid to her daughter Jane Whitwham.

5 "charles Nowell": He was manifestly a kinsman of Robert Nowell and a legatee, but his name I do not find in the Will, nor can I fix his place in the Nowell genealogy. He was probably a son of one of Robert Nowell's "cosins" mentioned in his Will. Charles Nowell subsequently receives a gift of 201., and conveys gifts to his brother John Nowell, John's wife, and daughters. (See Index of Names, s.n.)

6 "Thoms Wilkinsonne." He was apparently one of the children of Robert Nowell's "uncles daughter yt maried Wilkinson in London," to whom he bequeathed 40% to be divided amongst them by his executors. (See a former note on the Wilkinsons.)

7 "my Lorde Kep & my Ladie his wief": viz., Sir Nicholas Bacon. He was appointed Lord Keeper 22nd December, 1551, and retained the office, ranking as Lord Chancellor, until his death, 20th February, 1578-9. Lady Bacon here named was Anne, second wife of Sir Nicholas Bacon, daughter of Sir Anthony Cooke, and mother of Francis Bacon.

8 "my Lady Cicill": Probably wife of the Cecil; but there were several contemporary.

⁹ "mr Chanselor of the Dutchy": Sir Ralph Sadler, Knight, lord of Standon Manor, in the county of Herts, was Chancellor of the Duchy from 16th May, 1560, to 1577. The date here is the 1st March, 1568-9, so that Mr. Chancellor means Sir Ralph Sadler.

10 "sir Walter mylde made" An instance of the scribe's constant mis-spelling of proper names. This is intended for Sir Walter Mildmay, Knight, founder of Emmanuel College, Cambridge, in 1584. He was fifth son of Thomas Mildmay, Esq., of Chelmsford, in the county of Sussex; was born about 1522; knighted, 22nd February, 1546-7, and died at Hackney, 31st May, 1589. Among many public appointments, Sir Walter Mildmay was a commissioner with Mr. Robert Kelleway to take order for the maintenance of grammar schools which had pertained to dissolved chantries; and as an example, in the Records of Blackburn Grammar School it is written that "S" Walter Myldmay, Knight, and Mr. Kellewaye, by vertue of a commyssion in Kinge Edwardes tyme to them directed, for the contynewinge of Scoles and erectinge of Scoles, did allowe 41. 7s. 4d. yerelie for the better maynetenance of the Scole in Blackburne."

11 "fargante manwoode": Born at Sandwich, in Kent, in 1525: afterwards Recorder and M.P. for his native town: Sergeant-at-Law in 1567: Justice of the Common Pleas, 1572: Chief Baron of the Exchequer, 1578, and then knighted. He died 14th December, 1592. (See Foss's Lives of the Judges.)

- 1 "Kinrede," &c. The words "about London," and "John Townley," are inserted in the handwriting of Dean Nowell,
 - 2 " Ech" = each.
- 3 "Elyoner hopwood": This is a valuable entry, as settling a moot point in the genealogy of the Nowells, viz., as to which of the wives of John Nowell, Esq. (the first or second), was mother of the two Deans, and of Robert Nowell, Esq. I refer the reader to the details of the descent in our Introduction and to later annotations, s.n. Hop-
- 4 "hamlet Aston": I have not identified Hamlet Ashton as a member of any of several Lancashire families of Ashton or Assheton. I think he was of the Rochdale Asshetons, and if he was son-in-law of John Nowell, as entered in the text, he must have married a sister of Robert Nowell, perhaps Jane Nowell, for whom a husband is not found in any pedigree of Nowells. Hamlet Ashton was, it seems, residing in 1569 at the deanery in Lichfield with his brother-in-law, Dean Lawrence Nowell. "Hamlet" is to be noted as a curious christian name; yet it was of rather frequent use among the
- Lancashire gentry in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries.

 5 After "fonne" the words "& hayre" are written and erased in the MS.

 7 "greet Doughter" = grand-daughter?

 8 "houghton": I conceive that the Mr. Houghton named in this entry, whose three daughters, Elizabeth, Joan, and Katherine, received the gift of money, was John Hoghton of Pendleton, gent., whose wife Grace was aunt to Robert Nowell, Esq. He (John Hoghton) was dead before the date of the MS., but his daughters might then be surviving. (For other references to Hoghtons, see Index of Names, s.n.)

He is again found in the MS. two pages onward. Other accounts of Robert Crowley will be found in Anthony à Wood, and (best) in Dr. Bloxam's Register of the Presidents, Fellows, Demies, &c., of St. Mary Magdalen College, Oxford, vol. i, pp. 78-84. He was born in Gloucestershire, entered at Magdalen College, Oxford, about 1534; B.A., 19th June, 1540; an exile in Germany in the reign of Mary; returning home in 1558, had subsequently several livings in London, among them, St. Giles's, Cripplegate, of which he wrote himself vicar in 1566; and St. Lawrence, Jewry, presented in 1576. He was author of more than twenty printed books and tractates (mostly controversial against the Church of Rome) enumerated by Dr. Bloxam. He died 18th June, 1588, and was buried in the Chancel of St. Giles's Church.

3 "Rychard Langher vicer of Edmunton": This name is mis-written, even by Dean Nowell. As is proved by his Will (preserved in the Consistory Court of the Bishop of London), his name was Richard Langherne (spelled by Newcourt, "Langhorne," s.n.). His Will is dated 10th August 1570, and proved 7th October in the same year. He calls himself vicar of Edmonton. He left sons, Thomas, Richard and John; and a daughter Katherine, wife of William Hayward. His wife Edith was his executrix. He directed that he was to be buried in the Chancel of Edmonton Church. His son "Richard" is the Richard of our MS., linked with Edmund Spencer in an important entry onward. For more of him, see our Introduction. important entry onward. It was doubtless the (so-called) Bishop's Bible.

" "one Scaton": The scribe speaks of the time of this gift to the prisoners in Newgate as an occasion "when my m [Dean Nowell] was w'th one Seaton, a condemned mane." He could hardly be an ordinary felon who received this special visit from the Dean of St. Paul's. Was Seaton a political prisoner, or a "recusant" in religion? I do not see the name in Stow, or other contemporary chroniclers.

7 "mr Series Stastoner": William Seres was a licensed printer in London, temp. Edward VI., and appears as one of the charter-men of the Stationers' Company in their charter dated 1556. He was Warden of the Company in 1561-2 and 1565-6, and Master of the Company in 1570-1, 1571-2, 1575-6, 1576-7, and 1577-8. He was living in 1584, when his son occurs as "William Seres, junior." The elder Seres printed many books in Elizabeth's time; amongst the rest, in 1564, he had a license for printing A Cathechessme of the County palyntyne. In Chr. Barker's report, in 1582, on the Printing Patents granted from 1558 to 1582, it is said that "Master Seres hath the Psalter of David the primer for little children, with the same catechisme, and all bookes of private prayer whatsoever in latin and english." Strype says Mr. Seres the stationer had these privileges of printing religious manuals in Edward's time taken away by Queen Mary and restored by Queen Elizabeth by means of Lord Burghley, with the addition of a grant to him and his son during life of the longest liver of the twain. Seres the father in his latter years, not being well able to follow his business, transferred his privilege with his presses, letters, stock and copies, to one Henry Derham for a yearly rent, and this was the cause of a great contention as to the terms of this monopoly. I gladly embrace the opportunity of above further items from Mr. Edward Arber's Transcript to pay my meed of praise to this most laborious, painstaking, and invaluable work.

8 "in the plague tyme": Plagues were frequent in the sixteenth century, but Stow, the annalist, does not allude to the plague-time in October, 1575, recorded in this place. A more serious outbreak of the plague occurred in London three years later, in the summer of 1578.

9 "mr chambarlayn of London": "The Chamberlain of London," says Maitland, "is an officer of great repute and trust, and though annually chosen on Midsummer Day, yet not displaced, but continues during life." He "had the keeping of the money, lands, and goods of the city orphans, or took security for the payment thereof when the parties came to age." Maitland does not supply the names of the succession of chamberlains of the City of London, but I find that George Heton was chamberlain in 1573, and doubtless still held the office, it being practically a life-appointment, at the date of this record (1575).

10 "poore p'soners in barbarie": Ancient Barbary embraced all the seaboard States of North Africa, from Egypt on the east to the Atlantic on the west. English mariners shipwrecked on the south coast of the Mediterranean not uncommonly fell into the hands of the authorities in Barbary, and were treated with great hardship as captives or slaves.

1 "Jeronimus Jerlitus": Minister of the Italian Congregation mentioned in another entry, infra, on this page. On the fourth folio onward is another mention of this minister where he receives 20s. as a gift for the marriage of Claude Landen, one of his Italian communicants, doubtless. In 1568 the minister of the Italian Church was Hieronymus Jerlitus, who appears to have arrived in London in the year 1565. In the Lansdowne MSS. (vol. x, art. 32), is a letter in Latin from him, in behalf of Theodore Fuerwyn, a Dutch painter, who had fled hither on account of religion. (Burn, as before, p. 229). An interesting account of a contention between Jerlitus and Coranus (noted onward), and various facts of the life in England of these two refugees, are printed in Strype's Life and Acts of Grindal, fol., Edn. 1710.

'John Tawsin": untraced; the name perhaps was Jean Cousin, mistranscribed. 3 "rodolphus Chevalier": I take the following from Agnew's Protestant Exiles from France, &c. (Index-volume, pp. 108-9):—"Raoul (for Rodolphe) Le Chevalier has somewhat perplexed genealogists by having, unlike the refugees in general, assumed another surname during his wanderings. In the lists of 1568, he appears in London, as Anthonie Rodolphs, Professor of the Gospel in the house of Mr. Sherrington; and further on, he is again noticed as 'Mr. Anthonie.' Some authors, ambitious of great accuracy, have therefore styled him carefully 'Antoine Rodolphe Le Chevalier'; but, in fact, Antoine was not his name at all. He is usually spoken of as Rodolphus Cavallerius. He appears to have been Hebrew Reader in the University of Cambridge during the reign of King Edward VI., and Hebrew Tutor to the Princess Elizabeth (afterwards Queen). Flying from Bloody Queen Mary, he seems to have exercised his talents as pastor and professor in various places; we find his name associated with the Academy of Geneva, and with the Reformed Church at Caen. From King Edward VI. he had received a patent, dated at Waltham, August 7, 1552, granting to him naturalization, and also committing in trust to Sir Anthony Cooke, Knight, and George Medle, Esq., that he should have the next prebend that should fall vacant in Christ's Church, Canterbury. In 1568, he was again in England. In May, 1569, Sir Anthony Cooke and Secretary Sir William Cecil (Chancellor of the university) had secured for him the appointment of Professor of the Hebrew Language and Learning in the University of Cambridge, and he went down with good letters of introduction. Cecil undertook to obtain a safe conduct into England for his wife and children. The following was a joint letter from Archbishop Parker and Bishop Sandys, 'To our loving friends, Mr. Vice chancellor of Cambridge, and to the Heads of the same': -- 'Understanding of the good and godly affection that divers of your University bear to the knowledge of the Hebrew tongue wherein originally, for the more part, was wrytten the word of God. To the gratifying of the same, as we have in our former letters commended our Trustie and Wellbeloved Rodolphus Cevallerius, otherwise called Mr. Anthony, so we now send him unto you-a man, whom we have aforetime not only known in the same university, but also have seen good testimony of his learning in the said tongue, and having more experience of his good zeal to exercise his said talent toward all such as be desirous to be partakers of the same. Whereupon this is to pray and require you to accept him as his worthiness for his learning and diligence Whereby you shall not onely yourselves receive the fruit (as we trust) shall deserve. to your own commendations; but also give us occasion to devise for your further commoditie as Almighty God shall move us, and our liability upon any occasion shall And thus wishing to you the grace of God to direct your studies to hereafter serve. His glory, and to the profit of the Commonwealth we bid you all heartily well to fare: from Lambeth this 20th of May. Your loving friend Matthewe Cantuar. London.' On 27th January, 1569-70, he was presented to his long expected Prebend of Canterbury—Le Neve calls him Ralph Caveler—he was (says Strype) 'admitted to the Seventh Prebend in that Church.' The latter writer (in his life of Parker) gives an abstract of his Will, from which it appears that his wife (who survived him as his widow) was by name Elizabeth Le Grimecieux; she was (according to other accounts) a step-daughter of Emanuel Tremellius, the great Hebraist, who had preceded Chevalier at Cambridge. Chevalier seems to have been in France at the time of the St. Bartholomew Massacre, and to have hastened homeward. But fatal illness arrested him in Guernsey, on which island he made his Will, dated 8th October, 1572. He styles himself Rauf (or Rauol?) Le Chevalier. He speaks of the fidelity and constancy which he always found in his wife in all his persecutions for the gospel. thanks to the 'Right Worshipful and Most Dear fathers,' the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, for all the gentleness and favour which he had received at their hands. He appeals for their kind offices to his widow and children, on the acknowledged ground that 'he had taken pains according to his small talent in sundry churches and schools, and had always been content with his food and raiment.' He names his only son, Samuel, his daughters, Jael and Mary, and his nephews beyond sea, Robert, Anthony and Oliver. He requests that Mr. Emanuel (Tremellius) Professor at Heidelberg might be informed of his decease—he "who gave me my wife." debts; but the Church of Caen owed him two hundred and fifty livres for travelling expenses. He trusted that our Queen will continue without deduction the grant made to himself, and that she would deal with his family as King Edward VI. had done in the case of the widow of Martin Bucer, whom his Majesty of blessed memory had the case of the widow of Martin Bucer, whom his majesty of blessed memory had invited to remain in England, promising to see to the marrying of her daughters. He addressed his requests to the two Archbishops, 'for God's sake, and for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ, and for the love of the Holy Ghost,' and his concluding sentence was, 'Lord Jesus, come for the defence of the poor churches.' He died at the age of was, Lota Jesus, come for the defence of the poor charlens. He are at the age of sixty-five. The son, the Rev. Samuel le Chevalier, was French Pasteur in the City of London in 1591, and at Canterbury in 1595." De Thou's obituary notice of this eminent man is given in Barksdale's Monumenta Litteraria, 1640, p. 157. It will be noticed that the entry in our MS. confirms in several points Agnew's account.

4 "Godfrey Wyngye." See appendix to Strype's Grindal, where, in a list of the members of the Dutch Church in London, returned to the Bishop of London, the return is attested by "Gottfridus Wingius" as chief minister.

5 "Anthonius Coranus": see Index of Names, s.n., for various references.
6 Vincen Basse": This name as "Vincent de la Barre" occurs in the Will of Anthony Du Poncel (a Protestant refugee) as a co-executor with other fellow-countrymen and exiles from France (Agnew, as before, p. 82).

7 "Ciprian Valera": Mention of him is made in the works of Thomas Rogers, (Parker Society, pp. 266, 291).

8 "Italian congregation": In the Lord Mayor's return of "Strangers in London, anno 1568" who did "resort to any of the strangers' churches" there were "161 of anno 1500 who did resort to any of the strangers churches there were "101 of the Italian church." (Agnew, as before, p. 7). For a full and deeply interesting history of the "Italian Church" see Burn's History of the Foreign Refugees (Protestant): 1846. pp. 224-32. Ascham wrote in 1570 of those who came and went between England and Italy:—"These men thus Italianated abroad cannot abide our godly Italian Church at home. They be not of that parish (they say), they be not of that fellowship, they like not the preacher, they hear not his sermons; except sometimes for company, they come thither to hear the Italian tongue naturally spoken, and not to hear God's doctrine truly preached." (Strype's Annals, vol. ii, p. 29).

9 "frenche churche in London": "At the end of the year (1550) the chapel of St. Anthony in Threadneedle Street was granted for worship in the French language for Huguenots (Protestants from France proper) and Walloons (Refugees from French Flanders). The first French ministers were Francois de la Riviere and Richard Francois. The death of Edward VI. dispersed their congregations." (Agnew, as before, p. 6). He continues: "Protestant rule returning with Queen Elizabeth, the charters were restored, and Grindal, Bishop of London, became the superintendent of the Churches. Under the patronage of Parker, Archbishop of Canterbury, the celebrated refugee congregation, assembling in the Crypt of Canterbury Cathedral, was founded. Thousands of refugees came over in this reign, especially from French Flanders in 1567 and 1568, from France in 1572, after the Massacre, and in 1585. In the Pope's and 1505, from France in 1572, after the Massacte, and in 1505. If the Profest (Pius V.) Bull of 1570, the Profestant Refugees were characterized as omnium infestissimi, but were defended by Bishop Jewel" (ibid). In the Lord Mayor's "Return of Strangers, anno 1568," no fewer than 1,810 belonged to "the French Church" (ibid, p. 7). See also Maitland's London, as before, pp. 485, 845, 854.

1 "Dutch churche in London": "The reign of Edward VI. witnessed the founding of Churches for Protestant Refugees. John a Lasco a refugee Polish nobleman & pastor at Embden in East Friesland applied to parliament in 1541 for a charter for a church, and was encouraged by Archbishop Cranmer, the Duke of Somerset, and Secretary Cecil. Bishop Latimer supported his cause in a sermon before the King. Many French refugees came over in 1549, whose case was represented in a memorial signed by Bucer, Martyr, Alexander, & Fagius. In 1550 a royal charter granted to Lasco a Refugees' Church in London, since known as the Dutch Church in Austin Friars." (Agnew, as before, pp. 5-6.) Of 5,225 Dutch in London in 1568, "1910 were of the Dutch Church," (ibid p.7.) See Maitland's London, as before, pp. 843-4. For a most satisfactory account of the ancient and modern "Dutch Church," the Reader is referred to Burn's History of the Foreign Protestant Refugees (1846): pp. 185-195. The following quotation from Strype is interesting in relation not only to the Dutch Church in London, but also as giving the origin of provincial "refugee" congregations. "In 1575 the condition of the people of the Low Countries was so sad, that great numbers of them had fled over hither & desired to join with the Dutch Church in London, & to become members thereof. Yet so tender was the Queen of breaking with that proud & powerful Prince, the King of Spain, that she would not admit of this, nor give countenence to such as fled away out of those countries under his subjection. For it is remarkable what is set down & recorded in a journal of the Dutch church in London. written by Simeon Ruytinck, one of their ministers in those times, & yet preserved in their church.—That when divers foreigners had come hither on account of religion & desired to be admitted in communion with the rest of the Dutch Church, the Queen hearing of it, commanded the Lord Mayor to disperse them from London. Whereupon they applied to the Bishop of London to represent their case to the Queen & Council; who did so, & the Council sent a letter in answer to the said church, June 29th, 1574, that that church should advise those new members to depart from London (where they were more obvious to be taken notice of by King Philip's spies) & to go to other parts of the kingdom, where there were also churches of Protestant professors; which that church accordingly did." T., ad Dominum Londoniensem et ad D. Henricum Knollium preferendas acceperunt." (Parker Corresp., pp. 333-4.) Henry Knollys was the son of Sir Francis Knollys, and an exiled Protestant at Frankfort with Dean Nowell and others, temp. Mary.

Stow tells us that on the 9th of November, 1571, "great rejoicing was made at London with banquetting and bonefires, for joy of the late come newes of a marvellous victorie obtained by the Christian ² Mr. Coosyns the frenche p'chere": This was Jean Cousin who in 1562 became "pasteur" of the French Church in London. "He was an able and influential man." See Agnew, as before; and after (p. 109) he observes: "A French minister, Mr. Cossyn, is in the list of strangers in 1568; whether this is an Anglicised form of the surname Cousin I cannot decide" (p. 110). Our entry shows it was the "Anglicised form of Cousin." The following refers to him and his family, in the Lord Mayor's "Return of Strangers in London anno 1568":—"Blackfriars: Mr. Cossyn, Frenchman, minister and Brengen his wife come for religion, with three hows with two wenches, which ter, and Brengen his wife, come for religion, with three boys, with two wenches, which go to school, and are of the French Church" (ibid, p. 125). Bishop Grindal, writing to Beza, in April, 1568, speaks of "Master John Cousins, the most faithful minister of the French Church in this country, and my very dear brother in the Lord." (Zurich Letters, vol. ii, p. 176.)

"" one Russell": See Index of Names, s.n., and relative Note.

"" Sexton" . . . "Sengreius": Neither has been traced by Burn, Agnew, or Smiles.

5 "claudius molenius": "Molenier" is the only Huguenot name at all resembling this—of the family of Montolieu, Baron de Saint-Hippolite. (Agnew, as before, vol. i,

p. 171.)

"Vencentus": Probably "Vincent Basseus, Frenchman, minister of the Gospel, "Vencentus": (Lord Mayor's and by that name put in exile by commandment of the French King." (Lord Mayor's Return, as before: Agnew, as before, p. 124.)

7 "an Irishe Byshoppe named Matheas": Unknown.

8 "Ant. Corannus": And infra, as before.

9 "Mr. Vellyrious": This is evidently intended for the latinized form of the name (Villerius) of M. Villers, a French preacher who came to England, according to Camden, in a threadbare cloak (away from persecution in his own country), and grew rich here by a common collection for him, for reading a divinity lecture. Mr. William Barlow, a London minister, writing to Josiah Sinkler, in Jan., 1575, says:-"Two famous divines are now lecturing in London, the one a Frenchman, the other a Spaniard. The Frenchman's name is Villers, a man of great learning and piety; the Spaniard's is Coranus, learned and eloquent, but some worthy men entertain great doubts whether in respect of piety he is to be compared with Villers." (Zurich Letters, Parker Society, vol. ii, p. 261.)

10 "Mr. Coosynns": see note 2, supra.

" "Maister Dallyfayus": Probably a corrupt form of the surname De La Faye, which is found among the French refugees (Agnew, s.n.); as also De la Fuye (ibid).

(59)

" one Hector": I fail to get a clue to the personality of this Frenchman at Oxford in 1573.

2 "Mr. Bensiriuz," and infra: I find no name this at all resembles among the French Protestant refugees.

3 "Mr. Sampsonne": Doubtless Thomas Sampson, Dean of Christ Church, Oxford. 4 "one Drussus," and infra: Of Merton College, Oxford. "The most noted linguist and critic." (See Wood's Fasti Oxon., vol. i, pp. 188, 193, 304.) His name is inserted here in Dean Nowell's handwriting.

concerning him.

6 "Mr. Vellerious," and infra: See Index of Names, s.n., for other notices of him; and note in foregoing page.

7 "Docter homefrey": The eminent Dr. Lawrence Humphrey, Dean of Winchester, the great Protestant polemic and author. Dr. Humphrey is mentioned in several places in the MS. (See Index of Names, s.n.)

8 "Theophilus Robbeman, al's Garbrande": Was Theophilus Robbeman a name assumed by John Garbrand, a friend of Bishop Jewel, and legatee of Jewel's papers?

10 "Mr. Jarves": A Mr. Gerves is named in Cranmer's works (Parker Socy. edn., vol. ii. p. 258).

11 "Lamberte Rustine": Unknown.

see Clode, lxxvii. William Parker's Chant Benefactors of the Merchant Taylors' Company; see Clode, lxxvii. William Parker's Charity (1616)—pp. 310-312: and also p. 369.

3 "Thoms. Bates . . . Johan Bates": See note to second reference, infra.

4 "Mr. Allvey": He may be taken to be Richard Alvey, B.A., Master of the Temple, 1559-1585; Canon of Westminster, 1560-1575. He died in August, 1584. (Cooper's Ath. Cantab., vol. i, p. 491.) Mr. Alvey is named again two pages onward in the MS., as commending for help Joan Hunt, a poor widow of Westminster.

5 "Thoms Bowyeare... Dorethe Treherone": I cannot help thinking that the maiden, to whom Dean Nowell gives here through Mr. Thomas Bowyer a handsome marriage-gift of 6l. 13s. 4d. (equal to nearly 70l. of our money), was a daughter of the notable Bartholomew Treheron, an able author on the Protestant side, and sometime Keeper of the King's Library at Westminster, Dean of Chichester and Canon of Windsor. He went into exile in Mary's time, and is believed to have died abroad shortly before Elizabeth's accession. While sojourning at Frankfort in 1555 he would be a constant associate of Alexander Nowell, who was there at the same time; and nothing is more likely than that Dean Nowell would befriend his family after his death. The gift to Dorothy Treheron is very much larger than the other wedding-gifts entered here. She had before a gift at Robert Nowell's funeral of a gown that cost 30s. (See note, p. 8.)

6 "Sphann Battes . . . Mr. Battes Bridg maister of London": We have here unexpectedly the name of the "Keeper" of renowned "London Bridge."

7 "Bowe churche . . . Mr. Coole preacher ther": Robert Cole, elected from Eton to King's College, Cambridge, in 1541; B.A., 1546-7; M.A., 1550. Collated to the rectory of St. Mary-le-Bow, London, 23rd Dec., 1559; and to the rectory of All Hallows, Bread-street, 15th June, 1568-9. He died about April, 1577. (Cooper's Ath. Cantab., vol. i, p. 364.) A stout Puritan, Mr. Cole held out for a time against the Primate's orders in the matter of vestments, but in the end complied; and Archbishop Parker wrote to Mr. Secretary Cecil, 12th April, 1566:—"As for mine own peculiars, fourteen or fifteen be all in order. Some did refuse, but now they be induced, and they be counted worthy learned with the best of them, as one Cole of Bow Church, and one Beddell of Pancras." (Parker Corresp., p. 278.) Little consideration was had in good Mr. Cole's day to scruples of conscience as to conformity. At Lambeth, in March, 1564, all the London ministers being assembled before the Primate, the Bishop of London, and others of the Ecclesiastical Commission, the Bishop's chancellor addressed them: "My masters and the Ministers of London, the Council's pleasure is, that strictly ye keep the unity of apparel like to this Man" (pointing to Mr. Robert Cole, a minister likewise of the City who had refused the Habits a while, and now complied, and stood before them Canonically habited) "as you see him, that is, a square Cap, a Scholer's Gown Priest-like, a Tippet, and in the church a Linnen Surplice." (Strype's Grindal, edition 1710, p. 98.) It was not much to the credit of the two prelates that they should have singled out this known Puritan minister to endure the studied indignity of standing canonically arrayed, like the milliner's model of a fullcostumed priest, before his brethren the London clergy on this significant occasion. 8 "Mr. Sparrowe": John Sparrowe, rector of Chishall-parva, 14th March, 1586. He must have died in 1620, as in that year (13th November) he was succeeded by the learned Andrew Willet (Newcourt ii, 151). Cf. Newcourt, vol. ii, p. 513.

1 "Johann hawkes.... Gylles hawkes": Unknown.
2 "Johann Kerry.... homfrey Kerry": The Kerrys were somehow related to the Nowells; and Robert Nowell names in his Will, among other kindred, Humfrey Kerry and Margerie his wife, giving them a legacy of four marks. At page 8, Good-wife Kerry and Katherine Kerry occur as getting black gowns; and here 20s. is sent on the marriage of Humphrey Kerry's daughter Joan.

3 "Mr. Muncaster": Mr. Mulcaster, Master of Merchant Taylors' School. Here he is spoken of as "scholmaister to John Nowell and Willm. Wylde," who were two youths of Lancashire, nephews, or more distant kinsmen, of Dean Nowell. William Wylde is described afterwards as of Middleton School in May, 1571; so that he had been but very recently placed under Mr. Mulcaster's charge at Merchant Taylors' School in July, 1571. Richard Mulcaster, M. A., elected Scholar of King's College, Cambridge, from Eton, in 1548. Afterwards Student of Christ Church, Oxford, Head Master of Merchant Taylors', Sept. 24, 1561; resigned, Nov. 8, 1581. He was afterwards Upper Master of St. Paul's School. Died, April 15, 1611. Mr. Mulcaster ranked high as a Philologist, and is said to have been especially celebrated for his knowledge of Greek and Oriental Literature. In his day, acquaintance with the Greek literature was an unusual accomplishment; so much so, indeed, that the earliest statutes of Merchant Taylors' School provide that the "Head or High Maister shall be learned in good & cleane Latine Latiture, and also in Greeke, yf such may be gotten." He commenced instruction in Hebrew at the School, which has always been continued. Bishop Andrewes, who was one of his early pupils, probably owed a good deal of his power as All all inguist to Mr. Mulcaster, whom he always held in great respect. Bishop Buckeridge says, in his Funeral Sermon on that prelate, that "as if he had made Master Mulcaster his tutor or supervisor, he placed his picture over the door of his study, whereas in all the rest of his house you could scarcely see a picture." Fuller speaks kindly of Mr. Mulcaster; and Warton (Hist. Poet., vol. iii. p. 345) commends one of his works "as containing many judicious criticisms and observations on the English language." (Clode, as before, p. 661.)

4 "clearke of the Stacioneres": John Fayreberne was Clerk to the Stationers' Company a number of years precedent to 1575. On 30th May in that year Richard Collins, of the Goldsmiths' Company, was sworn the Clerk of the Stationers' Company, which office he held for some 38 years, dying about 1613. (Arber's Transcript, pp. 208 b, 222.)

5 "mr Allderman Myllnes": Conjecturally this alderman was the Mr. Henry Mills already noted as a friend of Robert Nowell, and receiving a legacy by his Will.

6 "Ste Gregories," and infra: see Index of Names, s.v.
7 "Rachell moyses": "Moyses," I suppose = Moses. Both first and second names of this maiden being Jewish, her nationality may be guessed at.
8 "Johanne spenser at wallingforde": I do not know what connexion (if any) this humble maiden, residing at Wallingford, in Surrey, might be to other Spensers named in the MS., of whom the poet is one.

1 "Thoms, roffe vicare of Luton... Mr. Amyas": It is impossible to distinguish the "Luton" here designated. There are at least four vicarages thus named, and I have failed to trace a Rosse in any of them.

2 "Thoms. Atherton": Not in Newcourt nor in Le Neve. The surname is a Lancashire one, derived from the name of a township in that county; and this "poor minister," who was "knowen to Mr. Dean of Poulls," may have been serving some minister," who was "knowen to Mr. Dean of Poulls," may have been serving some poor cure in Nowell's native county.

3 "Johan hunte... mr. Alvey": Richard Alvey (Fourth Stall) was installed as a Prebendary of Westminster 16th December, 1552, loco Anton. Bellicis (Le Neve, vol. iii, p. 352). He was also appointed to the Fifth Stall by the Queen's patent, dated 21st June, 1560 (ibid, p. 353). "Hunte": see Index of Names, s.n.

4 "Johann Marven of cassalton": An Edmund Marvyn, M.A., was installed Prebendary of Winchester 20th September, 1554; Archdeacon of Surrey, circâ 1556 (Le Neve, vol. iii, p. 32). He was Archdeacon during Queen Mary's reign, but was deprived by Queen Elizabeth (ibid, p. 30). It is probable this Johann was some poor member of the family.

- 7th April, 1609?

 6 "Richard Sanson of Albname": Not in Newcourt or Le Neve: not to be confounded with Richard Samson or Sampson, LL.D., Bishop of Chichester, and later of Lichfield, who died September 25, 1554. (Newcourt, vol. i, pp. 46, 47.) It is not impossible that our present Richard Sanson was a relative, as many of the Catholic
- families were reduced to great straits.

4 "mr p'civall wyborne": Percival Wyburne, D.D., was a conspicuous Puritan preacher, and eventual Nonconformist, of the time of Elizabeth. Cooper (Ath. Contab. pp. 449-450) furnishes an interesting sketch of his career. He was born about 1533; admitted of St. John's College, Cambridge, 11th Nov., 1546; proceeded B.A. in 1551; was elected a foundation fellow of his college in 1552; was at Geneva temp. Mary, but came back to England on Elizabeth's accession; proceeded M.A. in 1559, and the same year was appointed junior dean and philosophy lecturer of his college. Receiving priest's orders in 1560, he was installed a canon of Norwich in Feb., 1560-1; and elected senior fellow of St. John's College in 1561. He held a canonry of Rochester from 1561 to 1589, and was installed a canon of Westminster in Nov., 1561. He was instituted vicar of St. Sepulchre's, London, 8th Feb., 1563-4; but in less than a year was deprived of the living for refusing subscription required by the Primate. He had a license to preach in 1567, but was cited for nonconformity and examined by the Primate in 1571; and again by an ecclesiastical commission in 1573, when he was ordered to desist from preaching. A manuscript headed "The State of the Church of England as described by Perceval Wyburn," is in the archives of Zurich. (Zurich Letters, vol. ii., pp. 358-362.) The date of his receiving the degree of D.D. is not apparent. Dr. Wyburne preached at Battersea towards the end of his life, and died about 1606, 4 "Mr Sinckler Late curate of all hallowes, Staninge": Not in Newcourt or Le Neve.

5 "Mr Gatacre curate of St Edmondes in Lumberd Strete": This was Thomas Gatacre of whom Newcourt, under the Rectors of St. Edmond, Lombard Street (vol. i. p. 344), writes: "[He] was Batchelour of Arts of Oxford, where he continued for 10 or 12 years, and was afterwards of S. Mary-Magdal. College in Cambridge, where he continued for the space of 4 years or thereabouts. He was half a year at Lovain, at the beginning of Q. Mary's reign. He was ordained Deacon by the Bishop of London Aug. 4, 1568, and Priest by the same Bishop, Oct. 21 following. He was admitted Aug. 4, 1508, and Priest by the same Bishop, Oct. 21 following. He was admitted Vicar of Christ Church in 1576, which he resign'd in 1578 [Reg. Lond.] He was Rector of S'Edmondes' from 21 June 1572. He died in 1593, having been succeeded 2 June 1593 by Balgay 'per mort Gatacre.'"

6 "Wyllm martin": Not in Newcourt or Le Neve.

7 "Nycholes Creane": This was a notable minister of the Puritan party—Nicholas

Crane, of Christ's College, Cambridge, respecting whose career and tribulation see Cooper's Athenæ Cantabrigienses (vol. ii, p. 39), and Brook's Lives of the Puritans (vol. i, pp. 362-3). Mr. Nicholas Crane was silenced by Bishop Grindal for his nonconformity; and is said to have lain in prison more than a year prior to 1569, when he was licensed conditionally by Grindal. He must therefore have been in durance at the very time when this gift came to him from Dean Nowell (in March, 1568-9); and it is to be noticed that in the text no cure is assigned to this minister. Strype, in the Life of Grindal, prints an ample account of the Bishop's dealings with William Bonham and Nicholas Crane, who, he says, were in 1569 the "chief teachers" of the Separatists in London. Mr. Crane had received a special license from the Bishop to preach on giving his verbal promise not to assail the rites and ceremonies of the Established on giving his verbal promise not to assail the rites and ceremonies of the Established Church; but the Bishop wrote to the Privy Council in January, 1569-70, that these preachers of late "did keep no promise," and advised that twelve of the most desperate Separatists, both ministers and laity, should be again imprisoned, not in London, where they "found great supportation and comfort," but in the common jails of Cambridge and Oxford. In 1572, Mr. Crane is found taking a leading part in setting up the Presbyterian Church in Wandsworth. In 1577 and in 1583 he signed, with others, letters of encouragement to Cartwright, the champion of the nonconforming Puritans. He was again imprisoned in Newgate, and died in prison in 1588. He was author of Exceptions taken against Absolute Subscription to the Book of Common Prayer and Book of Articles.

- 3 "mr Alexander": See last page and relative Note.
 4 "Mr Blunte tried by queste," and infra: The name spelt "Blunt" was very likely Blount; and this poor imprisoned minister may have been connected with the Thomas Blount who was a prior husband of Dean Alexander Nowell's second wife, and who was buried at St. Lawrence's Church, London. (Churton's Life of Nowell, pp. 370-I.)

8 "mr Aboot a poor Minister": Unknown.

9 "Rycharde Turner": Richard Turner comes to light as a preacher in the early years of the Reformation and an exile during the Marian persecutions.

10 "mr Wetheres": It was about the date of this entry that George Withers, the learned puritan preacher and author (who I feel sure was the "poor preacher" who had these benefactions at the hands of Dean Nowell), returned to England from the Continent, whither he had gone about 1565, on being forbidden to preach by the Primate for his uncompromising objection to Roman symbols in the Church of England. Submitting to the ceremonies for the sake of peace, he was made Archdeacon of Colchester in Oct., 1570, and obtained the rectory of Danbury, Essex, in Nov., 1572. He died in April, 1617.

"mr Goughe mr eatone": The minister thus liberally helped in his "great need"being "fallen into the palssye" was doubtless John Gough, ordained deacon in Jan., 1559-60, admitted rector of St. Peter's Cornhill 15 Nov., 1560, but deprived of that living for nonconformity in 1567. He was author of several published books, one of which is a Sermon preached in the Tower of London in Jan., 1570-1, a few months before the date of this reference in our MS., which is 6th June, 1571. He is named in a letter of Archbishop Parker to Lord Burghley, dated 11th June, 1571. (Parker Corresp. p. 382.)

14 "mr wharton": "James Wharton, minister," had a son John, registered as having

 "Davide Dee". This poor minister, whose special claim for consideration was that he had "but one leg," is noticed onward under another reference. He, or another David Dee, appears in 1575 as Vicar of Dean, in the county of Lancaster, to which he was presented in that year by the Queen as patron. (Baines' Hist. of Lanc.,
- Which ne was presented in that year by the Queen as patron. (Baines 17151. of Lant., Edn. of 1868, vol. i. p. 536).

 5 "Goodman Kerrie": Humphrey Kerry, probably. (See Index of Names, s.n.)

 6 "Elles Pollerde.... borne in Lancashire": There are two entries on this page relating to him. In this he is described as a "poor minister borne in Lancashire;" and in the entry near the foot of the page as "Elles Pollarde, a poor minister, borne in Byllington in Lancashire, who servith cure in Kente." He was of a family of Pollards who held a small freehold or leasehold estate in the township of Billington (near Whelley but in the parish of Blekhurn). They were connected by marriages with Whalley, but in the parish of Blackburn). They were connected by marriages with the Braddylls of Braddyll and Portfield, who rose to a position of great affluence and note in the county palatine. William Pollard of Billington, gent., living temp. Henry VIII, had a daughter Emota, who was wife of John Braddyll, Esq. A later William Pollard, of Billington, paid the King's subsidy tax in 1523; and John Pollard, senior, and John Pollard, junior, of the same family, were tenants of Whalley Abbey in Billington at the survey of Abbey lands in 1538. Ralph Pollard, another member, who died before 1563, by Alice his wife had a son Christopher Pollard and a daughter Agnes, wife of Nicholas Lache. Ellis Pollard the minister may have been a son of this Ralph, or else of John Pollard, senior, living in 1538. There are no traces of this minister in local records. Two or three later members of this yeoman family may be named. Edward Braddyll, Esq., married Elizabeth Pollard, 16th Dec., 1596. John Pollard married, 10th Feb., 1615–16, Eliz. Peele. Edward Pollard married, 3rd Sept., 1619, Ellen Potter. Ellen Pollard, widow, gave, in 1684, £10 to the Poor Stock of Billington. Ellis Pollard of Billington (namesake of the minister) was buried at Blackburn Church 3rd April, 1623; and another Ellis Pollard, probably his son, had sons, James, born in 1633, and Ellis Pollard, born in 1635. The latter died in May, 1683. A later entry in the MS. shews another member of this Lancashire family going to the University:—"To one George Pollarde, the 8th of october [1572] who ys allso latly comen out of Lancashire who is about Brasynose in Oxforde, 16s. 8d."

7 "mr hayles": I am not certain if Christopher Hales, M.A., fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge, an exile at Frankfort for his religion in Mary's reign, was still living in 1571, at the date of this entry. If he was, he may have been the recipient of this gift.

8 "mr wylsonne curatt of Cashinghton":
9 "Nicholes Pettiseer Sermone leane":
10 "Thomes hodgson cranebroke in Kent," and next entry: Even the local historian of Cranbrook (Mr. William Tarbutt) has failed to discover this "Hodgson."
11 "mr filde": This minister, a "prisoner in Newgate" in 1572, was John Field.

a leader of the Puritan movement, and minister of the Aldermary parish, London. He and Mr. Thomas Wilcox (see ante., p. 66), were joint authors of the Puritans' Admonition to Parliament, which they presented in person to the House, and for which they were sent for into custody, and by the influence of the Bishops committed to Newgate, Oct. 2nd, 1572. The imprisoned preachers addressed a memorial to Lord Treasurer Burghley, and also wrote a confession of their faith, dated from Newgate, 4th Dec., 1572. The parishioners of Aldermary signed two petitions praying for the liberation of their "valuable pastor, and learned and faithful preacher," praying for the liberation of their "valuable pastor, and learned and faithful preacher, as they styled Mr. Field; but he was kept in durance until the penalty imposed was paid, though in extreme poverty. Subsequently, Mr. Field was suspended for nonconformity, 4th March, 1584. He endured much persecution on account of his reforming zeal in religion.

12 "Elles Pollarde": See note, supra.

13 "mr Machett....norffolke": For a notice of this "poor minister of Norffolke" see the Correspondence of Archibishop Parker (Parker Socy.), pp. 456-7. Mr. Matchett was parson of Thurgarton, in the county of Norfolk, and to him Parker addressed a missive dated 25th March, 1574, instructing him to go to his ordinary, Bishop Parkhurst, and take the Primate's command to suppress certain "vain prophesyings" in that diocese. How Mr. Matchett came to be, as mentioned in the text, a "prisoner in the Kinges Bench" in July, 1575, cannot be explained.

1 "[Mynisteres]": This word is crossed out in the MS. It was doubtless so done because some at any rate of the "wyddowes" were not of "meynisteres." 2 "Mrs Allyn". She was the widow, as described in the text, of a deceased bishop elect of Rochester, namely, of Edmund Allen. He was a native of Norfolk; a Fellow of Corpus Christi College, Cambridge, 1536; M.A. 1537. Later, he travelled abroad for the sake of study, and is found at Landau in March, 1545-6. In 1549 he was in England, and chaplain to the Princess Elizabeth, who, on her accession, made him a royal chaplain. He was nominated Bishop of Rochester, and was elected under a congé d'elire dated 27 July, 1559, but died before consecration, and was buried in the church of St. Thomas Apostle, London, 30 Aug., 1559. He was author of a Catechism (1551), and of several translations, &c. (Ath. Cantab., vol. i. p. 198.) Cut off at the very instant of his preferment to a bishopric, Mr. Allen left a widow (whom here we meet with eleven years after her husband's death receiving substantial help out nere we meet with eleven years after her husband's death receiving substantial help out of the Nowell Bounty) and eight children. One of the children, namesake of his father, was entered at Merchant Taylors' School the 6th April, 1571, as recorded in the School Register:—"Edmund Allen, son of Edmunde, late clerk, Bp. of Rochester."

1 "a poor blinde wyddowe of Carlyll laste rebellion": The reference in this sorrowful instance must be to the rebellion in 1569, headed by the Earls of Northumberland and Westmoreland, during the military measures for the suppression of which, Carlisle was held by a large force for the Queen. The soldiery would be quartered upon the citizens, and thus the husband of this poor blind widow, being then living, had "kepte maney soygeres in army againste the said Rebelles." His widow could expect no compensation from the government; so Dean Nowell sent the poor creature, out of his brother's bounty, a sum (30s.) equal to 15% of modern money.

"Applibye" = Appleby in Westmoreland.
""" mrs. zager" and infra: see last page.
""" goode wieffe bartlet": On this page, we have two entries of payments to this widow, in the years 1574 and 1576. She received again money in 1578 and 1581. I think it probable that several of these recipients were the widows of Puritan ministers deceased, whom Dean Nowell cared for out of his respect for the memory of pious preachers who had been known to him during life. This Mistress Bartlet may have been the wife of a Puritan preacher named Bartlett, who is referred to in Grindal (Parker Society), as having taken upon him to read his divinity lecture at St. Giles's, Cripplegate, though suspended by the Bishop.

6 "meistres higforde" and infra: She is named thrice on this page, and in each entry is described as a "poor wyddowe." A few folios onward she again appears as A few folios onward she again appears as A few folios onward she again appears as the second of recipient of four more gifts of money in 1579 and 1580, and in one entry is called "a poore decayed wyddowe." Dean Nowell kept his charitable eye upon many examples of honourable poverty, and acted the "friend in need" with prompt relief. Mistress Higford had a former gift in August, 1572, towards the marriage of her daughter

7 "Guye Eyton": The name, Guy Eaton, is the same with that of the then Archdeacon of Gloucester, who is mentioned twice further on in the MS .: - "To Gye Eaton, Archdeacon of Glocester, to the use of a poor scholler," &c.

¹ For the Bowyers here named see Index of Names, s.n. These "poor men" it is again hopeless to seek to illumine now. They were all of the obscurest, albeit some of the names tell of good lineage. The whole of the names will be found incorporated with the Index of Names, and as such they add to our list of English surnames. As the distribution of this category of gifts was entrusted to the three Bowyers, citizens of London, the parties receiving the benefactions would be resident in or near London.

2 "Alexander hamerton": This is a North of England surname, the only one on the page that strikes us as such. Families of Hammertons were seated at Hellifield Peel, in Craven, and at Hollins, near Burnley, in East Lancashire, and the surname of Hammerton is of rather frequent occurrence in those localities. Of the Hollins branch of Hammertons is Mr. Philip Gilbert Hammerton, the accomplished contemporary artist, poet, and essayist.

1 "Scollyon of my Lord of London": The men named in this list were probably most of them in some kind of petty official or domestic service, and here is one who was the Bishop of London's scullion. His master was Bishop Grindal.

2 "Olyver pagge Late Somner to the Dean & Chapter": "Somner" is an old abbreviation of the word summoner, which denotes the office performed by the person who is so described.

visition of the word is unintelligible, but the letters in the MS. can be made into nothing else.

1 "Rycharde Lante clearke of St peters in Chipe": Unknown.

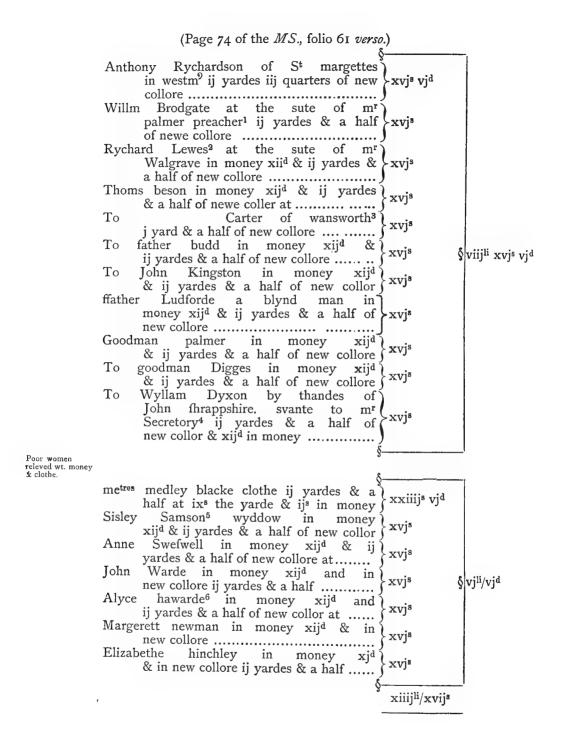

2 "Branden fwood": This surname, shortened to Brandwood, is of local occurrence in East Lancashire.

3 "James Rysston in blackeborne": The name of this Blackburn man who received money and cloth of the value of 16s., spelled "Ryeston" in the MS., would be, correctly, Rishton, or Rushton. In Blackburn, in the township of Rishton, which lies next to Blackburn on the east, and in two or three adjoining townships, the surname of Rishton was that of several families of gentry and yeomen of former time, and is still common among natives. James Rishton of Blackburn I do not identify. Being classed among "poor men who had gowns and money," he was a person of no standing, doubtless.

4 "George & John hyllyarde..... John hyllyearde minister": Of these two sons of John Hyllyard, minister, one at least was a scholar at Merchant Taylors' School. 25th May, 1565, "John Hiliard, son of John Hiliard, minister," is enrolled upon the register of the school as being then admitted.

6 "John hayr Taylor in the wayhouse": The "wayhouse" refers to the "King's Weigh House" in the City of London. For what was done there, see The White Book of the City of London, p. 248, where we read, that "whereas merchants do feel aggrieved by reason that the weights in the hostels and in the selds of citizen merchants of the company of the c of London, by which they sell, do not agree with the weight by which they buy, -it is accorded that the King shall have his weights in a certain place, or in two places, or in three or four if necessary, within the city; and that all merchandize sold by weight that exceeds 25 pounds shall be weighed with the King's weights in weighing for the custom that pertains unto," &c.

1 "Willm Brodgate mr palmer preacher": Mr. Palmer, "preacher," of this entry, dated 1568, synchronises with William Palmer, born about 1539; of Pembroke Hall, Cambridge; B.A., 1559-60; elected a fellow of that house in 1560; commenced M.A. 1563. He was chaplain to Grindal, bishop of London, who collated him to the prebend of Mora, in St. Paul's, 24th Sept., 1565; and on 20th Dec., 1566, he was instituted to the rectory of St. Lawrence, Jewry, London. In 1570 he was collated to the prebend of Riccol, in the Church of York; and in 1571 was under chancellor of the Church of York. He had other preferments later. Mr. Palmer was in attendance at the execution of the Earl of Northumberland, at York, 22nd Ang. 1572. He was created D.D. in 1508; and died 23rd Oct., 1605, at 22nd Aug., 1572. He was created D.D. in 1598; and died 23rd Oct., 1605, at York. In the Farmer MS. are notes of a sermon he preached at St. Paul's Cross, London, 11th Aug., 1566. (Cooper's Ath. Cantab., vol. ii., p. 413.)

2 "Rychard Lewes": Educated at Oxford, where he proceeded B.A., 1575-6;

M.A., 1579; B.D., 1584.

3 "Wansworth" = Wandsworth, Surrey; a suburb of South London.

"Yansworth Wantsworth, Suitey, a subule of South Zondon.

"John Shrappshire sownte to mr Secretory": i.e., to Mr. Secretary Cecil.

"Sisley Samson" = Cecilia.

"Alyce Hawarde": Hawarde is an old Lancashire spelling of Haworth; and Alice Hawarde here I think is the same with Alice Haworth of Rochdale, widow, a relative of the Nowells whose receipt for a legacy of 71., as entered in the MS., has previously been noted. (See Index of Names, s.n.)

1 "heughe hendley": Not recorded by Clode in his Memorials of the Merchant Taylor Company, as before. From the name, I conjecture he was not a London but a Lancashire trader in cloth.

² "Rychard Johanson": This was no doubt the "Richard Johnson" who appears along with Bragdon (note 5 infra) at the Feast of Sir Thomas Rowe. He was one of a goodly number "appoynted to dyne at the Table appoynted for the Salters." (Clode, p. 117.)
3 "Willam Chivall": Not in Clode, as before.

4 " Mr. Cape": ibid.

5 "Mr. bragden": This was John Bragdon whose name occurs as one of the "Surveyors at the Dresser in the Hall" at a Feast under the Mayoralty of Sir Thomas Rowe Citizen and Merchant Taylor, 1568. (Clode, p. 116.)

7 "Mr. Brathwate": Not in Clode, as before. The name belongs to Westmore-

1 "Edwarde Shande....mr puste of Eaton": "P'vste"=provost. The Provost of Eton at this date was William Day. He was elected Provost 5th Jan. 1561-2, and Dean Nowell was one of the candidates for the post recommended to the Queen, but Day was selected as being a single man, and in that respect more eligible. William Day was born at Newport in Shropshire, in 1529; educated at Eton; admitted at King's College, Cambridge, in 1545; proceeded B.A. in 1549, and commenced M.A. in 1553; appointed Fellow of Eton in 1560; Canon of Windsor 1564; Dean of Windsor 1572; appointed Fellow of Eton in 1506; Canon of Windsor 1504; Dean of Windsor 1572; Bishop of Winchester 1595; died 20th Sept., 1596. He published Latin verses (1560), and an account of his conference with Campion the Jesuit in the Tower (1581).

2 "frances Wytheres": A "Mr. Withers" appears as one of the Examiners along with Dean Nowell, &c., of Merchant Taylors' School in 1572. (Clode, p. 408.)

3 "Robte read Late my L. of London cooke": The Bishop of London's servants were well kept in mind by Dean Nowell in his periodical distributions of trust money in charity. From Mr. Ratclief, the Bishop's head-man, who had cloth for a gown which cost 45s. (he is described in Grindal's Will, dated 1583, as "Richard Ratcliff gent., my comparateller") to his cook and his sculling this houst extended cost 45% (he is described in Grindar's Will, dated 1503, as "Richard Ratchin gent., my comptroller"), to his cook and his scullion, this bounty extended.

4 "Audeley poor olde and lame": The descriptions of several of the recipients here are pathetically pitiful, such as, "an olde blinde mane," "very poore," "a poor fatherless child," "a poor decayed mane," and this last and saddest case of all, "poor olde and lame." Upon Dean Nowell the distributor, and his benevolent brother Robert the bestower of these far-reaching benefactions, "the blessing of them that were ready to perish" must have been pronounced numberless times during these twelve years or so (1568-1580) of the expenditure of the funds of this noble charity.

- 1 "instice Southcoate": John Southcote of Southcote, eldest son of William, younger son of Nicholas Southcote of Chudleigh, in the county of Devon, born in 1511; and being sent to the Middle Temple, rose to be reader in 1556; he is named as undersheriff and (in 1553) one of the judges of the Sheriff's Court in London; nominated judge of the Queen's Bench, 10th February, 1563, and fulfilled his judicial office with high repute for twenty-one years, resigning 29th May, 1584; he died 18th April, 1585, and was buried under a stately monument in Witham Church, in the county of Essex. Justice Southcote's wife, who wrote this letter for a charity to Dean Nowell, was Elizabeth, daughter and heir of William Robins of London. (Foss' Biogr. Dict. of the Judges
- of England, p. 625.)

 "Yohn Christe..... mr Dean of Westm'r": Unknown.

 "Mr Sargante Carus his wief": Mr. Sargante Carus was Thomas Carus of Kirby Lonsdale, Esq., son of William Carus of Astwaith. He was "one of the Justices of the Queen's Bench"-so described in the Carus Pedigree in the Lancashire Visitations of 1567 and 1664. He purchased the manor of Halton in Lunesdale, in the county of Lancaster, and this estate was held by his family until the 18th century. Justice Carus's wife—the lady who wrote the letter to Dean Nowell referred to in the entry on behalf of John Botterell—was Katherine, daughter of Thomas Preston of Preston Patrick, in the county of Westmoreland, Esq. His eldest son, Thomas Carus, was of Kirby Lonsdale; and a younger son was Christopher Carus of Halton. The date of Justice Carus's death is not ascertained by Foss, the historian of the English Bench; but my friend Col. Chester has found his Will, and made for me an abstract of it. The Will is dated I June, 1569; and testator, "Thomas Carus, one of the Justices of our Sovereign Lady the Queen of the Pleas," appoints as his executors, his wife Catherine, and Thomas, his son and heir apparent; gives to his said wife, half his estates, except his office of Keeper of the Park of Quernmore, in the county of Lancaster; the other half and the said Keepership to Thomas, his son, and the whole to him at testator's wife's death; to his daughter Griselda Carus 2001. to her marriage; to his cousin Cicillie Thornburghe and to Katheryn Ellis, each 10% to their marriage; to Christopher, his son, 20%. per annum as already provided by deed; appoints brother, Master Christopher Preston, supervisor; Will not to extend to those lands that were late the inheritance of Anne Carus, wife to testator's son, Thomas Carus, and which were by fine conveyed to testator. The Will was proved by both executors, 11th July, 1571; so the Judge must have died early in 1571.

1 "Richard Wylkynson": The entry is in Dean Nowell's handwriting, and the recipients were of a family noticed before as akin to Nowells. Index of Names, s.n.

1 "Joan wiese" - as in Note 12 on last page.

6 "visulay & Katherin bernehere the Doughters of augustine bernehere": Augustine Bernher, a Swiss, whose two daughters thus receive a kindly present from Dean Nowell, fills a modest niche in the fabric of the English Reformation as the loyal friend of several of the most eminent divines of the Protestant era, and notably of the martyrs Latimer, Ridley, and Bradford, and of Bishop Jewel. His association with Latimer is most intimate; for he took down during their delivery a series of sermons preached by Bishop Latimer in the last year of Edward's reign, and published them ten years later, after the succession of Queen Elizabeth. He dedicated the edition to the Lady Katherine, Duchess of Suffolk, before whom Latimer had preached the sermons in 1552, and speaks of the preacher as the "reverend father and most constant martyr of Christ, Dr. Hugh Latimer, my most dear master"—the last words indicating Bernher's ministrant relation to the good bishop. He published, also, eight additional discourses, entitled "Certayn other Sermons preached by the right reverend father in God, Master Hugh Latimer, in Lincolneshyre, the year of our Lord 1553 [1552]. Collected and gathered by Augustine Bernhere, an Helvetian," &c., 1562. Many interesting references to Bernher are found in the works of Bradford, Ridley, Jewel, and in other volumes of the Parker Society's publications. The date of this portion of the entries in our MS. proves that Augustine Bernher and his family were living, in London probably, in 1569.

7 "mr Crowley": See Index of Names, s.n., for previous notice of him.

8 "mrs harrysonne of chipsyed": This lady, and Mrs. Clapham, named three entries higher upon the page, are both included amongst the "women of wealth," kindred and near friends of the Nowells, who received black gowns at Robert Nowell's funeral. (See ante, p. 6 of the text.) Dean Nowell, by a codicil to his Will, bequeathed "to his cousins Mr. Harrison and his wife 6l. 13s. 4d."

9 "Anne Sabothe"—a very noticeable surname=Sabbath? "comdacions"=commendations, i.e., recommendations.

10 "mr Docter west falinge": Herbert Westphaling, D.D., of Christ Church College, Oxford. About eleven months after the date of this allusion to him, Dr. Westphaling was spoken of in connection with the bishopric of Oxford, then vacant. Archbishop Parker wrote to Sir Wm. Cecil, on 30th March, 1570:—"As for Oxford bishoprick, Mr. Westfaling is a wise sober man, but because he is but a prebendary, and not master of a College, he is peradventure the less meet because the bishoprick wanteth a house." (Parker Corresp., p. 360.) In Jan., 1579, Bishop Hilles, writing to Gaultier, states that he has sent certain books to Oxford, "to Master Herbert Westphaling, canon of Christ Church." (Zurich Letters, vol. ii, p. 305.) Dr. Westphaling was made Canon of Windsor in 1577; Bishop of Hereford in 1585, and died 7th March, 1601-2.

""meistres Drante": I fear this may have been the "poor wyddowe" of Thomas Drant, a man of no common note in his generation. The following details are of interest and add pathos to the present entry:—Thomas Drant, son of Thomas Drant, was born at Hagworthingham, in the county of Lincoln, and after receiving a good grammatical education was matriculated as a pensioner of S. John's College 18th March, 1557–8. He proceeded B.A. 1560–1, and was admitted a fellow of his college on Dr. Thimbleby's foundation 21st March, 1560-1. He commenced M.A. 1564, and on the Queen's visit to the University in August that year, celebrated the event in English, Latin, and Greek verses, which he presented to Her Majesty. At the commencement of 1565 he performed a public exercise on the theme Corpus Christi non est ubique. He proceeded B.D. 1569, and on 2nd July in that year was admitted to the prebend of Chamberlainwood in the church of S. Paul. This preferment he obtained from Dr. Grindal, Bishop of London, our Nowell's friend, to whom he was Domestic Chaplain, and who also appointed him divinity reader at S. Paul's, It seems that Richard Curteys, then dean of Chichester, and afterwards bishop of that place, was his favourer in Cambridge, and helped to procure him the readership of S. Paul's. We find Drant preaching before the court at Windsor 8th January, 1569. He selected for his text, "They were both naked, Adam and Eve, and blushed not." On this he engrafted searching doctrine, clothed in language at once striking and original, with frequent allusions to the vain attire both of men and women. He was admitted to the following preferments on the presentation of the Queen in 1569-70, the see of Chester then being void: The prebend of Firles in the church of Chichester 21st January; the rectory of Slinfold, in the county of Sussex, 31st January; the archdeaconry of Lewes 27th February. In the latter dignity he was installed on the 4th March following. He preached at S. Mary, Spital, London, on Easter Tuesday, 1570, sparing not to raise his voice against the sin and sensuality of the great city. Alluding to the poor scholars in the universities he remarked: "These be the noble sons of the prophets, and most apt of all others to be builders of God's temple: yet have I seen many a good wit, many a long day kept low and lean to be made broken with hunger and abject with poverty. I do not know the liberality of this city towards both these places; only this I can say, that less than the tenth part of that which is nothing but surfeit and sickness to the great excessive eaters of this Town, would cherish and cheer up hungry and thirsty Christ, in those his hunger-starved members, right well." On or before 20th April, 1570, he resigned his prebend at S. Paul's. He again preached at S. Mary, Spittal, on Easter Tuesday, 1572. His theme was charity, but his discourse was of the most discursive character, abounding in proverbs and quaint and singular conceits and allusions. He thus contrasted the mode of travelling in that day with the simplicity of the patriarchal ages: "In olde time, father Jacob and Judas travailed farre journeys, with a staffe on theyr backe: In these new times we cannot travaile from one village to another, but we have a Sword & a buckler, a Tucke and a Targette, a Dagger and a Raper, a Musket, a Caliver, a Currier, a Hargabuske, and an halfe hacke, a Pistole, & a Pistollet, a Dagge, and a Snapehanche In olde time my Lady Rebecka came ryding to her new husband on a Camelles backe. In new tyme, our Ladies have waggins, coutches, and horselitters, soft, silken, & sewtable." Drant unfortunately made himself conspicuous by the bitter hostility he displayed to Dr. William Overton, treasurer of the church of Chichester and ultimately Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry, who had been an unsuccessful applicant for the archdeaconry of Lewes when Drant obtained that office, and who had probably given further offence by his efforts to obtain the deanery of Chichester when it was vacated by the elevation of Drant's friend, Richard Curteys, to the bishopric. Drant evinced his dislike of the Doctor by an attack upon him in the pulpit. He in no measured terms charged him with hypocrisy, derided his learning, stigmatised him as a dolt, alleged that he was covetous and ostentatious, and related that, being on one occasion in Overton's house, he had purposely spit upon one of his cushions in order to reproach his pride. Dr. Overton made a complaint of Drant's rude and unseemly language, and also stated objections to another sermon which he had preached in the church of S. Giles, Cripplegate, London. What resulted we know not. His death appears to have occurred shortly before 17th April, 1578. It is presumed that he was only about 37 years of age. (Cooper's Athenæ Cantabrigienses, vol. i, pp. 384-6, 556, and the numerous authorities therein given.) Of his Works these may be recorded—Thomæ Drantæ Shakloki Epigrammatis in mortem Cuthberti Scoti Apomaxis: 1565: A Medicinable Morall, that is the two Bookes of Horace his Satyres, Englyshed ... the Wailyngs of the Prophet Hieremiah done into Englyshe verse. Also Epigrammes 1566: Horace his arte of Poetrie, pistles and Satyrs Englished, 1567: Greg. Nazianzen his Epigrams and spirituall sentences, 1568: &c., &c., &c. Spenser and Harvey in their Letters frequently allude to rules and precepts of art in making verse which Drant devised and Sidney augmented with his observations. (Ath. Cantab., as before.) It is to be feared that one "result" of the Overton-Drant strife was a premature death of the latter, and his "widowe" left in poverty. All too many such sudden calamities in clerical households through the death of their head are found earlier and later.

2 "mrs Stowarde and her mother": Might not these be female kindred of the Protestant exile of Mary's reign, Thomas Steward, M.A., who returned to England about 1559, and was appointed canon of Ely in 1560, along with which he held the rectory of Downham, Isle of Ely? He died 2nd Dec., 1568.

1 "Gabraell Marsden my cosin shepard Nephie": Of this scholar, who, by his connexion with the Shepards was distantly related to the Nowells, I have nothing beyond what appears in our MS., where, in a second entry, he is included among persons of wealth who had money; this entry runs:—"To Gabraell Marsden the xviith of February 1569, x*." His father, I conjecture, belonged to Lancashire, where Marsden is a common surname. His relatives, the Shepards, were of Rochdale Parish. (Index of Names, s.n.)

Wicholes hamon canturburie": There is a second reference to him two folios onward.

² "Mathew Springham": Possibly brother of Richard Springham, of Magdalen College, Oxford, also named in the MS. and noted hereafter. (See Index of Names, 5,n.)

4 "Mr. polsted": Unknown.

5 "John hutton": See last page.

6 "James Greyns": Unknown.

7 "Robte Sharpe": Robert Sharpe recurs a few folios onward in a list of Cambridge scholars who had gifts.

8 "Richard bretherton": I can add nothing respecting the humble personality of this Usher of Merchant Taylors' School, who is named thrice on this page as receiving so many gifts of money, in 1569 and 1570. His surname belongs to Lancashire; and I have little doubt he is identical with "Richard Bretherton scholler of Cletherall" (Clitheroe), so named near the end of the MS. (Index of Names, s.n.)

9 "Willm Gore": Intended, I imagine (but mistranscribed), for William Gace, noted elsewhere. (Index of Names, s.n.)

10 "Robte Smythe henry Garvey": A Robert Smith son of Robert Smyth, stirrup maker, was admitted a Scholar in Merchant Taylors' School 28 Feb. 1568-69.

11 This entry is crossed out in the MS.

12 "Thoms Lawrance": This scholar I identify with one of Dr. Bloxam's demies at Magdalen College, Oxford, thus named in the College Register: "Lawrence, Thomas, aged 17 (on admission in 1576); of Berks; res. 1580. Matriculated at Trinity College, 22 Oct. 1572. Of Hertford, pleb. fil. Prob. Fellow 1580-88. B.A. 15 Nov. 1582. M.A. 22 June, 1587." See Bloxam's Register of Presidents, Fellows, and Demies of Magdalen College, vol. 1, p. 200. And see the name of a Thomas Lawrance among a list of students and scholars of St. John's College, Cambridge, to whom 14 "Richard Bretherton," and supra: Not in Clode's Memorials, as before.

 15 "Willm Coxe...my Mr's godsonne": In subsequent allusions in the MS. this godson of Dean Nowell is described as being then (1573, 1575, and 1577) of Magdalen College in Oxford.

1 "Edmonde Spensere": See Introduction and Index of Names, s.n.
2 "George Norcrosse.... admytted minister": Nothing has come to light respecting him. A contemporary Henry Norcrosse was instituted Vicar of Ribchester, in the county of Lancaster, 9th March, 1573; and one David Norcrosse died seized of lands in Alston and Ribchester about 1594; so that a family of Norcrosse would seem to have been connected with that district of Lancashire.

to have been connected with that district of Lancashire.

* "Willm haymon": Mentioned again on the next page.

* "yonger of Mr. Harryson's sonnes": This kinsman of the Nowells is here described, in June, 1571, as "a scholar of Eaton" (Eton.) In Ath. Cantab. (vol. ii, p. 222) I find:—"John Harrison, born at London in 1553, and educated at Eton, whence he was elected to King's College (Cambridge), whereof he was admitted a scholar 24th Aug., 1570, and a fellow 24th Aug., 1573. He proceeded B.A. in 1574, commenced M.A. in 1578, and vacated his fellowship in 1579, and in 1581 he was appointed Head Master of St. Paul's School. He was incorporated M.A. at Oxford 11th July, 1585. His death took place in 1596. He is said to have possessed no inconsiderable knowledge of ancient coins," In a codicil to Dean Nowell's Will (after 1592), occur the bequests: "To his cousins Mr. Harrison and his wife 6l. 13s. 4d.: to every one of their children 20s." A little further on in the MS. young Harrison is entered as "Mrs. Harrysones sonne wch. went frome eatone to chambrydge."

6 "Richarde haul": The erased entry gives the only information to be had about Richard Hall, that he was a scholar at New College, in Oxford, and went up to London in 1571 to become a schoolmaster. A later entry in the MS. is to the same purport.

6 "Rogere Bradshawe," and infra: Another Westminster "schollere" not found

To be doubtful if he proceeded to any university. Ludlaw, i.e., Ludlow, his birthplace, is in Salop.

These two entries (5 and 6) are crossed out in the MS.; also that which follows

7 " John Crucke": This was doubtless the son of John Croke, son of Richard Croke, alias Le Blount, esquire, of Easington, co. Bucks. He became Sir John Croke. His father translated "Thirteen Psalms and the first chapter of Ecclesiastes," published by the Percy Society, 1844. See Ath. Cantab., vol. i, pp. 118-119, 545.

"Fohn Davidge": The name should perhaps be Davies or Davis.

"Robte holden Cletherowe": There were two or three families of gentry and yeomen named Holden in North-East Lancashire in the 16th century. Robert Holden, who had this gift on his going to Cambridge in 1571, was a member of one of these families, and he had received his early tuition at the Free Grammar School of Queen Mary, in Clitheroe. I hazard the supposition that he was either a son or kinsman of "Sir" Thomas Holden, curate of Haslingden, named at the beginning of our MS., and noted at p. 5.

10 "John Whealwrighte": Unknown.

11 "Wymchirste": Not in Alum. West. as before. The entry is erased in MS.

12 "Brian eyten": Not recorded at Canterbury School. But "Bryan Eyten" in this entry is probably meant for "Bryan Exton," who is named anon in the MS. as "sonne to Mrs. ffynche," and "scholer in Magdaline Hall in Chambridge." (Index of Names, s.n.)

1 "John Brygge of Cranbroke": Though most diligently helped by the Historian of Cranbrook (Mr. W. Tarbutt), nothing has been recovered concerning either this or other Cranbrook names.

" Gye Eaton, Archdeacon of glocester": Guy Eaton, S.T.B., Prebendary of Gloucester 1559, resigned 1571; Archdeacon of Gloucester, presented 15th September, 1559, and held until after 1571. (Le Neve's Fasti, vol. i, pp. 446, 447.)

3 "Arnolde Oldesworth," and infra: See Index of Names, s.n., and note on the

- 4 "m. heyton": Probably same as Eaton or Heaton. See Index of Names, s.n.
 5 "John Thoms, a poor scholer": Thoms = Thomas. John Thomas, here named as a scholar of Merchant Taylors' School on the 9th of July, 1572, had, a month previously, on the 10th of June, 1572, been chosen by Dean Nowell, Archdeacon Watts, and by the President and a senior Fellow of St. John's College, Oxford, as one of four boys out of the whole school, after a severe examination, who were "meteste as well for learninge, personage, poverty, and years, to be presently preferred to Colledge." The four youths were, "John Thomas, John Rickesmond, William Lee, and Thomas Harrison." (Clode's Memorials of the Guild of Merchant Taylors, p. 408.) In the record of admissions of scholars to Merchant Taylors' School I find the entry: "1564. 28 April. John Thomas, son of Ralph Thomas, Merchant Taylor." The the University to Dean Nowell's goodness; for in another entry in the MS he is referred to as "John Thomas of King's College," "whom my mr. - 6 "mr. Muncaster schole": The name is misspelt for Mr. Mulcaster, and the school is Merchant Taylors', of which Mr. Mulcaster was Head Master from 1561 to 1581. At the first meeting of the Court of the Company after the foundation of the School, held on the 24th September, 1561, statutes were enacted for its regulation, and Richard Mulcaster of Christ Church, Oxford, M.A., was appointed "high Master." Mr. Clode, in his ample "Memorials" of the Merchant Taylors' Guild and School, supplies interesting facts respecting Mr. Mulcaster (Appendix, p. 661). (See Index, s.n., for other references.)

10 "Thomas Bradockes.... gyrdler": I assume this scholar to be Thomas Bradock, subsequently of Christ College, Cambridge, where he proceeded B.A. in 1576; in 1578 was elected a fellow of his college, and in 1580 commenced M.A. He served the office of proctor in 1584. In 1588 he was elected master of the Grammar School of Reading; and on 8th April, 1591, was presented to the vicarage of Stanstead Abbots, in the county of Herts., which he resigned in 1593. He took B.D. in 1593, and died about 1604. In 1600 he published a Latin translation of a defence of Jewell's Apology.

(Ath. Cantab., vol. ii, p. 395.) Our MS. in this entry gives new information of the paternity of this scholar, stating that his father, living in May, 1573, was a "citizen and gyrdler of London"—"gyrdler"=girdle-maker. They were incorporated in 1448. Their Hall is in Basinghall Street, and their motto "Give thanks to God."

1 "Arnolde Oldsworth," and infra: See Index of Names s.n., for various entries. I have nothing positive respecting this poor scholar, whose maintenance seems to have been undertaken by Dean Nowell, as trustee of his brother's bounty, and whose bringing up was entrusted to Guy Eaton, Archdeacon of Gloucester; but it has struck me that, as he is described as a "poor fatherless child," and as Dean Nowell manifestly took peculiar care for him, be might be the orphan son of Robert Holdesworth, LL.D., Vicar of Halifax, in Yorkshire, who was slain by thieves who broke into the vicarage in the night-time, and was buried in Halifax Church, 10th May, 1566. (Whitaker's History of Leeds, p. 384.) Dr. Holdesworth's violent death was a tragedy which must have caused a sensation in Yorkshire and Lancashire. He is likely to have been well known by the Nowells, whose seat at Read is about 30 miles from Halifax. Dean Nowell paid, according to the four entries in relation to Arnold Oldesworth (or Holdesworth) on this and the preceding page, 53s. 4d. yearly for three years towards his support.
2 "Thoms lytton": See last page.

3 "Lawrance Parkynsonne of Lancaster": This Lancashire scholar who went to Cambridge in June, 1575, is not found in any published record of Cambridge University. He was perhaps a member of the Parkinsons of Ellel, near Lancaster, of whom Lawrence Parkinson, gent. (possibly father of this scholar), was representative in 1554 and 1574, and Christopher Parkinson, gent., in 1585. One Lawrence Parkinson, M. A., presented to the Vicarage of Ospringe, 12th June, 1582, occurs in the records of St. John's College, Cambridge, and it is not unlikely was the same person as the "poor scholar" of our MS. seven years earlier.

4 "Sr waddington.... Doctor Bynge" (this entry is erased in MS.): See onward for another mention of Sir Waddington, B. A., of Clayer Hall in Cambridge, and his patron Dr. Bingham.

5 "Parvies scholler of west chester": Qu—Winchester?
6 "Christofor neman": Christopher Newmane a "poor scholar of Cambridge," will be met with hereafter. (Index of Names, s.n.)

7 "Doctor Parkins sonne": Probably Samuel Parkins elsewhere named in the MS.

and voted as a scholar at Cambridge. (Index of Names, s.n.)

8 "Thoms Bellamye..... Byshoppe of Salisburie": Jewel died 23rd September, 1571, four years before this reference to his help of a poor scholar.

9 "needham... mercers hall": Unknown.

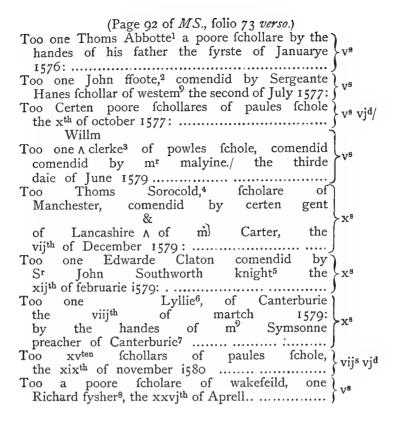

10 "Nicholes hellewell of mydleton": Of this scholar of Middleton School, Lancashire (Nowell's Foundation), I have no information.

11 "one Scofylde of the same schole": Of the Schofield family of Rochdale parish, in the county of Lancaster, others of whom are named in the MS. (Index of Names, s.n.) This scholar is twice mentioned subsequently, when he was sent to Oxford University:--" Edmunde Scolfylde scholar of Mydleton School, who came with his father Versity.— Childran Coordinates and and my lettre to the principal of Brazenose (September 1575); and in June 1577: "To Edmund Scofeild, att his gowinge to Oxford"—"of Brazenose College." No doubt it was the same scholar who is also named as "Scofylde," who conveyed a sum of money from Dean Nowell to Mr. Oliver Carter of Manchester.

12 "Isacke Colffe"—a famous name among those who care for the quaint old theology of the period.

13 "Richard Nowell": He must have been brother to Roger Nowell of a subsequent entry, and there described as "Roger Nowell, a poore schollar [at Cambridge] borne in Cletherall [Clitheroe] in Lancashire, coosin to [Edward] Nowell the vicare of fearinge." These members of junior branches of Nowells of Read who came in for shares of Robert Nowell's bounty are too numerous for me to attempt identification and connexion with the family genealogy of each individual mentioned. A subsequent entry in Dean Nowell's own handwriting relates a circumstance in the college career of this Richard Nowell: -- "To one Richard Nowell who for povertie dep'ted [departed] from Ca'bridge, 21 Febr., 1577.'

" "Thoms Abbotte": Unknown.

2 " John floote Sergeante Hanes": Not known.
3 " Willm clerke": As this scholar was at St. Paul's School in 1579, he could not be the William Clerke of Trinity College, Cambridge, who matriculated in 1575, and was author of The Triall of Baslardie, &c.

4 " Thoms Sorocold": Thomas Sorocold, the Manchester scholar, who by this record had a gift of ten shillings from the Nowell Bounty on 7th Dec., 1579, was of a good Lancashire family, the Sorocolds of Barton-on-Irwell, who entered a descent and displayed arms at Dugdale's Visitation of Lancashire in 1664. Thomas Sorocold was born at Manchester about the year 1561, and probably was brother of Ralph Sorocold of Manchester, merchant, and son of Thomas Sorocold of Manchester. Here, as a scholar of Manchester School in 1579, he is commended to Dean Nowell by Mr. Oliver Carter, Fellow of Manchester College. His University was, I think, Oxford, and his college Brazenose. He took the degrees of B.A. and M.A.; and in July, 1587, "Mr. Sorrocolde pretched at Lathom House, in the private chapel of the Earl of Derby," as recorded in the Stanley Papers (vol. ii, pp. 32 and 142). On 22nd Oct., 1590, Thomas Sorocold, M.A., was instituted to the Rectory of St. Mildred in the Poultry, London (Newcourt's Repert., vol. i, p. 502). He was living in 1594, and was author of Supplications of Saints, a Book of Prayers and Praises, &c., a book which went through many editions.

⁶ "Edwarde Claton Sr John Southworth Knt.": This scholar, also, like the preceding, was of Lancashire. Nothing responds to our inquiry concerning him, but he was doubtless a son of one of the families of Clayton, gentry and yeomen in the parish of Blackburn, where Sir John Southworth, of Samlesbury Hall, had his seat, and was a personage of importance. Sir John Southworth was a stout "recusant" (Roman Catholic), and it is curious to find him commending a scholar to a Protestant chief like Dean Nowell. Sir John Southworth's troubled career on account of his religion is recounted in various narratives. Strype (Grindal, p. 138) states that Sir John was one of a number of Catholic gentry who made a rendezvous at Bath in 1569. He "tarried at Bath twenty days, during which time he was a great leader of that Ring, and no little doer in those parts, remaining in great admiration. He had been but the year before sent up from Lancashire, and committed to the Archbishop of Canterbury, for his harboring Romish priests in his house, and relieving them, though in his hearing they had spoken against the present state of religion established, and the state of the realm." After being sent to the house of the Bishop of London to be conferred with, but in vain, Sir John was transferred to the house of the Dean of St. Paul's (Nowell), where, says Strype, "he continued stiff in his principles, and refused to come either to prayers or sermon; which made the Dean weary of him," &c. Sir John Southworth was at home in Lancashire at the date of this entry, but he was imprisoned for "recusancy" in 1581, and he died in 1595. Respecting Edward Clayton, the scholar named in this entry, it occurs to me that he might be the person named in a codicil to Dean Nowell's Will, which reserved "four pounds to be annually delivered to Mr. Edward Clayton, of Brazenose College."

Later he travelled as tutor with William Cecil, son of Sir Thomas Cecil. He became Archdeacon of Cleveland in 1588-9, and Canon of Canterbury in 1590; was created D.D. in 1608; and dying in June, 1609, was buried in Canterbury Cathedral. His wife was Elizabeth, daughter of John May, Bishop of Carlisle. (Cooper's Ath. Canlab., vol. ii, p. 521.) Among several things Richard Bird was author of Latin verses on Whitaker's translation against Harding, 1578.

1 "Mr. Smith a Lancashire pracher," &c. This entry is in the easily distinguishable hand of Dean Nowell. Out of many Smiths, I am unable to select the one who is here described as a Lancashire preacher. An Alexander Smyth occurs as vicar of Bolton in Lancashire in 1582. (Baines' History of Lancashire, edition of 1868, vol. i,

p. 553.)

"" Mr. Doctor Longworthe": Richard Longworth, born at Bolton in Lancashire

"" St. John's College, Cambridge, in 2 "Mr. Doctor Longworthe": Richard Longworth, born at Bolton in Lancashire about the year 1533; matriculated as a pensioner of St. John's College, Cambridge, in November 1549; proceeded B.A. 1552-3; elected fellow of Queen's College 1553; commenced M.A. 1556; resigned his fellowship at Queen's, 1557; "Rd. Longworth of Lanc.," admitted fellow of St. John's College, 27th July, 1559; elected senior fellow 28th February 1560-1; ordained priest by Bishop Pilkington 9th March, 1561-2; proceeded B.D. 1563; master of St. John's 11th May, 1564; created D.D. 1567; Canon of Durham 1567, resigned 1572; Dean of Chester 28th February, 1572-3; died 1579; Will proved 8th July; author of Letters, &c. For further particulars of Dr. Longworth, see Baker's History of St. John's College, Cambridge; and Cooper's Athenae Cantabrinienses.

3 "Edwarde Whitakeres": See Index of Names, s.n.

4 Robert Wrighte": Robert Wright matriculated as a sizar of Trinity College, 2nd May, 1567, and became a scholar of that house; B.A. 1570-1; afterwards a fellow; M.A. 1574. He was tutor of Robert Devereux, Earl of Essex; and was living in 1596. But there was a second contemporary Robert Wright of Cambridge, who may have been the scholar named in the text, and who matriculated as a pensioner of Trinity College in 1571; B.A., 1574; M.A., 1578. (Ath. Cantab., vol. ii, p. 223.)

6 "Robte Cottforde": See the name on preceding page, and relative note.

6 "Edward Digby": Edward doubtless should be Everard Digby, matriculated as a sizar of St. John's, 25th Oct., 1567; proceeded B.A., 1570-1; admitted a fellow on nity College in 1571; B.A. 1574; M.A. 1578. (Ath. Cantab. vol. ii, p. 223.)

7 "Nathayell treheyron": The name of Nathaniel Treheron occurs twice in these.

Cambridge lists, the second time two pages onward, where he is classed a scholar of St. John's. He is not found in the Athena Cantab.

Treheron, the Puritan minister who died in exile? See a subsequent note showing the marriage connexion between the Treheron family and the Bowyers and the Nowells.

He wrote The Fan of the Faithfull to trie the truth in controversie, and other pieces. Living in 1597. (Ath. Cantab. vol. ii, p. 238-9.)

4 "John Hunte": Perhaps a kinsman of George Hunt, son of John Hunt, previously noted. (Index of Names, s.n.)

5 "Rychard Swale": This was a notable man, afterwards Sir Richard Swale, knt., and M.P. for Higham Ferrars in 1588-9. Born in Yorkshire about 1545; matriculated as a sizar of Jesus College, Cambridge, in June 1566; B.A. 1568-9; fellow in 1571; M.A. 1572; fellow of Caius College, 1577; president of that College before 1581; LL.D. and a master in chancery in 1587; rector of Elm, Isle of Ely, with Emneth in Norfolk, 1591; knighted by King James, 23rd July, 1603; died about June, 1608. (Ath. Cantab. vol. ii, p. 492.)

6 "Thomas felle": See a second reference to him and relative note three folios

7 "Nicholes Bonde" See Index of Names, s.n. He became the venerable and still honored defender of the Christian Sabbath, as well told by Dr. James Gilfillan on The Sabbath, s.n., Nicholas Bownde. After leaving Cambridge, where he took his degrees, Dr. Bound was beneficed at Norton, in the county of Suffolk. An account of him is in Brooks' Puritans, vol. ii, pp. 171-3.

8 "Willm Ashbye": William Ashby was son of Everard Ashby, Esq., of Loseby, in the county of Leicester, a fellow commoner of Peterhouse; M.A. 1566. He was

M.P. for Grantham in the parliament which met 29th October, 1586; and in 1588 was sent as English Ambassador to the court of Scotland. He died in January, 1589-90.

1 "Rychard Smythe": He matriculated as a pensioner of St. John's College, 18th Dec., 1560, and removing to Trinity College, became a scholar of that house; in 1564-5 proceeded B.A.; was soon afterwards elected a fellow; and in 1568 commenced M.A. In 1575 he proceeded B.D. Author of Verses published in 1575, and 1594. (Ath. Cantab., vol. ii., p. 176.) Richard Smith recurs in the MS. two pages onward, under Trinity College list.

2 "John Robynson": Of St. John's College, as entered on the next page, and noted on page 181, note 23.

8" Willm Middliton": William Middleton, a native of Shropshire, matriculated as a sizar of Queen's College, Cambridge, in Oct., 1567; proceeded B.A., in 1570-1; elected a fellow in 1571. Being denied permission, in 1574, by the president and fellows to proceed M.A., he went to Oxford and took the degree there. The authorities of Cambridge then deprived him of his fellowship, but he appealed and was reinstated by command of Lord Burghley, chancellor of the University. The documents relating to this arbitrary treatment of William Middleton at Cambridge are printed in Cambridge University Transactions, &c., edited by Heywood and Wright (vol. i., pp. 177-184.) He proceeded B.D. in 1582, and vacated his fellowship about 1590. He held the rectory of Hardwick, in the county of Cambridge. He wrote Papisto Maxtis, or the Protestant Religion defended, &c. (Ath. Cantab.,

vol. ii., p. 446.)

4 "Willm Wylkinsonne": Of Queen's College, Cambridge, at which he matriculated as a sizar, 12th Nov., 1568; proceeded B.A. 1571-2, and commenced M.A. 1575; B.D. in 1582. He was a schoolmaster in Cambridge in 1579; and in 1580 was living in London. Author of several books published between 1579 and 1591.

(Ath. Cantab., vol. ii., p. 179.)

5 "Hughe Broughtone": Of St. John's College. "Hugh Broughton, of Salop," admitted a fellow of the College, 16th March, 1569-70; translated thence to Chris's College. Canon of Durham. "It may be said to Mr. Shepherd's honour (Nicholas Shepherd, 13th Master of St. John's) that he preferred men of learning, as appeared in his first choice of Hugh Broughton, the famous Hebrician, by his next selection of Andrew Downes, the noted Grecian, and after them of Everard Digby, John Palmer, &c. But Broughton, who did not stay long in a place, removed to Christ's, nowithstanding the kind and advantageous offers made him by Mr. Shepherd." (Hist." of St. John's College, vol. i., p. 167.)

6 "Gyles Fletcher": For a full life of this illustrious man see his Licia as edited by me in the Fuller Worthies' Library Miscellanies, and since, separately, in my Occar sional Issues (1876). The Memoirs in both fill up a hitherto unwritten chapter of our literature, &c. He was father of the two poets Phineas and Giles Fletcher, whose works are included in the Fuller Worthies' Library.

7 "Robt. Lilesse": Robert Lylesse, born at Nottingham, in 1550; educated at Eton; elected thence to King's College, 1567; fellow, 23rd Sept., 1570; B.A., 1571; M.A., 1575; Proctor of the University, 1581. Later in life he followed the medical profession. Supposed to have been author of Diella; Certain Sonnets adjoined to the amorouse poem of Dom Diego and Gineura. By R. L., gentleman, 1596. But I lean to the conclusion that Richard Linch, and not Robert Lilesse, was the author of this book. See my edition of Diella, &c. (Ath.Cantab., vol. ii., p. 223.)

8 "Robert Sharpe": See former mention of him. (Index of Names, s.n.)

9 "Willm Brathwhate": William Braithwaite occurs as a fellow of Immanuel College, Cambridge, in 1589. (Camb. Univ. Trans., vol. i., p. 567.) He was, I think, of the Braithwaites of Furness in Lancashire. A later William Braithwaite, "of Lancashire," was admitted a fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge, 3rd April, 1601. (Baker's History of St. John's College, vol. i., p. 292.)

10 "Robt Churche": Born about 1549; a sizar of St. John's College, Cambridge, 1565; B.A., 1567-8; fellow of Caius College; M.A., 1571; B.D., 1578, and one of the University preachers; in 1595, Lady Margaret preacher. He wrote verses on the death of Dr. Wm. Whitaker, 1595.

"Alexander Keye": Of St. John's College. "Alexander Kay, of Lancashire," admitted a fellow of the College, 11th April, 1565. "Cacus natus Regr. acad., 1564. Cacus et tamen concionator." (Register of St. John's College, in Baker's History of the College, edited by Mayor, vol. i., p. 288.)

1 "Haly heron:" He matriculated as a sizar of Queen's College in Nov., 1565; proceeded B.A. 1569-70. He wrote A New Discourse of morall Philosophie, &c., 1579. (Ath. Cantab., vol. i, p. 452.)

"Thomas Browene:" He matriculated as a pensioner of Christ's College in May,

1559; B.A., 1563-4; M.A., 1568; LL.D., 1579; and was admitted an advocate 5th June, 1599. (Ath. Cantab., vol. ii, p. 282.)

6 "James Wyldforde," i.e., James Wilford, St. John's; B.A. 1571-2; M.A. 1575.
From the register of Merchant Taylors' School I find that a James Wilford, son of Thomas Wilford, merchant taylor, was admitted a scholar of the school 7th May, Thomas Wilford, merchant taylor, was admitted a tender of this lad at Merchant Taylors' in 1569; but although the name corresponds, I doubt if this lad at Merchant Taylors' in 1569 could have been one with James Wilford who took B.A. at St. John's College, Cambridge, less than three years afterwards. "James Wylford, of Kent," was ad-

Cambridge, less than three years afterwards. "James Wylford, of Kent," was admitted a Fellow of St. John's College 12th March, 1572-3.

""John palmer": Of St. John's; Morton scholar, 9th November, 1568; B.A., 1571-2; M.A., 1575; S.T.P., 1595; admitted fellow, 12th March, 1572-3; Decanus Petroburg, an. 1597; Coll. Mag. Praef., 1595. John Palmer was a native of Kent, and he died in 1607, being at the time in prison for debt. Dr Palmer was author of Latin verses on the death of Sir Philip Sydney, 1587; and of a letter to Lord Burghlay 1500. (Ath. Contab. vol. ii. pp. 457-8)

Burghley, 1590. (Ath. Cantab., vol. ii., pp. 457-8.)

1 "Thoms Busfilde": He was of Merchant Taylors' School, and his parentage is supplied by the School Register, which records the admission, 23rd June, 1563, of "Thomas Bousefielde, son of Harry, merchant taylor." He attained the position of head scholar at Merchant Taylors, and entered at Pembroke Hall, Cambridge, in 1568, where he obtained one of the Watts Greek scholarships. He proceeded B.A. in 1574-5. On the 23rd May, 1577, he was incorporated at Oxford, and the same year commenced M.A. in that University. 22nd July, 1581, he was admitted principal of St. Edmund's Hall, Oxford, and in 1582 had the prebend of Grimston and Yatminster, in the church of Sarum. He resigned the headship of St. Edmund's Hall, 26th February, 1600. He partially re-built St. Edmund's Hall. The date and place of his death are unknown. (Ath. Cantab., vol. ii., p. 302.)

3 "Willm Danyell," i.e., William Daniel, of Pembroke; B.A., 1575-6; M.A.,

4 "Lancelet Androwes": Lancelot Andrewes, D.D., Bishop of Winchester. Dr. Watts scholar in 1571, and afterwards Fellow and Master of Pembroke College, Cambridge, to which he was a great benefactor. One of the first Fellows at Jesus College, Oxford. Prebendary of St. Paul's. Dean of Westminster in 1601. One of the Commissioners for the Church at Hampton Court. "One of the four preachers before King James, in 1606, for the reduction of the Presbyterians to the Church of England;" and one of the translators of the Bible. Bishop of Chichester, 1605; of Ely, 1609; of Winchester, 1618. Wood writes of Bishop Andrewes, that "he was the most eminent divine of our nation in his time." He is said to have been master of at least fifteen learned and modern tongues. His Manual of Private Devotions, his "Sermons," and controversial works are well known. Baker, in his Chronicle, at the end of the reign of James the First, writes thus:—"Of men of note and learning, as being in the time of the most learned Prince, there never was greater store, of whom, these for example, in curiousness of preaching, there was Dr. Andrews, Bishop of Winchester, who hath left to posterity a century of such golden Sermons, that shows he has well deserved the name of Chrysostom, as he that had it.' [sic /] Fuller declares that "King James stood so much in awe and veneration of him, that in his presence he refrained from that mirth and levity in which he indulged himself at other times." Lord Clarendon asserts that "If Archbishop Bancroft had been succeeded in the See of Canterbury by Andrews, or any man who understood and loved the Church, that infection would, without difficulty, have been kept out, which could not afterwards be so easily expelled." Milton wrote an elegy on his death, in which the following distich occurs :-

"At te præcipuè luxi, dignissime Præsul, Wintoniæque olim gloria magna tuæ."

His Funeral Sermon was preached by Bishop Buckeridge. He is buried in the "Lodge Chapel" of St. Saviour's, Southwark. His monument has been recently restored by the Merchant Taylors' Company. Born, 1555; left school, 1571; died, 1626. (Dr. Hessey's Fasti, as quoted in Clode's Memorials, as before, pp. 664-5.) The Rev A. T. Russell, M.A., has written a large Life of Bishop Andrews (I vol., 8vo). It is to be feared that his "curiousness of preaching," as shown in his extant sermons, has long passed out of living remembrance; but his "Preces" will keep his memory

b "Samwell Parkens": Of St. John's College; B.A., 1570-1; removed to Corpus Christi College, M.A., 1574; presented to the vicarage of St. Lawrence, Jewry, London, by John Woolley, Esq., 25th September, 1578; died, November, 1581.

""Thoms Thomes," i.e., Thomas Thomas was educated at Eton, whence he was elected to King's College in 1571; he proceeded B.A. 1575, and commenced M.A. 1579. On 3rd May, 1582, he was appointed printer to the University, and about 1581 had begun to print a book, by Mr. Wm. Whitaker, when the Stationers' Company seized his press; but an appeal of the University heads to the Chancellor, Lord Burghley, procured for Mr. Thomas authority to resume his printing for the University. Martin Marprelate calls him the Puritan Cambridge printer; and Acres enumerates seventeen works which came from his press. He was author of a copious Latin Dictionary, in the production of which he worked so hard as to induce a disease which proved fatal. · He died in August, 1588, and was buried in the church of St. Mary the Great, Cambridge, August 9th. (Ath. Cantab., vol. ii, pp. 29, 30.)

7 "Thoms Dove": Of C.C.; B.A., 1574-5; M.A., 1578. Thomas Dove, son of William Dove, was admitted a scholar of Merchant Taylors' School, 24th January, 1563-4.

1 "Abraham hartwell": There were at least two persons named Abraham Hartwell connected with Cambridge. One of them, and the best known, was sometime secretary to Archbishop Whitgift. He was a Fellow of King's College. The other was of Trinity College, and therefore is the person described in the text. He proceeded B.A. in 1571, and M.A. 1575. (Ath. Cantab., vol. ii, pp. 383-4.)

2 "Robte lylies" and "Charles Horne": See Index of Names, s.n., for other references and relative notes.

- Kyrke," i.e., Edward Kirke of Caius: notable in Elizabethan literary history as the college friend of the poet Spenser, and the editor and glossarist of Edmund Spenser's first published important poem, the Shepheardes Calendar. Edward Kirke was born in 1553, and matriculated as a sizar of Pembroke Hall, in November, 1571; he afterwards removed to Caius College, and proceeded B.A., 1574-5. It will be noticed that in this entry of our MS. he is described (in May, 1575) as "Bacchelore of Arte of Gonwell and Caius College." He commenced M.A. in 1578. In 1579 he is found in London; and Edmund Spenser writing to Gabriel Harvey from Leicester House, 16th October, 1579, says: "Maister E. K. [Kirke] hartily desireth to be commended unto your worshippe, of whom, what accompte he maketh, yourselfe shall hereafter perceive, by hys paynefull and dutifull verses of your selfe." The reference is to Kirke's "Epistle to the most excellent and learned, both orator and poet, Maister Gabriel Harvey, his very speciall and singular good friend," &c, inserted by Kirke in Callet Harvey, his very special and singular good friend, &C, inserted by Kirke in the first edition of Spenser's Shepheardes Calendar, and dated from his lodgings at London, 10 April, 1579. The later career of Edward Kirke has been long obscure, but the editors of Athenæ Cantabrigienses searched out and communicated to Notes and Queries (third series, vol. vii, p. 509), the following facts: "On 26th May, 1580, he was instituted, on the presentation of Sir Thomas Kytson, to the rectory of Risby, Suffolk, as he was on 31 August, 1587, to the rectory of the adjacent parish of Lackford on the same patron's presentation. He died 10 Nov., 1613, aged 60, and was buried in the chancel at Risby, where he is commemorated by an inscription. By his Will, which bears date three days before his death, he gave £30 to the poor of Lackford. It is observable that his patron, Sir Thomas Kytson, in his account book under date of April, 1583, has the following entry: 'For a Shepheardes Calendar iia.'"

""mr. Still": John Still, born at Grantham about 1543; only son of William Still, Esq. "John Styl, son of William Styl, merchant taylor," is so registered as admitted in Merchant Taylors' School, 26th March, 1563. He matriculated as a pensioner of Christ College in 1559; B.A., 1561-2; elected a Fellow, and commenced M.A. in 1565; B.D., 1570; in 1570 was appointed Margaret professor of Divinity; collated to the rectory of Hadlington, 30th July, 1571; and other preferements; and on 14th July, 1574, was elected Master of St. John's College; created D.D., 1575; Master of Trinity, 1577, Bishop of Bath and Wells, 1592; died 26th February, 1607–8. (Ath. Cantab., vol. ii, pp. 467, 468.) Most of all celebrated as the author of Gammer Gurton's Needle—among the earliest, as it is of the raciest of English native comedies.

9 "Sr Willim Pickringe Knighte": Sir William Pickering died a few months before the date of this entry, and after his death a scheme was projected for settling parts of his estates for the foundation of a free school and the endowment of scholarships at the Universities; but the purpose was not fulfilled. Dean Nowell's gift of 71. 10s. here recorded to the use of certain scholars of Sir William Pickering was probably connected with this scheme. Sir William Pickering was born about 1517; knighted in 1547; and died 4th January, 1574-5. His estate was at Oswaldkirk in Yorkshire; and he and died 4th January, 1574-5. His estate was at Oswaldkirk in Yorkshire; and he had also a mansion called Pickering House in London. (Ath. Cantab., vol. i, pp.

10 "Sr Doue": Possibly John Dove, who was a scholar of Merchant Taylors' described as son of Robert Doue, merchant taylor. School, admitted 25th May, 1565, described as son of Robert Doue, merchant taylor. He may have proceeded to Pembroke Hall, Cambridge; but I find no trace of his University career.

" "mr. leaver": The celebrated Puritan author and divine, Thomas Lever, born at at Little Lever in Lancashire; died at Ware, in July, 1577. For his history see Ath. Cantab., vol. i, pp. 366-368, and many other authorities.

His connection with the Nowells of Read is not the same of t not apparent. His father, if living, must have been straitened in means when he had to withdraw his son, as stated in the text, from the University, on the ground of poverty. 1 "Sr. Modsley": Perhaps meant for Maudsley. (Index of Names, s.n.)
2 "John Spenser," i.e., John Spencer, of Pembroke; B.A., 1577-8. It is exceedingly likely that John Spenser was a kinsman of Edmund Spenser, the Poet. He was educated at the same school, Merchant Taylors', and was admitted a scholar there 3rd August, 1571. He is described in the Register of the School as "John Spenser, son of John Spenser, gent." He would be a few years younger than Edmund Spenser, who left the school, as our MS. evidences, for Pembroke Hall, Cambridge, in April, 1560. If we had any better ground than possibility for imagining John Spenser might be younger brother of Edmund, the furnishing of his father's name in Merchant Taylors' Register would also give us the important fact of the Poet's paternity. But if John were not brother of Edmund, he might be cousin. His father, be it observed, was of the rank of lesser gentry indicated by the abreviation "gent."

4 "Mr. howland," i.e., James Howland, of Trinity; B.A., 1576; M.A., St. John's, 1580. Admitted Fellow of St. John's, 1577. He was a native of Richmondshire, in the county of York, and son of Richard Howland, Bishop of Peterborough. He matriculated as a Pensioner of Peterhouse, 3rd December, 1572; and removed to Trinity. He had a canonry in the Church of Peterborough, and was installed Archdeacon of Northampton, 12th November, 1587. He died 20th March, 1607-8. (Ath. Cantab.,

7 "Mr. D. homfrey": See Index of Names, s.n.

8 Christe churche: "Geffrey Lewes": I find no Geoffrey Lewis in the authorities, but "Lewis" is a Welsh surname, and "Geoffrey" is English, so I think the scribe in this and other entries has miswritten "Geoffrey" for "Griffith," and that this "Master of Arts," was no other than Griffith Lewis, who was collated Prebendary of Hereford, in Feb., 1575-6, and was installed Dean of Gloucester in 1594; he died in 1607; and was buried (7th June) in Hereford Cathedral. (Le Neve's Fasti, vol. i, pp. 443

(Fasti, vol. i, p. 205.)

12 "John Wickham": In Wood's MSS. in Ashmolean Museum, William Wickham, Bishop of Winchester, is described as son of John Wickham, of Rotherfeild, in Sussex, but descended from the Wickhams of Swaclyve. (Life in Athenæ, as before, vol. i, p. xxvii.; cf. also Athenæ, vol. i, p. 832.) He also mentions a John Wickham who was Prebendary of Westminster, in 1592. (Fasti, vol. i, p. 324.) Wicham-Wickham.

Wicham = Wickham.

12 "John Speyre": Not in Wood's Athenæ or Fasti.

14 "Thoms hixon": The notorious John Lilbourne's mother was Margaret, dau. of Thomas Hixon, of Greenwich, Kent (Wood's Athenæ, vol. iii, p. 358); but I suspect "hixon" here is miswritten for "Higson." See Index of Names, s.n. Not otherwise in Wood.

His name recurs on the very last page of the MS as "Abrahame fowler, late of Christes College, in Oxford." The entry is dated 27th Dec., 1571.

27th May, 1574, but was not admitted. Wood states, (Ath. Bliss, vol. i, col. 526) that Thomas Brasbridge, a Northamptonshire man born, was elected Demy of Magdalen College, by the endeavours of Peter Morwyng, anno 1553, aged 16, whence after he had continued a sedulous student for some years, he was elected Probationer-Fellow of All Souls' College in 1558; thence also he returned to Magdalen College, of which he became Fellow in 1562, and, soon after proceeding in Arts, applied his mind partly to Divinity and partly to Physic. In 1574 he supplicated to be admitted to the reading of the Sentences, but whether he was really admitted appears not. The next year he resigned his Fellowship, having a spiritual cure, or both, conferred on him at, or near to, Banbury, in Oxfordshire, where, as it seems, he practised physic. His works are:—The Poor Man's Jewel, viz., a Treatise of the Pestilence, to which is annexed a Declaration of the virtues of the herbs, Carduus, benedictus, and Angelica, &c. 8vo., Lond., 1578, 1580, and 1591. Quæstiones in Officia, M. T. Ciceronis, compendiarium totius opusculi epitomen continentes. Oxon., 8vo., 1615. Dedicated to Dr. Lawrence Humphrey, President of Magdalen College, an. 1586. What other things he published I cannot yet tell, nor anything of his latter end. Dr. Bliss tells us that "he published also Abdias, the Prophet. Interpreted by T. B., Fellow of Magdalen College, in Oxforde. Lond., by Binneman, 8vo., 1574. Dedicated to the Earl of Huntingdon." (Note to Ath.) Mr. Beasley, in his History of Banbury, mentions (p. 25) that Brasbridge was born probably at Banbury, about the year 1537, and certainly lived there in his childhood, and became Vicar of that place in 1581. In 1581 he was inducted to the Perpetual Vicarage of Banbury, by Jonas Wheeler, Schoolmaster, the Bailiff and other Elders of the town being then present and consenting. Brasbridge ceased to be the Vicar in 1590, on grounds of conscience taken by the early Puritans. He was, however, residing in 1592. Brasbridge died in 1593, at the age of 56 years. (Dr. Bloxam's Magdalen College Register.)

"Francis Bunney," says Wood, (Ath., Bliss, vol. ii, col. 200) "younger brother to Edmund Bunney," was born in an ancient house, called the Vache, in the parish of Chalfont St. Giles, in Bucks, on the 8th of May, 1543, and became a student in the University in the latter end of the reign of Queen Mary, in 1558, and Perpetual Fellow of Magdalen College in 1562, being then Batchelor of Arts. Afterwards proceeding in that faculty, he took Holy Orders, and began to preach God's Word on the 1st Nov., 1567, whose sermons being noted among many, he became soon after Chaplain to the Earl of Bedford (in 1570); but continuing with him not long, he left his Fellowship in 1571, and retiring into the north parts of England, where he preached the Word of God very constant, as his brother Edmund did, was inducted into a Prebendship of Durham, 9th May, 1572; made Archdeacon of Northumberland, on the resignation of Ralph Lever, 20th Feb., 1573; and on the 11th Sept., 1578, he was made Rector of Ryton, within the Bishopric of Durham. This person was very zealous in the way he professed; was a great admirer of John Calvin; a constant zealous in the way ne professed; was a great admirer of John Calvin; a constant preacher; charitable, and a stiff enemy to popery. He hath written and published A Survey and Trial of the Pope's Supremacie. 4to. Lond., 1590, 1595 (Madg. Libr.) By Valentine Simmes. Written against Cardinal Bellarmine. Comparison between the auncient Fayth of the Romans and the new Romish Religion. 4to. Lond., 1595. (Madg. Libr.) By R. Robinson. This is commonly called Truth and Falsehood. 15 "New Colledge: hughe floyd": Newcourt's Repertorium, as before, thus annotates his name: "A most admir'd Grammarian of the age he lived in; was born at Linn in Carnarvanshire; educated in Wickham's School near Winton; admitted Perpetual Fellow of New College, in 1564; promoted to the Chancellorship of Rochester, in 1578, being then Bachelour of Civil-Law; afterwards he was made chief Master of Wickham's School aforesaid (was collated to this Prebend [Newington] in 1584, as above;) was admitted Doctor of his Faculty in 1588, being noted then to be not only eminent in Divinity and the Civil Law, but also for his admirable sufficiency in the Greek and Latin tongues. He died Oct. 17th, 1601, and was buried in New College outward Chappel" (vol. i, pp. 188-9.) Dr. Sewell, Warden of New College, supplements to me thus: "Hugo Floyd or Lloyd: admitted Scholar of New College, Jan. 3rd, 1562, and Fellow, Jan. 3rd, 1564; Chancellor of Rochester, 1578; Head Master of Winchester College, 1580. See Wood's Ath. Ox. s.n. I have a note of his having been one time Rector of Islip. He vacated his Fellowship in the College, on his appointment to the Chancellorship of Rochester."

16 "Thoms. Bylson": The venerable Bishop of Winchester, of whom says Wood—"He was as reverend and learned a prelate as England ever afforded, a deep and profound scholar, exactly read in ecclesiastical authors, and with Dr. Rich, Field of Oxon. (as Whittaker and Fulke of Cambridge) a principal maintainer of the Church of England, while Jo. Rainolds and Tho. Sparke were upholders of Puritanism and nonconformity." (Athenæ, as before, vol. ii, p. 169.) Born 1547, Died 18 June 1616. noncontormity." (Athenæ, as before, vol. 11, p. 169.) Born 1547, Died 18 June 1616. Wood's "Life" is full and interesting (Athenæ, vol. ii, p. 169–172); and all the biographical authorities contain notices of him. I found an unprinted letter of his among the MSS. at Hatfield. Admitted Scholar Sep. 3, 1563; Fellow, 1565; Head Master of Winchester, 1571; Preb. of Winchester, 1576; Warder of Winchester College, 1580; Bishop of Worcester, 1596; Bishop of Winchester, 1597. 25 "... th sylke": A prebendary, "master Silke" is casually named by Wood (Athena, vol. i, p. 272.) Le Neve writes under 5th stall, Bristol: "Thomas Sylke, A.M., admitted (after the death of Williams) 4th June, 1546. How long he lived after 1571 is uncertain" (vol. i, p. 231.) This may have been his son.

28 "Christofer Bagkshawe": Not (probably) the notorious Dr. Bagshaw of the same name—of whom see Wood's Athenæ, vol. ii, pp. 389-90. He was Fellow of Balliol College, and sometime Principal of Worcester College; but the person named in the text more likely was Christopher Bagshaw, collated Prebendary of Lichfield, 29th Aug., 1578. Being a learned man, Mr. Richard James numbered him among his learned acquaintance, and therefore wrote divers epistles to him. He became clerk of Corpus Christi College 1608, and chauntor 1613. See Wood's Fasti, vol. i, p. 339; also our Index of Names, s.n. He was no doubt of the Whalley family of Sellers, connexions of the Nowells, and often named in the MS.

At length being beneficed in London he was much followed for his edifying way of preaching" (Wood's Athenæ, vol. i, p. 751, where is a note of books published by him). Dr. Bliss adds: "Ric. Turnball A.M. admiss. ad eccl. S. Panerasij Soperlane, Lond. 26 Sept. 1582, per mort. Will'i Knight, ex coll. ar'ep'i Cant. Reg. Grindall. Abraham Fleming cler. ad eund. eccl. 19 Oct. 1593 per mort. "Magdalen colledge mr Cricke": Cricke, Richard, of the county of Suffolk; res. 1564; matr. 1564; B.A., 26 April, 1566; Prob. F. 1564-1571; M.A. 30 April, 1570; B.D. and D.D. 12 July, 1578; Greek Lect. 1567, 1568, 1569, 1570; Sen. D. of Arts, 1571. "Richard Cricke was Chaplain to Parkhurst, Bishop of Norwich, and much commended for his learning and sobriety. In the year 1573 he preached at St. Paul's Cross, and having in his Sermon commended Cartwright's reply to Whitgift, a special messenger was sent from Archbishop Parker to apprehend him. Though at that time he escaped the snare, he afterwards fell into the hands of the High Commissioners, by whom he was deprived of his preferment in the Church of Norwich. Dr. Cricke being silenced, and many of his brethren in the same Diocese, they united in presenting a Supplication to the Council that they might be restored to their beloved ministry, and allowed again to preach the glad tidings of the Gospel. This Supplication was dated Sept. 25, 1576. Afterwards he and many of his brethren, being the silenced ministry in that Diocese, presented their humble submission to their Diocesan, dated Aug. 21, 1578. In this submission they request to be restored to their ministry, promising to subscribe to the Articles of Faith, and the Doctrine of the Sacraments, according to the laws of the Realm. They profess at the same time that the ceremonies and government of the Church are so far to be allowed, that no man ought to withdraw from hearing the Word, and receiving the Holy Sacraments on account of them. They also offer to the Bishop their reasons for refusing to subscribe, requesting to have their difficulties removed, without which they could never subscribe in the manner required. This excellent Divine therefore remained a long time under deprivation. Though he was afterwards restored to his ministry, yet upon the publication of Whitgift's three Articles he was again suspended, with many others, for refusing subscription." 20 "Thoms Sparke": Sparke, Thomas, of the county of Lincoln. Res. 1569; Prob.

F. 1569–72; B.A. 23rd October, 1570; M.A. June, 1574; B.D. 8 July, 1575; D.D. 1st July, 1581. Coll. Archdeacon of Stowe, Cath. Lincoln, 25th Jan., and installed 6th March, 1575-6; res. March, 1581-2. Coll. Prebendary of Sutton in Marisco, Cath. Linc., 7th March, 1581-2; installed 26th September, 1582. Died 1616; buried 17th October, 1616. "Thomas Sparke," says Wood (Ath. vol. ii; Bliss, col. 189), "received his first breath in Lincolnshire, at South Somercote, as it seems; became Perpetual Fellow of Magdalen College in 1570, in which year he was admitted Bachelor of Arts. Soon after, by the favour of Arthur, Lord Grey, he was preferred to the parsonage of Bletchley, in Buckinghamshire, where he was held in great esteem for his piety. In the year 1575 he was admitted to the reading of the Sentences without ruling in Arts, and about that time was Chaplain to Dr. Cooper, Bishop of Lincoln, who that year bestowed the Archdeaconry of Stow upon him. In 1581 he proceeded in that of Divinity, being then in great renown for his learning. But his Dignity being remote from his cure, which he could not therefore well attend, he gave it up out of conscience sake in 1582, and contented himself only with Bletchley. This Dr. Sparke was the person who, being noted for a great Non-conformist and a pillar of Puritanism, was, by Letters from the King's Council, called to the Conference at Hampton Court, A.D. 1603, where appearing in the behalf of the millinaries, as it is said, or rather with John Rainolds, as a Proctor for the Precise Party, not in a Priest's Gown, or Canonical Coat, but such as Turkey merchants wear, received then so great satisfaction from His Majesty's most ready and apt answers to the doubts and objections there and then proposed, that he, though he spoke not one word, did not only for the time following yield himself in his practice to universal conformity, but privately by word or writing, and publicly by his brotherly persuasion. He was a learned man, a solid Divine, well read in the Fathers, and so much esteemed for his profoundness, gravity, and exemplary life and conversation, that the sages of the University thought fit, after his death, to have his picture painted on the wall in the School-gallery among the English Divines of note there, viz., between that of Dr. John Spencer of Corpus Christi College, and that of Dr. Richard Eedes of Christ Church." [After enumeration of his various books, there follows this.] "Our author also had in Queen Elizabeth's time written a Book of Succession, for which, being brought into trouble, King James, who before had received intimation of the matter, sent for him the next day after the Conference at Hampton Court, and talking with him about it, the King at length was so well satisfied with what he had done, that he then gave him his most gracious countenance. He died at Bletchley before-mentioned, in the winter time, in 1616, and was buried in the Church there, leaving then behind him three learned sons, who then or soon after had been trained up in the Schools of the Prophets, – Andrew of Peterhouse in Cambridge; Thomas, Fellow of New College in Oxford; and William Sparke of Magdalen College, whom I shall mention hereafter." 20 "Mylles Smythe": The venerable Bishop of Gloucester, who was one of the translators of our authorized English Bible, and author of the Epistle-dedicatory of it to King James. "He began with the first, and was the last man in the translation of the work; for after the task of translation was finished by the whole number set apart, and designed to that business, being some few above forty, it was revised by a dozen selected from them, and at length referred to the final examination of Bilson, Bishop of Winchester, and this our author, who, with the rest of the twelve, are stilled in the Winchester, and this our author, who, with the rest of the twelve, are stiled in the History of the Synod of Dort, 'vere eximil et ab initio in toto hoc opere versatissimi,' as having happily concluded that worthy labour" (Wood's Athenæ, vol. ii, p. 359). He died in November 1624. See Wood (as before, vol. ii, pp. 359-61) for a full notice, and all the biographical authorities. His "Sermons" (1632 folio) are still quick.

2 "Ste Mary hall: Sr hyde": Not identified. Possibly Thomas Hyde, Prebendary of Chester, 1575; or Thomas Hyde, Prebendary of Salisbury, 1588; died 1618. (Le

9 "John Lylly sonne of Peter lylly.....mr henry Sythe": This was undoubtedly John Lylle, or Lylly, known as "The Euphuist," from his Euphues: the Anatomy of Wit (1581). He became "a student in Magd. coll. in the beginning of 1569, aged 16, or thereabouts" (Wood's Ath., vol. i, p. 676; and see his full notice, pp. 676-78). He was born in the Weald of Kent in 1553 or 1554; but the name of his father, before unknown, is supplied by this entry in our MS., viz., Peter Lilly. He died soon after 1601. See also the biographical authorities. "Henry Sythe" has not been identified: perhaps "Smythe."

"Anthony Morebreade": From Dr. Bloxam I get these items: "Anthony More Dread, aged 17, of the county of Kent; res. 1577; chorister 1567; matr. 1571; pleb. fil. Devon; Prob. F. 1577-1620; B.A. 3rd July, 1579; M.A. 24th Oct., 1583; Præl. Græc. 1586; Bursar 1589, 1595, 1608, 1609, 1612, 1614, 1617; Dean of Div. 1590, 1593, 1596, 1602, 1610; V. Pres. 1591, 1615; died 1620; Will proved 1st Feb., 1620-I." Heylin the Diarist writes: "1620. Aug. 14. My good friend Mr. Morbread died." He was author of certain Latin lines on the death of Wm. Grey, 1606.

4 " Jennings": See Index of Names, s.n.

6 "John Morgan": See Index of Names under "John Morgan."
7 "Rychard Springham": Dr. Bloxam notes, in his record of Demies of Magdalen, respecting this scholar: "Richard Springham, aged 18, of the country of Middlesex; res. 1578; matr. 3rd March, 1573-4; pleb. fil.; Prob. F. 1578-1589; B.A. 1st Feb., 1577-8; M.A. 7th April, 1581; presented to Selborne 2nd Aug., 1588; res. 5th June, 1594."

8 "Mr. Samsone.... Rychard Gilbie": Richard Gilby, of the county of Lincoln, aged 19, 1572; res. 1577; matr. 8th Oct., 1571; pleb. fil.; B.A. Lincoln College 9th Dec., 1578; M.A. Exeter College 2nd July, 1582."

9 "mr Ashton of Whallaye": Richard Ashton of Whalley, Esq., third son of Ralph Ashton, of Great Lever, Esq., wus the first of the family settled at Whalley and Downham. In 1553 Richard Ashton acquired half the manor of Whalley, sold by the Crown being part of the escheated estates of Whalley Monastery. His purby the Crown, being part of the escheated estates of Whalley Monastery. His purchase included the abbey buildings, and there he resided in the Abbot's house. In 1550 he purchased the neighbouring manor of Downham. In the Herald's Visitation of Lancashire in 1567, Richard Ashton, Esq., is entered as "Receiver to the Queen." He died in 1578, seized of Whalley manor and monastery, Downham manor, and of lands in Blackburn, Billington, and Gaynforth, in the county of Lancaster; Malham, Fountains Fells, and Staynton, in the county of York; and in Sledwitch, in the county of Durham. He had no son, and his estates passed to his great-nephew and namesake, Richard Ashton, of Downlam. The schollar, Sellers, for whom he received this gift, was a son of one of Mr. Ashton's tenants at Whalley.

12 "Willin Massye... brod gattes": "B.A. Feb. 3. 1573 Will. Massie of Brasennose coll." (Wood's Fasti, vol. i, p. 193); "M.A. June 25, 1577" (Ibid, p. 206);

"B.D. July 4. 1586. He was born in Cheshire, and was at this time chaplain to Sir Edmund Trafford of Trafford in Lancashire. He hath published A Sermon preached at Trafford in Lancashire at the Marriage of a daughter of Sir Edm. Trafford, Kn⁶ Sep. 1586. on Ps. 128. 1, 2. Oxon. 1586. Two years after he was removed from his fellowship, and perhaps did publish other things." (Ibid, p. 237.) There are other entries in the MS. relating to this scholar, in one of which he is designated "Willm. Masseye, at Manchester," who had 20s. "towardes the apparalinge and bringinge of him to Oxforde about Julye the xxth daie A° 1569 when my mr. was in Lancashire."

13 "John Bridgman all foults": Probably kinsman of Dr. John Bridgman, Bishop of Chester, who died in 1652, aged 77 years (Wood's Athenæ, vol. iv, pp. 863-4). He was incorporated B.A. 1597 (Fasti, vol. i, p. 276). He had been rector of Wigan, Lancashire, and of Bangor (ibid, p. 286). He was father of Sir Orlando Bridgman. See later references and relative note.

16 "mr Evelieghe": A John Evelegh of Exeter College was Proctor April 29, 1590

(Wood's Fasti, vol. i, p. 250).

(Wood's Fasti, vol. 1, p. 250).

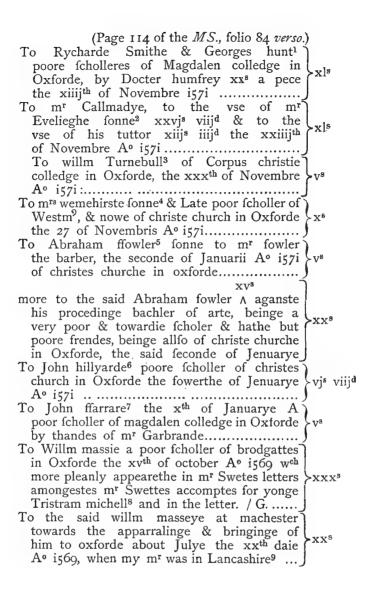

17 "John Smythe Magdalyne": "John Smith, aged 18, of the county of Suffolk; res. 1572; matr. 8th Oct., 1571; pleb. fil.; B.A. 1st April, 1573; Preb. F. 1575-1579; M.A. 8th July, 1577." (Dr. Bloxam, as before, vol. iv, p. 187.)

18 "Davyde Dee Ste Mary haull": "Of Shropshire, Rector of Great St Bartholomew's Church, London. Dav. 5 "Abraham ffowler the barber," and infra: Ibid. Be it noted here that "the barber" would similarly have been required for the illustrious Jeremy Taylor, whose name in the college has after it "pauper scholaris"—not ignobly.

6 "John hillyarde....christes church": See Index of Names, s.n.

7 "John ffarrare.....Mr Garbrande": See for "ffarrare" Index of Names under "John Farrer." "Mr Garbrande" was John Garbrand, alias Herks, son of Garbrand Herks, a Dutchman and a bookseller and the friend of John Foxe. He was a protège of Pickern Lawel where "Demains" he collected and edited in verious volumes.

of Bishop Jewel whose "Remains" he collected and edited in various volumes. He died in 1589. See Wood's Athenæ, vol. i, pp. 556-7 for a full notice.

8 "Mr Swete.... Tristram michell": The former not in Wood: The second name is that of a ward of Dean Nowell's; of whom Churton writes: "In the beginning of 1570 he [Dean Nowell] was appointed guardian of Tristram Mitchell, son and heir of Richard Mitchell, Esq., of the county of Somerset," the patent for which "gave him seven years' arrears of an annuity of 13l. 6s 8d. reserved in the royal coffers since the death of his ward's father" (Life of Nowell, p. 150). This ward has been named twice previously in the MS., on payment of his yearly board to one Mr. Coole of Devonshire (see p. 56 and p. 70 ante).

9 "when my mr. was in Lancashire." This allusion informs us that Dean Nowell made a journey into his native county in the summer of 1569. Many of his charities in Lancashire probably were dispensed during this sojourn. Churton refers to the Dean's preaching tour in Lancashire in 1568, before his brother Robert's death, but cloes not mention any visit in 1569, of which most likely he had no evidence.

7 "Petter Shakerley of Magdaline colledge": Not in Wood or Dr. Bloxam. Geoffrey Shackerley of Lancashire, gent., had a son Piers, named in Flower's Visitation (1567), but I cannot pronounce as to whether the Peter Shackerley here entered was the same person or a kinsman. Peter Shackerley's father is said in the text to have been "of Grayes Inne."

1 "henry mawdesley Brasen nose": Not in Wood. I conjecture he was a Blackburn youth, of a family of small freeholders in that town, some of whom, later, are described as "gent." in the Parish Register and records. With these Blackburn Mawdsleys, Henry and Thurstan were favourite names for several generations.

2 "mr holden Brasen nose": See Index of Names under "Thomas Holden." The item of 7s. was given to Holden towards the charge of Mawdsley and himself, when travelling in company from Lancashire to Oxford; and the next unnamed scholar of Corpus Christi is stated also to have been in the company of Holden and Mawdsley on this journey - probably often performed on foot by poor scholars in those times.

3 "John Seller," and infra: See Index of Names, s.n.
4 "Willm Gairstane, a resoter to Exciter colledge": Not in Wood. The name should be Garstang, a Lancashire surname, so spelt four pages onward.

5 "Randall Bameforde battler": He is named twice or thrice onward in the MS., once as Raphe Bamford of Brazenose, to whom 10s. was "sent by his unckell of Manchester"; upon which I rest the surmise that he was a nephew of William Bamford of Bamford, near Manchester, whose wife, a daughter of James Shepherd, was very likely connected with the Shepherds mentioned in the MS. as kinsfolk of the Nowells. (Index of Names, s.n., for other references.)

6 "Willim pennington Braysenose": The surname is a territorial name in Lancashire, and this scholar is likely to have been at least related to the Penningtons of Pennington, in that county, of whom William Pennington died in 1652. See Index of Names, s.n., for later reference and note.

7 "Mr. Attourney generall," i.e., Sir Gilbert Gerard, as before.

8 "Docter wythyer": George Wythers, S.T.P., was collated (as Archdeacon of Colchester) 11th October, 1570; void by the death of Calfehill. He died in 1617. (Le Neve, vol. ii, p. 342.)

9 "frances greatrackes..... Christes church": See Index of Names, s.n., for later mention.

10 "Docter Cradocke": Among numerous Cradocks in Le Neve's Fasti, the only one I can connect with Dr. Cradocke named here, is Edward Cradocke, M.A., appointed Margaret Professor of Divinity at the University of Oxford, 24th October, 1565; resigned 1594. He was created D.D., but the precise date of this diploma is not known.

""
"Thoms hoolte..... Brasynoose": Not in Wood. He recurs in the MS.
"" "Thoms Seller": See Index of Names under "Seller." Thomas Sellers and John Sellers (Note 3 supra) were probably sons of John Sellers, of Whalley, a kinsman of the Nowells. (See ante, p. 85, Note 15.)

13 "Lawrence Towneley": This Lawrence Towneley, who, in October, 1572, was "latly comen out of Lancashire," and remained about Oxford, I take to have been Lawrence, third son of Lawrence Towneley of Barnside, near Colne, a collateral branch of Towneleys of Towneley, our Lawrence's great-grandsire being Lawrence, second son of John Towneley, Esq.

14 "George pollarde," and infra: See Index of Names, s.n. Very likely he was brother of Ellis Pollard previously noticed, and perhaps a son of George Pollard, a Lancashire chapman, of whom, as we shall find onward, Robert Nowell's executors purchased several parcels of linen cloth, in 1569, for charitable distribution. (See Index of Names, s.n.)

15 "Willm Gregsonn": Not in Wood. He was a Lancashire scholar, and is so classed in a subsequent entry; doubtless from Whalley or the neighbourhood, where a family of yeomen of this name (Gregson) were settled, from which a Lancashire antiquary of the last generation, Mathew Gregson of Liverpool, author of Fragments relating to Lancashire, descended. This William Gregson, it will be noticed, came up to Oxford in 1572 with George Pollard, a native of the same locality, who is described above as "latly comen out of Lancashire."

16 "Lawrance Whitaker": See Index of Names for various Whitakers of Burnley and Whalley districts, whence sprung the parent stock of all the Lancashire Whitakers—of High Whitaker, Holme, Symonstone, Healey, Broadclough, &c. Lawrence Whitaker, I think, was a younger brother of Dr. Wm. Whitaker, and a nephew of Dean Nowell. He received a legacy of 51. under Robert Nowell's Will.

1 "Rycharde Cove": See Index of Names, s.n.
2 "Thoms merrie.....christe churche": He recurs in the MS., and in one instance, in the handwriting of Dean Nowell, is entered-"To Thomas Morrie of Christ Church in Oxforde whom he entred into the ministerie toward the charges, 29 Martii, 1578, x⁶." Quite possibly he was a kinsman of Dean Nowell's first wife, who was a daughter of Robert Mery or Merry. Merry and Morrie may have been convertible names; and it is to be noted that, while Dean Nowell's amanuensis writes the name "Merrie," the Dean himself writes it "Morrie." (See Index of Names, s.n.)

This mansion was nigh to Read Hall, the seat of the Nowells, the two parks being only separated by the river (Calder). Leyland, and Audley Hall, Blackburn, a gentleman of excellent repute in Lancashire, whose interesting Hall, Blackburn, a gentleman of excellent repair in the Stanley Papers biography is well written by Canon Raines in his Introduction to the Stanley Papers (Chathern Society) William ffarrington. Esq., died 3rd July, 1610. The scholar, (Chetham Society). William ffarrington, Esq., died 3rd July, 1610. The scholar, William Crane, would also be a native of Lancashire. The surname is local in Preston and the Fylde of North Lancashire. A John Crane of Eccleston, near Mr. ffarring-Will in 1572, of which Mr. William ffarrington was an executor; so this William Crane may have been son of John Crane.

15 "Mr Rogeres": See Index of Names under "Ambrose Rogers."

16 "Thoms Achley Broodgattes": Not in Wood. I am inclined to think this was that son of Thomas Achelly, the translator of Bandello's History of Didaco and Violenta (1576), to whom Mr. J. P. Collier conjecturally assigns the "Massacre of Money" (1602) in his Bibl. Account.

"I" "John Brigmane": See Index of Names under "John Bridgeman." In a previous entry he is described as "a poore scholler of all sowles colledge." Bearing the same name with John Bridgeman who became Bishop of Chester in 1619, it is not unlikely the John Bridgeman of All Souls' in 1573 was of the same stock (the Bridgemans of Devonshire), but a generation earlier. Was he the John Bridgeman, brother of Thomas Bridgeman, the bishop's father, who is named on the Bridgeman pedigree as living in 1571?

He is described as "preacher of the Word at Blackburn" on 7 August, 1599. He died, it is conjectured, about 1609. (See note by Canon Raines 7 August, 1599. He died, it is conjectured, about 1609. 17 "Thoms Pye," and infra: [This] is one that had learning enough to be a dean or a bishop, yet could never rise higher than a vicar and a pedagogue. He was born at Darlaston, near Wednesbury, in Staffordshire, educated for the most part in logicals and philosophicals in Merton College, of which he became one of the chaplains in 1581, being then esteemed among the learned to be one of them. Afterwards taking the degrees in divinity as a member of that house, he became vicar and schoolmaster of Bexhill, near Hastings, in Sussex, about 1590, being then, and before, accounted an eminent linguist, excellent in sacred chronology, in ecclesiastical histories and polemical divinity." (Wood's Ath., vol. ii, pp. 59-60—where is a note of various books by him.) He died in 1609. See Wood, as supra, for a fuller notice.

18 "Coranus": See Index of Names, s.n., for frequent entries of this name. He was Anthony de Corro, or Antonius Corranus or Corrano. He was a native of Seville, in Spain, "educated there from his childhood in the Roman Catholic religion, and was at length an Ascetic, but whether a monk or fryer, I know not. Afterwards he left his order and religion, and being desirous to embrace the reformed doctrine, fled from his country, went into England, in 1570 [1568] or thereabout, and at length to London, where he became a frequent preacher." (Wood's Athena, vol. i, pp. 578, 579; where is a full Memoir, pp. 578–81.) He died in 1591. The Parker Society books furnish various interesting notices of this remarkable if somewhat stormy-natured Polemic, e.g., various interesting notices of this remarkable it somewhat stormy-natured Polemic, e.g., Grindal, p. 309, &c.; Parker, p. 340 n.; 2 Zurich, pp. 254 n, 261; his contest with one Hieronymus, Grindal, p. 309, &c.; the Bishop's judgment on the case, ibid, pp. 313, 314; reader at the temple of divinity, &c., ibid, p. 312 n.; thought to preach erroneous doctrine, Parker, p. 476; Grindal, p. 353 n.; 2 Zurich, pp. 254, 255, 261; disliked commentaries, Rogers, p. 196; his death, Grindal, p. 312 n.; his books, Parker, p. 339 n.; letter from him to Bullinger—a very fine one, 2 Zurich, p. 254; letter to him, Parker, p. 339. The entries of our MS. give us pathetic glimpses of this refugee, and he is only one of many who "endured straits" for "conscience sake" contemporaneously. The Editor possesses his "Notæ in Concionem Solomonis" (1579)—and it is a very penetrative book and it is a very penetrative book.

" "John Batner": He recurs twice in the MS. He is here described as of St. John's College, in February, 1578-9; but he had been previously of Magdalen, and Dr. Bloxam notes:—"1572. John Batner aged 18, in the county of Sussex; res. 1574; matr. 8th October, 1571; pleb. fil.; Prob. F. 1576-1579; B.A. 25th June 1577; M.A. 31st May, 1581; ejected 1578." (Magd. Coll. Regr., vol. iv, p. 188. At p. 171 of the same work the cause of his expulsion is recorded.) Our MS. in this entry shews that John Batner, after leaving Magdalen in 1578, betook himself to St. John's, and was there entered; and while there, received money from Dean Nowell.

2 "Rychard lateware": "A Londoner born, educated in Merchant-Taylors' school, became scholer of St John's coll. 1580, and eight years after M. of arts, and a noted preacher. In 1593, he was elected one of the proctors of the university, being about that time rector of Hopton in Suffolk. Afterwards he became rector of Finchley in Middlesex, D. of D. and at length chaplain to the illustrious hero Charles Lord Mountjoy, lieutenant of Ireland. He was a most ingenious Latin poet, as his epigrams & copies of verses, occasionally printed in books published in his life-time do shew." (Wood's Ath. vol. i, pp. 709–10, where is a fuller notice.) He died in 1601 and is buried in the church at Armagh, where is a monument to him in still excellent preservation. There is another monument on the north wall of the chapel of St. John's College, Oxford, inscribed to "Richardo Latewar, Londinensi, hujus Collegii olim Socio et Academiæ procuratori," &c., on which the date of his death is given as 27th July, 1601, when he was aged 41 years. His father, Thomas Latewar, erected this monument.

3 " ffrances Cooke": Not in Wood; but from a Register of Merchant Taylors' School I find that "Francis Cooke, son of Thomas Cooke, cloth maker," was entered as a scholar of that foundation 8 Sept., 1570; he had therefore been nine years at Merchant Taylors', when he was sent thence to Oxford as here recorded in 1579. The sum granted by Dean Nowell to the use of the scholar and his fellow Lateware was considerable.

1 "A note," &c. The names that follow on the present and succeeding pages occur in the foregoing entries. Therefore each name may be traced with relative Notes by the Index of Names, under each. It would serve no end to repeat prior notices in this summary of the Names. A very considerable proportion of these Brasenose scholars can be recognised by their names as from Lancashire, and they were chiefly scholars from Middleton, Burnley, Whalley, and Clitheroe grammar schools, for the benefit of which Dean Nowell, partially out of his brother's estate and partially also out of his own estate, founded a number of scholarships at Brasenose. These Lancashire men in the list on the present page of the MS. may be enumerated, most of whom have been noticed in precedent annotations: John Lawrence, Thomas Holden, Miles Whitworth, Rauffe Thomsonne, Thomas Barker, Rychard Holkere, Wyllm. Chythame [Chetham]; Henry Shawe, a second Holden [Robert] brother to the former; Willm. Massie, John Tattersall, Henry Mawdisley, Randall Bameforde, Willm. Lee, [Thomas] Stanley, Lawrence Towenley, George Pollarde, Willm. Gregsonne, T. Holte. To the last names on the page the entry is attached: "To the same iij late schollers of Lancashire when they went to Oxforde towardes ther chardges," &c. John Lawrence and Thomas and Robert Holden were of Clitheroe School; Richard Holker, Thomas Barker, George Pollard, and William Gregson probably of Whalley School; John Tattersall, Henry Shawe, Ralph Thomson and Lawrence Towneley, from the Burnley School; Henry Mawdsley from Blackburn; William Massie and William Chetham from Manchester; and Randal Bamford and Thomas Holt from Middleton or Rochdale; Lee and Stanley I cannot locate, but they were Lancashire surnames. The Christian name of Stanley is here left out; but from a later entry I find it was Thomas

² "Thoms hoolden": This Thomas Holden probably became a servant to Dean Nowell, and was the person named in the following item of Dean Nowell's Will:

1 "Willm Penington": Connected, very likely, with the Lancashire family of Pennington, and related in some undefined degree to Dean Nowell, who by his Will bequeathed to his "cousin" Robert Pennington and his son Robert 101. each. See Index of Names, s.n., for a prior reference to this scholar.

2 "Thoms Seller": For other references and notes on the Sellers family, see Index of Names, s.n.

* "Myles Smythe": Afterwards Bishop of Gloucester, on whom see our former annotation. In the previous reference in the MS. Myles Smith is placed among several "retainers of Corpus Christi College." Here, however, he appears among "suitors to be of Brasenose" College, in October, 1572. Both items usefully fix dates to events in the college life of this eminent dignitary of the church—his entrance of Corpus Christi, and his removal to Brasenose. Before are other items of money given to Myles Smith out of the Nowell bounty, among them, of payments for locoram for a shirt for him, and for other cloth for a ruff to the same shirt.

4 "Rychard Wylde": Various other references to him, and note, will be found by means of the Index of Names, s.n.

"psonne of Middliton, the scholmaster, and the ushere": The parson (rector) of Middleton Parish at this date was John Asheton, instituted in 1563, died in 1584. The schoolmaster of Middleton School in 1572 is unnamed; but the usher is mentioned onward in the MS .: "Edmund Blumley usher of Middleton Schole."

6 "Hughe Whitakers": Doubtless of the Lancashire tribe of Whitakers.
7 "Robte Jacksonne": A "Robert Jackson of Edinburgh in Scotland" was incorporated B.A. 14th Nov., 1629 (Wood's Fasti, vol. i, p. 452), but he would be too late for identity with this scholar.

8 "ffrise": Frieze was a coarse woollen cloth, supposed to have derived its name from its having been first produced in Friezeland. Shakespeare uses the word in Merry Wives of Windsor, where Falstaff asks:—"Shall I have a coxcomb of frize?" meaning a fool's cap made out of Welsh cloth or frieze.

9 "lacoram . . . a sherte". Locoram or lockram was a coarse linen cloth, used for under-raiment by the poorer classes at this period. Shakespeare has it in Coriolanus (act ii, scene 1):-"The kitchen malkin pins her richest lockram bout her reeky neck." The outfit of this Lancashire lad, paid for by Dean Nowell, furnishes a good illustration of the dress of a poor scholar at an English university three centuries ago-a gown of frieze, at 18d. the yard; a shirt of lockram; and ruffs of some finer kind of linen cloth.

1 "Alexander Aspinall": In the Matriculation Book of Brasenose this scholar is described as "of Lancashire." I dare say he belonged to the Aspinalls of Standen, near Clitheroe, for "Alexander" has long been a favourite Christian name in that family. There was another branch of Aspinalls, yeomen, in Blackburn, of whom was Miles Aspinall, a Lancashire minister, in 1590, and, probably, Richard Aspinall, named further on in this MS. (See Index of Names, s.n.)

2 "Rycharde harries, vice principall of Brasynoose," and infra: Richard Harrys, M.A., born in the county of Hereford; elected Principal of Brasenose 16th February, 1573; resigned 22nd August, 1595, being then Bachelor of Divinity. He was installed Prebendary of Worcester 6th May, 1576; and died at Worcester.

"James Whitakeres": Of the Lancashire Whitakers, doubtless; of whom see Index of Names, s.n., for many notices.

4 "Willm Clowther": Unknown.

6 "Sir James": Not known.

- 7 "Smithe": Either Myles Smith, noticed on the previous page, or Henry Smith,
- who is named infra.

 8 "Thoms Lawe," and infra: See Index of Names, s.n., Lawe family of Whalley.

 1 hove no doubt this poor scholar was from 9 "Rycharde hollande," and infra: I have no doubt this poor scholar was from Lancashire, where are numerous branches of a family of Holland. He is linked with Thomas Lawe (of Whalley, in Lancashire), as joint recipients of favours from Dean Nowell. I cannot trace Richard Holland's subsequent history.

 10 "Docter wytheres": See former reference and Index of Names, s.n.
 11 "Henry Smythe": Among numerous Henry Smiths in Le Neve and the other authorities, the only one who can be conceived to be identical with this scholar is Henry Smith, Prebendary of Lincoln in 1611; and this is doubtful.

12 "Willm Kirkame": All from this crossed out in the MS., and the reason of the erasure is given in the right-hand margin, because "these parcels are entered in the third leaf next after." William Kirkham's name recurs. I think he belonged to Lancashire. (See Index of Names, s.n.)

 14 "Robte Jacksonne": Unknown. See the name also on preceding page.

1 "henry Poole of Dalbye": A previous note at page 75 will be found to explain this reference. This item records the payment of the very sum of 120% to "Mr. Henry Poole of Dalbye in the countie of Lacester esquier" which is specifically named in Dean Nowell's well-known letter to Lord Burghley respecting the Brasenose Scholarships, written twenty-three years afterwards (in 1596). The object of the payment was, as here expressed, to secure to the use of Brasenose College an annuity of 15% for sixteen years upon the estate of Esyngden in Norfolk, in which Mr. Henry Poole had an

3 "Willm Tocke the elder & yonger": The reference is to William Tooke, Esq., Auditor of the Court of Wards and Liveries, and his son, on whom see a former note at p. 73.

*"m' Cotton": Probably William Cotton, who was a witness to Dean Nowell's will in 1594; subsequently Bishop of Exeter; elected 6th Sept., 1598; consecrated 12th Nov.; died at Silverton, in Devonshire, 26th August, 1621.

- "Paid to my Lord Cheney, for certain lands called Upbury, in Kent, within the parish of Gillingham, to the use of the College of Brasenose, the 22nd day of December, 1573, 900l." Collate this with the statement of Dean Nowell in his letter to Lord Burghley already mentioned, which runs: "I purchased in reversion of the Lord Cheney the manor of Uppebury, with the parsonage of Gyllyngham, in the County of Kente, which is worth one hundreth marks or more yerely; for the which I payed my Lord ixe ii (900l.) and xii (10l.), with a purse of xii to my ladie for her consent." Thus the Upbury estate, with Gillingham advowson, cost the Nowell trust 912l. sterling, which would equal at least 9000l of our money, for the endowment of scholarships at Brasenose.
- 5 "mr leech," &c.: It would seem that out of the purchase money Lord Cheney handed back to Dean Nowell 301. as a gift to Brasenose, to be divided amongst the scholars there. His almoner, Mr. Leech, would be William Leech, of Brasenose, Proctor of Oxford University in 1566.

1 "mr. fysher": An officer of the law who had his fees for enrolling the deed of conveyance, &c., between Lord Cheney and Dean Nowell.

2 "L Cheney": See last page.

3 "Rychard wylde," and infra (these five entries are crossed out in the MS.): See ante and post for this scholar, who was one of a family of Wilds in Lancashire, many of whose members received gifts from the Nowell bounty as kindred of the Nowells.

4 "mr. hoolte": This surname is meant for "Holt." See Index of Names, s.n.

5 "Edmunde blumley Vsher of medleton schole". See Index of Names, s.n., for a prior allusion to him.

6 "mr. Leeche". See the previous page. This is an important record of Dean Nowell's large responsibility as refounder and supporter of Middleton School, and of the scholars from that school sent to Brasenose, from some time previous to the year

7 "Docter humefrey": See Index of Names, s.n., for frequent notices.
8 "mr. flowed": The scribe has apparently miscopied "Flowed" for "Lloyd" in his master's memorandum. No Mr. Flowed was Principal of Jesus College, but Dr. Griffith Lloyd was Principal of that college from 1572 until his death in 1586.
9 "mr. Banester of Altam": Nicholas Banaster of Altham Hall, parish of Whalley, in the county of Lancaster, who carried this money from Dean Nowell to Middleton School, was a near neighbour of the Nowells of Read Hall, his hall and estate at Altham being about a mile from Read Hall, on the opposite or south bank of the Lancashire Calder. Nicholas Banaster died in August, 1612. His great-grandson, Nathaniel Banaster, Esq., married a Nowell (Mary, daughter of Roger Nowell, Esq., of Read).

1 "Thoms Bowyere": See Index of Names under "Bowyer," and also under "Lord Cheney" (same as "Chene" here).
2 "John haywoode" (this entry is crossed out in the MS.): I conjecture John Heywood might be of the family of Heywood of Heywood, in the county of Lancaster, to which belonged a later John Heywood, rector of Walton-on-the-Hill, near Liverpool, who died in 1664, aged 48. His grandfather, Peter Heywood, who died about 1600, had a younger son Peter Heywood, described as "of the city of Westminster."

3 "John Batner": This entry is erased in the MS. John Batner appears elsewhere.

He was first of St. John's College, later of Magdalen. (See Index of Names, s.n.)

4 "Talbott.....Corbett": Unknown.

5 "henry Parraye": This was the notable Henry Parry, afterwards Bishop of Gloucester and Worcester in succession. He was, as here stated, of Corpus Christi College, Oxford, and was a benefactor to the library of the college, as recorded in Wood's history of the college:—"Mr. Hen. Parry, sometime Fellow, gave divers [books] in his lifetime, and in the year of his decease, an. 1627, of which some were choice MSS." He was installed Dean of Chester 1st August, 1605; elected Bishop of Gloucester 12th June, 1607; confirmed 9th July, and consecrated 12th July, 1607; translated to the see of Worcester, elected Bishop of Worcester, 13th July, 1610; confirmed 5th October following. He died 12th December, 1616, and was buried in his own cathedral. His Will is in the Prerogative Office of Canterbury. (Le Neve, vol. iii, p. 66, &c.)

6 "Arthure hoppwood": A scholar of Middleton School. Arthur Hopwood belonged to one of the branches of the Hopwood family, kindred of the Nowells, who appear in the MS. as dwelling at Rochdale, Oldham, Manchester, and other places in South Lancashire. (See Index of Names, s.n., for other Hopwoods.)

1 "John Ryve.....nr mulcaster Schole": Probably this was the "John Reve, son of John Reve, fletcher" (=arrow-maker), entered at Merchant Taylors' School (Mr. Mulcaster named in the text being head-master) 9th December, 1569. Reve, Reves, and Ryve, are merely various spellings, common at this date, of the same surname.

2 "Willm Kirkam": By a manuscript without date, in Lansdowne MS., No. 107, cod. 116, one William Kirkham, a minister, imprisoned in the Gate House, Westminster, humbly petitions Queen Elizabeth for his liberty, and shows how he has been wronged by the persons who brought his calamities upon him.

School. Index of Names, s.n.

4 "frisse" = frieze. See note on this fabric, p. 237.

5 "Robte Lawe": On this and the next two pages of the MS. there are the following entries relating to this Lancashire scholar at Brasenose: "To one Robte Lawe, of Brasynose college the xth of Julye att Hadlam 1576, x2." "To one Robte Lawe of Braysyn noose the xth of Januarie 1577 the some xv2." "Too one Robte Lawe or braysyn hoose the x¹⁶ of Januarie 1577 the some xv¹⁷. These entries cover five years of Robert Lawe's university career, from 1576 to 1581. But he has before been named (see ante, p. 172) as at Oxford in 1570, and as then under the tuition of the learned William Whitaker. Onward in the MS. gifts to several members of this scholar's family at Whalley are mentioned, and where I add a note on the genealogy. An elder brother, Thomas Lawe, was at Brasenose at the same time as Robert Lawe. (See ante, page 238.) Robert Lawe was a younger son of Robert Lawe of Wiswall, near Whalley, yeoman, by his wife Elizabeth, daughter of John Wolton, yeoman; thus he was nephew of John Wolton, Bishop of Exeter (whom I notice hereafter), and sister's grandson (great-nephew) of Dean Nowell. Robert Lawe appears to have been at home in 1569, but in that year or early in 1570 was sent to Oxford and entered at Brasenose. Our MS. shows the frequent pecuniary assistance afforded to this youth by Dean Nowell during eleven years he was at the University; and supplies the fact that he proceeded B.A. in 1579-80. Afterwards he took the M.A. degree. On leaving the University, about 1582, he became beneficed at Ashwater. Being taken under the patronage of his uncle John Wolton, who had been created Bishop of Exeter in 1579, Robert Lawe, M.A., was collated to the archdeaconry of Barnstaple in that diocese the 7th January, 1582-3. On the 3rd December, 1584, Robert Lawe, Archdeacon of Barum, was collated Treasurer of the see of Exeter (Le Neve, vol. i, pp. 407, 416.) He held the office of Treasurer until his death. In 1585, among other charges made against Bishop Wolton by certain spiteful adversaries, it was represented that he had given "the archdeaconry of Barnstaple to one Lawe, his kinsman, who by his own confession had but 201. by the year out of the same, and the benefiee of Ashwater." To this Wolton's answer was:—"I gave the archdeaconry of Barnstaple to my cousin [nephew] Mr. Lawe, a Master of Arts of three years' standing; a man of as great towardness in the tongues, liberal arts, and divinity, as any is of his time in England; and is so at this day reported in Oxenford; who now resideth in Exeter as divinity lecturer in the latin tongue to the ministers of this diocese, that list to repair to it. suppose he had not above 201. yearly out of the same, the which [arch]deaconry, together with the house, being before his time let out to lease, and the portion he had out of Ashwater, which benefice was given him by Mr. Arscot, I think could not be much," &c. Robert Lawe died before June, 1629, when Robert Hall was appointed Treasurer of Exeter, vacant "per mort Lawe."

The Dean of Lichfield died about October, 1576; and it will be seen that this entry is dated November (1576). Dean Alexander Nowell here pays 5% for the exhibition of Daniel and Edward Glover at Brasenose College.

"Edmund scofeild": He is named before (see page 228) as a scholar at Middleton School in 1575, and here occurs on going to Oxford in June, 1577. He belonged, it may be assumed, to a branch of Schofields seated at Stakehill, in Middleton. Canon Raines has contributed the following items concerning this family: "The Schofields of Stakehill (the house now a good old yeoman's house in Middleton, belonging to the Buckleys) often occur in the Middleton Parish Books. They seem to have been wealthy yeomen. At Rochdale Manor Court, 17 March, 37 Eliz. (1594), Edmund Schofield of Stakehill, in Middleton, and his wife surrendered 21 acres and one messuage in March, 40 Eliz. (1597), Edmund Schofield of Stakehill, gent., and Anne his wife surrendered a messuage and lands to the use of Jennet Wolstenholme, widow. The 18 March, 40 Eliz. (1597), Edmund Schofield of Stakehill, gent., and Anne his wife surrendered a messuage and lands to the use of Jennet Wolstenholme, widow, and then in her occupation. This Jennet was daughter of Mr. Edmund Schofield of Stakehill, and had married John Wolstenholme of Wolstenholme, gent., who died in 1555. She was buried at Rochdale, 14 June, 1598."

He was a minister in Lancashire in 1590. I think it very likely that this Richard Aspinall, at Brasenose in 1579, and commended by the same gentleman, Mr. Farington, was a brother of Miles Aspinall, the minister, or at least of the same family.

 9 "mr. Carter," and infra: Oliver Carter, Fellow of the Manchester College.
 There are two entries relative to Mr. Carter on this folio of the MS. the record at the foot of the page being in the handwriting of Dean Nowell himself; and at the top of the next page is a third reference. Oliver Carter was a native of Richmondshire, in the county of York; was admitted a scholar of St. John's College, Cambridge, on the Lady Margaret's foundation; admitted a fellow, 18th March, 1561-2; appointed humanity examiner, 5th September, 1563; junior bursar, 9th January, 1564-5; senior bursar, 16th January, 1567-8; sacrist, 24th January, 1568-9; B.A., 1559-60; M.A., 1563; admitted senior fellow, 28th April, 1564; became college preacher, 25th April, 1565; university preacher, 1567; B.D., 1569. Mr. Oliver Carter was elected a Fellow of Manchester College under Queen Mary's foundation, about the year 1570. Canon Raines (Stanley Papers, vol. ii, p. 128) says: "Mr. Carter was the preacher alluded to by Strype, who riding to preach in a chapel in Manchester Parish, about the year 1574, was set upon by a parishioner, who seized his horse by the bridle, drew his dagger, was set upon by a parsistoner, who served his horse by the bridge, drew his tagger, and inflicted three wounds upon the preacher, and might have slain him had not the horse broken away." Our MS. shows Mr. Carter, in March, 1575-6, and November, 1576, receiving 9l. from Dean Nowell by way of loan. In 1578, he, along with Dean Nowell, was again nominated a Fellow of Manchester College, under Queen Elizabeth's Charter. In 1579 he wrote and published An Answere made by Oliver Carter, Bacheler of Divinitie, unto certaine Popish Questions and Demandes, dedicated to Henry, Earl of Derby. According to Hollingworth, Mr. Carter "fell sick in the pulpit, as he was preaching of God's providing a succession of godly ministers," and his discourse was arrested, but was taken up by another preacher, Mr. William Bourne. He died in March, 1604-5, and was buried in Manchester Collegiate Church, 21st March. In his Will, cited by Raines, dated 2nd February, 1604-5, he names his wife Alice, sons, Abraham, and John; daughters Mary and Dorothy; grandchildren, John Carter, Alice Carter, and Alice Smith. His son John Carter was Prebendary of Christ Church, Dublin, from 1607 until 1613, when he was deprived for Nonconformity.

3 "henry Speller of Edmunton": This recipient and his wife will be found elsewhere named. (Index of Names, s.n.) Mrs. Speller was a Sheppard, as this entry shows, and the Sheppards are named in Robert Nowell's Will among his kinsfolk.

4 "John houghton": Perhaps John Hoghton, gent., of Pendleton, near Clitheroe, who was related to the Nowells.

6 "One Neve": Richard Neve, whose wife was a Nowell. (See ante, p. 31, Note 4.) 6 "Thoms Nowell of Reade": See Index of Names, s.n., and for biographical notices of this squire of Read, nephew of Dean Nowell, see page 71, Note 2, and the genealogical record of the Nowells in the Introduction.

7 "mrs. Anne Towenley of Royle": The Towneleys of Royle, near Burnley, in Lancashire, were a branch of Towneleys of Towneley. Mrs. Anne Towneley here named was the wife of Nicholas Towneley, of Royle, gent., and daughter of Hugh Vaughan, Esq. Her husband, Nicholas Towneley, was sometime reader and bencher of Gray's Inn, and died about 1545. The entry here refers to the handing over to Mrs Anne Towneley of two jewels she claimed as hers, that had apparently been left in the keeping of the late Robert Nowell, Esq.

9 "Rogere Irlande": See Index of Names for others of the Irelands.

"I" "a poor olde preste": Doubtless Roman Catholic, and I for one like the "charity" that did not distinguish between Protestant and Roman Catholic in need.

12 "Rycharde & Willam witakere": This item refers to the delivery of certain legal documents to which William Whitaker and his brother Richard were parties, in regard to which I imagine the explanation is found in the terms of the bequest to these two young men in Robert Nowell's Will, which left to them jointly the 40%. a year which Sir Ralph Leicester had granted to Robert Nowell out of Mr. Leigh's lands in Cheshire during the minority of young Mr. Leigh. (See the Will in the Introduction.)

13 "Charles Nowell": He is described as brother of John Nowell in the next entry, who is styled a "cosin" of Dean Nowell. This sum was paid in 1569. Charles Nowell, cousin of the Dean, is again named as having a gift of money in December,

14 "John Nowell": I am not positive as to whether John Nowell here named was the same person as John Nowell, son of Andrew Nowell, who occurs as a legatee in Robert Nowell's Will. Both John Nowells are similarly described as "cousin" of Dean Nowell and his brother Robert Nowell. The elastic term of "cousin" as then employed confuses family relationships that would have been clear if a definite meaning had at this period attached to the word. The father of Dean Nowell and Robert Nowell had several brothers named in no pedigree of the family. (See the descent given in the Introduction.)

1 "Goodwief Tode": She is described as having been daughter of a Nowell, and of kin to Robert Nowell, Esq. She is the "Joane Todd" of Robert Nowell's Will, unto whom he left a legacy of 40s. The kinship was not very near, I suppose.

8 "Elizabethe Marsten": Perhaps mother of Gabriel Marston, named elsewhere, s.n.

6 "mr Nowel a fysh Monger": See infra, Note 8.
5 "Thoms Nowell of Runcton": Thomas Nowell, of Runcton, in the county of Sussex, who here receives 71. 10s. in three items, was a first cousin of Dean Nowell and Robert Nowell, Esq. I do not rest the assertion of his exact relationship upon the use of the word "cousin" in the MS., which might signify almost anything in remote kinship; but by considerable trouble in searching for evidences to elucidate the numerous obscure ramifications of the Nowell connexions indicated in the MS. (in which I have had the valuable help of Colonel Chester and Rev. C. J. Robinson), I have made out everything about this Thomas Nowell that is needed, excepting only the name of his father, which is nowhere to be met with. That he was first cousin of Robert Nowell is proved in this way: In his Will, cited in abstract below, Thomas Nowell gives to "his sister Anne Wilkinson" a legacy of 5l. This Anne Wilkinson was wife of one Wilkinson, living in London, and Robert Nowell, in his bequest to her children, describes them as "the children of my uncle's daughter that married Wilkinson," and also names the mother "Anne Wilkinson." She being Robert Nowell's uncle's daughter, her brother, Thomas Nowell, was uncle's son = cousin to Robert Nowell, Esq., and so to Dean Nowell likewise. Thomas Nowell's father was one of the several younger sons of Dean Nowell's grandfather, Roger Nowell, Esq., who are not mentioned in any printed pedigree of the Nowells. (See the genealogy in our Introduction.) To him, as his "cousin Thomas Nowell," Robert Nowell, Esq., left a legacy of 201., and Thomas Nowell was a witness to the codicil to the Will. Subsequently, Thomas Nowell married, about the date of this entry (1569), Joan Cassie, widow of George Cassie, citizen and grocer of London. (He had died 20th August, 1568; a son, Robert Cassie, is referred to elsewhere in the MS.) Her name before her first marriage was Joan Bowyer, and she was daughter of Thomas Bowyer, citizen and grocer of London, by his wife Jane, who after his death (13th Sept., 1558), became the first wife of Alexander Nowell, Dean of St. Paul's. Thus, singularly, Dean Nowell married Jane Bowyer, widow, the mother of Joan Bowyer, whom the Dean's cousin Thomas married for her second husband. After his marriage (by which he had no issue) Thomas Nowell settled at Runcton, in the parish of North Mundham, in the county of Sussex, upon an estate of the Bowyers' which he held jure uxoris. It will be noted that in another entry upon this page of the MS., "Mr. Thomas Nowell and Mr. Thomas Bowyer" (his brother-in-law) had money on 14th Feb., 1570, "at ther gowinge into Sussexe"; and on the following page is another allusion: "To our cosine Thomas Nowell when he came from Lathorne," in Oct., 1571. (Lathorne, or Leighthorne, is another estate in the same parish of North Mundham, then the seat of Thomas Bowyer, Esq., the son.) Thomas Nowell lived about a dozen years longer, and died at Runcton, 5th Sept., 1583. Rev. C. J. Robinson kindly furnishes the entry of his burial from the North Mundham Parish Register: "Anno 1583. Uppon Thursday being the fift day of September in the year 1583 deceased Mr. Thomas Nowell of Runcton, seconde husbande to Jone Nowell sister to Mr. Tho: Bowyer, anno Elizabethe 25, and was buried the 7 day of the said moneth being Saturdaye anno eodem." The Will of "Thomas Nowell of Rounghton Co. Sussex," is dated 4th May, 1583. Testator gives to his brother, Charles Nowell, 201.; Sussex, '1s dated 4th May, 1503. Testator gives to his profiler, Charles Nowell, 201; to his cousin, Hamlett Ashton (see ante, p. 89, Note 4) 201; to his (testator's) two sisters, Elizabeth and Jane, each 101., and to each of their sons and daughters 51; to his godson, — Cundlyff, son to his sister Grace, 40s. (Grace Nowell married, at Whalley Church, 22nd June, 1539, Christopher Cunlyfe); to his sister, Anne Wilkinson, 51., and each of her sons and daughters 20s.; legacies to servants; to the poor of North Mundham 40s., and of Heyshott 20s.; to Marmaduke Christopher 31. 6s. 8d.; to "my wife Jone my house at Petworth called Norman Place, for life, and after her death the same to Robert Cassye and the heirs of his body; also to my said wife my lands at Heyshott which I purchased jointly with my brother Richard Bowyer, and after her death the same to the said Robert Cassye"; residue to Jone, testator's wife, and appoints her executrix; overseers, "my loving good cousin Mr. Deane of Powles, and my brethren-in-law Mr. Thomas Bowyer and Mr. Richard Bowyer."—Men. that the Will was found 5th Sept., 1583, presently after testator's death. Proved 16th Sept., 1583, by Jone Nowell, relict and executrix. The widow, Jone Nowell, died just a year after her husband, on 21st Sept., 1584. The Will of Jone Nowell, of Rounghton, in the county of Sussex (in margin "widow"), is dated 8th Aug., 1584. Testator to be buried "near my husband"; gives to the high church of Chichester 20s.; to the church person from the John Nowell, son of Andrew and brother of Charles, named elsewhere person from the John Nowell, son of Andrew and brother of Charles, named elsewhere in the MS.) is thrice mentioned on this and the preceding pages, and in each instance is described as a servant to the Earl of Rutland. It is also repeated, that his mother (Marie Nowell) was living at Ware in 1572-3, and that he was "born in Yorkshire." His relationship to Nowells of Read was not very apparent, for it is merely said that "he sayeth he ys our brother Rob'te kinsmane." One of a branch of the Nowells settled somewhere in Yorkshire, of which we have no information. The Earl of Rutland, to whom John Nowell was servant, was Edward Manners, third Earl of Rutland, who succeeded to the title on the death of his father in 1563, and died in 1587. His wife was Isabel, daughter of Sir Thomas Holcroft, knt., of Vale Royal Abbey, in the county of Chester. His only child, Lady Elizabeth Manners, was wife of Sir William Cecil (Lord Burghley).

named on the next page. Her nusband, Richard Overton, is mendoned on page 30, ante; and the wife also is named on page 8, as "Mrs. Overton Sheparde daughter." "imr John Woolton, of Exciter": This was John Wolton (or Woolton) Bishop of Exeter. By this entry Bishop Wolton had a gift of 31. from Dean Nowell on the 25th June, 1577; and eight years before (in September, 1569,) according to other entries on the last leaf but one of the MS. there had been given to "John Wolton and his father in lawe xxxx." John Wolton, the Bishop, was a near kinsman of the Nowells of Read. He was born near Whalley, in Lancashire (not at Wigan, as repeated in several accounts of him), about the year 1535. His father was John Woulton or Wolton, who held lands in Wiswell, about a mile north of Whalley village, in leasehold. His mother was Isabella, one of the younger daughters of John Nowell, Esq., of Read Hall, and sister of Dean Alexander Nowell and of Robert Nowell. James Wolton, his brother, is noticed in the Introduction as servant or secretary to Robert Nowell, Esq., and to Dean Nowell in succession, and as probably the Scribe of the MS. By his wife Isabella Nowell, John Wolton, the father, also had daughters, Elizabeth, who was wife of Robert Lawe of Wiswell, yeoman, and mother of Robert Lawe, Archdeacon of Banstaple (see Index of Names, s.n.); Bettris (Beatrice), who married, in 1553, Mr. Thomas Hammond, of Whalley (Ibid), from whom descended the celebrated Dr. Henry Hammond; and Alice, who was wife of Myles Bancroft, and is described in the MS. as "widow" in 1569. In 1552 and 1553, "Ulyar John Woulton" (methor doubtless of the future Picker). "Uxor John Woulton" (mother doubtless of the future Bishop) contributed to the assessment on Wiswell to the Easter Roll of Whalley Church, of those years (Cheth. Miscel. vol. v, pp. 7, 17.) It was, I think, her son James Wolton, brother of John, who occurs in 1568 as "James Woulton," plaintiff in a suit in the Chancery Court of Lancaster, claiming by the grant of Sir Thomas Hesketh, knight, as seized in fee, against Anthony Watson and others, trespassers, in breach of promise of a grant, upon a tenement and lands in Wiswell Town and Fields, in Lancashire (Cal. to Plead. vol. iii, p. 373.) John Wolton, the son, entered at Brasenose College, Oxford, at the age of 18 years, the 26th October, 1553; and he supplicated the degree of B.A. 26th April, 1555. His religious opinions compelled him to quit England temp. Mary, when he betook himself to his uncle at Strasburg. On Elizabeth's accession the Protestant exiles returned to their native country. Wolton was ordained deacon by Bishop Grindal, the 25th April, 1560; and priest on 4th June following. The name is entered in the Bishop's Register as "John Wolton, born at Whaley [Whalley] in Cheshire, aged 23;" but the word "Cheshire" refers to the diocese, not to the county. The same year Wolton was made Prebendary of St. Paul's and Canon Residentiary of Exeter; he was admitted to the rectory of Spaxton, diocese of Wells, in 1563; and on the 4th May, 1570, to the vicarage of Braunston, diocese of Exeter; the 28th July, 1578, he was constituted by charter a warden of Manchester Collegiate Church. "John Wolton, S.T.P., was elected Bishop of Exeter 2nd July, 1579, confirmed on the 26th of the same month, and consecrated the 2nd of August following." (Le Neve, vol. i, p. 379.) Wolton appears to have been a stout opponent of the Puritan party within the Church, and did not escape the attacks and misrepresentations of personal enmity. In 1585, a series of articles accusatory of Bishop Wolton were drawn up by one Paget, and sent to the Primate. Among fifteen distinct charges, it was said that he had never visited the whole diocese; that he preached seldom, and "would be in his stable among his horses, or in his kitchen among his servants, when there were sermons in the church hard by his house;" that he sold the vicarage of Newbye for 100%, and bought for his son a benefice in Somersetshire for 100 marks; that he gave the archdeaconry of Exon, in marriage with his daughter, to one Barrit (Thomas Barritt, instituted 14th January, 1582-3, on the presentation of James Wol-(Thomas Barritt, instituted 14th January, 1582-3, on the presentation of James Wolton, gent., and another: died 23rd November, 1633, aged 82), who had been "an ordinary serving man, and unlearned;" and gave the archdeaconry of Totnes to one Cole (John Cole, collated 24th November, 1580; died 1583), who had little or nothing from it, and died in debt; that he gave the archdeaconry of Barnstaple to one Lawe, his kinsman (see ante, Robert Lawe, page 251, note 5); that he made his sown son minister, being but 18 years old; that he made his first wife's father a minister, who had been the Duke of Somerset's cater, and unlearned, &c. Wolton received these articles with a letter from the Primate, 29th April, 1585, and answered them fully; both in respect to the perfect of visitation, and to the charges of nepotism. The both in respect to the neglect of visitation, and to the charges of nepotism. The Bishop showed that he had given Newbye vicarage to a grave learned minister, Mr. Blewit, who gave in exchange another benefice, which the Bishop gave to his son, aged 23, a student then in Cambridge; that Mr. Barrit, who had the archdeaconry of Exeter, had been trained up in learning at both Universities, and was a graduate; and married Wolton's daughter a year after he had the archdeaconry; that Mr. Cole, a master of arts of eight years' standing, had lived in the Bishop's house, with his family, for two years before he had the archdeaconry of Totnes; that he made not his father-in-law a minister, for he had been admitted ten years before Wolton was a bishop, and he had not his benefice from him; and "touching my son, whom I made minister, he being two-and-twenty years of age, and one that was to proceede batchelor of arts the next act, and at that time of sober and honest disposition," but "became intractable afterwards," when "I removed him immediately from that calling and from his little living; and for his lewdness myself layd him in a common jayle, with irons upon him," &c. The bishop added this personal reference: - "I was, in the later days of trouble, an exile in Germany; and have been a preacher, admitted and exercised therein, these twenty-three years. I read the Divinity lecture in Exeter twice weekly for years, and preached twice every Sabbath. I only, with one other, remained here in Exeter in the Great Plague time, preaching publicly, and comforting privately such as were infected with the plague. This last summer-lying at my commendam in the country, I preached every Sunday, and elsewhere have had a dutiful care of my charge." The account of Bishop Wolton's death, which happened in his 56th year, 13th March, 1593-4, furnishes an interesting illustration of his character. His complaint was asthma; and two hours before his departure he was dictating a letter on important business, when being admonished to be careful of his health, he replied with an adaptation of the well-known words of the Emperor Vespasian, that a bishop "ought to die standing;" (Suetonius, Vesp. c. 24.) Soon after which, as he was walking in his chamber, he suddenly fell, and expired in the arms of those who hastened to his support, at the age of 58. Besides his Christian Manual (1576) he published these little works:(a) "An Armour of Proufe: very profitable as well for princes, noblemen, and gentlemen, as all others in authoritie, showing the firm fortness of defence and haven of rest in these troublesome times and perilous dayes," 1576, 8vo. (b) "A Treatise on the Immortalitie of the Soule; wherein is declared the origine, nature, and powers of the same, together with the state and condition thereof, both as it is conjoyned and dissolved from the bodie," 1576, 16mo. (c) "A Newe Anatomie of the Whole Man, as well of his Bodie as of his Soule, declaring the condition and constitution of the same in his first creation." of Christians and Fortress of the Faithfull beseiged and defended, now almost six thousand years," 1577, 8vo. (e) Discourse of the Conscience, wherein is declared the unspeakable joys and comfort of a good conscience and the grief of an evil conscience. science," 1576, 8vo. I have not seen any of these; but the titles promise more than the "Manual" which, forsooth, is more scholastic than spiritual. Bishop Wolton was buried on the south side of the choir of Exeter Cathedral, and a Latin epitaph upon his tomb is said to have been written by his son John Wolton. The Bishop's Will is in the Prerogative Office. It is dated 16th July, 1593, and was proved 20th May, 1594; testator names his son Mathew, daughters Margaret Barritt, Susan Godwin, Mary Baber, and Hester and Alice Wolton; son-in-law Thomas Barritt; and eldest son, John Wolton, late fellow of All Souls' College, Oxford, then dwelling at Exeter, who was sole executor and residuary legatee. John Wolton, the Bishop, was twice married; his first wife was daughter of a clergyman and died about 1581. His second wife also apparently predeceased him. I do not know the names of either of the Bishop's wives. His children, all by his first marriage, were, sons, John Wolton, sometime fellow of All Souls' College, Oxford, and a graduate in physic; and Matthew Wolton, living in 1593; daughters, Margaret, wife of Thomas Barrett, archdeacon of Exeter, 1582-1633; Susan, wife of Francis Godwin (collated sub-dean of Exeter, 11th June, 1587; consecrated bishop of Llandaff 22nd October, 1604; translated to the confidence of lated to the see of Hereford, 10th November, 1617; died in April, 1633); Mary, wife of — Baber; and Helen and Alice, both under twenty years of age at the bishop's

"1" "Robte Ratclief . . . Scholemaister of Ratchdall": Canon Raines very kindly supplies the following note on this Rochdale schoolmaster: Robert Radcliffe of Rochdale was the third son of Charles Radcliffe of Todmorden Hall, Esq. (J.P.), by his first wife Margaret, daughter of Thomas Savile of Exley, Esq., and grandson of Edward Radcliffe of Todmorden Hall, by his wife Matilda Maria, daughter of Roger Nowell of Read, through whom he was first "Coosin" to Robert Nowell, the testator. He was appointed the first Master of Rochdale Grammar School, by Archbishop Parker, the founder, in the year 1565, Charles Radcliffe of Todmorden being a principal agent of the Primate in the building of it. He had probably resigned the office of Head Master before June 6, 1589, in which year another master seems to have been appointed. He married Katherine, daughter of Arthur Assheton of Clegg Hall, gent. (an attorney), and sister of the Rev. William Assheton, M.A., Rector of Middleton (the presentation to which was purchased for him). He was the father of Samuel Radcliffe, D.D., Principal of Brasenose College, Oxford, who names in his Will that he was brought up in the house of his grandfather at Todmorden, but was born at Rochdale. Robert Radcliffe, who being styled "gentleman" and not "clerk," was probably a layman, was buried within Rochdale church, I November, 1605, and his widow on the 12 May, 1609. Her Will Lanc. 1 The scribe of this interpolated writing, which is dated 1614, names his "unckle Christopher Townley." Some loose scraps in the same handwriting found with the MS. (but which I do not print), prove that the scribe's name was Robert Sherburne, e.g., "the ixth of May 1614, received of my unckle Christopher Townley the sum of six pounde by mee Robte Shirburne." The "uncle" must have been Christopher Townley (a younger son of John Townley, Esq., the executor of Robert Nowell), who died at Pendle Hall in 1623. His niece Ellen married Henry Sherburne, but she could not have been mother of Robert Shirburne. Probably a sister of Christopher Townley may have married a Sharburne not made in the Townsley. Christopher Towneley may have married a Sherburne not named in the Towneley nedigree Robert Sherburne was evidently a farm bailiff at Towneley. The fact pedigree. Robert Sherburne was evidently a farm bailiff at Towneley. that he wrote these entries in the MS. proves that it was left in possession of the Towneleys in 1614, six years after the death of John Towneley, Esq., the co-executor with Dean Nowell.

""Certeyn p'sonns of wealthe": The description in the heading only applied, I fancy, to a portion of the recipients named below.

2 "Thoms holnay", and infra: A second reference infra informs us that this Thomas Holnay married a daughter of "Treheron." I believe the father of his wife was the eminent Puritan minister, Bartholomew Treheron. Dorothy Treheron had a handsome marriage gift from Dean Nowell in November, 1569; but it was perhaps a sister of hers who married Thomas Holnay about May of the same year. (See ante,

- pp. 108-109.)

 2 "Towen of Bridgwatter": Bridgewater, in the county of Somerset, an ancient corporate town. Dean Nowell was making a tour in the west country in the autumn of 1569, visiting his kinsman John Wolton, of Exeter, and other friends. The Dean tarried some days at Bridgewater; and besides the 10l. here entered as given to the town, he gave 6l. to "the mene of Bridgewattere," and 10l. to "the mendinge of the way at Bridgewatere," as entered in the last leaf but one of the MS.

13 "mr Ketchine of graies Inne": This old friend of Robert Nowell is named before (p. 76) as receiving, in May, 1569, 5l., and a gown faced with martens. In a list of "certayn lawiers in euery of the foure Innes of Courte," dated June, 1576, occurs, under "Greis Inne," among the "Double Readers":—"Mr. Kitchin of the counsell of the Citie of London, of good wealthe." (Notes and Queries, Jan. 13, 1877.)

14 "m Randall worsley"=Randulph: He occurs in other places in the MS. (See Index of Names, s.n.) He is here described as "gent husher," i.e., gentleman usher.

 3 "Christofore Irelande": See Index of Names, under "Ireland."

- 6 "Barthelmewe holney": Brother, perhaps, or near kinsman, to Thomas Holnay, noted in the preceding page.
- 7 "mr flowed": Unknown, probably Floyd.
- 8 "Richard Cotton": Unknown.
- 9 "Too one Thoms church yeard beinge in some distres": This entry presents an interesting circumstance in the life of an Elizabethan poet of no mean reputation-Thomas Churchyard. He was born at Shrewsbury, about 1520, and therefore was aged 60 at the time of receiving from Dean Nowell this succour in his "distress." The accounts of Churchyard say that at the age of 17 his father gave him a sum of money, and sent him to court, where he lived freely while his means held out. He was sometime servant to the Earl of Surrey; then turned soldier, and fought in several campaigns in Ireland, Scotland, and Flanders. Once he was taken prisoner, but was assisted to escape by a lady of rank. In 1569 he gave information to the Government of a rendezvous of Roman Catholic gentry at Bath. Strype records (Life of Grindal, p. 138): "Thomas Churchyard (in that age an excellent soldier, and a poet), a man of honest principles, gave the Secretary notice of all this from the Bath. He told the Secretary, that he suspected these troops of gentlemen of some dangerous plot An extraordinary shock of earthquake was felt in England on 6th April, 1580; and Churton (Life of Nowell, p. 268) mentions that "Churchyard the poet set forth in verse and prose' a book of the earthquake, addressed to the good Deane of Paules, which his fertile muse produced in two days." The title of this production is: "A warning to the wise, a feare to the fond, a bridle to the lewde, and a glass to the good; written of the late Earthquake, for the glory of God, and benefit of men, that warely walke, and wisely can judge." It may have been in acknowledgment of the dedication of this piece to him, that Dean Nowell sent the sum here entered to the poet somewhat later in the same year (1580). Churchyard lived to be a very old man (eighty-four), and is spoken of by Isaac Disraeli, in his Calamities of Authors, as "one of those unfortunate men who have written poetry all their days, and lived a long life to complete the misfortune." Thomas Churchyard died in London, in 1604, and was buried in the church of St. Margaret, Westminster, 4th April, 1604. The Tragedie of Shore's wife (enlarged 1593), and his Worthinesse of Wales (1580), are considered the best of his numerous poetical works. A complete collection of his Works is an urgent desideratum. Only crass ignorance speaks lightly of his unique genius - as I hope some day to shew.

1 "Whalley Brunley & other pishes in Lancashire": It was during the month of July, 1569, when Dean Nowell was down in Lancashire (see ante, p. 219, Note 9), that he purchased these quantities of linen and woollen cloth of the chapmen of that county for distribution among the poor of Whalley, Burnley, and other parishes. The distribution of this cloth is entered in detail onward in the MS.

2 "Boughte at Preston," &c.: Most of the goods were bought from traders in Blackburn, Harwood, Burnley, and other places in Blackburn Hundred, but this first purchase was made at Preston, and the cost of carriage of the parcel from Preston to Towneley (where the Dean was sojourning with his half-brother and co-trustee John Towneley, Esq.) was 12d. The distance from Preston to Towneley is about twenty miles. This manufacture of strong linen cloth was a considerable one in Lancashire temp. Elizabeth, and for two centuries onward, until the present cotton manufacture sprang up and displaced it. Most of the small farmers, as well as the cottagers in the hill-country of East Lancashire, had the spinning wheels and hand-looms set up in their houses, the spinning being done by wife and daughters and the weaving chiefly by the men and lads of the household. These entries in our MS. afford a better idea of the largeness of the trade of the local chapmen in these wares and of the prices of the Lancashire cloths in the middle of the sixteenth century than any other published record of that period. By purchasing all this cloth on the spot, the Nowell trustees reveal their wish to encourage a useful local industry and manufacture, at the same time that they bestowed upon the families of all the poor inhabitants of the district the material for clothing. It was in both respects more thoughtful to do this than it would have been to have given an equal sum away in money-gifts.

3 "Leoner Bertwesell": The Birtwistle family were of Huncoat Hall, near Accrington. A Leonard Birtwistle was a younger brother of Oliver Birtwistle, gent.; and Leonard Birtwistle of Hapton, Jenet his wife, and their children, are named subsequently in the MS. in the distribution of cloth in that township. (Index of Names,

4 "Rychard hayworthe": The Haworths of Green Haworth, Accrington, of Crawshawbooth in Rossendale, and of Blackburn and Lower Darwen, all traded in linen goods and checks from an early period.

5 "James Buterworthe": Perhaps of a clan of Butterworths of Rochdale parish. A

Katherine Butterworth occurs later in the MS. (Index of Names, s.n.)

6 "Nicholes Lache": Nicholas Lache has been named ante (p. 125), as having married Agnes, daughter of Ralph Pollard of Billington.

7 " James whitheade": A James Whitehead of Habergham Eaves (among other Whiteheads) is named onward in the statement of the distribution of gifts of cloth. 8 "Willm Lache": A kinsman, perhaps, of Nicholas Lache supra. Both William and Nicholas Lache may have been related to Edward Lache, who married Elizabeth Shepherd. (See post, by Index of Names, s.n.)

9 "Nicoles fagere": Sagar was then, and is yet, a localised surname in Burnley and its outlying townships. The most considerable family of Sagar was of Catlow, midway between Burnley and Colne by the old road.

10 "John Smith": Perhaps he was a John Smythe of Burnley whose wife had a gift of cloth in the distribution of these cloths. (See Index of Names, s.n.)

11 "George pollarde": The Pollards were small freeholders and chapmen at Whalley and Billington. (See ante, p. 125, Note 6.) There was also about this date a George Pollard of Hapton, near Burnley.

12 "Willm King": He recurs two pages onward.

13 "Edwarde Inghame," "James Whitaker," "Thomes Ingham": Ingham and Whitaker are Burnley names. Several Inghams of Read occur in the distribution of eight have in the accord. cloth later in the record.

14 "John Narram": John Narram of Read township occurs in the Easter Roll of Whalley for 1553. (Chetham Miscellanies, vol. v, p. 16.) He married Jane Sellers of Whalley, "cousin" of Dean Nowell. (Index of Names, s.n.)

1 "Willm Wigen," and infra: A century later, a namesake of this chapman, and doubtless a descendant, William Wigan, was pursuing the same trade of a clothier in the neighbourhood of Blackburn.

2 "Willm Ducksburie": He would belong, I think, to a family of Duxbury, small gentry and traders, in Great Harwood. He sold a finer kind of cloth than some of the chapmen, being valued at 18d. the yard. He is again mentioned at the foot of the next page of the MS.

3 "Richarde Ingham," and infra: Richard Ingham of Cliviger occurs onward in the list of persons to whom gifts of cloth were made. (Index of Names, s.n.)

4 "Thoms Childers": His name recurs two pages onward. Childers is not a local surname in East Lancashire.

5 "Nicholes hallsteade," and infra: See Index of Names, s.n. The measurement of the pieces of Lancashire cloth woven in 1569 is given in this and other entries. The pieces are said to have mostly contained 18 yards the piece; but some were of 17 yards and 172 yards the piece; and one of John Narram's pieces measured 19 yards. The shortest pieces were some of 15 yards the piece, sold by Nicholas Lache.

6 "Ric. Shorocke": The Shorrocks occur early as yeomen and chapmen in Eccles-hill, near Blackburn.

"Nicholes Lache" · See last page, Note 5.

8 "Robte hutchine": Named again two pages onward.

9 "Christofor 7ackson": He is again named two pages onward. A Christopher Jackson of Ightenhill Manor is met with in 1563; and a Christopher Jackson of Burnley appears among the names hereafter in the record of the distribution of these cloths. This Christopher Jackson also occurs in a list of freeholders in Cliviger in 1558.

10 "Christofor hindlie": Some Hindles or Hindleys of Great Harwood and Rishton in Blackburn parish occur once and again as local traders in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. This Christopher Hindle was one of the earliest chapmen in his family. About a century later than the date of these entries, i.e., between 1660 and 1670, Laurence Hindle, John Hindle, William Wigan, Robert Pollard, John Pollard, and others, descendants and successors, doubtless, as the names suggest, of the men who sold their cloths to Dean Nowell in 1569, describing themselves as "clothiers" in Great Harwood, Billington, Whalley, and Rishton, petitioned the county justices for redress of injuries sustained by them from the monopolist trading companies of Preston. (Abram's History of Blackburn, p. 202.)

11 "George Ingham": He was related, no doubt, to Richard Ingham and Edward Ingham, also named among these traders in Lancashire cloths.

12 "Nic. halsted," and supra: Among the present parcel of cloths is named 34½ yards of woollen fabric called "shepes rusette," selling for 15d. the yard. "Russet" cloth was a cheap woollen fabric worn by the common people, and is said to have derived its name from its colour, a dingy brown. Nicholas Halsted of Padiham occurs in 1552, in the assessment of the Easter Roll of Whalley Church. (Cheth. Miscel., vol. v, 6 "John heape": This surname is now met with in some parts of South-East Lancashire. Altogether I find the names of about thirty of the local chapmen to whom Dean Nowell and John Towneley, Esq., gave a share of this patronage; a circumstance which shows that the manufacture and merchandise in linen and woollen cloths were rather extensively diffused in the Blackburn and Burnley districts of East Lancawere rather extensively diffused in the Blackburn and Burnley districts of East Lancashire to which these traders chiefly belonged, in the first years of Elizabeth's reign. The thirty names are these: Leonard Birtwistle, Edward Birtwistle, Richard Haworth, Nicholas Haworth, James Butterworth, Nicholas Lache, William Lache, James Whitehead, Nicholas Sagar, Richard Sagar, John Smith, George Pollard, William King, Edward Ingham, Thomas Ingham, Richard Ingham, George Ingham, John Narram, William Wigen, William Duxbury, Thomas Childers, Nicholas Halsted, Richard Shorrock, Robert Hitchine (Hutchine or Hodshin), Christopher Jackson, Christopher Hindlie (Hindle), Robert Hindle, William Hindle, John Heape, James Whiteler Whitaker.

"Edwarde Bertwesill": See two pages ante, Note 8.
"Nicholas Haywoorthe": See previous entry and relative note two pages ante.
"Richard Sagere": See note on Nicholas Sagere, p. 279 ante.

4 "Robte hodshin": Probably this is the person named Robert Hutchin in foregoing entries.

5 "Sume of the clothe boughte in Lancashire": The total sum expended in this instance in Lancashire upon cloth for charitable distribution by Dean Nowell and his coexecutors was 3271. 4s. 9\frac{1}{2}d., which would be equal to about 3,500l. in modern money, computing that a shilling of Elizabethan coinage was worth from ten to twelve shillings of Victoria, on the basis of the relative rentals of land and rates of artizans' wages then and now. In quantity there was stated to have been purchased 2,400 yards of woollen cloth, and 1,800 yards of linen cloth.

1 "Oliver haworthe of Manchester": I cannot fix the connexion of this person with the Nowells, unless he was a son of John Haworth named on the next page, whose wife Alice was a Hopwood, and daughter of a sister of Dean Nowell's mother.

2 "George berch": George Birch, gent., of Manchester, younger son of George Birch, Esq., and brother of Thomas Birch of Birch, Esq.

3 "mr Danyell": Nicholas Daniel, or, as he described himself, Nicholas ap Evans Daniel, B.D., was Fellow of the Collegiate Church of Manchester 1568. He was vicar of St. Leonard's, Shoreditch, London, but apparently deprived for nonconformity (Newcourt's Repert., vol. i, p. 687). He afterwards became vicar of Preston-in-Amounderness, and in a long and singularly interesting letter addressed by him to Bishop Downham, dated Preston "dominica in albis, 1574," he details the griefs and difficulties he had encountered in his parish. (Canon Raines's Lanc. MSS., vol. xxii, pp. 150-154.) Various charges were brought against him, chiefly for nonconformity and heterodoxy, before the Archbishop of York's commissioners, in the Chapter House, Manchester, in 1571, and as he is not named in the Charter of 1575 it is not quite clear that he was at that time a member of the Collegiate body. Archdeacon Mullins of London, one of the Marian exiles, was his friend. (Ibid, vol. xli, pp. 127-9.)

4 "Mr haule": Richard Hall, younger son of Thomas Hall, by his wife Alice, daughter of John Valentine, and brother of Thomas Hall, priest, the friend and correspondent of John Bradford the martyr (Bradford's Letters, p. 10). Richard Hall was ordained deacon by John, Bishop of Chester, 23rd December, 1541, on the title of Peter Warburton of Arley, knight; and priest, 10th March, 1542, on the same title. (Bishop's Liber Ordin. Cestr.) He was a Fellow of the Collegiate Church, Manchester, 1559, and appears to have professed Theology, Philosophy, Physic, and Medicine. He laboured under the suspicion of not being a hearty Protestant and ably defended himself. He was bursar of the college and deputy or curate for Dean Nowell, which is the strongest argument that could be adduced for the soundness of his creed, his learning, ability and character. In October, 1584, he records "Mr. Allex. Nowell, Deane of Paules owes mee for Wages xxxii," and various other persons were indebted to him. (Inventory of Debts.) He is the "Sir Hall" who had an annuity of xii granted to him out of the Collegiate revenues, and which Lord Burghley advised Bishop Chadderton "to staie the payment thereof," and adds, that if he should repair to the Bishop for the same, his Lordship was to direct him to apply to Burghley for an answer, who says, "being such a man as you describe I cannot favour him." This was written on the 12th September, 1581. His "annuitie and arrearages" were probably paid, and the warden was found to be the culprit. (Peek's Devid. Cur., vol. i, lib. iii, p. 37.) He lost his Prebendal stall at Worcester, but retained that of Manchester until his death. His Will is dated 22nd October, 1584, and he was buried in the Collegiate Church, in January, 1584-5, and his widow Margerie, on the 5th January, 1588. (Lives of Fellows of Manch. Coll., Lanc. MSS., vol. xli, pp. 129-30;—communicated by Canon Raines.)

5 "Mrs Langlaye": May have been Cicely Langley, widow of Robert Langley of Agecroft, Esq. He died early in the reign of Elizabeth.

6 "Elizabethe and Anne reedfearne": See, for numerous Redfearnes, Index of 7 "John Towenley": The four children of John Towneley, Esq., named in this entry would be Richard, born in 1566; John, born in 1567; and Jennet and Frances, his two eldest daughters. All the other sons and daughters, ten in number, were born after this date (June, 1569).

8 "James Bridgge": The relation of the Bridges to the Nowells is indefinable.

Some of them are named again some pages onward.

9 "Robte heyley": Thomas Healey of Lower Healey, in the manor of Rochdale, gent., holdeth by deed dated 22nd April, 4 Phil. et Mar., made by Thomas Healey, father of the said Thomas, to Robert Buckley of Buckley, gent.; John Wolstenholme of Wolstenholme, gent.; Arthur Whitehead of Dearnley, gent.; and others as feoffees in trust for the use of Robert Healey his eldest son, and Elizabeth his wife, and the heirs of their two bodies lawfully begotten, and for default of such issue, to remain to the said Thomas and his right heirs, a faire house in Healey, and divers lands worth 20% a year adjoining to the lands of Abel Buckley of Buckley, Esq. (Note by Canon Raines, from Lanc. MSS., vol. xxi, p. 210.)

10 "Thoms Casson": Thomas Casson held copyhold lands at Wroe, in Spotland, parish of Rochdale, 12th June, 1571; and on the 30th April, 4 Jac., Thomas Holt of Stid, near Ribchester, Esq., conveyed lands in Spotland, near Rochdale, to Caleb, son of Wilfred Casson. (Raines's Lanc. MSS., vol. vii, p. 26.) Samuel Casson held these lands in 1695, and John Casson in 1706. (Ibid, pp. 265, 278.)

was continued in the issue of his brother Alexander Schofield, who succeeded him in the estate. Canon Raines has a note respecting a suit pursued in the Bishop's court, in 1561, by Cuthbert Schofield of Schofield, gent., for a divorce from Anne his wife, who was a natural daughter of Sir John Byron, on the ground of adultery, committed by her with one Michael Goodrich, gent., in the house of her husband, called Schofield Hall. On being discovered in her infidelity, Mrs. Anne Schofield fled with her paramour to Rochdale, thence to Ireland. "Cuthbert Scholfild of Scholfild, buried June 5th, 1605," at Rochdale. (Reg. Bk.)

12 "Roger Garshead": This is meant for Roger Gartside, gent., of the family of

Gartside of Gartside and Oakenrod, in Rochdale and of Ewood Bridge, near Haslingden. 13 "Arthur Ashtonn of Ratchdale, gent.": Canon Raines, in a note to the Chetham Society's edition of Nicholas Assheton's "Journal," supplies information respecting this personage and his descendants. Arthur Assheton of Rochdale, attorney-at-law, was father of William Assheton of Clegg Hall, Esq., and of Edward Assheton, M.A., Was father of William Assaction of Clegg Hall, Esq., and of Edward Assaction, M.A., Rector of Middleton from 1584 to his death in June, 1618. Arthur Assaction, gent., had also eleven daughters. He died in 1593; and in his Will, dated 15 May, 33 Eliz. (1591), gives a legacy to his son Edward, "parson of Middleton," and nominates him and testator's dear friend Robert Holt of Ashworth, gent., and Robert Holt, his son, overseers of the Will. In 4 Elizabeth (1561), Richard Midgeley, clerk, Vicar of Rochdale, was against Arthur Assheton, Richard Holt, and others, in a suit as to glebe lands belonging to Rochdale Vicarage. (Cal. to Pleadgs., Duc. Lanc.)

Names, s.n., for other occurrence of these names.)

15 "Richard hardman of middliton": Nothing appears on inquiry to enable me to identify this Richard Hardman of Middleton, described as "cousin" of Dean Nowell. Some other Hardmans, also "cousins" of the donor, are named two pages onward. The name frequently occurs in the Middleton Registers.

16 "John hopwoode of Ratchdale": He may be connected with other Hopwoods named two pages onward.

17 "George Seller, John Seller": See Index of Names, s.n., for numerous "Sellers." (153)

1 " Elys Reedferne of Ratchdale": See Index of Names, s.n.

2 "John Seller, Gylbarte Towenley, Robte pyckringe, Alexander bradshay": John Sellers, Robert Pickering, and Alexander Bradshaw are heretofore named and noted as servants of Dean Nowell. Gilbert Towneley may have been a kinsman-dependant of John Towneley. I see no Gilbert of this period in any of the Towneley pedigrees. He was in holy orders, for he is named four pages onward in the text as "Gylberte Towenley, clerke."

3 "Ales wilde Edward Turnall . . . Catherin Turnall": See some pages onward for notes on Wyldes and Turnalls.

1 "Thoms haymons, Robte Pyckringe, Thoms Jackeson, henry Coney": These witnesses of the payments, as those above, were either servants or kinsmen of Dean Nowell and John Towneley, Esq.

5 "Agnes Turnall.... Rychard Myller..... Raffe Miller": Richard Miller of Oldham Parish had, it appears, married Agnes Turnall, whose mother was a Wylde, and a relative of the Nowells. Richard Miller in 1569 had eight children, Ralph being his eldest son.

6 "Robte Towenley, John houghton, Robte Whitakers, willm huntington, Thoms Jacksone": See Notes 2 and 4 supra.

7 "Ales hopwoode... John haworthe": These Haworths of Rochdale and Bury, who seem to have been in poverty and misfortune at this time, evidently owed their kinship to the Nowells to the circumstance of the mother of the family, "Ales hopwoode, wief to John Haworth," being a Hopwood; and a previous entry at page 78 ante describes her as a widow and as a daughter of Henry Hopwood. I believe that her mother was Eleanor Kay, sister to Elizabeth Kay, Robert Nowell's and Dean Nowell's mother. If so, Henry Hopwood was the name of the member of the Hopwood family whom Eleanor Kay wedded. John Haworth by his wife Alice (Hopwood), had, as here stated sons John Haworth and Richard Haworth, each married and having one here stated, sons John Haworth and Richard Haworth, each married and having one child in 1569, when the second son, Richard, was living with his widowed mother at Rochdale, as was also her unmarried daughter, Margaret Haworth. On the next two pages other Hopwoods are named.

8 "to by them a cowe": Thirty shillings were given to this family of poor kinsfolk to purchase them a cow. That sum would buy a good cow in 1569. In the Household Books of the Shuttleworths of Gawthorpe in Lancashire, from various entries relating to the buying and selling of cattle I take this as an example: "1583. Bought in Blackburne the firste daye of Maye, one cowe, 26s. 10d."

9 "Gylbarte Towenley, John houghton, James woulton, Robte pyckringe": See Note 2 supra. 291

2 "Edmund Turnall of Ratchdale": He had married a daughter of Lawrence Wilde, who was in some way not manifest nearly related to Dean Nowell. He had, besides the son Lawrence Turnall here named, daughters, Marie, Grace, and Alice, mentioned two pages ante. The name here written Turnall is probably meant for Turnogh, that of a very old family living at Turnogh, now called Turner, in Butterworth, near Rochdale, in the 13th and following centuries.

terworth, near Rochdale, in the 13th and lonowing centuries.

3 "Elizabethe Jacksonne": This young woman got a gown, over and above the equal gift with her brothers, because she had been god-daughter to Dean Nowell's mother. Her father, Thomas Jackson, had to wife Jane Wild, daughter of Lawrence Wild the Lawrence Wild with the later for named supra. He had sons, Thomas Jackson, and Robert Jackson—the later (or perhaps all the family) "of Brunley [Burnley] parishe."

and for a genealogical note on the family see the next page.

6 "James hardman": The nature of the "cousinship" to the Nowells of this and other persons in the MS. must remain undefined. A Richard Hardman of Middleton is mentioned two pages ante. James Hardman, by Katherine his wife, had a son Edward living in 1569. The surname of Hardman is yet local in South-East Lancashire. Canon Raines notes: - "The Hardmans of Marcroft-gate in Wolstenholme hamlet were old freeholders and copyholders within the parish of Rochdale, and were connected with some of the superior yeomanry and with neighbouring families of lesser gentry. They were, in the time of Eliz. and Jas. I., much associated with the Ashworths of Ashworth, Bamfords of Bamford, and Wolstenholmes of Wolstenholme, but probably not by marriage."

7 "Robte Collinge": Not identified. See next page, Note 5, for mention of a John Collinge, gent.

8 "John Goodshawe": He is here named among Dean Nowell's servants, but has not previously occurred in that capacity.

2 "Gylberte Towneley," and infra: See the name on pages preceding.
3 "Robte Hopwoode": See infra for note on the Hopwood family.
4 "Aunte Elizabethe Chadwiecke": This dame must have been a sister of Robert and Dean Nowell's father, for their mother being herself named Elizabeth could not have had a sister Elizabeth. In the Nowell Pedigree a daughter of Roger Nowell, Esq., and aunt of Dean Nowell, named Elizabeth, is entered as wife of Robert Challoner. Elizabeth Nowell's second husband may have been Henry Redfearne. This entry proves that she survived him, and then married one Chadwick, and was again a widow and living in Rochdale parish in 1569. To Henry Redfearne she bore several sons and daughters mentioned in the MS. In the very next entry appears her son Thomas Redfearne, his wife, and their four children, Henry, James, Elizabeth, and Jane. Another son was Ellis Redfearne (see two pages ante) of Rochdale parish, "with whom our Aunte Elizabethe Reedfearne dothe remayn"; he is elsewhere mentioned as of St. John's College, Cambridge, in 1578. James Redfearne was another son, named ante in an entry of a gift of money sent in 1571 to Dean Nowell's aunt, "James Redfearne's mother"; and John Redfearne of Worcester, "brother to James Redfearne," so described ante, was another of the sons. I have no doubt that Richard Redfearne, dwelling at Bewdley in 1571, and described as Robert Nowell's kinsman, was a fifth son. There were also daughters, Anne Redfearne, and (named on this page) "Jane Reedfearne, married to Peyres Taylor," who had children, Richard, Bonaventure, Arthur, and Ellis. From other sources we get slight allusions to this family. Henry Hamer of Hamer, parish of Rochdale, in his Will dated 1572, gives to "Agnes, the wife of Thomas Redfearne," 13s. 4d. This Thomas Redfearne, whom I take to be the Thomas, eldest son of widow Redfearne of our MS., died before the 44 Eliz. (1601), when the escheator's inquisition found that he had died seized of messuages, lands, and woodlands in Redfearne in Spotland and Wolstenholme in Spotland. He would be the Thomas Redfearne of the following notes by Canon Raines, from his Lanc. MSS. "On the 20 April, 12 James I. (1614), certain lands in Spotland were surrendered by Francis Wolstenholme, gent, and Elizeus and James Schofield, to Thomas Redfearne of Redfearne, senr., who held lands in Spotland by grant dated 2 October, 32 Eliz. (1589). James Schofield, gent., surrendered lands on Knoll More in Spotland, 30 August 1593, to Thomas Redfearne, senr. Thomas Redfearne of Redfearne, junr., held lands called Fallos in Spotland, by copy dated 20 October, 22 Eliz. These lands passed to James Redfearne, and 4 October, 3 Chas. I. (1627), Samuel Bamford of Bamford surrendered to him other lands for the lives of Mary, Martha, and Hester Redfearne. Gabriel Redfearne succeeded to the lands of his father Thomas Redfearne, senr."

5 "our Aunte Hopwoode": Dean Nowell's aunt Hopwood was Eleanor Kay, his mother's sister, who married (as I make out by means of entries in the MS. previously noted) Henry Hopwood of Rochdale, gent. The husband was apparently dead in 1569, when aunt Hopwood is named more than once as still living (as in the present entry). The sons and daughters of Henry and Eleanor Hopwood were, I think, the following: sons, John Hopwood (who had a son Robert Hopwood and daughters Elizabeth and Catherine); Ralph Hopwood of Heywood parish, living in 1569 (he had a son John Hopwood, and daughters Ann, Jenet, Jane, second wife, in 1580, of William Assheton of Clegg Hall, gent., Marie and Margaret); Richard Hopwood; Bertin Hopwood (who had sons John Hopwood and Robert Hopwood, and a daughter Elizabeth); daughters, Alice Hopwood, living in 1569 (wife of John Haworth of Rochdale); Joane Hopwood (wife of Thomas Meyrs); and Frances (wife of Robert Fowler). This family of Hopwoods was a branch of the ancient stock of Hopwood of Hopwood. No pedigree of this branch is found in any of the heraldic visitations, and the descents given above are wholly based upon entries in our MS. Canon Raines obligingly notes for us among his collections the following references to Hopwoods connected with the locality of Rochdale temp. Eliz., some of whom I believe will prove to be among those named in the MS.:—Married at Rochdale, "Edmund Hopwood cum uxor xvi Maii, 1585"; "Robert Hopwood, Par. Mydleton," married at Rochdale 5 Dec. 1586. John Hopwood, son of Robert Hopwood, bapt. at Rochdale 2 April 1585; Robert Hopwood, son of John Hopwood, bapt. 27 March 1585. John Hopwood, son of Thomas Hopwood, bapt. 2 April 1585. Richard Hopwood, dead in 1593, had a son John, bapt. at Rochdale 15 Jan. 1586. Robert Hopwood of Milnrow, husbandman, in his Will, dated 21 Dec. 1591, refers to lands he held of John Collinge, gent., by indenture of lease dated 23 May, 33 Eliz. (1590), which he gave to Mary his daughter; appoints his wife Grace and daughter Mary executrixes; trusty friends Mr. William Butterworth of Little Howarth, and his brother Edmund Hop-Hopwood. No pedigree of this branch is found in any of the heraldic visitations, and friends Mr. William Butterworth of Little Howarth, and his brother Edmund Hop-

6 "Roger Nowell of Symondestone": He is described as "cousin" of Dean Nowell, and was very likely son of an unrecorded son of Dean Nowell's grandfather. He had two sons living in 1569, John Nowell and Thomas Nowell. Symonstone is a town-

1 "Cosin Laurence Wilde," &c.: The members of various branches of the Wilde or Wylde family named in these pages are so numerous, and the indications of their inter-relationship are so slight, as to seem to forbid the attempt to elucidate them. They were all in some degree kindred of Dean Nowell and his brother Robert; but there is no evidence here, nor hitherto found elsewhere, to show the link of connexion. My impression is that a daughter of one of the Wyldes had married an uncle of Dean Nowell. Canon Raines has pointed out (Stanley Papers, pt. ii, p. 198) that Mr. Mundy the herald painter has entered on the Nowell pedigree in Harl. MS. 1549:— "I find the mother of Alexander Nowell, Dean of St. Paul's, to be Alice, daughter of Laurence Wylde." This statement is incorrect;—the mother of Dean Nowell was Elizabeth Kay, as entries in this MS. plainly import. Yet the author of the statement must have seen some record of a marriage of Alice daughter of Laurence Wylde to a Nowell, and inferred that her husband was the sire of Dean Nowell. Supposing that an unnamed uncle, or brother, of the Dean married Alice Wylde, we have a hint of the relationship that did certainly subsist between the Nowells and Wyldes of this The Wyldes were not above the rank of yeomen, and there is no pedigree of them, nor any means of making out a strict genealogical record at this period, for the parish registers begin too late for us. The Wyldes named in the MS. resided some of them in Rochdale Parish, some in Oldham, and some in Middleton Parish. Below I notice most, if not all, the several families referred to in the MS.:-

1. Laurence Wylde of Middleton Parish, of the entry at the head of this page; a "cosin" of Dean Nowell. He is similarly named three pages before. From his name, he might be son of the Laurence Wylde whose daughter Alice married a Nowell. He was an old man in 1569, for he had sons married with children; and in one entry on this page he is distinguished as "old Laurence Wilde," grandfather of sundry young recipients. His wife Isabel is named, and (here and three pages ante) his sons Edmund, Laurence, William and Ellis; and daughters Ann, Jenet, Margaret, Dorothy, Jane, Catherine, and Alice. His son Edmond Wilde, by Alice his wife, had sons Edmond, William, Ralph, and Laurence; daughters Jenet, Elizabeth, and Alice. William Wilde, another son of Laurence, and Ellis Wilde his brother, are named; also their sisters, Margaret Wilde, and her son Thomas; and Jenet Wilde, late wife of James Lees, of Oldham Parish, and her children, John, Laurence, Edmond, Elizabeth, and Jenet Lees.

2. Richard Wilde of Middleton Parish, "cosin" of Dean Nowell; he had a son Abraham Wilde; and brothers John Wilde; "Laurence Wilde of Chatterton of holdam parishe;" and Edward Wild of Middleton; all named on this page of the

3. Robert Wilde of Oldham Parish, named in the text two pages back as "cosin Wylde of Oldham Parish;" who, by Margery his wife, had sons Ottewell Wilde and John Wilde, and a daughter Margaret. I connect the "cosin Wylde of Oldham" with "Robert Wylde" of an entry at page 264, who had in July, 1573, a gift of money for his son John Wylde, a scholar. The son, John Wilde, is met with subsequently as Minister of Saddleworth, in the county of York, who died in 1592, and in his Will, dated 23rd December, 1592 (cited by Canon Raines in his admirable edition of Bishop Gastrell's Notitia Cestriensis, vol. ii, pt. i, pp. 144-5), mentions his brother Ottiwell Wilde named above. John Wilde the minister bequeathed the benefit of certain leases he had "to a godly preacher to be provided and nominated" to succeed him at Saddleworth, on condition that six sufficient men of Saddleworth should deliver into the hands "of my two brethren in the parish of Oldham to pay in one year unto Ottiwell Wild, my younger brother, 201., for the use of John Wild his son, to spend in books and learning, both in the country and at one of the Universities," &c. Among other legacies, testator gives "to my brother Ottiwell Wild of Cowleyshaw, a pair of bed-stocks; and I appoint him my executor." Canon Raines informs me that the Wildes of Cowlishaw, in Shaw, par. of Oldham, were an old yeoman family, and that from them sprung the Wilds of Thornham, in Middleton Parish. "Edward Atkinson of Castleton, yeoman, holdeth by deed dated I Apr. 14 Jac. I., granted by Edmund Milne of Whitfield in Oldham parish, James Scholes of Chadderton and Ottiwell Wylde of Buerdsall, yeoman, a copyhold messuage and 51a.

3r. on Buerdsall Moor, valued at 221. 10s. a year." (Lanc. MSS., vol. xxi, p. 25.)

3r. on Buerdsall Moor, valued at 22l. 10s. a year." (Lanc. MSS., vol. xxi, p. 25.)

4. Richard Wilde of Middleton Parish, named on the preceding page of the MS. as "cosin" of Dean Nowell, and deceased before 1569, when his widow had a gift of money. This Richard Wilde had daughters, Alice (wife of William Taylor of Oldham Parish, who had children Anne, Alice, and Margery Taylor); Mary Wilde, Isabel Wilde, and probably Jane Wilde. He had also a son, mentioned previously as "Wilde of Middleton parishe in Lancashire," along with "his mother Wyddow Wilde" and his "syster Isabell Wylde."

5. Oliver Wilde, on the next page of the MS.; he had sons, Robert, and James (who had a daughter Anne).

6. Christopher Wilde of Oldham Parish (see next page of MS.). He had sons, Henry, Thomas, Valentine, and Ellis; daughters, Elizabeth, Alice, and Isabel.

7. Randall Wilde, whose sons Adam, Ralph, Edward, and Dynnes (Dennis), and daughter Mary, are named.

8. Henry Wilde, whose sons Thomas, John, Edmund, and Henry, and daughters Anne and Elizabeth, are named. Canon Raines notes that on 29 Sept., 1658, Henry Wilde a blacksmith, Adelicia his wife and Robert their son conveyed lands on Castleton Moor to Lawrence Gaskell, gent. (Lanc. MSS., vol. vii, p. 87.)

9. Ralph Wilde of Rochdale Parish, whose sons John and Michael, and daughters Grace, Anne, Alice, and Jane, are named.

- 10. Edmond Wilde of Rochdale Parish, whose sons Thomas, Edmond, Henry, and James, and daughters Anne, Jane, Margaret, Jenet, and Marie, are named. Canon Raines has a note that "Edmund Wylde of Castleton in Rochdale yeoman, holds by deed dated 20 Apr. 1591 a messuage and half a moiety of a parcel of land called Fermehill, being 10a. 2r. 3p., valued at 14^{li} a year." (Lanc. MSS., vol. vii, p. 87.)

 11. Edmond Wilde of Middleton parish, "cosin" of Dean Nowell, named two pages
- onward in the MS. He had, by his wife Anne (besides a daughter Isabel), sons, Richard (married before 1569, when Ellen, his wife, is named), Thomas, Roger, John (servant with his brother, Owen), and Owen. The last named was probably an elder son than John, Thomas, and Roger. He is specially described in the MS:—"To Owen Wilde, servante to Mr. Beron and sonne to olde Edmunde, whoe hath iij childrene, James, Catherine, and Jane." His wife also is mentioned, but not by name. Owen Wilde's master, Mr. Beron, was John Byron of Clayton, Esq., heir to Sir John Byron.

12. Ralph Wilde, whose wife Margery, and children, Geoffrey, William, and Margery, are named.

- 13. Thomas Wilde of Oldham parish, "cosin" of Dean Nowell, named six pages onward in the MS. By Margaret, his wife, he had a son Christopher, and a daughter
- 14. Adam Wilde of Rochdale parish, whose wife Isabell, and children, James, Edmund, Isabel, and Johanne, are named.

 15. Edward Wilde of Oldham parish, whose wife Isabel, and their five children, James, Thomas, Anne, Alice, and Elizabeth, are named.

16. Nicholas Wilde of Oldham parish, whose wife is referred to, and whose six children, Edward, Ottiwell, Alice, Agnes, Margaret, and Isabell, are named. He probably was the same with "Nicholes Wilde of the Wood-house," of a prior entry.

(Index of Names, s.n.)

Besides these distinct households of Wildes, individual members are frequently named, e.g., William Wilde, scholar of Middleton School; Richard Wilde, at Brazenose College, from Middleton School; Richard Wilde, who came to London at the suit of the vicar of Silkstone, in the county of York; Thomas Wilde, scholar at Bury School; Alice Wilde, whose husband was Edward Turnall; "cosin" Jane Wilde, wife of Thomas Jackson; Elizabeth Wilde, daughter of Edward, deceased; Agnes Wilde, wife of Henry Scholes of Oldham parish; Alice Wilde, wife of — Chadwick, son of Alice Chadwick; Margaret Wilde, wife of Henry Clege (Clegg) of Rochdale parish, whose children were, Henry Clegg (his children, Henry and Beatrice), Ottiwell, Alice, and Elizabeth; Hugh Wilde of Oldham Parish, and Margaret Wilde of the same parish; with others. Canon Raines notes:—"Henry Clegg holds copyhold lands in Buerdsall in the manor of Rochdale granted by Sir John Byron and others by deed dated 8 March, 6 Jac., to his father Francis Clegg, and formerly held by his grandfather Henry Clegg deceased, called Halfacre Gate." (Lanc. MSS., vol. xxi, p. 27.) All these Wildes, being classed as kinsfolk of the Nowells, must have sprung from a common progenitor within not more than two generations.

1 "Ellen Sheparde," &c.: The persons named Sheparde, in this and several preceding pages of the MS., doubtless were sons and daughters of Elizabeth Sheparde, or Shepparde, widow, who has been before noted (see ante, p. 79, Note 3) as a kinswoman of Robert Nowell, and a legatee under his Will. Whether this widow was aunt or cousin of Dean Nowell and his brother cannot be shown. Her husband was dead before 1568, and his name does not occur in the MS. "Mrs. Shepharde, Widdow," and her daughter Mrs. Overton, had black gowns at the funeral of Robert Nowell (see ante, p. 8.) Five years later, in 1573, she is mentioned as "Mrs. Shepherde, a poor widdowe," and had then a gift of 10s. from Dean Nowell. In 1574, she had two gifts of 20s. and 10s. She was mother, I think, of the following:-1. Andrew Shepparde of Rochdale parish (see preceding page) who by his wife Margery had issue, Thomas, Lawrence, and Margery; 2. John Shepparde, dead before 1569, whose widow, Isabell Shepparde, is named, with her children, Gilbert, Lawrence, James, Ann, Agnes, and Margaret; 3. James Shepparde of Rochdale parish, described (two pages ante) as Dean Nowell's "cosin," whose wife was Margaret Shepparde; 4. A daughter unnamed, wife of Henry Speller of Edmunton (see ante, pp. 262-3, 264-5); 5. A daughter unnamed, described as "Mrs. Overton, our Brother Rob'te Kynswoman," and as "Sheparde daughter,"—she had issue; 6. Elizabeth Shepparde, wife of Edward Lache (see two pages ante and infra on this page of the text); 7. Margaret Shepparde, wife of Lawrence Shawe; 8. Margery Sheppard, wife of James Hill, who had in 1569 four children, James, Andrew, Isabell, and Elizabeth; 9. Ellen Shepparde, of the present entry, wife of William Scofild of Bury parish, who had in Rochdale parish; and II. Grace Shepparde, wife of James Filden, who had in 1569 four children, James, Margaret, Jenet, and Elizabeth. Edward Lache (popular pronunciation of Leach), named as having married Elizabeth Shepparde, probably was father of a later Edward Leach, yeoman, who held lands in Levengreave in Whitworth hamlet by copy dated 17 Nov., 1603, called Newbank, being 12a. or. 30p. On the 7 Oct., 1652, Edward Leach is described as being blind, old, and decrepit, but still living; and that Edward Leach, sen., and Edward Leach, jun., then surrendered this land to Mr. Raphe Hamer of Steade, excepting two acres which Theophilus Assheton, Esq., of Clegg Hall, conveyed 28 April, 12 Jac., to John Duckworth, father of James Duckworth, who then held the same. (Canon Raines' Lanc. MSS., vol. xxi, p. 223.)

2 "Anne Wild James Wilde": See ante, pp. 229–301, for annotation upon the whole family of Wilde.

3 "Henry Scholes of holdham": He had married Agnes Wilde, a daughter of one of the Wildes before noted, kindred of the Nowells, and had children, Thomas, Henry, Isabel, and Elizabeth.

4 "Margarett Casson": Her husband is named John Dawson below, but as her children are named Casson the husband's name should be John Casson. He might be akin to Thomas Casson, named and noted ante, pp. 288-9.

5 "Ales chadwicke": See ante, p. 295, for note on the family of Chadwick.

1 "children of Lyonerd Cronshey": Leonard Cronshey married Elizabeth Whitaker, daughter and namesake of Dean Nowell's sister Elizabeth Whitaker, wife of Thomas Whitaker of Holme, gent. The children of Leonard and Elizabeth Cronshey here named are, a son, Robert; daughters, Mary, Ellen, and Elizabeth. Previously (at pp. 82-3) is entered the payment of Robert Nowell's legacy of 20%. to "Leonarde Cronshey and Elizabethe his wief." "Elizabetha Cronckshay" was buried at Padiham, 2 Dec., 1573. A "Leonard Cronkshey of Westcloyse, gent.," occurs in a list of free-holders of Blackburn hundred, dated 1600.

² "Anne Whitaker Thoms Crabtrey": Anne Whitaker, another niece of Dean Nowell, daughter of his sister Elizabeth Whitaker, married Thomas Crabtrey (this surname, still found in the neighbourhood of Burnley, is properly spelled Crabtree). Thomas Crabtrey and his wife are named ante, p. 82, when the wife received her legacy of 201. under Robert Nowell's Will. They had children, John, Thomas, Marie, Jenet, and Anne.

3 "Janne Whitaker" . . . "John Whitwham": Jane Whitaker, sister of Elizabeth and Anne above-noted, married John Whitwham (modern Whitham), and is mentioned ante, page 84, as "daughter unto Elizabeth Nowell and Thomas Whitaker," when she had her legacy of 201. Their only child here named is a son, Robert Whitwham.

4 "Cosin Elizabeth woulton daughter, wief to Robte Lawe": In our notices of Robert Lawe, Archdeacon of Barum (ante, page 251), and of his uncle, John Wolton, Bishop of Exeter (ante, pp. 267-9), we have indicated the relationship between the families of Wolton and Lawe, both of Whalley in Lancashire, and of both to Dean Nowell and Here we have a record of gifts to Robert Lawe and Elizabeth his wife, and their children, in July, 1569. I add these further items respecting the family of Lawe, of Wiswell and of the Grange in Whalley. Four centuries ago the Lawes were tenants under the Abbey of Whalley. One Thomas Lawe, a Carthusian monk of Sion, had probably served one of the chantries in Whalley Church; for on the wainscot screen of the north chapel is an inscription in black letter "Orate pro anima Tho. Lawe, Monachi." "Frater Jacobus Lawe" was a monk of Whalley monastery about the middle of the fifteenth century; and a later Thomas Lawe survived the suppression of the abbey some years. In the survey of the abbey estates by the King's Commission in 1537, several tenants named Lawe are named; among them, Robert Lawe, who held certain pastures of the demesne lands in Whalley, and a new house at the Grange; Henry Lawe who held a shop in the churchyard of Whalley; Henry Lawe of Eves, holding freely certain lands; and in Wiswell, a township next to Whalley on the north, John Lawe held a house and land, and Robert Lawe a house and land, as tenants-at-will of the monastery. In 1552, Robert Lawe and Henry Lawe, both of Whalley, are assessed on the Easter Roll of Whalley Church; and the wife of John Lawe, Robert Lawson (i.e. Robert, son of Lawe), Robert Lawe, junr., Thomas Lawe, the wife of Henry Lawe, William Lawe, senr., and William Lawe, junr., were assessed on the same Easter Roll under Wiswell. The Easter Roll of Whalley for 1553 gives the names of Robert Lawe and Henry Lawe under Whalley; and the wife of John Lawe, Robert Lawe, senr., Robert Lawe, junr., Thomas Lawe, John Lawe, the wife of Edmund Lawe, William Lawe, senr., and William Lawe, junr., under Wiswall. (Cheth. Miscel., vol. v.) The branch with which we are concerned probably was represented in 1552-53, by Robert Lawe, sen., father of Robert Lawe, jun., of Wiswell. I assume it was Robert Lawe the younger (of 1553) who married Elizabeth Wolton, daughter of John Wolton, by his wife Isabella Nowell, sister of the Dean of St. Paul's. The children of Robert and Elizabeth Lawe, named in the text, and living in 1569, were, Thomas, Henry, Robert (the future Archdeacon), James, Alice, Isabel, Margery, and Catherine,—four sons and four daughters (see also ante, p. 82, and note p. 83). Robert Lawe the father was living some years after 1569. The family was never above the rank of small freeholders. Another branch is represented at this never above the rank of small freeholders. Another branch is represented at this period by John Lawe of the Grange in Whalley, who farmed a portion of the old Abbey park-land. Near the end of the MS. occurs the entry: "To the wieffe of John Lawe of the grendge of Whalley parishe x*." This John Lawe was a witness to the marriage of Roger Nowell, gent., in May 1581. He died in October 1599; and the Whalley Register records the burial of "John Lawe, gent.," on the last day of October in that year. John Lawe, who is noted by Canon Raines as an innkeeper in Whalley in 1617 (Savaral of Wichelan Acceptance 26), may have been son of John Whalley in 1617 (Journal of Nicholas Assheton, p. 26), may have been son of John Lawe last-named. He died in 1626.

1 "Rob'te Whitaker, eldeste sonne to his [Dean Nowell's] syster Elizabethe": This was Robert Whitaker, gent., son and heir of Thomas Whitaker, gent., by his wife Elizabeth, daughter of John Nowell of Read, Esq. Robert's younger brother was the celebrated Dr. William Whitaker, named so frequently in this MS. His father, Thomas Whitaker, died in August, 1588; his mother (Dean Nowell's sister) died at a great age in October, 1606. In the new edition of Whitaker's History of Whalley (Routledge and Gent, 1876) there is a good pedigree of Whitaker of Holme, the family of the author of that work; but this MS. affords names by which that pedigree may be amplified in two generations. The pedigree names only three sons of Thomas Whitaker, gent. (Robert, Richard, and William), and no daughters. Our MS. proves that he had at any rate four sons (Robert, Richard, William, Lawrence, and perhaps James and Thomas); and daughters, Elizabeth, Anne, and Jane. Robert Whitaker, gent., has only two sons named in the pedigree (Thomas, and George, born in 1579). If I mistake not, the four names following that of Robert Whitaker on this page of the M.S. are those of children of Robert Whitaker born before 1569, viz., Richard, Thomas, Marie, and Margaret. His wife (alluded to, but not by mame, in the first entry) was Margaret, daughter of James Greenwood. Robert Whitaker died before his father, in November, 1581. The husbands and children of Robert Whitaker's married sisters are noted on the preceding page.

2 "John sellers": I have previously noted several individual members of the family of Sellers as they have occurred in the MS., and their kinship to the Nowells of Read. Materials are not at hand for anything like a connected account of this yeoman family, who were at this time holding certain lands in Read township and at Portfield in Whalley; nor can I show the nature of the relationship between them and the Nowells. An early member of this family was Johannes Seller, monk of Whalley Monastery; instituted Vicar of Whalley 24 Nov., 1488, and died about 1510, when there was placed a window in a chapel of Whalley Church, inscribed: "Grate paiabus Johis beler, Vicarii de Ahalley, Oliber Huttilworth et uroris ejus, et Hen. Polker, qui istam fenestram sieri fecerunt, and d'ni Mccece." (Hist. of Whalley, new edition, vol. ii, p. 11.) An aunt, or, perhaps, a great-aunt, of Dean Nowell's may have married a Sellers, and so established a connexion between the families. Thomas Sellers of Read was dead before 1552, when the wife of Thomas Sellers was assessed to the Easter Roll of Whalley Church. (Cheth. Miscell., vol. v.) She, probably, was the "Betteris [Beatrice] Seller, widow," who, in the 1st Phil. and Mary (1547), prosecuted John Holker and others for trespass and removal of trees adjoining a messuage and lands in Read. (Cal. to Pleadgs., vol. i, p. 286.) After her (and I conjecture her son) comes John Seller, whose wife was named Margaret, and who held the messuage of Portfield, with lands thereto be-longing, before John Braddyll built his new mansion there, and who, in 1550, had some litigation with John Brown and John Wood, who had impounded cattle and otherwise disturbed the possession by John Seller of the messuage called Portfield and lands and tenements there. He may have been the same John Sellers of this entry in our MS, whose five daughters, Jane, Anne, Jenet, Grace, and Beatrice, had gifts of cloth in July, 1569; and Jane Sellers, named as wife of John Narram, I take to have been John's sister. Earlier in the MS. (though not in date) other entries occur relating to members of the family. John Sellers had apparently, besides these daughters, a son Thomas, educated, very likely, at Dean Nowell's charge, described in Sept., 1572, as "lately come forthe of Lancashire" to Oxford (see ante, p. 222). In March, 1568, John Sellers had a debt of 7l. owing to him by the late Robert Nowell, Esq., paid by the Dean; and in March, 1569, John Sellers of Read received a legacy of 10%. left to him by Robert Nowell. We have also in the MS. a George Sellers, "cousin" of Dean Nowell, whose three children had gifts (see ante, p. 294), and Isabel Sellers, of this same page, also a "cousin" of the Dean, married to James Whitaker.

3 "James Whitaker": It is not clear if James Whitaker was or was not a brother of Robert; if not, I think he must have been his father's brother. He married Isabel Sellers, and the names below (Jenet, Betteris, Grace, Isabell, Margaret, and Thomas Whitaker) are probably those of James Whitaker's children.

"Margaret Wyld": See ante, p. 301, in our general note on the Wylde family.

"Cosin Roger Nowell of castell p'ishe": The Castle of Clitheroe and its demesnes and forests were reckoned extra-parochial, and were described as "Castle Parish." Roger Nowell of Castle Parish may have been Roger Nowell of Little Marley, gent., representative of that branch of Nowells at this date; or, as the gift of 5s. to that Roger may seem improbable, it may refer to another Roger Nowell, dwelling in Clitheroe—a son perhaps of some unknown uncle of Dean Nowell. Lettice Nowell, mentioned infra as wife of Lawrence Spenser of Castle Parish, who had a son Ellis Spenser, may have been daughter of this Roger Nowell. Here we have a link of connexion between Nowells and Spensers which might on special research assist to interesting facts bearing upon the origin of Edmund Spenser the poet.

1 "poor of the parishe of Whalley": These gifts of cloth to the poor of the district in Lancashire with which Dean Nowell and his brother Robert were connected by birth and family attachment, were made by Dean Nowell in person during his visit to Lancashire in July, 1569. The distribution extended to the families of tenant farmers and peasantry in the townships of Whalley, Padiham, Symonston, Read, Wiswell, Pendleton, Hapton, Burnley, Habergham Eaves, Cliviger, Worsthorne-cum-Hurstwood and Extwistle-cum-Briercliffe, in the parish of Whalley; of Little Mitton township in Mitton parish; and of Billington township in Blackburn parish. Altogether, in round figures, about 1,600 persons in this corner of Lancashire shared in this bounty, and, in the winter of 1569-70, so many poor people might have been found comfortably clad in garments made out of the linen and woollen cloths so freely dispensed by Dean Nowell and John Towneley, Esq., as executors of the charitable trust of Robert Nowell, Esq.

2 "Isabell Nowell, daughter to Christofor Nowell, some tyme baylyf of Whalley": I think it very likely that Christopher Nowell, sometime bailiff of Whalley, was an uncle of Dean Nowell, i.e. Christopher Nowell, son of John Nowell, Esq., who is named among the sons of the latter in the inquisition after his death in 1525. He was probably dead before the date (1569), but had left a daughter, described as "cosin" of the Dean, who received a gift of cloth for herself and her child, and 2s. in money.

3 "Rychard Thorpe of Wiswall": The same person "Ric. thropp" of Wiswell township near Whalley, was assessed to the Easter Roll of Whalley Church in 1553. (Cheth. Miscell., edited by Canon Raines, vol. v, p. 17.)

4 "John seller, Thoms hamonde, James Wolton": These attestors of the gifts were each Whalley men; the last-named, James Wolton, was Dean Nowell's secretary; Thomas Hammond was his brother-in-law; and John Sellers also was a kinsman.

5 " Towen of Whalley": That is, the Township of Whalley. Whalley is not, and was not then, what in modern usage of the word we call a town, but a pretty village.

6 "fur James Jenynges, p'ste": Sir James Jenings, priest, of this entry, was not vicar of Whalley at this time; and being designated priest, I infer that he was one of the pre-reformation priests of the district (some of whom were discharged on small pensions upon the accession of Elizabeth in 1558), who was living at Whalley in 1569. Dean Nowell included the old priest in the distribution of gifts, Puritan though he was 7 "Blinde Jenet": The surname of this poor blind woman is omitted;—she is described, as she would be spoken of by the villagers of Whalley, simply as "Blind

8 John Attoughe," &c.: This surname is still found in Blackburn and Whalley, but is now spelled Eatough; yet is probably pronounced as anciently spelled—Atough.

9 "Jenet Sourbuttes": A family of Sowerbutts, of Sowerbutts Green in Samlesbury, were concerned in the Lancashire Witchcraft Trials in 1612 (see Potts' Discoverie of Witchcraft, in Chetham Society's publications). The surname is still met with locally.

10 Thoms Bailief": The modern spelling of this name is Bailey or Bayley.
11 "Raffe ffilden": This local surname is now changed to Feilden.
12 "Thoms Lawe," &c.: These several persons of the name of Lawe in Whalley would be of the same clan with the Lawe family noted previously (see ante, p. 307).

1 "vx Edward Craven": A family of Cravens have been for three centuries, and yet are, owners of a freehold farm in Dinckley, parish of Blackburn, about two miles from Whalley. There were other Cravens in Billington and Whalley. Edward Craven, William Craven, Thomas Craven, and the wives of Richard Craven and Nicholas Craven, all occur under Whalley township in the Easter Roll of Whalley parish in 1553. (Cheth. Miscell., vol. v.) William Craven and Robert Craven are named on this page of the text, infra.

1 "Padiham p'ishe": Padiham was not strictly an ancient parish, but a parochial chapelry under Whalley Church, and a township in Whalley parish. It is now a considerable manufacturing town of some 6,000 or 7,000 population. Nearly 270 persons, including children, are named in the category of inhabitants of Padiham township who had gifts of cloth from Dean Nowell in July, 1569. About 120 separate heads of families and households appear to be distinguished. This must have included all but the families of a few of the chief gentry in Padiham at that date.

2 "Margeret Webster": Besides her, there are named in the Padiham list of recipients several persons of the name of Webster, viz., John Webster, Margery Webster, John Webster, Hugh Webster, Jenet Webster, and Margaret Webster. Lieut.-Col. Fishwick remarks: "The Padiham Registers show that at this time there were several families of this name; but the above must not be mistaken for the Websters of Hargreave (or, as it was then written, Horgreve) who lived on their own estate for upwards of 400 years, being settled at Hargreave in the fifteenth century." A pedigree of this family is in the possession of Lieut.-Col. Fishwick, who is a descendant from one of the daughters of Richard Webster, the last male representative. Richard Webster of the daughters of Richard Webster, the last male representative. Richard Webster of Hargreave, gent., died about 1570, and by his wife Margery left issue, sons, Francis Webster, who died in 1579; and Roger.

3 "Willm Sonkey.... Maud Sonkey": Matilda (Maud) wife of William Sankey, was buried at Padiham church, 27 September, 1587. (Extracts from Padiham Registers, by Lieut.-Col. Fishwick, in Reliquary for October, 1871.)

4 "Isabell Cunlief": Isabel Cunliff of Padiham appears on the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1552.

5 "Leonarde Cronshey": See ante, p. 307, Note I.

1 "Hughe Cookshutte": Three other families of this name (Cockshutt) are entered infra, those of John Cockshutt, of John Cockshutt, senior, and of Richard Cockshutt.

2 "Henry dodson": Henry Dodgeson of Padiham, and also Christopher Dodgeson with his mother, appear on the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1553.

3 "Adam horrege": Adam Horwich of Padiham was assessed on the Easter Roll of 3 "Adam horrege": Adam Horwich of Padiham was assessed on the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1522.

4 "Robte wilkinson": The wife and two children of Robert Wilkinson were buried at Padiham chapel, 9 June, 1579.
5 "margeret Grenshaye": Perhaps this surname should be Grimshaw.
6 "Elisabethe pykcope": This surname, derived originally from Pickop Bank, at the head of Haslingden Grane, at the south-east extremity of Blackburn parish, is common in Blackburn district, and is now spelled Pickop, or Pickup.
7 "Janne wilkinson," &c.: There are several families of Wilkinsons in the category of the commonalty of Padiham in 1569, e.g., that of Robert Wilkinson, suppra; that of Janne Wilkinson of this entry; and that of John Wilkinson of Whalley Banks, with others.

1 "christofor Yate": Another family of Yate is found later in this Padiham list.

3 "Willm. cleaton": Intended for Clayton.

2 "Gyles claytere": Miswritten for Slater. Giles Slater appears under Padiham on the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1553. (Cheth. Miscell., vol. v.)

4 "John hancoke": The chief family of Hancock was of Lower Higham, near Padiham, represented early in the sixteenth century by John Hancock of Lower Higham, gent., who married Elizabeth, daughter of Nicholas Shuttleworth of Gawthorpe, gent. After him was Nicholas Hancock, gent., who, temp. Edward VI., disputed with Sir Richard Towneley, knt., title to lands in Ightenhill Park, &c., and whose daughter and heiress, Ann, married, in 1560, Edward Starkie of Huntroyd, gent. See infra, for a William Hancock and his family.

5 "Edward Nutter": An Edward Nutter appears on the Easter Roll of Whalley for 1553. Edward Nutter, who here occurs with six members of his household, may have been the same person. The Nutters sprung out of Pendle Forest, and some of them, half a century later than this date, were implicated in the charges of witchcraft them, half a century later than this date, were implicated in the charges of witchcraft which were tried at Lancaster assizes in 1612.

6 "Ales Denbeye," &c.: John Denbye occurs under Padiham on the Easter Roll of Whalley for 1552.

1 "Fanne Marshall": The wife of Thomas Marshall, assessed under Padiham to the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1553, might be the same with our Jane Marshall of 1569. Thomas Marshall, gent., was the descendant of the founder of Padiham chantry, and as such, he presented a chaplain in 1539. (Hist. of Whalley, new edn., vol. ii, p. 50.) A John Marshall occurs on the next page of the MS.

2 "Thoms Whitaker": These Whitakers in Padiham may have been a remnant of the ancient family of Whitaker of High Whitaker in Padiham township, the parent stock of Whitakers of Holme, of Symonston, and of Healey, in the county of Lanceston.

3 "Lyonell whipe" Lyonel Whypp of Padiham appears on the Easter Roll of Whalley for 1552.

4 "Christofor hindlie"; and "Jeffraye hindlie," &c., infra: See Index of Names, s.n., for prior references, and note on the local clan of Hindle.

5 "Nicholes Baren": Perhaps the son of Richard Barron who, "cum fils," appears on the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1552. The surname of Baron is yet rather common in Blackburn Hundred.

6 "Robte Dodson": Robert Dodgeson, with others of that name in Padiham, was assessed on the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1553.

1 "John Remyngtonn": This surname is derived from the neighbouring township of Rimmington on the Yorkshire border east of Clitheroe.

² "John horrege": This name is spelt by the scribe as it is sounded by the common cople in Lancashire. The correct spelling is Horwich, the name of a township in people in Lancashire. The correct spelling is riorwich, ...

Dean parish.

""Ux Christofore heye": The family of Hey was indigenous to the locality of Padiham and Whalley.

John Hey of Padiham is assessed on the Easter Roll of Whalley

1 1553.

4 "Fenete webster": See ante p. 319, for a note on the Websters of Padiham.

5 "Jenet fylden": Fylden = modern Feilden. The Feildens of Witton Park and Generations large landed proprietors in Blackburn parish, Feniscowles, now for several generations large landed proprietors in Blackburn parish, sprung from an old family of yeomen in Great Harwood. In these townships on the banks of the Lancashire Calder, the Fyldens were a numerous tribe 300 years ago.

6 "Willm. Whiteheade": William Whytehead of Padiham was assessed to the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1552. The surname is still rather common in this part of North-East Lancashire.

7 "henry whitaker": Some connexion, possibly, of the old family of Whitaker of High Whitaker in Padiham.

8 "Lawrance houghton" Lawrance Houghton's name appears on the Easter Roll of Whalley (under Padiham township) in 1552.

1 "Thoms yeate": Perhaps he was progenitor of James Yate and Thomas Yate, who occur as confidential servants of Shuttleworth of Gawthorp near Padiham from 1596 to 1643. (Shuttleworth Accounts, Cheth. Socy., vol. iv, pp. 1132-3.)

2 "George Cronshaye": The surname of Cronshaw, Crankshaw, or Cronkshaw, is yet met with in the district, generally pronounced as here spelt. Christopher Cronkeshay of Padiham appears on the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1552. A Leonard Cronshey occurs in our MS. in the Padiham list ante.

3 "henry Shorrocke": Henry Shorrocke of Padiham paid 12d. to the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1552.

4 "to fir willm Bouthe Minister of padiham": This entry supplies the name of a minister of Padiham Parochial Chapel not found in the last revised list of incumbents of this church in the new edition of Whitaker's History of Whalley (vol. ii, pp. 49-50). Sir William Bouthe or Booth was probably the first protestant minister of Padiham, John Baxter, who occurs as "chaplain" in 1551, temp. Mary, and preceding John Baxter, who occurs as curate in 1573, and died in 1616.

5 "Gilberte greenfild": A family of Greenfields was settled in the neighbourhood

in Preston at the close of the seventeenth century

6 "children of John wylkinsonns": John Wilkinson of Padiham was assessed to the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1553. He is named Wilson in an entry above. "Whalley Banks" is the name given to an eminence on the west or Whalley side of Padiham village.

1 "Symonston Towen"; Simonstone is a small rural township lying on the north bank of the Calder between Padiham and Read. The park of Huntroyd, then and still the seat of the important family of Starkie, embraces a large part of the lands of the township; and the rest belongs to the Symonstone Hall estate of the family of Whitaker of Simonstone, noted below.

2 "George Cartmell": A John Cartmell of Whalley appears on the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1553.

3 " John Whitaker . . . Lawrance Whitakere": At Simonstone Hall has been seated for several centuries a family of Whitaker, branched from that of Whitaker of High Whitaker, and represented, in 1553 (Easter Roll of Whalley) by Thomas Whitaker, senr., gent., Thomas Whitaker, junr., and Myles Whitaker, his sons. 'The father and his eldest sons might be in too good a position to accept the Nowell bounty, but there were two younger sons, John Whitaker and Lawrence Whitaker, who might not be too proud to do so, and whom I should be disposed to think were the John and Lawrance named in the text.

4 "Edmunde pollard": A descendant, may-be, of John Pollard, junr., of Simonstone, assessed to the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1552 and 1553.

5 "Rychard Goodshawe": Ryc. Goodshawe appears on the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1553. The surname is derived from Goodshaw Booth in Rossendale.

6 "Lettes Shuttellworthe": Possibly widow of a Barnard Shuttleworth of this township, who appears on the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1552 and 1553.

7 "John hargreves": John Hargreaves of Simonstone, "cum Laurence," was assessed to the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1553.

ante, p. 319.
9 "Lawrance Sagere": Lawrance Saigher (modern Sagar) of Simonstone, was assessed to the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1553.

1 "Reade Towen": This is the township in which Read Hall and Park, the ancient seat of the Nowells, is situated. All the recipients named under this head would be members of the families of tenantry of Dean Nowell's nephew, Thomas Nowell, Esq., of Read Hall.

² "Robt Ingham," &c.: Robert Yngham, also Edward Yngham and Thomas Yngham (Ingham) of Read township, were assessed to the Easter Roll of Whalley in

3 "Willm Tatershall": He may be connected with the rather numerous tribe of Tattersalls of Burnley. (See post, under Burnley township, &c.)
4 "John marcer": "Marcer" is a frequent old spelling for the modern "Mercer."
The Mercers were very numerous in Great Harwood and Rishton townships in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, as they are still.

5 "Henry Deinley": The surname is properly Dineley or Dyneley, and is derived from Dyneley Knoll in Towneley Park.
6 "henry Reyley": Henry Ryeley of Reade appears on the Easter Roll of Whalley township of Chatburn, near Clitheroe. A Robert Chatburne of Whalley occurs on the Easter Roll of Whalley for 1552 and 1553.

1 "Gylles Nowell, et vx": Here we have a family of Nowells residing in Read township, of station sufficiently humble to be classed among the tenant farmers and peasantry who had gifts of cloth from Dean Nowell at Read Hall. The family consisted of Gyles Nowell, his wife, and their four daughters, Grace, Isabel, Letis, and Alison Nowell. I do not find this Gyles Nowell or his family elsewhere named in the MS. as kinsfolk of the Nowells; yet, living on the same estate, there can be no doubt that Gyles Nowell could have traced his descent from some chief representative of Nowell of Read. The posterity of younger sons of the most considerable families of territorial gentry in that age, when there was little trade, soon dropped into obscurity and poverty. Grace Nowell, daughter of Gyles Nowell, was baptized at Whalley Church. 2 April, 1567; and the same Gyles had also issue, sons, John, baptized 6 November, 1569 (some months after these gifts were dispensed), Thomas, baptized November, 1573; Roger, baptized 6 October, 1574; and Robert, baptized 18 April, 1577. All these are Christian names common in successive generations of the principal family of Nowells. Giles Nowell, the father, seems to have been twice married, and both his wives were named Isabella. "Isabella uxor Egidii Nowell" was buried at Whalley, 3 November, 1573; then we find Giles Nowell marrying Isabella Nowell (probably a kinswoman before marriage), 12 August, 1576; and then, "Isabella uxor Egidii Nowell," buried 29 December, 1577. John Nowell, son of Giles, died in 1572.

2 "Rychard Harnbey et vx": The surname is meant for Hornby. Richard Horneby of Reade appears on the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1553.

3 "Edmunde holkere," and John Holker and William Holker, infra: The Holkers of Read were tenantry of the Nowells; but between this date and the middle of the last century I meet with successive representatives described as "gent." or "yeoman." John Holker of Read, the principal man of the family about this period, appears on the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1552 and 1553. A younger John Holker, probably a son of this John, married, at Whalley, 20 October, 1572, Ellen Braddyll; and John Holker of Wiswell and John Holker of the Crosse are named in the Will of John Braddyll, Esq. (1578). John Holker, gent., occurs as a juror in 1585. A Richard Holker, of this family, was a scholar at Brazenose College, Oxford, in 1572. (See ante, pp. 210-11, 234.)

4 "Olyuer whithall": The surname is now spelt Whittle.

5 "Johanes Browen et vx": John Browne of Reade appears on the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1553.

2 "Johannes Bruscoe": This surname is Burscough, here spelt as locally spoken,

"Bruscoe."

³ "Leonard paslowe": A connexion, it is likely, of the family of Paslew of Wiswell Hall, to which belonged John Paslew, last abbot of Whalley, executed for high treason in 1537.

4 "Edward Nowell": I have no information concerning this bearer of the honourable name of Nowell.

1 "Wiswall": Wiswell is a township next to that of Whalley on the north. There is a village of old thatched cottages with high pitched roofs, many of them now tenantless and decaying. Between fifty and sixty families seem to be included in this distribution of cloth, and the population was then perhaps about equal to what it is now.

2 "Thoms Dugdall": A yeoman family of Dugdales have held a small freehold estate in Wiswell down to the present generation; originally, I dare say, they were of the same clan as the Dugdales of Clitheroe, about two miles from Wiswell, one of whom was father of Sir William Dugdale the herald and antiquary, historian of War-

3 "Robte Hollidaye": The name is spelt Hallidaye on the next page, which is the form in which it is now usually met with.

"John Law et vx": I have before generally noticed the family of Law of Wiswell (ante p. 307).

5 "Jenet Ratclief," &c.: Perhaps Jenet was the "wife of William Radcliffe" of Wiswell, assessed to the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1553. John Radcliffe appears on the same Roll, and the "vxor John Ratcliff" of the next entry might be his widow.

6 "Thoms Dobson": He and several of these Dobsons of Wiswell appear on the Easter Roll of Whalley, 1552-3.

7 "James holker," &c.: The Holkers are found in several townships about Whalley, and we have before noted the Holkers of Read. These Wiswell Holkers were of the same stock. (See Note, two pages ante.)

2 "Robte Seller": See ante, p. 309, for a general note on the Sellers family.

3 "Edward Parker": "Yeoman Parker" of Wiswell, appears on the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1553.

4 "John valion... Ellen walton": See ante, p. 267, for an account of the Wolton family of Wiswell, to which John Wolton, bishop of Exeter, belonged.

5 Vx Johnes Rychardsonne": John Ric'son (contraction of Richardson), was assessed to the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1553. He might be dead before 1569, when his wife had this gift of cloth.

6 "John Dean": John Deane (misprinted "Deant" in the Chetham Society's volume) of Wiswell, was assessed to the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1552.

2 "Margeret hancoate," &c.: These names the scribe has miswritten for Huncoat, a surname derived from the name of the hamlet of Huncoat near Accrington, one of the few places in East Lancashire mentioned (as Hunicot) in Domesday Book. A family of Huncoats lived in Wiswell, and George Huncote with his mother were assessed to the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1552 and 1553.

3 "Vx christofore Cocke": Christopher Coke with his father were assessed to the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1552 and 1553.

4 "Christofor Greenfild": He was of a family of Greenfields living at Wiswell and Whalley which a century later had attained the rank of gentry; and one of whom, Sir Christopher Greenfield, knt., was a lawyer in Preston temp. William and Mary.

5 "Lawrance Shotteldworthe": A person, probably, of no position, but he may have been remotely connected with one of several good families of Shuttleworths then seated in the Whalley district

" "Penhultonn Towen": The township of Pendleton near Clitheroe in Lancashire derives its name from its situation on the westerly slope of Pendle-hill, the chief mountain of North-East Lancashire, 1,831 feet high. At Pendleton Hall a family of Hoghtons, a branch of Hoghtons of Hoghton Tower, was seated from early in the fifteenth century to the seventeenth. Pendleton is in two parts, designated respectively Great and Little Pendleton. The names of recipients of gifts below are those of the freat and Little rendecton. The names of recipients of girls below are those of the families of tenant farmers and cottagers domiciled in Pendleton in 1569.

2 "Willm Sastanfall et vx": The surname of Sastanstall is not found in the district. It is cognate to that of Saltonstall, owned by a respectable family in the West Riding of Yorkshire; but there occurs an Edward Saltonstall, who, in the 9 Eliz. (1567) disputed possession with Henry Banester and others of lands and tenements in Great and Little Marsden in Ightenhill Manor and Colne Manor. (Cal. to Pleadgs.

Duc. Lanc.)

3 "Rychard Sellere," &c.: These Sellers would be of the same clan with the Sellers of Whalley, previously noticed.

4 "Anthony wamsley": "Wamsley" is an abbreviated vulgarised spelling of the common Lancashire surname of Walmesley or Walmsley.

5 "Lyonell woulton": Lyonell Woulton of Pendleton was assessed to the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1552 and 1553. (Cheth. Miscell. vol. v.)

6 "John Bowker": John Bowker of Pendleton appears on the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1553.

7 "henry Rosse": Ross is not a local surname, and this is evidently miswritten for the Factor Roll of Whalley in 1553.

Rossall; for Henry Rossall of Pendleton occurs on the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1553.

8 "Margeret brockesope": This surname is now generally spelt Broxup.

1 "Margery Sedgreues": Perhaps widow of William Sedgreve of Pendleton, who appears on the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1552.

* "Anne White": A Robert Whippe and an Oliver Whippe, both of Pendleton, occur on the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1553.

* "Lawrance Bouthanton": I think this is a miscopied surname, which should be Bouthman = Boothman, a modern surname found in the hilly country of Pendle Forest, derived, one may suppose, from the occupation of some early progenitor appointed to tend one of those upland farms in the forest called Booths or Vaccaries.

" 'Agnes houghtonn": A poor connexion, may be, of the Hoghtons of Pendleton

⁵ "Rycharde forte et vx": It is not improbable that this Richard Forte of Pendleton was ancestor of a local family of Forte, of the rank of yeomen or chapmen before the latter part of last century, when a representative, Richard Fort, made a fortune by calico-printing, and became the purchaser of Read Hall and Manor, which the Nowells had been forced to alienate. The first of the Forts named in the short pedigree in the new edition of Whitaker's History of Whalley is Richard Forte of Hard, father of Richard the calico-printer. The son of the latter was John Fort, Esq., of Read Hall, M.P. for Clitheroe, 1832-41, whose son, Richard Fort, Esq., also sat in Parliament as member for Clitheroe, 1865-68. Of this family of Fortes was Henry Forte, master of Whelly Company School in 1865-68. of Whalley Grammar School in 1670.

1 "haptonn": Hapton township is situated to the west of Burnley and Towneley; its pasture-lands extend northward from the base of a lofty rugged fell, called Hapton The manor of Hapton belonged to the Towneleys from an early time, and contained an ancient park and a castle; the latter demolished about the sixteenth century; the former extended by Sir John Towneley until the park of Hapton was said to be the most extensive in Lancashire, excepting Knowsley. In the midst of the park Sir John Towneley built a second residence, called Hapton Tower, and there he died in 1539. Tower and park alike have long been destroyed. Hapton was one of the eight townships dependent upon Whalley Parish Church, and is the most distant from that church. Here it is named last among the places under Whalley Parish.

2 "John heyes wieffe": John Hey of Hapton was assessed to the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1552.

3 "Leonard Bertwesill": Leonard Bertwistle, Jenet Bertwistle; their children, Edmund, Leonard, and Ellen; and Margaret Bertwistle below, all may be taken as related to the proprietary family of Birtwistle of Huncoat Hall, a short distance west of Hapton. Edward Birtwistle, Oliver Birtwistle, and John Birtwistle, all of Hapton, appear on the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1552. Richard Birtwistle of Huncoat Hall, gent., who lived temp. Henry VIII., had among his younger children a son Leonard, who might be the Leonard Bertwesill of the present entry.

4 "Brian Shuttellworthe": Shuttleworth Hall in Hapton was the original seat of the Lancashire Shuttleworths; and this Brian Shuttleworth, living in that township in 1569, is pretty certain to have been a not very flourishing branch of the old stem.

5 "Vx" Alexander Ryley": He and the Jenet, Richard, and Henry Ryley, who follow, would be connected with the family of Riley of High Riley in Accrington, of whom was Alexander Ryley of Accrington, gent., living about the end of the sixteenth

6 "Milles Robtes" &c.: "Robtes" is a contraction for Roberts. The surname of Roberts is localised in the vicinity of Burnley. In Hapton, an Edward Robert and an Edmund Robert (Roberts) were assessed to the Easter Roll of Whalley in 1552.

7 "Ellen Stopfforde": This surname is spelt Stopforth in a previous entry on this page. On the Easter Roll of Whalley (1552) occurs "Thomas Stopper" of Hapton.

[&]quot;Raffe Reade," &c.: The surname of these Reades is derived from the name of the township of Read near Whalley. "Ellen Durden": The name is now spelt Duerden, and is common about Burnley.

- ""Bronnley": The name of Burnley was anciently Bronley or Brunley, meaning the low fields by the Brun, which is the name of a mountain stream that here discharges into the Lancashire Calder. The modern large manufacturing town and borough of Burnley occupies the ground of two townships, Burnley and Habergham Eaves. The two lists in our MS. of recipients of gifts of cloth at the hands of the trustees of Robert Nowell's charity, within the two townships of Burnley and Habergham Eaves, contain about 700 names. Very young children were not, as a rule, included in the distribution, I conjecture. A few families of local gentry would not deign to seek the benefit of the bounty. With these exceptions, the lists before us may be supposed to represent nearly the whole of the households of residents in Burnley and Habergham Eaves 300 years ago. The nomenclature is that of the present native population of Burnley. The commonest Burnley surnames, then as now, were those of Parker, Hindle, Robinson, Whitaker, Towneley, Roberts, Wilson, Taylor, Whitham, Whitehead, Smith, Barcroft, Hargreaves, Foulds, Spenser, Hartley, Pollard, Jackson, Bannister, Holgate, Clayton, Ingham, Sagar, Tattersall, Halsted, Boothman, Nutter, Stansfield, Holden, Robertshaw, Riley, Bridge, Fletcher, Cronshaw, Wood, Haydock, Midgley, Aspden, Heap, Greenwood, Eastwood, Leigh, Ormerod, Barnes, Sutcliffe, &c.
- &c.

 2 "Vx' Nicholes Greenshawe": "Greenshawe" is probably miswritten for Grimshaw.

 3 "Vx Willm. Whitaker": The Whitakers were one of the most numerous clans about Burnley at this period. Some scores of them are named in this and the succeeding lists under Habergham, Cliviger, &c. To distinguish most of them is impossible.

1 "Allison Kante": A peculiar name, and not at all a familiar one in Lancashire.

"Altison Ranie": A peculiar name, and not at all a familiar one in Lancasnire. It is perhaps mis-spelt.

2 "John Robartshawe": Some Robertshaws of Burnley, Marsden, and Great Harwood occur later as chapmen and lesser gentry.

3 "Robte Barcrofte," &c.: The local Barcrofts sprung from a stock of gentry, seated at Barcroft Hall in Cliviger, about two miles east from the town of Burnley.

4 "Ux George Hargrewes, sen,": The family of Hargreaves is indigenous to Pendle Forest and the neighbourhood of Burnley, and in recent times has furnished several branches of respectable landed gentry and affluent merchants, such as, Hargreaves of Bank Hall, Burnley; Hargreaves of Broad Oak, Accrington, and Whalley Abbey; of Bank Hair, Buttley, Haigheaves of Bload Oak, Actington, and Whaley Abbey; and Hargreaves of Haslingden.

1 "Vx Ric. Baron": Baron, as I have before mentioned, though a singular surname in England generally, is a rather remarkably common one in the Blackburn and Burnley districts of Lancashire.

2 "James Dichouse": I have never seen the surname of Dichouse in any record of this part of Lancashire excepting in this instance, and I suspect it should be something else here.

3 "Edmunde Spenser": This is one of two or three persons, dwelling in the district of Burnley, who are named in the MS., bearing the same name as the illustrious author of the Faerie Queene; being also contemporary with the poet Edmund Spenser. There can now be no reasonable doubt that the poet was related to the Spensers of this part of East Lancashire. (See Index of Names, s.n., for references to other Spensers of the MS.)

4 "Christofor Jackesonne": See ante, p. 281, for note on a Christopher Jackson, who appears among the chapmen of whom Dean Nowell purchased cloth.

5 "Vx Rychard Thymblie": This surname, now not met with hereabouts, is spelt by our Scribe three various ways, i.e., "Thymblie," "Themblie," and "Thimblie."

1 "Robte hayrope": This surname is correctly Harrop, derived from a place of that name in Craven, in the West Riding of Yorkshire.

2 "John ffletcher": The surname of Fletcher is more frequent in Cheshire than in Lancashire; but a family of tenant farmers or yeomen of this name has been represented Lancashire; but a lamily of tenant farmers or yeomen of this name has been represented in Burnley and Ightenhill Manor for many generations, of which these Fletchers of Burnley, named in the MS., would be members, living in 1569. In the last century, John Fletcher of Ightenhill Park, who died in 1792, was father of another John Fletcher, born in 1760, who was a worsted manufacturer in Burnley.

3 "2x Johannes harteley": Hartley is at the present time one of the commonest and most localised surnames in Burnley and townships adjacent. The John Harteley and Isabell Harteley here named in the text may have been the persons mentioned in a record of a crit in the Chancery Court of Lancaster in the 6 Elizabeth (1564) in which

(Cal. to Pleadgs.)

1 "John Whitaker": See Index of Names, s.n., for references to the numerous families of Whitakers mentioned in the MS.

2 "fohn fletcher": See note on preceding page respecting the Fletchers.
3 "Lawrance yeate, fcolmaister": The Free Grammar School of Burnley existed temp. Edward VI.; and William Whitaker, afterwards famous as Dr. William Whitaker, the Elizabethan scholar and Protestant writer, had the rudiments of his education at this school, under one Mr. Hargreves, the then master. But our MS. here gives the name of a master of Burnley School not found in the list of masters made out by the late Mr. T. T. Wilkinson, F.R.A.S., and printed in the new edition of the History of Whalley. Mr. "Lawrance Yeate, scolmaister" of Burnley, in 1569, may subsequently have been master at Blackburn Grammar School, and if so, he would be the Mr. Yates mentioned in the biography of Rev. Robert Bolton, the Puritan author and divine, as the singular good master there and tutor of Bolton between 1580 and 1590.

4 "Willm Dicksonn Curate": The MS. here, too, adds a lost name to the category of the succession of Ministers of Burnley Church since the Reformation. Mr. William Dickson, curate in 1569, must be inserted between "Sir" John Aspdene, who died in 1567, and "Sir" William Duxbury, who died in 1583.

6 "James Smithlearke": This is plainly a miswriting for James Smith, clerk. He would be the parish clerk of Burnley, and so is named along with the schoolmaster and curate.

6 "Lawrance holgate": The surname of Holgate, a contraction, perhaps, of Holtgate, or of Hall-gate, is often found in the annals of Burnley, down to the present time.

7 "Elizabethe habargham": This female recipient may have been a connexion of the proprietary family of Habergham of Habergham Hall in Habergham Eaves, then represented by Lawrance Habergham, gent., who was connected by his second marriage with the Towneleys. A Robert Habergham of Burnley, and Elizabeth his wife, also occur some years before the date of this MS., and our Elizabeth Habergham, living in 1569, might be widow of Robert.

8 "John Ingham et ux": The principal family of Ingham in Burnley occupied an old house at Fulledge, at the entrance to Towneley Park, in the wall of which is a stone inscribed with the initials "R Y E" (perhaps for Robert and Elizabeth Yngham or Ingham), and the date "1576." It will be observed that among the Inghams on this page of the text occur an Elizabeth and a Robert Ingham.

9 "Isabell Spenser": The mother of Edmund Spenser the poet was named Elizabeth and a Robert Ingham.

beth or Isabell; and here we have an Isabell Spenser (probably then a widow, as no husband is named) living in Burnley in 1569. (See the remark on this entry of Mr. Knowles, cited in our Introduction, p. xxi.) Agnes Spenser, whose name is first on the next page, probably was a daughter of Isabell Spenser. 1 "vx Willm Sager, James Sagere": Below, on this page of the text, are named also Thomas Sager, Robert Sager, and Alice Sager. The Sagers of Lancashire all spring from the district about Burnley. William Sagar, gent., of Catlow near Burnley, occurs in 1590.

2 "Edward fouldes": The local clan of Foulds had at this date and still has its most respectable representative in the family of Foulds of Danes House, a gabled structure, built perhaps about the latter part of the sixteenth century. "William Foldes de Dancer House, gent.," is found on a list of free tenants dated 1584.

3 "Willm Isope": Rather a strange surname, which is not met with locally now.

4 "Anne Blackey": This surname should be Blakey, perhaps. A very old family of inferior gentry or copyholders was that of Blakey of Blakey Hey (now spelled and pronounced Blackho) near Colne, near the road from Colne to Gisburn in Craven.

5 "Ellen Bouthman": See Index of Names, s.n., for a previous note on the probable origin of the name of Boothman.

6 "Willm halsted": The Halsteds of High Halsted, and of Rowley, near Burnley.

6 "Willm halsted": The Halsteds of High Halsted, and of Rowley, near Burnley, a stock of lesser gentry, had no lack of humbler kinsfolk in the neighbourhood.

1 " Fohn Nutter & Robte Nutter": I have before referred to the local Nutters as an old stock of copyholding tenants in Pendle Forest. (Index of Names, s.n.)

I find a Thomas Fletcher among the tenants of Lawrance Habergham and Richard Tattersall, gents., in Burnley and Ightenhill Manor, in 1566.

3 "Towenley howsolde": Here are the names of thirty-eight domestic servants or resident dependants of the Towneleys of Towneley Hall, who each received gifts of cloth. It is noteworthy that thirty of them were men-servants, and only eight females.

4 "Willm Lawe": Perhaps of the Lawes of Whalley and Wiswell. (Index of Names, s.n.) On the last page of the MS. occurs a William Lawe, a poor sick man, to whom Dean Nowell sent money by the hands of his wife, in 1573.

"John Browenbirkes": Brownbirk is now a rare surname in this part of England. 6 "Robte Ingham": One of the Inghams of Fulledge by Towneley Park, before noted, two pages ante.

7 "Elizabethe Whitaker, Margeret Whitakere": Two of the eight maid-servants or attendants at Towneley Hall were of the Whitaker family, not improbably daughters of one of the members of the Holme or Healey Whitakers.

8 "mrs. Towenleys Nurse at the sute of my Ladye Towenleye": The nurse, at the suit of her mistress, had a more handsome gift than the others, namely, 2½ yards of London broad cloth, an expensive fabric which would be much desired by a Lancashire nurse of the period. "My Lady Towenley" was the wife of John Towneley, Esq., Dean Nowell's co-trustee, and being the daughter and sole heir of Sir Richard Towneley, Knt., she was the actual lady of Towneley in her own right, and her cousin and husband John Towneley was only in possession jure uxoris. Mistress Towneley gave birth to her third son, Charles, in November of the year of this entry (1569).

1 "John Parker": The Towneleys had tenants of the name of Parker, and this recipient might be a son of one of them.

2 "John houghtone": I imagine John Houghton was one of the confidential personal servants of John Towneley, Esq., and that it was the same John Houghton who is named frequently in the MS. in company with Dean Nowell's men, James Wolton, Alexander Bradshaw, George Sellers, &c., as witnessing payments of bequests and donations, and occasionally as himself disbursing money on account of Robert Nowell's trust.

Nowell's trust.

3 "Lawrance Towenleye": Three of the male attendants at Towneley Hall bore the name of the lords of Towneley, viz., this Lawrance Towneley, and John Towneley, and Richard Towneley, infra. Each of the trio is likely to have been related to the Master or Mistress of Towneley; the Christian names of John and Richard are among the favourites in the chief lineage of the Towneleys, and that of Lawrence is frequent in the branch of Towneleys of Barnside, to which I think it likely the Lawrence Towneley of this entry belonged.

1 "Habargham Eves, Ightnell Parke, and fillye close": The modern spelling of the names of these places is, Habergham Eaves, Ightenhill Park, and Filley Close. Habergham Eaves is next township to Burnley on the west, and now includes half the borough of Burnley. Ightenhill Park lies immediately to the north of Habergham Eaves. The park was an ancient Royal demesne; but in 1569 the estate belonged to the Towneleys of Towneley. It is now the property of the Shuttleworths of Gawthorpe Hall, whose mansion is on the north-westerly verge of Ightenhill Park. On the summit of Ightenhill the foundations of the King's manor-house of olden time may Park on the north, separated by the river Calder.

2 "John Ingham et vxore," and other Inghams infra. See previous note (p. 357) on the Ingham family of Fulledge, &c.

3 "George halsted et vxor": One of numerous Halsteds in this vicinity, who derived their strictly localised surname from the old estate of High Halsted on the Moors near Worsthorne, a mile or so east of Burnley.

4 "Thoms Tattershall," &c.: This, too, is a surname indigenous to Burnley and the district around. The most important of the Tattersalls were those of Ridge, near Burnley. Richard Tattersall, gent., who died before 1529, was found to have been seized at death of a freehold estate, consisting of messuages, lands, and woodlands in Briercliff and Burnley.

5 "henry foulde," &c.: See three pages ante, Note 2, for a prior reference to the Foulds family.

1 "vx Robte Spensere, Edmuud Spencere," &c.: There are here five persons named Spenser mentioned together, viz., the wife of Robert Spenser, whose husband probably was then dead, and Edmund Spenser, Philip Spenser, Robert Spenser, and Alice Spenser, who were, I dare say, the widow's sons and daughter. It is a conjecture that may be indulged with some reason that these were relatives of the poet Spenser. (See the remarks of Mr. R. B. Knowles on this MS. cited in our Introduction.) Robert Spenser, deceased in 1569, may have been a brother of the father of Edmund Spenser the Poet; and this Edmund Spenser here named his son, a first cousin (as he was namesake) of the author of the Faerie Queene. In generation after generation of these Burnley Spensers, Edmund was a favourite Christian name. Lawrence, Robert, and John were other frequently worn names among these Spensers. Three pages onward in this same list of recipients appears a Jenet Spensere; and for others see six pages ante, and relative note.

2 "Lawrance Parkere" &c.: He was a tenant, perhaps, of Ightenhill Park, of which his ancestors had been, in the Plantagenet time, park-keepers or parkers, hence the surname. The Parkers of Extwistle and Cuerden (now represented by R. Towneley Parker, Esq., and his son Rev. Canon Parker, Vicar of Burnley Church) descend from the ancient Parkers of Ightenhill.

3 "vx Rychard ffouldes": See ante, p. 359, for note on the local family of Foulds.

1 "Rycharde Towenley," &c.: A family of Towneleys in a comparatively humble position, doubtless, and probably tenants on one of the estates of the Towneleys of Towneley Hall, either in Habergham Eaves or Ightenhill Park.

2 "Elizabethe Bradshaye": This is the familiar Lancashire surname now spelled Fradshaw.

""vx Robte whitaker," &c.: The Whitakers of Healey Hall in Habergham Eaves were of the grade of lesser gentry at this period, and of the same stock as the Whitakers of Holme. These recipients of that name living in the same township, viz., the wife of Robert Whitaker, and Lettice, Jane, and George Whitaker, also, infra, the wife of Peter Whitaker, and Richard Whitaker, may be supposed to have been of the same original stock. On the next page are named the members of two other families of Whitaker.

of Whitaker.

4 "vx Edward haddocke": This surname, common in Lancashire, is now usually written Haydock. The Haydocks of Hesandford, near Burnley, were an old stock of respectable gentry, represented in 1569 by Simon Haydock, gent.

5 "vx Thoms ffletcher," &c.: See Index of Names, s.n., for numerous Fletchers in these local lists, and relative note.

6 "Yohn hargere," &c.: I cannot connect this name, as written by the Scribe, with any similar surname, of that period or the present, found in the district.

1 "Richard Miglaye": The name, now written Midgley, is rather common in Lancashire and West Yorkshire.

2 "John Reyshton": The scribe of the MS. generally writes as in this instance the local name of Rishton.

3 "Thoms Whitaker et vx": Dean Nowell, in the dispensation of these gifts, did not overlook many of the numerous households about Burnley whose members bore the name of Whitaker, a name acquired in marriage by his favourite sister, Elizabeth, mother of Dr. William Whitaker. Here we have two more of these families, those of Thomas Whitaker, his wife, and children, Richard, John, Jenet, and Isabel, and of Edward Whitaker, his wife, and children, John, Robert, William, Lawrence, James, Margaret, Johanna, and Marie. A Jenet Whitaker occurs on this page of the text, infra.

4 "Henry Sagere et vx": A family of Sagers of Ightenhill Park occurs some years later than this, of which this Henry Sager may have been an earlier member. See Index of Names, s.n., for others of the name in the MS.

5 "Robte Hargreues": See ante, p. 351, for note on the local clan of Hargreaves.

" "the poor w'thin Clevegere": The name of Cliviger is given to a tract of country between Burnley and Todmorden, in the valley of the Lancashire Calder near its source, to the south-east of Towneley Park. The mansion and estate of Holme, the seat of the Whitaker family to which Dr. William Whitaker belonged, is situate in the district of Cliviger, which a later author of the same family (Dr. T. D. Whitaker, the antiquary) describes as being "in the very gorge of the English Appenine," and interprets its name to mean, in the Saxon etymology, "the rocky district."

2 "Robte Whitaker et vx" I am inclined to think that these recipients were no other than the elder hother of the celebrated William Whitaker, namely. Robert Whitaker.

than the elder brother of the celebrated William Whitaker, namely, Robert Whitaker, son of Thomas Whitaker of Holme, gent. (who was then living), and his wife; and the names which follow either those of Robert Whitaker's children or of his brethren and sisters. See ante, p. 308, and relative note, for a prior entry of gifts of money and cloth by Dean Nowell to "his cosin Robte Whitaker, eldeste son to his sister Elizabethe, his wiffe, and to their children."

3 " Jenet Spensore": Another of the name of Spenser, to be noted with those which occur elsewhere in the MS. (Index of Names, s.n.)

4 "Jenet Osbolstonne": The name is a contracted spelling of Osbaldeston, a surname derived from the township of Osbaldeston in Blackburn Parish.

3 "Rychard Ingham et vx": A Richard Ingham occurs among the local chapmen, dealers in Lancashire cloths, from whom Robert Nowell's Trustees purchased these linen and woollen goods for distribution. See Index of Names, s.n., and also for a former note on the Inghams of Fulledge, &c., in Burnley.

4 "Willm Whitheade senr." &c.: Several persons named Whitehead are entered here

6 "John Whitaker et vx": Another household of Whitakers is here entered, consisting of John Whitaker, his wife, and (probably) his children, Barnard, Richard,

1 "Anne Ormeroode": The Ormerods of Lancashire, from whom descended the accomplished antiquary (only lately deceased), George Ormerod, the historian of Cheshire, sprung from an old freeholding family, seated at Ormerod in Cliviger.

2 "vx Willm Towenley": She seems to have been a widow, and Margaret and Marie Towneley, whose names follow, would be her daughters. That she was remotely akin to the Towneley Hall family may be surmised.

3 "Mills Whitaker et vx: Another household of Whitakers, consisting of Miles

Whitaker, his wife, and children, Robert, John, and Jennet.

4 "Mills Estwoode": The surname of Eastwood, derived from a township called Eastwood, in West Yorkshire, is to the present time a somewhat common one in the district between Burnley and Colne.

S Lawrance Sutclieffe": A family of Sutcliffe is at present found in Burnley.

(200)

"1 "Woorstehorne & hurstwoode": Worsthorne and Hurstwood are two hamlets situate near Burnley on the east, just beyond the bounds of Towneley Park in that direction, and form together one township.

² "Ales Spensere": In the old-fashioned little hamlet of Hurstwood is a house, probably more than 300 years old, which was the residence of a yeoman family of Spensers, conjectured to have been nearly related to the Poet Spenser. In 1560 occurs Edmund Spenser of Hurstwood in a list of freeholders; and in 1584 the same person He and his family do not seem to have received gifts of cloth in this distribution; but I apprehend that "Ales Spensere" of this entry may have been mother or maiden aunt or sister of Edmund Spenser of Hurstwood.

3 Robte Robtes": Robert Roberts sounds like a Welsh name; but I have stated that the surname Roberts has long been prevalent near Burnley.

4 "vx Johannes hurstwood": This resident of Hurstwood bore as his surname the name of the hamlet, in which, doubtless, his ancestors had lived from the time when surnames were generally no more than a description of local attachment, occupation, personal peculiarity, or else a patronymic.

5 "Christofor Jacksonne": See Index of Names, s.n., for a Christopher Jackson elsewhere named in the MS.

1 "Extwisell and Brearclieffe": These two hamlets, Extwistle and Brearcliff or Briercliff, adjoin Worsthorne on the north, and are distant from Burnley two to three miles.

2 "Grace Acrowede": The modern name of Ackroyd or Ecroyd was probably the one here rendered "Acrowede" by the scribe.

3 "vx Willm habargham": His name was that of the neighbouring township of Habergham.

4 "Oliver Parker et vx; John Parker," &c.: The Parkers of Extwistle Hall were the principal resident landowners in this township, whose chief representative in 1569 was Robert Parker, gent. Only one of his sons, John Parker, the heir, is named in the printed pedigree of this family, but he may have had younger children, and the Oliver Parker of this entry, who with his children, John, Jennet, and Elizabeth, received gifts, might be near kin of Robert Parker of Extwistle Hall.

5 "Isabell Whitaker," &c.: Ten persons named Whitaker are here entered in conserver, and formed perhaps two families.

6 "John Spensore": John Spenser of Extwistle must have been some relation of the Spensers of Hurstwood, nigh at hand; perhaps a brother of Edmund, of Hurstwood. See note on the preceding page of annotation.

1 "Robte Barcrofte, Willm Barcrofte, Lawrance Barcrofte": Perhaps these persons were members of the family of Barcroft of Barcroft Hall, in Cliviger. William Barcroft, gent., was in 1569 owner of that estate. His eldest son was Robert Barcroft.

2 "wx Robte Hestwood": This name is elsewhere spelled Estwood = Eastwood.

3 "Billingtonn Towenshipe": Billington is the only township in Blackburn parish whose inhabitants (and only a few of them) shared in this distribution of gifts of cloth. All the other places named are in Whalley parish and its outlying chapelries. Billington lies contiguous to Whalley village and township, separated therefrom by the river Calder Calder.

4 "Margeret Atoughe": This name is now spelled Eatough, but is pronounced

"Atuf" by the commonalty.

1 "Wiggine parishe": i.e., Wigan parish, in West Lancashire. The three entries relating to the parishes of Wigan, Bolton, and Colne are erased in the MS.

2 "Lawrance Nowell Dean of Lytchfilde": It has before been mentioned that Dean Alexander Nowell's brother, Lawrence Nowell, Dean of Lichfield, was one of the three executors under Robert Nowell's Will. He did not often act in the trust, but he seems to have been in Lancashire at this time (June and July, 1569) along with his brother, and to have taken charge of these sums of money for bestowal upon the poor in certain Lancashire parishes.

3 "parishe of Bolton": The parish of Bolton-in-le-Moors, in South Lancashire.

4 "Whalley and Altam Churche": Altham Church is a parochial church in the parish of Whalley, distant from the Mother Church about three miles. The words at the end of the entry, "whoe preacher there," is an inquiry as to who was the curate of Altham. The name of the curate of Altham in 1569 has not been noted.

5 "parishe of Colnne": The parochial chapelry of Colne, at the eastern verge of Whalley Parish, is distant from the Mother Church at Whalley about ten miles.

6 "Margeret Scofild of Ratchdall parishe": See Index of Names, s.n., for other mention and note on the Schofields of Rochdale district.

7 "Lancashire white": This name appears to have been given to a description of woollen cloth, something of the nature of flannel, then woven in Lancashire.

8 "Isabell Durden": This "poor dombe [dumb] woman" is named again three pages onward.

"Thoms Reedfearne..... Rychard Sheparde": For notes on Redfearnes and Chadwicks see Index of Names, s.n.

10 "Elizabethe Dudgdall of Blackeborne parishe": She perhaps was of the Dugdales of Great Harwood, in Blackburn Parish. 11 "higham & Castell parishe": The hamlet of Higham in Pendle Forest is within the extra-parochial tract attached to Clitheroe Castle, and so called Castle Parish.

1 "white Kersey": I think this would be the same sort of woollen cloth elsewhere called "Lancashire white."

2 "poor man of Cletherall pishe": Clitherall = Clitheroe. Nearly all the recipients of gifts named on this, the preceding, and the following pages, are shown by their descriptions to have been persons in poverty and affliction, such as blind, dumb, or aged people, cripples, or destitute of clothing, as the "poor naked boy" of the entry above; and other pitiful objects of charity, found by Dean Nowell or his servants in many and other pitiful objects of charity, found by Dean Nowell or his servants in many parts of East Lancashire.

4 "John wolffinden a poor feolier of Castell parishe": See Index of Names, s.n.

5 "Rychard wadsworthe of clevengere": "Clevengere" is the scribe's mode of writing Cliviger, the district beyond Towneley Park, noted ante, p. 375.

6 "Jenet Shuttellworthe of Dinkley in the parishe of Blackborne": Dinkley is a small township on the left bank of the Ribble in Blackburn Parish, about two miles west from Whalley village.

7 "parishe of heptonstall": Heptonstall is a township some miles eastward from Burnley, in the parish of Halifax, West Riding of Yorkshire.

8 "Lawrance Ridiox of Bronley parishe": "Bronley"=Burnley. The surname here given as Ridiox is the modern Ridihalgh, borne by a family in the vicinity of Burnley at present. Burnley at present.

1 "Raffe Dyedney of hallyfex parishe": "Hallyfex," of course, stands for Halifax. 2 "Raffe Diconsonn of preston": Preston is in West Lancashire, out of the range of the Nowell charities, and this small gratuity to a poor man of Preston probably was given on his own application.

3 "for Rychard Shirbourne man," &c.: Sir Richard Sherburne, Kut., of Stonyhurst, a not distant neighbour of the Nowells of Read. Dean Nowell gave a sum to Sir Richard's man to be presented to a poor maiden on her marriage.

4 "to the Collecters towardes the buyldinge of hodder bridge": There has been a bridge over the river Hodder for the road between Mitton and Stonyhurst, on the ancient route from Yorkshire via Clitheroe to Preston, for many centuries; and this entry in our MS. fixes the date of a rebuilding of this bridge about the year 1569. eighty years after the bridge was thus reconstructed, Cromwell, on his march with his army to intercept the Royalist army under the Duke of Hamilton, on the night before the battle of Preston, halted his columns at this same bridge while he held a council of war to decide whether to march over the Hodder to Preston, or to turn southward and march by Whalley, Blackburn, and Bolton towards the pass of the Mersey at Warrington. A new bridge was built some years ago a few yards above the old one, but the piers and portions of the arches of the latter are yet standing, and form a picturesque object on the river.

6 "James harrwood yt cam frome shr Thoms heskethe": A man-servant coming with some message to Dean Nowell at Read or Towneley from Sir Thomas Hesketh, Knt. of Martholme manor-house (not far from Read) in Great Harwood, and of Rufford in

6 "mr Bannester": He would be Nicholas Banastre, Esq., of Altham Hall, near Whalley.

I fhr Robte Tomlinsonn a poor preste of Cletherall": This poor priest of Clitheroe was not at this time serving the Church there as curate, and it is very likely he was some aged priest of the period before the restoration of the Reformed Church eleven years prior to this date, on the accession of Queen Elizabeth, who was living at Clitheroe out of service and in extreme penury, on whom Dean Nowell had compassion, and sent him six shillings.

8 "the Curet of Midliton": There is no printed list of the curates of Middleton. The Rector of Middleton at this date was, as before noted at page 237, John Asheton.

9 "Tottellworthe parishe": Tottleworth is neither parish nor township, but a small hamlet in the township of Rishton, in the parish of Blackburn. This poor man, Robert Waterhouse, got 5s. by virtue of his claim to have been a godson of Robert Nowell, Esq., the donor of this bounty. 10 "Littell har wood": Little Harwood township, in Blackburn Parish.

" "fente by mrs Morley": She was Isabel, daughter of John Hoghton of Pendleton, gent., and wife, first, of Robert Shuttleworth of Hacking, gent., and, secondly, of Robert Morley of Dinkley Hall, gent. Mrs. Morley died in July, 1584.

12 "hughe wild of holdham": See ante, pp. 299, 301, for note on all the Wilds of this MS.

13 "Ellen Romsden of Rossendell parishe": Ellen Ramsden lived in Rossendale, East Lancashire.

14 "mr Ashton to geue a poor fcoller one Thoms feller": Connect this entry with another at page 216 ante: "To Mr. Ashton of Whallaye to the use of Mr. feller of corpus christie colledge in Oxforde," and see relative note, p. 217.

15 "Blagborne parishe" = Blackburn parish. The native commonalty still pronounce Blackburn as "Blagborn."

16 "iiij women that Broughte wimberies": The small black wild fruit called bilberries in many parts of England are always named "wimberries" in East Lancashire. They are plentiful on some of the local moorlands, and when ripe are gathered for sale by poor women and children.

1 "Totm'den": Meant for Todmorden, a township, and now a considerable manufacturing town, on the Lancashire-Yorkshire border, nine miles east of Burnley.

2 "Marie Cooke of pendlie": i.e., of Pendle Forest.

3 "Georges Norcrosse scholler of Cletherall": This scholar of Clitheroe belonged to a family named Norcrosse in that part of Ribblesdale, of which was Henry Norcrosse, Vicar of Ribchester 1573–1616. The Vicar may, indeed, have been the father of George Norcross the scholar here mentioned.

"Thoms Edliestonne of Waddington parishe": "Edliestonne" is modern Edleston.
Waddington is north of Clitheroe, on the Yorkshire side of the Ribble. A century before this allusion, the fugitive Henry VI. was discovered by his pursuers at Waddington Hall, and captured in the fields hard by.

"marget Aunceworthe of burrie parishe": Read, Margaret Ainsworth of Bury parish, in the county of Lancaster.

of Whalley and Billington.

7 "Isabell Durden a dombe womane": See three pages ante, and relative note,

8 "a poor beger in Brunley churche yearde": The mendicants of the period contrived to put themselves in the way of the good Dean (Nowell) as he went to church or passed along the street. Here occurs a gift to a "poor beggar in Burnley Churchyard."

9 "In Raff Laciester man & his guied yt cam with him": Before, at page 80, I have noted the business relations of Sir Ralph Leicester and Robert Nowell, Esq.

It was, no doubt, with some reference to the matters there mentioned that Sir Ralph Leicester sent his messenger to Dean Nowell at Read or at Towneley, who, not knowing the country, was (as the entry states) accompanied by a guide.

12 "the kep' of the p'ke at shr Thoms heskethe": Sir Thomas Hesketh's demesne lands surrounding his mansion at Martholme, in Great Harwood, Blackburn parish, were at this time emparked, as shown on old maps; and Dean Nowell gave this item to Sir Thomas Hesketh's park keeper. There is now no park at Martholme.

13 "willm Swentlehurste a poor fcoller": He appears again two pages onward.

14 "Rychard Bretherton scholler of Cletherall": This Clitheroe scholar was probably the person of that name, usher of Merchant Taylors' School, named in three entries, ante, p. 162, and see relative note, p. 163. He was, from his name, a Lancashire youth. See again two pages onward.

2 "Georges grey of Rufford parishe": Rufford, the other estate of the Heskeths, in West Lancashire, is situate a little to the northward of Ormskirk, on the road from Preston to Liverpool.

"Ales ffishe of hasslingden parishe": About Haslingden and Darwen, in East Lancashire, the peculiar surname of Fish is yet a common one.

4 "Anne Nowell of Brunley parishe": Some humble and distant kinswoman of the Nowells of Read, perhaps.

5 "Laid out by James wolton": This confidential servant of Dean Nowell distributed the gifts undermentioned. I have named him in the Introduction and in a note at p. the gifts undermentioned. I have named and in the introduction and in a note at p. 7, as most probably the scribe of the MS.

6 "William Cowp singinge mane": Professional minstrels were hired for festal occasions by the gentry of the period; and William Cowp (contraction of Cowper or Cooper) was one of these "singing-men."

1 "hepdenstall parishe": Heptonstall, in West Yorkshire, before mentioned. "Cunlief of Sparthe," &c.: This is a memorandum that Mr. Cunliffe of Sparth. a local chapman, had received by an over-reckoning six shillings too much on account of some parcels of cloth he had delivered to Dean Nowell "at Sir Thomas Hesketh's," i.e., at Martholme manor-house. Sparth is the name of an old messuage and freehold situate in the township of Clayton-in-le-Moors, about three miles from Martholme, four from Read Hall, and five from Whalley. It was the property of a branch of the family of Cunliffe of Cunliffe in Billington, parish of Blackburn (afterwards of Hollins in Accrington, Wycoller Hall, near Colne, and of Liverpool). The "Mr. Cunliffe of Sparthe" of this entry, was probably Robert Cunliffe. The descent of the Cunliffes of Sparth may be thus briefly indicated:—Robert Cunliffe, yeoman, the first of Sparth, of Sparth may be thus briefly indicated:—Robert Cunliffe, yeoman, the first of Sparth, was a younger son of Nicholas Cunliffe of Hollins, by his wife Christabel, daughter of Henry Hindle. Robert Cunliffe, by Grace his wife, had sons, Robert and Christopher. Robert Cunliffe, the father, died in 1563. His son, Robert Cunliffe, of Sparth, the "Mr. Cunliffe" of the MS., died before the year 1600, when Isabell Cunliffe, his widow, paid a gift he had made to Blackburn Grammar School. "Christopher Cunliffe of Sparth, gent.," I think brother of Robert, is so named on a list of free tenants dated 1584. Christopher Cunliffe, gent., of Sparth House, died on the 19th of October, 1614, seized of an estate held in socage, of 73 acres (about 130 statute acres). Ry Inneta his wife, who survived him, he had a son and heir, Robert, aged eleven October, 1614, seized of an estate held in socage, of 73 acres (about 130 statute acres). By Jeneta his wife, who survived him, he had a son and heir, Robert, aged eleven years at the time of his father's death. This was Robert Cunliffe of Sparth, Esq., a prominent Parliamentarian in the Civil War, and a member of Cromwell's "Little Parliament" in 1653. In a pedigree of Cunliffe of Hollins in the new edition of Whitaker's History of Whalley, he is erroneously entered as a younger son of John Cunliffe of Hollins. Robert Cunliffe, Esq., M.P., died December 4th, 1653, leaving a son, Christopher, and a daughter, Jenet. The son, Christopher Cunliffe, gent, died about 1656, without issue, and probably unmarried, and his sister and co-heir, Jenet Cunliffe, married John Grimshaw of Clayton Hall, gent., who died without issue, December 16th, 1663. issue, December 16th, 1663.

3 "mr Ashton of whalley": Richard Ashton of Whalley Abbey, Esq. See ante,

p. 217.

4 "fchollers of Cletherall": Six scholars of Clitheroe Grammar School are named in this entry, viz., Henry Livesey, Richard Bretherton, Henry Tayller, John Lawrance, Willm Swinlehurst, and Richard Hartley. One of them, Richard Bretherton, has been mentioned twice before in the MS., and noted, see the preceding page, and at pp. 162-3; and another, William Swinlehurst, occurs on the preceding page.

6 "Law & John haymond": See Index of Names, s.n. Part of this entry has "Lawrance Whitakeres maid who broughte ij capons & xl egges": Capons (cockchickens) were at this period a usual complimentary present from gentry to each other; and on the occasion of Dean Nowell's sojourn in Lancashire in the summer of 1569, when he probably stayed chiefly with his half-brother and co-trustee, John Towneley, Esq., at Towneley Hall, most of the gentlefolk thereabouts sent him presents of capons and other things named on this and the following page of the text.

2 "Mr. Roger Nowell his wief Daughter": Roger Nowell, Esq., was Dean Nowell's nephew (see the genealogy of the Nowells in our Introduction); but "Mr. Roger Nowell's wife's daughter" of this entry was not Roger Nowell's daughter, but a daughter of Mrs. Nowell by her first husband, Lawrance Starkie of Huntroyd, Esq.;

albeit no daughter of that scion is named in the Starkie pedigree.

3 "Nicholas halsted his wief": The wife, I dare say, of Nicholas Halsted, chapman, who sold several parcels of cloth to Dean Nowell. (See ante, pp. 280, 284, and  "John Narrham wief": See ante, p. 308, and note, p. 309.

* "James whitakeres wief": See ante, pp. 308-9, for another mention of James Whitaker, and relative note.

1 "Mrs. habergham maid": Mrs. Habergham, wife of Richard Habergham, gent., of Habergham Hall, in 1569, was Margaret, daughter of Nicholas Hancock, gent. Her first son, Lawrence, was born in 1556, and she died in 1604.

8 "Mrs. Ratclief mane": Probably this Mrs. Radcliffe was Margaret, wife of Charles Radcliffe of Todmorden, Esq., and daughter of Thomas Savile of Eccesley.

9 "greene geyse" = Green Geese.

10 "Mr. Thoms Towenleys maid": The servant, I conjecture, of Mr. Thomas Towneley of Dutton, near Ribchester, whose grandson, Thomas Towneley of Dutton, died 40 years later, in 1609.

11 "Willm Bolton father": Perhaps he was father of William Bolton, yeoman, of Bank-hey, in Little Harwood, parish of Blackburn, who died in 1594.

this family is given in Mr. Abram's History of Blackburn Parish.

12 "henry Reyley of the green": The Rileys of The Green (a messuage and free-hold in Hoghton, a little to the south of Hoghton Tower) were an old stock of Lancashire yeomen. Henry Ryley del Greene was a juror in 1482, on the Inq. post mort. of Sir Richard Towneley, knt. The herald, Flower, in the Lancashire Visitation of 1567, gives a descent of three generations of this family, beginning with Henry Ryley of the Greene (he would live in the early years of the sixteenth century), whose son and heir, Thomas Ryley, married Jane, daughter and co-heir of James Whitaker of Henthorne, gent., and had issue, sons, Thomas, James, Henry, Hugh Ryley of New Sarum, who was steward to Bishop Jewell (a noteworthy circumstance); and daughters, Elizabeth, wife of John Robinson; Ellen, wife of William Starkie of Twiston; Margaret, wife of George Holroyd of Yorkshire, and Isabel, wife of Henry Salker. So far Flower. A few items about these Rileys are derived from other sources. I think the "Henry Riley of the Green" in 1569, named in this entry of our MS. must have been Henry, third son of Thomas Riley, as above, and brother of Bishop Jewell's steward, Hugh Riley. The elder brother, Thomas Riley de Greene, gent., occurs in a list of free tenants in 1584. He was progenitor of a later Thomas Riley of the Greene, who married Susan, daughter of John Orrell of Turton, Esq., and is named in the Will of her mother, Elizabeth Orrell, widow, dated 1606:—"Unto my daughter Susan, now wiffe of Thomas Riley of the Greene, one silver tune and the third part of all my lynen." (Lanc. Wills, Cheth. Socy., vol. ii, p. 143.) This Thomas Riley, gent., appears in 1621 in a category of freeholders. Perhaps a son, Henry Riley, married, at Blackburn, February 24th, 1622, Elizabeth Mercer.

13 "Rychard marcer": See Index of Names, for several Mercers named in the MS.

14 "Mr. Towenley to make up a some of money," &c.: John Towneley, Esq., Dean Nowell's co-trustee.

15 "my Lady Langhton man who broughte a salmon & ij mortes": Dame Anne Langton, wife of Sir Thomas Langton, Knt., baron of Newton and lord of Walton-inle-Dale (she was daughter of Thomas Talbot, Esq.), was at the date of this reference a widow, her husband, Sir Thomas, having died early in the same year (1569). Lady Langton would be residing at Walton Hall, near Preston, and the present of fish, a salmon and two morts, her man brought to Dean Nowell, would be taken out of the Ribble, in which the Langtons, as lords of Walton, had an ancient fishery privilege. Lady Langton's man also brought a present of "half a bucke" to the Dean, as entered infra on this page. This dame died three years subsequently, in April or May, 1572.

389, ante.
17 "peyzen": The word is intended, I imagine, for "pea-hen." 18 "Mrs. Stansfildes maid whoe broughte a capon & ij chescakes": Mrs. Stansfield was, I think, the widow of Giles Stansfield of Hesandford, near Burnley, whose daughter and heir, Johanna, was wife of Simon Haydocke, gent. Her present, besides a capon, included "two cheesecakes." The same confection was brought by the maid of Lawrance wild. The old fashioned "cheese-cake" was, says Bailey, "a sort of cake made of curds, sugar, butter, and other ingredients."

19 Lawrance wild": The Index of Names, s.n., will give other references to the Wild family, kindred of the Nowells, and our annotation thereupon.

1 "mrs Towenleis maid of the Rayle": I have stated before that the Towneleys of Royle, an estate on the north-west side of Burnley, branched from the Towneleys of Towneley. Edmund Towneley, gent., of Royle in 1569, married Katherine Curzon, and she would be the Mrs. Towneley of the entry before us.

- James for Thoms heskethe minstrell": Sir Thomas Hesketh of Martholme and Rufford, being a knight of good estate and bountiful entertainment, kept a minstrel to Nowell on such an occasion. Sir Thomas Hesketh also kept players at his manor-houses; for Alexander Hoghton, Esq., by his Will, dated Aug., 1581, directed that his brother Thomas Hoghton should have "all my instrumentes belonging to mewsyckes and all maner of play clothes yf he be mynded to keppe and doe keppe players; and yf he wyll not keppe and manteyne playeres then yt ys my wyll that Sr Thomas Heskethe Knyghte shall have the same instrumentes and playe clothes." (Lanc. Wills, Cheth. Socy., vol. ii, p. 238.)

3 "Mr. Bradell men for their paynes": The item was paid for some service to the men of John Braddyll, Esq., of Portfield, the great speculator in monastic estates, temp. Henry VIII. and Eliz. This John Braddyll (who was next neighbour to the Nowells of Read) died in Nov., 1578.

4 "James Chuese wief": The surname is intended for James Chue or Chew, a member of an old yeoman family seated at Elcar and Potter Ford, in Billington, and later at Park Head in Whalley.

6 "keperes of Hapton parke": The men were Mr. John Towneley's keepers of his park at Hapton, west of Towneley Park. (See ante, p. 347.)

1 "Money Geven to the poor of the parishe of Whallay": On this page of the MS. and the next are entered payments of sundry small gifts in money to poor folk in the townships of Whalley, Wiswell, Pendleton, Simonstone, and Padiham. (See former notes on these places ante, under distribution of cloth.)

2 "Mr. Parrys or brother Robte Godfather xxxs.": An interesting item. The recipient of this considerable gift (30s.), equal to about 15% in present money value, was years before, a monk of Whalley Monastery, Vicar of Whalley Church, and receiver of the Rectory of Eccles. This record states that Mr. Paryshe had officiated as godfather to Robert Nowell, the donor of this Bounty, and as the ceremony of Robert Nowell, the donor of this Bounty, and as the ceremony of Robert Nowell, the donor of this Bounty, and as the ceremony of Robert Nowell, the donor of this Bounty, and as the ceremony of Robert Nowell, the donor of this Bounty, and as the ceremony of Robert Nowell, the donor of this Bounty, and as the ceremony of Robert Nowell, the donor of this Bounty, and as the ceremony of Robert Nowell, the donor of this Bounty, and as the ceremony of Robert Nowell, the donor of this Bounty, and as the ceremony of Robert Nowell, the donor of this Bounty, and as the ceremony of Robert Nowell, the donor of this Bounty, and as the ceremony of Robert Nowell, the donor of this Bounty, and as the ceremony of Robert Nowell, the donor of this Bounty, and as the ceremony of Robert Nowell, the donor of this Bounty, and as the ceremony of Robert Nowell, the donor of this Bounty, and as the ceremony of Robert Nowell, the donor of this Bounty, and as the ceremony of Robert Nowell, the donor of this Bounty, and as the ceremony of Robert Nowell and the ceremony of Robert Nowell and the ceremony of Robert Nowell and the ceremony of Robert Nowell and the ceremony of Robert Nowell and the ceremony of Robert Nowell and the ceremony of Robert Nowell and the ceremony of Robert Nowell and the ceremony of Robert Nowell and the ceremony of Robert Nowell and the ceremony of Robert Nowell and the ceremony of Robert Nowell and the ceremony of Robert Nowell and the ceremony of Robert Nowell and the ceremony of Robert Nowell and the ceremony of Robert Nowell and the ceremony of Robert Nowell and the ceremony of Robert Nowell and the ceremony of Robert Nowell and the ceremony of Robert Nowell and the ceremony of Robert Nowell and the ceremony of Robert Nowell and the ceremony of Robert Nowell and the ceremony of Ro Nowell's baptism had taken place some fifty years before the date of this record, Father Parish must have been between 70 and 80 years old, if not older, in 1569, when we find him still living in Whalley, thirty years after his official deprivation. The Valor Ecclesiasticus of 1534-5 records that the Vicarage of Whalley was then "in manibus Roberti Parryshe monachi," who had 121. from the Abbey treasury for his pension as Vicar, and 41. in fees pertaining to his office as receiver of Eccles rectory. There is extant (cited in the History of Whalley, vol. i, p. 87, new edition), "Ane old valuation of the Rectorye of Whalley, under Mr. Roberte Parys handwryting, whoe was a monke of the Abbey of Whalley." He was displaced from his benefice about 1537, when the monastery of Whalley was broken up. Possibly he had a small pension from the new ecclesiastical authority which enabled him to subsist. Dean Nowell's gift, a remembrancer of his sponsorship to Robert Nowell, must have been a godsend to the poor old priest, who in the course of his long life had witnessed such strange events in Church and State. He survived until 1572, and died at Whalley. The burial register of Whalley Church attests the burial, in 1572, of "Robertus Paris, alias Birche, capellanus vet. de Winsum." From this it seems that his real name was Birch, and that of Parys assumed with his monastic habit.

1 "Money geven to dyvers Towens," &c.: Most of the places named below have been met with previously in the MS. and their topography indicated. The sums would be given in small amounts by Dean Nowell and Mr. Towneley's servants to very poor persons in each locality. The places include, the township of Billington in Blackburn Parish; the town of Blackburn; the "castle parish" of Clitheroe; the Yorkshire side of the border hereabouts; the town of Rochdale; the hamlet of Higham in Pendle Forest; the town of Todmorden, north of Rochdale; the parochial chapelry of Newchurch in Pendle Forest; the village of Sabden, near to Newchurch in the Forest; the township of Huncoat, near Accrington; the Forest of Rossendale; and the town of Halifax in Yorkshire.

2 "towardes the mendinge of Sabden bridge": Below the village of Sabden and at the base of the wooded ridge which rises on the north side of Read Park, the old road from Whalley to Padiham crossed the stream called Sabden Brook by a bridge, which was of considerable antiquity; and being in need of repair about the time of Dean Nowell's visit to the ancestral seat, the Dean gave a small sum out of the charitable trust towards the mending of the Sabden Bridge.

1 "A note of the charges in the weste contry," &c.: In June and July, 1569, as we have seen, Dean Nowell was in his native district of East Lancashire, dispensing charities in accordance with his brother's dying request that the poor of those parts might be cared for. In August of the same year he again started from home, in London, upon a journey into the "Weste Contry," i.e., through Berkshire into Wiltshire and Somersetshire. It was about the end of September when he returned home. Dean Nowell was accompanied on this journey by his two kinsmen, Thomas Bowyer, Esq., and Thomas Nowell of Runcton, gent. (whose travelling charges the Dean seems to have paid), and by his four servants, James Wolton, Robert Pickering, Alexander Bradshaw, and John Hoghton. Among the friends the Dean sojourned with in the west were, Mr. John Wolton, his nephew, then rector of Spaxton in the diocese of Wells; "parson Jeninges," and Mr. Perle, "preacher of Salisbury." The Dean's chief object in this tour was, apparently, that of distributing money of his brother's trust in charity, and the large sums entered as laid out by his servants, though no detail of the expenditure is recorded, may be supposed to include many small sums given to deserving indigent persons.

2 "Laid out by Robte Pyckringe": He is described in the first instance of his name occurring in the MS. as "Robte Pyckringe, Mr. Deane of poulls mane" (see ante, p. 32). As a trusty servant of the Dean he had several commissions to pay money on account of this trust; and he received a gift of 40s. for himself on one occasion (see ante, p. 84). In this western journey he laid out on account of his master three sums of 111. 13s. 11d., 101. 10d., and 14s.

3 "Alexander Bradshawe": Another of Dean Nowell's men-servants, noted (ante, p. 33) as having been still in his service in 1592, and a legatee under the Dean's Will. "John Houghton": He occurs frequenter as a witness to gifts, being in the service of Dean Nowell and also, if I am not mistaken, sometime of John Towneley, Esq.

of Dean Nowell, and also, if I am not mistaken, sometime of John Towneley, Esq. 5 "James Wolton": In the Introduction will be found a statement of my reasons for believing that this servant of Dean Nowell (who had previously, too, been Robert Nowell's confidential servant) was the person who kept these accounts of the trust, and the Scribe of the MS. James Wolton is the chief custodian of money and paymaster of the party during this journey, as shown by several entries infra and on the succeeding page. Observe that in the margin below is written: "All these pcell [parcels] laid out and receyved by James [Wolton] dothe apper by his bill of accompte," and opposite this is entered a payment by the said James, "to my m' in gold at m' Jeninges his house," &c. The words "to my master" could thus only have been written in the MS. by James Wolton in this instance, and the handwriting here is that of the whole MS., excepting a few entries noticed as being in Dean Nowell's own handwriting. James Wolton was brother of John Wolton, Bishop of Exeter. (See ante, notes at p. 7 and p. 267.)

6 " the mene of Bridgewattere": At Bridgewater, in Somersetshire, James Wolton was almoner for the Dean of a sum of 81. dispensed to the inhabitants.

7 "at mr. Jeninges his house": See entry on next page, and relative note.

8 "To mr Bowyer," and "mr Thoms Bowyer," infra: I may insert here a short account of the family of the Bowyers of London, &c., several of whom have been met with in the MS. At page 261 ante, and in the Introduction, is pointed out the connexion by marriage of this Thomas Bowyer, who was a lawyer of the Inner Temple, with Dean Nowell and the Dean's first cousin, Thomas Nowell of Runcton. genealogy of the Bowyers at this period is as follows; a portion of which is from Harl. MS. f. 159: William Bowyer, Esq., of Petworth, in the county of Sussex, had issue four sons, viz., Thomas, eldest son and heir, Robert, John, and Edmund Bowyer. Taking first the record of the younger sons—Robert Bowyer of Chichester, second son of William, had issue, sons, Robert Bowyer, his heir (married Ann, daughter of Groner of Tempelytton, and had daughters, Margaret, Martha, Elizabeth, and Ann); John Bowyer (who had a son John Bowyer); Francis Bowyer, citizen of London, third son of Robert (who married Elizabeth, daughter of Tilworth of London); William Bowyer, fourth son (married Ann, daughter of Sir John Harcourt); and Henry Bowyer, fifth son. John Bowyer of Petworth, third son of the first named William Bowyer, married Margaret, daughter of Darkley of Winchelsea, and had a son, William Bowyer of Petworth (who married Eve, daughter of the heirs of Hemerford of Somersetshire, and had recorded issue a daughter, Grace Bowyer); and daughters, Parnell (wife of Thomas Atkinson, who had a daughter, Benedicta); Rose (wife of Symond Marston, and mother of James Marston); and Alice (wife of Mr. Richard Mills, who had a daughter, Mary). I now come to the senior descent of the Bowyers, with which we are more particularly concerned here. Thomas Bowyer, Esq., citizen and grocer, of London (first son of William Bowyer of Petworth), married Jane, daughter of Robert Merry of Hatfield, Esq., and had issue, sons, Thomas Bowyer, eldest and heir (of whom see below); and Richard Bowyer, citizen and grocer, of London; and a daughter, Joan Bowyer, who married, first, George Cassey of London, grocer (who died 20th August, 1568, leaving a son, Robert Cassey), and, secondly, Thomas Nowell of Runcton, gent. (see p. 261, ante), and died 24th September, 1584. The father, Thomas Bowyer, Citizen and grocer of London, died 13th September, 1568, and was buried at North Mundham, in the county of Sussex. His widow, Joan Bowyer, afterwards married Alexander Nowell, Dean of St. Paul's, and died in August, 1579, and was buried at North Mundham 14th August. Her son, and Dean Novell's stepson, Thomas Bowyer of the Inner Temple (named here in the text and often elsewhere in the MS.), married Mawdelyn, daughter of Bartholomew Treheron, the eminent Protestant divine, who died in exile temp. Mary.

Mawdelyn Bowyer had a sister, Dorothy Treheron, who is named in the MS. (p. 108), on the occasion of her marriage, when Dean Nowell sent her a gift by the hands of her sister's husband:—"To Thoms Bowyere towards the marriage of Dorethe Treherone the 16 of Novembr A. 1569, 6l. 13s. 4d." Thomas Bowyer's wife is named early in the MS. (see p. 6) as "Magdaline Bowyere"; but when annotating that portion of the text I was not in possession of the facts now Mrs. Bowyer of the Old Jury (wife, I think, of presented about the Bowyer family. Mrs. Bowyer of the Old Jury (wife, I think, of Francis Bowyer, cousin of Thomas Bowyer, of the Inner Temple), is named on the Concerning the posterity (if any) of the last-named Thomas Bowyer I same page. lack information.

4 "my old mr Godsonn one clevengere": The Scribe speaks of Robert Nowell, Esq., as his "old master," which tends to confirm my notion that he was none other than James Wolton, who had been Robert Nowell's man before he was Dean Nowell's. The "godson" is unknown. Perhaps his name was not "Clevengere" but Cliviger, derived from the district of that name in Lancashire.

6 "John wolton & his father-in-law": John Wolton, then rector of Spaxton, subsequently Bishop of Exeter, of whose career and family I have given an account (see ante, pp. 267-269). His father-in-law, named along with him in the present reference, was a clergyman; his name I have not ascertained.

6 "p'son Jeninges his wief": On preceding page is another reference to Parson

7 "To James Reedfearne at Welse": "Welse," no doubt, stands for Wells in our Scribe's peculiar spelling.

Notes and Illustrations

8 "mr Thoms Bowyer & mr Thoms Nowell": As to Mr. Thomas Bowyer, see note supra, and respecting Mr. Thomas Nowell (of Runcton), see note at p. 261. 9 "10 iij scholleres at Salisbury, one Christofor Whither, Ambrose Rogeres & John Wattes": Of this trio of Salisbury scholars, the first, Christopher Wither, I do not identify; Ambrose Rogers has before occurred in the MS., and has been noted as a younger son of the eminent John Rogers (see ante, pp. 160-1, 212-13, 225). John Watts may have been the son of Richard Watts of London, Taylor, named twice in the MS. ante, at p. 196.

16 "mr Perle, preacher of Salysbury": I find no information at hand respecting this

ii "mr Dyare": Named before in the MS. as Mr. Dyer. (See p. 274.)

12 "to Kerrie & his wiefe at Neweberrie": Probably Humphrey Kerry, named at pp. 4, 40, 76, 110, 274. Humphrey Kerrie and Margery his wife are named in Robert Nowell's Will as legatees (see the Will in the Introduction). Humphrey Kerry was "Humfrey Kerrie verger" (p. 40). Newberrie, where he had this payment of 10s., was, I presume, Newbury in Berkshire.

13 "to the mendinge of the way at Bridge watere": Finding the highway at Bridge-water in bad condition, no doubt, Dean Nowell gave the town authorities a handsome

(216)

1 "To a poor Wyddowe," &c.: This last leaf of the MS. appears to have got out of its original place in the accounts, for the items belong to a different set of payments to those foregoing, and to a date four years later (1573). Mrs. Strange, the "poor wyddowe," is unknown.

2 "Nicholes Reyshton . . . . . from the Baythe": This poor sick man bears a Lancashire name (Rishton), although he had come up to London from Bath ("the Baythe"), whither, perhaps, he had resorted on account of his disorder.

3 "mrs Bartlete u poor uvyddouw": She occurs before (p. 128) as "good wief Bartlet" and as "Bartlettes wieff"; and at p. 156, as "meistres Bartlett."

4 "mrs Rawcrosse": Probably the same with "Mrs. Rowcrofte" of an earlier entry (p. 158).

6 "Rychard Newe a poor fyshemongere": Meant for Richard Neve, fishmonger, (Index several times met with and noted as connected by marriage with the Nowells. of Names, s.n.)

6 "wieffe of one harmane Barkstede," &c.: Some poor woman, wife perhaps, of a foreign Protestant refugee (for the Christian name, Herman, is a foreign one), whom

Mr. Lawrence Nowell, Dean of Lichfield, had commended to his brother's notice.

7 "geven by my mr to a poor man," &c.: This gratuity was given by Dean Nowell at an "offring" (offering or collection) at Hatfilde (Hatfield, in Hertfordshire), to a poor man who had been burnt out of his house.

8 "mr ffoxe of Cheapesyde," &c.: The Foxes of London are several times mentioned in the MS. (Index of Names, s.n.) I conjecture they were of the same family with, and perhaps nearly related to, John Foxe the Martyrologist, who was then also living in London, and, we may be sure, a good friend of Dean Nowell's. The Mr. Foxe of Cheapside of the present entry had this gift "when he wente towardes Irelande."

9 "imr Stowarde a bookbynder in London": A poor journeyman bookbinder, who, one can suppose, had become known to the Dean of St. Paul's by repairing the covers of old tomes in his library, and now was out of occupation and in need of charity.

10 "psonne of wydeforde": As this entry and the one below it are identical, excepting that, in the first, the man who lacked service had come with the "parson of Wydeforde," and, in the second, "with Mr. Wallwyne," I conclude that Mr. Wallwyne was the same person with the parson of Wydford (probably Widford near Chelmsford, in Essex).

"Henry ducker," &c.: Described as a poor sick man, lying sick at Greenwych (Greenwich).

1 "a poor servinge mane," &c.: His name was Richard Walton, and he was commended by Mr. Tunstall. Mr. Tunstall might be some kinsman of Francis Tunstall, Esq., then of Thurland Castle, in Lonsdale, in the county of Lancaster.

2 "a poor p'soner one Philip Bambrige": I do not think these poor prisoners helped by Dean Nowell were ordinary offenders against the law. It is more likely they were honest and worthy persons who had been incarcerated either for debt through misfortune, or possibly for their religious opinions. The remark applies to the poor prisoner Philip Bambridge of this entry, and to Thomas Lewes, prisoner in the Marshalsea, and one "Thirsbye a yonge mane a p'soner" of two other entries infra.

3 "dyvers other poore by Rychard Smythe, Alexander Bradshowe": Richard Smith

poor persons.

4 "mr wyclieff & mr clearke": Persons of repute in London, friends of Dean Nowell, probably clergymen, though I cannot identify them. An Alexander Wyclief occurs ante, p. 276; the second, Mr. Clearke, might be the Nicholas Clearke, named as a "poor minister," ante, p. 124, or even Dr. Bartholomew Clerke, Dean of Arches, &c.

5 "iii poore shypp men of Sussex robbed by pyrattes": Pirates in that age infested many of the seas in which English ships of commerce entered, and these four poor shipmen (mariners) of Sussex had reached their native shore destitute, after being plundered by the pirates.

6 "George Gylpyn a decayed m'chante": This decayed London merchant was of an earlier generation than his namesake, John Gilpin of Cowper's ballad, the "linen-draper bold," of "credit and renown." It is pleasing to know that the fortunes of the Gilpins looked up between the time of the decayed merchant, George Gylpyn, and of the prosperous John Gilpin.

1" Abrahame fowler": This entry is erased. Abraham Fowler, a protege of Dean Nowell, occurs frequenter in the MS., and has been noted at p. 197. (For other

They had a grant of lands there about 1300, and continued seated there till about 1710, when John Grimsdich, the then representative of the family, sold the estates. They do not appear to have entered at any of the Cheshire Visitations, and their pedigree has not been worked out. The Mr. Grimsdich of 1573 was probably the same as 'John Grimsdiche of Grimsdiche, Esq.,' who occurs in a list of Cheshire gentry in 1579."

INDEX OF PERSONS.

 It should be pointed out that in the frequent instances in which a person is named more than once on the same page the single entry in the Index is meant to cover each of such references. Also, that where several persons of the same name appear in the text, whom it would not be convenient to distinguish in the Index, one insertion of the name has been deemed sufficient. For example, the name Roger Nowell belongs to several representatives in the Nowell genealogy; yet we have not deemed it requisite to attempt to mark each member out in indexing, but have attached all the references to the one entry of that name. For most practical uses this will be found enough. But persons of historical distinction, e.g., Edmund Spenser, the Poet, have been carefully entered in the Index apart from others of similar name who may occur.
